Last year fire waste cost each Alberta family $26.05 plus protection costs. The best way to cut this expense is to prevent fires from starting. A total of 35 lives were taken last year by fire. Many of these lives could have been saved if people knew how to protect themselves against fire.

This week, all fire chiefs throughout the province will be conducting inspections to discover the probability of fire safety with home owners. These can be arranged with local fire departments so that everyone can become acquainted with all the facts on fire prevention.

FARM LABOR

Almost all the 625 harvest workers who came to Alberta this year were recruited in Ontario and in Western Quebec, according to Mr. H. Hampson, Secretary of the Provincial Farm Labor committee.

He foresees good an to point out that favorable weather during the early stages of harvest greatly facilitated this work. With the recent rainy weather many of them have returned to their homes in the East.

For the last 49 to 50 years it has been customary to recruit harvest workers from Eastern Canada to assist with the normal harvest in Western Canada. In the early days this took the form of a harvest excursion and in those days the demand for harvesters was quite high. In years of good crops as many as 10,000 to 20,000 workers may have come forward. These were the days of the binder when all the crop was stooked, and also the days of the thresher, some gangs employed as many as 20 to 30 men.

The mechanization of harvest operations has reduced and is still reducing the number of men required. In a normal year Alberta requires less than 1000 men from outside the province

BAKE DOUGHNUTS FOR HALLOWEEN

Halloween means cooked delicacies, of course, and here is one for the cookie collection.

Prize for outside of homemade doughnuts goes to Mrs. Ralph Douglas of Lacombe, Alta., who used a cookie cutter to make the doughnuts extra attractive.

Many Interesting Projects At Board Of Trade Meetings

Many interesting projects have been discussed, proceeded with, or shelved, as the case may be at regular meetings of Board of Trade. At the meeting held on Oct. 5th past president D. R. Hamilton was re-chairman and there were 26 members present.

MR. KEITH CHALMERS

Mr Keith Chalmers introduced Mr. Don Keen from Olds who is located in Vermilion with the Veterans' Land Act succeeding Mr. L. Amos who has been superannuated.

Mr Rossquist introduced Mr. Art Collins from Vegreville, associated with Canadian Utilities Ltd. The chairman welcomed Mr. Mel Warren, agent for the Manufacturers' Life Assurance Co.

The chairman also welcomed back to the luncheons and members Mitch Adams, Neil MacLean and Roy Walker.

The matter of 'Vermilion' appearing on the government road maps on highway 16 was referred back to the Roads Committee.

STEAM LAUNDRY

M. Keith Chalmers, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, gave an interim report from his committee in regard to the establishment of a steam laundry here. He reported his committee, after inquiries, was of the opinion there was sufficient demand for such a service here.

The chairman asked Mr. Chalmers to continue investigation on this matter and to contact the Chairman of the Industrial Committee, Mr. Tom MacPherson in connection therewith, and report again to the Board.

CONTROL OF RATS

The Board had as its guest speaker Mr. Bert Hozack of Kitscoty, Rural Supervisor of the M.D. of Vermilion River. Mr. Hesnck was introduced by Mr. Buckingham.

Mr Hesnck spoke on the subject of the 'Rat Menace' and the 'Control of Rats' in town such as Vermilion. He said he had investigated the lots and backyards of Vermilion and the possible places in which rats would harbor and he found many places where such conditions existed. He recommended the same should be eradicated and suggested that Vermilion should put busy now in order to insure that backyards were as clean as front yards, the garbage being in proper barring any rubbish, piles of lumber, or other places in which rats could harbor, particularly close to buildings.

Mr. Hesnck stated that it had been proved rats in a business place, cause damage to the tune of around $200 a month.

Mr Hesnck offered to bring 3 films showing the rat menace and how to control the same. He said if the Board sponsor and if the Board would arrange for a place to show these films he would be glad to do so.

The chairman thanked Mr. Hesnck for a very timely and informative address.

FARMERS' BANQUET

The annual Board of Trade Agricultural dinner will take place early in November As this is Jubilee year the speaker will be Mr. James G. McGregor, President of the Alberta Historical Association. The dinner will be held at the Anglican church parish hall and full particulars will be published in the Standard at a later date.

RETURNS FROM CONFERENCE

At the meeting on Wednesday Dr. A. Ben King was in the chair and referred briefly to his trip as delegate to the annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Winnipeg last week. Dr. King will give a more detailed report of this important conference at the coming forst meeting.

Another newcomer to the Board of Trade luncheons was Mr. Lamb in charge of the Salvation Army work here. He was introduced by Rev. J. W. Fowler.

At the meeting next week the Board will discuss action regarding the rat menace with a view to what specific items preventative measures should be taken. It is hoped that recommendations will be made to the town council for consideration.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Terrible Toothache

Our teeth are among our most valuable properties, but too often they fail prey to the excruciating pain called toothache. Persistent history, man has searched for relief from the pain of rotted teeth

In the middle ages quacksalve and forers stranded to the market place when the dentist—they were mostly itinerants then—came to town and there—to the blast of trumpets and cries of clowns — had his trouble-some teeth torn from his gums.

The quacksalve had good reason to trust that extraction was a painful and dangerous practice

Before allowing themselves to fall into the clutches of a 'dark ages' dentist, they would first try such remedies as flax. fig, pepper, tree's was earthworm, arsenic gold and lime mud

Thanks to modern medicine and dentistry, these remedies largely ineffective, have been relegated to the history books

Dental techniques have made extraction almost painless and perhaps more important we have learned that proper care of teeth can prevent decay

In the past 10 years dentists have been able to control the cause of decay, beating to control and prevent serious development of the mouth and gums

Tetracyn, the newest of the broad spectrum antibiotics has proved powerful in emergencies and Terramycin as an effective tonic from long dental treatment failure

Two dental researchers at North western University recently reported that Tetracyn is effective in the prevention and treatment of infections and post-operative complications

According to Drs. Howard S. Feldman and Joseph C. Caldwell, the antibiotic quickly reduced high temperatures in 20 patients under their care and aided in their recovery

F. U. A. Demands That Liberals Adopt Grain Sales Policy

Henry Young President of the F.U.A. who has recently returned from Saskatoon, has issued the following statement from F. U. A. headquarters.

The Saskatoon Grain Marketing Conference on Sept. 27 and 28 has made history. At this Conference, called by the Farm Unions, representatives of a dozen organizations came together along with the Agriculture Ministers of two provinces to consider the emergency caused by the grain marketing mess. At this gathering besides the Unions and farm co-operatives, the Implement Dealers Assoc., the Chamber of Commerce and even Labor Unions were represented.

All were agreed on two things: first, that emergency assistance must be given grain farmers in the form of advances on grain stored on farms, and second, that a more aggressive selling policy should be adopted by the Federal government.

It was made clear that this does not mean any fire sale policy. On the contrary the Conference was definite that operating under the Canadian levels of costs the farmer cannot stand a further reduction of prices without disaster. The Conference was also unanimous in support of the Canadian Wheat Board system of marketing Canadian grain. A domestic price of wheat based on Canadian costs, and the talking price of the grain carryover as a national responsibility were also favored by all present.

Definite proposals for pushing the sale of Canadian grain were made as follows:

1 Extending credits to other nations for the purchase of grain

2 Barter trading where necessary.

3 Canadian grain to be made available for famine relief programs.

4 An aggressive sales promotion by increased sales personnel and trade delegations.

5 Intensified scientific research to find other profitable uses for Canadian grain.

The Conference was remarkable for the high measure of agreement which was reached among representatives of so many different organizations together with the provincial Ministers of Agriculture. This fact should impress the Federal authorities with the need for immediate action.

As the outcome of this Conference, it is expected that the Provincial Minister of Agriculture for Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will head a delegation to Ottawa very soon to press for action on the decisions of the Conference. This delegation will include representatives of the Farm Unions and probably some of the other organizations taking part in the Conference.

PROTECTING CAR PANEL SIDES

The loss of fertile top and through wind and water erosion is one of the most serious problems facing agriculture in Canada today. Approximately 1,000,000 acres of land are lost annually from this cause. A careful study of our waters and soils will tell us that, if properly farmed, they are capable of producing profitable crops indefinitely. This is true, however, only if we have our soil at home—if we prevent wind and water erosion. A great deal of research and experimental work has been done in finding out ways and means of preventing erosion. It can be prevented.

A New Circular, in an attempt to acquaint the public with and examine the important practices in soil protection, the Line Elevators Farm Service has just published a circular entitled "Protect Fertile Soil—Prevention Beats Cure". Some of the important topics discussed in the new publication are: (1) Prevention of soil drifting by keeping the use of trash cover, (2) Strip cropping to reduce wind and crop yields (3) Preventing water erosion by controlling the use of trash cover, the effect of land markings on soil structure, terracing, (4) Summer fallowing and (5) Fall tillage. (6) The value of crop rotations and the effect of grasses and legumes on soil structure and productivity. (7) The use of commercial fertilizers.

The above are only a few of the main topics discussed. The new circular is available to all farmers and provides confronting workers with practical information on soil drifting. We feel and sincerely hope that the endorsement up-to-date information it contains will be of great assistance to all those interested in protecting our Prairie soils.

Free copies of the circular may be obtained from the local agent of any of the Line Elevator Companies or from the Line Elevators Farm Service Bureau, Winnipeg, Regina and Calgary.

They are here at last!

Thursday, Oct. 13, 1955 was the occasion when the weather in most parts of Alberta changed from the hot and dry pattern which had prevailed throughout the summer to the cool and damp pattern which is the usual weather of the second harvest.

Below is the first step in the improved harvest and the beginning of the beautiful weather that benefits every Canadian.

For those like this, even though uniform, are too small for bushes. (Photo by MALAK, Ottawa)

Out of 2,574 fires reported in Alberta last year two-thirds of them occurred in homes. Think carefully how best to avoid fire loss in your home. Careless smoking is your greatest enemy. Death of Arthur Gould 40, At Vancouver

Word of the death of a former Islay man, Arthur Lewis Gould, aged 40 years, was received here with considerable shock during the past week. He passed away on October 5th at Shaughnessy hospital, Vancouver, following a lengthy illness, suffering from cancer.

"Art," as he was so well known in Vermilion and Islay, was the son of Mr. Thomas A. Gould of Victoria and the late Mrs. Gould, who for many years lived in the Pleasant Valley district. He was born at Vermilion, attended the Morrison rural school and the Vermilion high school. While at the latter he was quite prominent in track and field sports and was a winner of the Morrison three-mile road race. Mon. to the end he joined the R.C.N.V.R. as a Chief Petty Officer with [illegible]

On March 15, 1941 he married Muriel Jean Taggart of Victoria. After receiving his discharge they made their home in Vancouver and three children were born to them, Geoffrey 10 years, Cary 6 years and Wendy 2 years. He is also survived by his father Thomas A. Gould of Victoria, and one sister, Mr. L. (Dorothy) Ambrose of Victoria.

Funeral services were held Friday, October 7th from the Royal Oak Funeral Chapel, Burnaby, B.C. with interment taking place at Ocean View Burial Park.

As there is much to be done to fight cancer, it was the wish of the deceased that any token to his memory be made to the cancer fund.

Can We Reduce Sudden Death On Canadian Farms?

Despite its advantages, farming is not a safe occupation, points out the National Safety Council.

Accidental death comes to Canadian farmers twice as often as it does to those engaged in trade. Last year three farmers died from accidents for every fisherman or lumberjack. The accident mortality rate on farms is 24 times as great as that in its nearest industrial rival.

The Department of Labour, Ottawa, source of this information on fatal accidents, gives their cause. While angry animals, such as cattle and horses, kill some farmers every year, and while lightning strikes the occasional fatal blow, the greatest single source of accidental death is on the farm is machinery.

Tractors and locomotives, cars and trucks collide or topple or crush. Belts and pulleys also take their toll. The threat of machinery is not likely to diminish, points out the National Safety Council, as farms increasingly become mechanized.

Now that a knowledge of machinery as well as of stock breeding, soil conservation, and marketing is required of the farmer, might he not take a leaf from the book of the professional mechanic? If he does, he [illegible] as he is now doing his life upon.

Mechanics and others employed in large factories today know that it does not pay to work at a steady grind hour after hour. Their employers know it, too. Consequently the coffee break has come [illegible]

Careless and negligent smoking habits, misuse and careless handling of flammable liquids, and misuse of heating equipment are hazards which can be avoided.

A regular part of factory practice is: At 10 30 in the morning and 3 in the afternoon, workers in many plants shut off their machines, take a stroll, a cup of coffee, stretch their legs, and exchange conversation with their fellows. The word "break" relaxes and refreshes, thus enabling them to banish fatigue.

Fatigue many observers suggest is the basic cause of many [illegible] It is not so much that machines get out of kilter. It is human error once that has a limit. Fatigued a man gets careless and irresponsible by becomes accident prone.

Inattention, even a momentary period of day-dreaming or a brief disregard of safety rules may lead to sudden death on the farm as elsewhere. The rural adoption of the coffee break according to safety experts may lessen the risk and reduce the number of accidental deaths on Canadian farms which stood at 1074 in 1954 according to preliminary official figures.

MASTER FARM FAMILY AWARDS

Three rural Alberta families have been selected as Master Farm Families for 1955 according to an announcement made this week by Hon. L. C. Halmrast, Minister of Agriculture.

This year's winners are: F. E. le Robinson Family, Fletcher Creek; R. O Brown Family, Acme; Chris Schneider Family, Vegreville.

Each family will receive an award of $150, an engraved plaque and a Master Farm Family name plate for their farmstead entrance. This is the seventh year that the program has been sponsored by the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

The main objective of the program is to provide Alberta farmers with a practical demonstration of how a family can achieve success in farming and in family and community life. The awards are based upon the concepts of good farming, right living and clear thinking. In all cases, winning families provide excellent demonstrations of the value of proper farm management in shaping a happy and fruitful life.

The three 1955 Master Farm Families will receive their awards in local ceremonies.

A son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schneider, Cora and Walter, are graduates of the Vermilion School of Agriculture.

Former Vermilion Man Suffers Huge Fire Loss in Calif.

Mr. R. A. 'Bob' Bowman's furniture store was practically a total loss by fire on Sept. 29 according to word received here. The 'DB' furniture store located in downtown Placentia, Calif., was destroyed by flames which had started in a compressor of an icehouse plant adjacent to the furniture store. The first estimates placed the loss at $100,000 sustained by the furniture store the icehouse plant and a nearby service station.

The store was a total loss with nothing remaining but a twisted mass of corrugated metal, caved-in roof and charred furniture, although the front part of the showroom may have some salvage value.

Bob was able to remove some valuable office records, but the chemical from the icehouse seemed to explode the fire onto his store, and he wasn't able to enter the burning building again.

Bob Bowman received his education in Vermilion, and shortly after graduating from high school here, moved to California. Many of the Bowman relatives however still live in the Vermilion district.

Mrs. Bowman is the former Agnes Stephens, daughter of Mrs. H. N. Stephens of Vermilion.

Square Dance Notes From Circle 8

Our regular dance last Thursday was an unqualified success from all angles. We had a large, lively crowd, with visiting dancers from all neighboring clubs. One couple came all the way from St Paul and said they would be back regularly from now on. Our boy Harold seemed to be having as much fun calling for us as we did dancing.

We your executive, would once more like to impress upon all 8 members that this is your club, and its continued success depends entirely on the support you, the members, give it. The executive have tried to choose nights for our dances that will conflict with the least number of local activities. It is of course impossible to avoid all town events but we feel that the first and third Thursdays are best nights possible.

The new fall class of square dance lessons will go on just as soon as you, the members, bring in sufficient new people to make it possible to start. Everyone must have at least one friend who would like to join in the fun of square dancing, so tell them about it, or pick up the phone, call Gerald Stephens and tell him who they are. There is no other form of modern entertainment, winter or summer that will give as much pure, clean fun, for such a small outlay of cash as square dancing.

Looking ahead to coming events, in Lloydminster's new school auditorium, on Friday, Nov 25 there will be a mammoth Jamboree, with five well known callers in attendance. Tickets will be on sale in the near future.

Our next regular dance is Thursday Oct 20. Harold will be calling. We would like very much to see all our original members out for this dance — that's next Thursday.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

No Link Between Treasury Branches And Government Highway Contracts

EDMONTON. — If last week is any indication, the royal commission investigation into the affairs of the Alberta government will be in progress for several months, and it might be more than a year before a report is presented to the cabinet.

The five-man commission, headed by Mr. Justice Hugh John Macdonald, opened public hearings in the capital city last week, with a detailed examination of highway contracts awarded during the past 15 years. At the end of five days of sittings, there was still a long way to go.

In fact, the investigation to date has been a slow, plodding affair, totally lacking in the excitement the public was led to expect. The evidence has been weighty and technical, with a great volume of long and involved exhibits setting out details of contracts. However, there is plenty of time left, and there could be fireworks before it is over.

Much of the evidence heard during the week concerned the highway department and the provincial treasury branches. Two top officials of the department — Deputy Minister Alex Frame and Chief Construction Engineer A. M. Paull — testified they know of no link between the treasury branches and the awarding of highway contracts.

It will be recalled that during the election campaign Liberal leader J. Harper Prowse suggested a possible link. He asked if the highways department showed preference in awarding contracts to companies heavily indebted to the treasury branches, in order that the debt could be paid and the branches spared the embarrassment of bad lending.

While any connection has been denied, the commission did receive evidence that some 11 contractors have been indebted to the treasury branches during the past 15 years, and have received government road contracts.

There was also evidence that one contracting firm started road work before actually being awarded a contract. Two specific cases were brought to light. Both involved the same contractor, and the contracts were for work on the road from Edmonton to Clyde Corner, in 1947 and 1948.

In each case, the contract was held up on a technicality because the contractor had not yet posted an indemnity bond. Even though the government had accepted the company's bid on the 1947 contract, and negotiated a contract with the firm on the 1948 work, no contract exists legally until the bond is posted. In both cases, gravel crushing was started before the contracts were completed.

ALL AVAILABLE INFORMATION PRESENTED

S. J. Helman, government counsel, told the commission at the start he would do everything in his power to present all available information. In this endeavor, he is being assisted by J. H. V. Milvain, counsel for the Alberta Liberal Association.

All the evidence about work being started before contracts were completed, came out in cross-examination by Mr. Milvain. In addition to that, he is spending afternoons and evenings giving close study to the reams of documentary evidence produced by Mr. Helman.

When the investigation of highway contracts is completed, the commission will move to other items outlined in the terms of reference. These include the procedure of treasury branches in making loans to members of the legislature; awarding of public works contracts; use of certain materials in government buildings; government real estate transactions, and an exchange of mineral rights between the crown and Premier Manning on his farm near Edmonton.

All the items listed under the terms of reference arise from charges and barbed questions hurled by the opposition during the spring session of the Legislature and the campaign preceding the June 29th election.

At the height of the campaign, Premier Manning promised a "full and impartial" investigation of the charges. The investigation has now started, and the political future of Alberta probably hinges on the outcome.

LOST: A set of right hand side curtains for Ford car, near Vermilion. Suitable reward.

The Ladies' Aid of the North Vermilion Methodist church gave their annual chicken supper on Wednesday of last week. In spite of the threshing operations there was a good crowd present and the ladies more than sustained their high reputation as cooks. The splendid and bountiful repast was pronounced excellent by all present. After supper a first class concert program was given, Rev C Bishop acting as chairman. Mrs. Lorne McLean was heard to great advantage in her two songs and was warmly recalled. Miss Mildred Jacklin and Miss Bawden principal of the Vermilion high school also pleased the audience and each had to respond to encores. Mr. R. Maughan proved himself a great favorite and his two songs were much appreciated. Mr Rufus Omness, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Omness gave violin selections in his usual fine style. Miss Vera Thorpe, an exceptionally bright elocutionist gave two recitations, and the audience clamored for more, while Mr W B Elford who acted as accompanist brought down the house with his inimitable dialogues.

Mrs. Beck and Miss Kathleen Parker are spending a few months at Vancouver, B.C. where Miss Parker is taking a commercial course at business college.

Dewberry W. A. Plans Chicken Supper

The regular monthly meeting of the Dewberry Ladies Aid was held at the home of Mrs. W. Porter. There were ten members present and one visitor.

The meeting opened with the hymn 'Bringing in the Sheaves'. Our president led us in the Lord's Prayer. Following this Mrs. S. Webstale read from the Upper Room leaving us with this thought, "Following Jesus — the good Shepherd — we will find the way".

Mrs. Ewen read the 23rd Psalm. The treasurer's report was given. Sunshine lady reported sending cards to Mrs. S. Webstale, Mrs. J Braitwaite and Mrs. J McKnight.

A letter from the Marwayne Aid concerning redecorating of the manse was read. It was moved and carried that we pay our share.

A motion was also made to send $10 to CARE.

The chicken supper to be held in the hall on Nov. 9 was discussed. Prices are to be $1 per adult, 50c for 12 years and under, 25c for under school age. Come and bring your friends. There will be a bazaar as well and following the supper a 'Variety Program' using a Scotch theme.

Our supper was such a success last year with everyone donating so generously, we hope it will prove a repeat performance this year!

Our president led us in the Benediction and the hostess assisted by her sister-in-law served a very delicious lunch.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. Braithwaite.

How To Save Your Family From Fire

1. Get everyone out of the house the minute you discover a fire.

2. Don't fling doors open if you think there's a fire — feel them first and if they're hot, get out another way or block the doors with furniture or dampened mattresses to keep out the smoke and gases.

3. If you have to pass through smoke or heat, crouch down and hold a wet handkerchief over your nose and mouth.

4. Avoid panic, keep cool, don't jump from upper storey windows except as a last resort. Wait for the firemen — a closed door will hold back fire.

5. Don't go back into a burning building for any reason other than to save life — and remember that smoke and fire gases can be deadly.

6. Unless it's a small fire and you are certain you can control it with the right extinguisher, don't waste your time or your life by trying to fight a fire — get away from it and call the fire department at once — they know how to fight it.

7. Plan with your family what to do in case of a fire — plan to use an alternate escape route away from the fire.

8. If you are burned or exposed to fire and smoke, get medical treatment at once.

New Booklet Tells Of Alberta History

The colorful history of fur traders, missionaries and explorers is related in the booklet — "Alberta Through the Years," which has been produced by the Publicity Bureau.

Reprinted from the Canadian Geographical Journal, the 20-page booklet is divided into three general sections — early history; agricultural progress and industrial development. It includes such subjects as the fur trade, arrival of Mounted Police, construction of the C.P.R. and inauguration of Alberta.

The booklet is available free of charge to adults by writing to the Publicity Bureau, Legislative Buildings, Edmonton.

Man can now duplicate ocean water, except for one 'slight' difficulty, nothing will live in it, says the September Reader's Digest. But if a small percentage of real ocean water is added, ocean life will thrive therein.

Wildmere Women's Institute Notes

The W.W.I. met at the home of Mrs. David Hughes on Wednesday, Oct. 5 with 17 members and six visitors present. The visitors were our constituency convener Mrs. R. Mead, Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. West, Mrs. Reeves and Mrs. Richardson, all of the Princess Anne WI., north of Vermilion, and Mrs. W. Ford of ...

The meeting opened with 'O Canada and the Creed. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Social convener reported one fruit basket for Mrs. Osterberg. The treasurer then gave her report.

HOME NURSING COURSE

The Home Nursing course is to start on Oct. 17 if possible. Anyone wishing to take this course please get in touch with the president Mrs. F. Gibson.

Our secretary is to get felt to make A.W.I crests for the members who have not got them. Mrs. Gibson reported hearing over the air about our bench for the park.

Correspondence was read including a letter from the Unitarian Clothing Drive thanking our W.I. for donation of used clothing; a 'thank you' note from Mrs. R. Osterberg for the fruit basket; a note from Mrs. W. Steele re J.J. Up; Also a 'thank you' note from Mr. and Mrs. D. Dibben and Sharon; a letter from the C.N.I.B.

Our November project is a donation of $10 to the U.N. Day.

It was decided to hold another home cooking sale on Nov. 12 if no other sale was on. Place to be announced later. Our president welcomed our convener and members of the Princess Anne group.

MRS. R. MEAD, SPEAKER

Mrs. Mead then spoke. She told how she was nearly floored when she was put in for constituency convener at the July conference. She has always had a warm feeling for the Wildmere group as it was one of our Institute members who organized the Princess Anne W.I. Belonging to the A.W.I. is very educational and we learn how other people live and they become real to us. Ceylon women are to be hosts to the A.C.W.W. in 1956. She stressed that we all should make it a habit to study about our country. Women should appreciate the A.W.I. as it takes us out of our rut and we learn a lot. We could tell you a lot more she said but space will not permit.

W.W.I. members please note that November is Home & Country subscription month, also Handicrafts will be talked over.

Mrs. Gibson had the Social. The contest was jumbled names of countries belonging to the U.N. and was won by Mrs. R. Smith.

Johnny Jump Up was won by Mrs. R. Dibben. Mrs. Wilson came to the meeting after school.

Roll call was 'Name a Country belonging to the U.N.' Meeting closed with 'God Save the Queen'. Our hostess and helpers then served a tasty lunch.

November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. Gibson with Mrs. R. Martin as hostess. Roll Call — bring a line that would do for a roll call next year. Topic by Mrs. Hughes. Social — 'Gems of Thought'.

The lunch committee will be Mrs. C. Sweeney, Mrs. J. Wallington and Mrs. K. Whitlock.

The weather during the past week has been varied. One day it gave promise of settled weather, but in the morning everything was changed and more moisture came down. However at time of writing the weather man is promising a good week end. Let's hope he is right. As a result of the weather prevailing very little has been done about harvesting.

MAIL DAYS

Remember — Monday, Wednesday and Friday are the days that mail arrives at Paradise Valley. However, Thursday is still [illegible] day also cream truck day. After 30 years of Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday as mail days it is hard to get used to the new days.

The Paradise Valley W.A. met in the church basement on Tuesday evening Oct. 4. Final arrangements were made for the chicken supper which is to be held Oct. 21. After the meeting a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Frank Brassington and Mrs. Wm. Stoddart.

Hunting is the order of the day. A lot of shells are being used up, a few geese have been shot but not very many. Ducks are fairly good but several days yet are needed to put them in prime condition.

AVOID EYE STRAIN

Reading, writing, sewing or any other close work require good clear light, in order that the eyes will not be strained. If there is any difficulty in seeing, or if there are persistent headaches, the medical eye doctor or opthalmologist should be consulted.

If you think flying is particularly dangerous, note these casualty figures as reported in the current Reader's Digest: Last year 878 American Air Force men were killed in automobile accidents during their off-duty hours, while 700 met death in airplane [illegible].

SEEDTIME and HARVEST

By Dr. F. J. Greaney, Director, Line Elevators Farm Service, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Sponsored by the following companies: Federal, Alberta Pacific, Pioneer, Canadian Consolidated, [illegible], McCabe, Parrish & Heimbecker, Inter-Ocean, [illegible] Milling and Quaker Oats.

STORE YOUR GRAIN SAFELY

This year, western farmers are faced with the problem of storing large quantities of grain on the farm. Past experience has shown that grain can be stored safely on farms in Western Canada, providing a few simple and practical precautions are taken.

Important Facts: Good grain storage means dry, clean, well-ventilated storage. Grain that is binned dry and kept dry will not spoil. Make sure, then, that any building you use for storing grain is not only structurally sound, but also weatherproof, ratproof, and birdproof. Simple cleanliness is important. Walls and floors of old granaries or buildings should first be thoroughly cleaned, and then sprayed with a good "Mill Oil Spray", "Lindane", or other recommended insecticide. It pays well to clean grain before putting it in storage. Broken and cracked grain, screenings, chaff and dirt provide favorable conditions for the development of insect infestations. However, even clean, dry grain can't be stored and forgotten. All farm-stored grain should be examined at frequent intervals (every two weeks) for the detection of insect infestations, and moist, moldy or caking grain. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure in reducing grain storage losses.

Emergency Storage. Grain can be stored in the open without excessive loss. The following points, however, are important: (1) Choose a well-drained location. (2) Keep the grain off the ground and away from soil moisture. (3) Line the inside of any fencing used with good moisture-proof paper. (4) Build each pile up into a uniform cone, making sure that no "trough" is left at the fence for the accumulation of moisture. (5) No grain pile should contain more than 2,000 bushels. Smaller piles are safer.

Farmers who have to build new grain storage space this year would be well advised to seek construction advice from the Agricultural Engineer at their provincial University or nearest Experimental Station.

1956 METEORS MAKE BOW TO THE PUBLIC

A roof line one and one-half inches lower than last year's model and a distinctive new V-sweep grille are offered on the 1956 Meteor Victoria shown above. New styling of the side trim emphasizes the car's new dramatically low profile. The Victoria is one of 14 models which will be built in four series for 1956 — the Rideau, Station Wagon, Niagara, and Meteor. With Merc-O-Matic drive, the Victoria is powered by a 202 horsepower overhead valve V-8 engine with four-barrel caburetor and dual exhaust. To be displayed publicly on September 21, the 1956 Meteors are equipped with new "Safeguard" safety features offered for the first time by any automobile company, such as double grip door latches, "Safeguard" steering wheel, special backing for rear view mirrors, stronger seat mountings, and optional seat belts and crash cushioning for instrument panels and sun visors.

WITH THE HUNTERS

Bill McLean hunts ducks, and so Don Martin accompanied him one morning — 4:00 o'clock! Not much luck either, and Donnie has hardly caught up on his sleep yet. But it takes Steve Lewis to get the big ones, and he generously gives away his biggest mallard.

The school flag was tattered and torn and really in bad shape after flying in the winds, but a new one has now replaced it.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker from Lindsay, Ont., were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McEachern.

Roy Barnett was home for the holiday.

Melvin Hutchinson and family have returned to Edmonton.

Unemployment Insurance Covers 3,206,000 Workers

When Canada's new Unemployment Insurance Act became operative Oct. 2, the new provisions affected 3,206,000 wage earners. Since the total number of wage earners in the civilian labor force is about 4,205,000 this means that about 76 per cent are engaged in insurable employment. Ten years ago, only 2,200,000 wage earners were covered by unemployment insurance.

There are close to a million wage earners who are not part of the unemployment insurance scheme and include 198,000 engaged in agriculture, horticulture and forestry; 113,000 in hospitals and charitable institutions; 197,000 permanent federal, provincial and municipal employees; 72,000 private domestic servants; 6,000 salaried employees earning over $4800 per year; 25,000 nurses; 20,000 insurance and real estate salesmen; 108,000 teachers; 7000 in the fishing industry; 206,000 in such employments as hunting, trapping, professional sport, and part time or seasonal work.

While the new act does not make any immediate changes in coverage, it does open the door to a ready extension when necessary.

The amendments will make it easier to insure certain groups who work continuously for one employer and are economically dependent upon him just as is a wage earner under a contract of [illegible] even though it is difficult to prove that they actually work under a contract of service.

Coyote Control

Serious losses of turkeys, other poultry and sheep due to coyotes have been reported from a number of regions throughout the province according to Mr. Wm. Lobay, Alberta's Supervisor of Pest Control. Mr. Lobay goes on to remind farmers and ranchers of the assistance provided for control of coyotes. Coyote getters, baits and strychnine pellets may be obtained from local pest officers who will also instruct each person thoroughly on the proper and safe use of these materials. Where no pest officer is available, detailed information may be obtained from the local D.A.

Strychnine pellets are much in demand with farmers, although a few prefer coyote getters. Last year 192,000 pellets and 20,110 coyote getter baits were distributed; large numbers of coyotes were killed. Mr. Lobay goes on to point out these devices lend themselves very well to intercepting the 'killer' coyote before he gets to his prey.

The use of 1080 baits will be continued this winter according to Mr. Lobay. However, he continues, it will be confined to the very sparsely settled areas. Extreme care has to be exercised in handling the 1080 baits because of the highly poisonous nature of this compound. The manufacturers have now stopped making this product.

Mr. Lobay reports that farmers and ranchers have played an important part in participating in the coyote program. Their co-operation has made it possible to ease the predator problems on the farm as well as help to reduce the incidence of rabies.

Health Unit Notes

RESPIRATORY DISEASES

[illegible]

[illegible] is an inflammation of the windpipe and the bronchial tubes. It is rarely serious in healthy adults but may be fatal in the young and the old. Acute bronchitis may develop independently, but usually it extends from some other infection such as a cold, tonsillitis or sinusitis.

Acute bronchitis usually starts with hoarseness followed by a feeling of heaviness and tightness in the chest. The temperature at first may be normal or shown only a slight rise. Later a fairly high fever may develop.

It is very important to call a physician at the first signs of "a cold on the chest." The principal danger to guard against is the development of complications, especially pneumonia.

Chronic bronchitis may follow repeated attacks of acute bronchitis. In most cases, [illegible], chronic bronchitis, marked by a persistent cough and shortness of breath, is associated with chronic lung infection, heart disease or kidney disease. It chiefly affects old people, and the cough is most bothersome in the winter. For that reason it has been called "the cause of the winter cough of the aged". A person suffering from chronic bronchitis should have medical attention.

PNEUMONIA

Pneumonia is a serious, infectious disease of the lungs. Its cause may be any one of forty different types of pneumococci (pneumoccal pneumonia) or other bacteria or less commonly, a virus ("primary atypical pneumonia" or virus pneumonia).

The immediate forerunner of pneumonia in the great majority of cases is severe or long-continued cold or an attack of influenza. A cold or some other acute infection of the upper respiratory tract seems to make the lungs more than usually susceptible to attack. The ability of pneumonia germs to establish themselves depends a great deal upon the strength of the defense forces of the body invaded. The principal ways in which the body's defense forces may be weakened are: chilling of the body following exposure to cold and wet, or sudden chilling when overheated; continued exhaustion from any cause, other infections, particularly colds, influenza, bronchitis and the childhood diseases such as whooping cough and measles; surgical operations and accidental injuries, chronic or acute alcoholism.

The onset of pneumococcal pneumonia is likely to be sudden. The patient may have a shaking chill or just feel chilly; his temperature rises; he usually has a cough, rapid panting respiration; sharp pains in the side, chest or shoulder made worse by breathing; he may raise small amounts of sticky, rust-colored sputum. In the great majority of cases these signs and symptoms mean the patient has pneumonia.

The chance of recovering from pneumococcal pneumonia is much better than it used to be, because physicians now have very effective drugs for use in treatment. The sulfa drugs and penicillin act on all types of pneumococci and are about equal to each other in effectiveness. The physician's choice of which to use will depend upon the needs of the individual case and the facilities he has available. For safe treatment, sulfa drugs or penicillion must be given only under the direction of a physician. No specific treatment has yet been found for virus pneumonia.

Skilled medical and nursing care is essential for all pneumonia patients and complete rest and the proper nourishment are absolutely necessary. In some instances oxygen must be administered. It is important that a pneumonia patient remain absolutely quiet in bed and be relieved of all physical exertion, such as feeding and moving himself. Restlessness adds to the danger. If the physician decides that the patient should be taken to a hospital, his orders should be obeyed without delay or protest.

If the patient is treated at home, no one should enter the sick room except those who are responsible for his care. This will insure quiet and help greatly in preventing the spread of infection. The nose and throat discharges of the patient should be caught in pieces of cloth or soft paper and burned. The patient's eating utensils and linen should be taken care of separately and should be thoroughly scalded and washed with soap and hot water after use. When constant professional nursing care cannot be provided, visiting nurse service should be obtained, if possible. In her visits the public health nurse will carry out the physician's orders and give services of great value to the patient and to the member of the family who is caring for him.

"GREEN ACRES"

VEGETABLE STORAGE

A good many farmers now have a furnace in the basement. The heated basement causes a lot of rotten vegetables. The answer is to build an insulated and ventilated storage room where the temperature can be kept down to 40 degrees. Plans are available at this office.

GROWING BULBS INSIDE

Now is the time to plant Hyacinths, Daffodils and Tulips in pots for winter flowering. They should be kept in a cool place for ten weeks or until the sprout is four inches high. The soil should never dry out nor yet be kept wet.

THE ROYAL SHOW

How many are going to the Royal Show at Toronto this fall? It is a wonderful trip for stockmen and other people too. See S. C. Heckbert for particulars, or apply at this office.

FALL TILLAGE

In heavy trash there may be some temptation to try the plow. Such practice is definitely wrong in this area. Ploughing down trash will dry out the soil and thereby decrease yields. Use the one-way, blade or cultivator.

FALL CLEAN UP

Now is the time to clean up your yards before snow comes. Old boards and junk littered about the yard is not only unsightly but also can be a hazard to livestock. The life of an animal can be lost by a nail puncture followed by acute infection. Flat tires on tractors and trucks are also costly.

FARM SAFETY

With the final windup on harvest at this late date, machines will be working on into the night. The following are just a few reminders to operate safely at all costs.

1. Avoid operations on dangerous inclines or near treacherous banks.
2. Avoid making adjustments on machines in motion.
3. Make sure guards are over the power take-off and any other dangerous moving parts.
4. Operate at slower speeds than what you would in daylight.
5. Do not move machinery over public roads at night. Even with proper lights this can be extremely dangerous.

To avoid colds, keep away from people who have them, especially if they cough and sneeze without covering their noses and mouths with a disposable tissue. Wear rubbers in damp weather to avoid wet feet and chills.

Slight Increase In Office Salaries

There was a moderate increase in average office salaries in manufacturing during 1954, according to a study covering six cities in Canada. The study showed that the average salary increase for male junior office clerks in 1954 was 6.4% in Montreal and 7.9% in Toronto, as compared with 4.5% for intermediate office clerks in Montreal and 5.2% in Toronto. Male senior office clerks in Montreal had a slight decrease of 0.6% on average salaries while those in Toronto enjoyed an average increase of 3.4%. However average weekly salaries for senior office clerks in Toronto were slightly below those in Montreal: $71.15 in Toronto, as compared with $71.92 in Montreal. The six cities covered by the study were Halifax, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Edmonton and Vancouver. An indication of the upward salary trend in 1952, 1953 and 1954 may be obtained by comparing average weekly salaries for male office clerks, the largest occupational class, in two cities, Montreal and Toronto. The rates for 1952, 1953 and 1954 were as follows:

MONTREAL
Senior	[illegible]	$72.39	$71.92
Intermediate	52.86	55.69	58.17
Junior	35.11	36.57	38.90
TORONTO
Senior	$66.02	[illegible]	$71.15
Intermediate	50.52	53.97	56.78

Bob's extra profit was just one of the many "bonuses" farmers get from fertilizing. When you fertilize your crops you can harvest up to two weeks earlier avoiding frost, hail and other damage. Better grades, bigger yields, weed control and keeping your land fertile are additional advantages—reasons why more and more farmers are fertilizing every year. WILDMERE WINKS

Betty Smith of Basswood who was a hospital patient with blood poison in her knee caused from a thumb tack running into it at school, came home Thursday of last week and is now back at school again.

On Friday last week Billie Smith accompanied by his sister, Mrs. C. Cruthers went to Calgary to get their mother who had come from the coast and was visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Morand, in the southern city. They returned home on Sunday evening and Mrs. Smith will visit her sons Bill, Adam and Albert who live here and her daughter Mrs. Cruthers for a few weeks before returning to her home at the coast.

We are very pleased that the weather has changed for the better and promises to let folks get their harvesting finished. You can hear the combines running late at night and threshing machines humming all day long. One good week and most of it would be cleaned up.

Jimmie Wallington went to Edmonton on Sunday to see his sister Mrs. Summers of Darwell who is a patient in the Royal Alex hospital. Mrs. Summers had to have her left leg amputated above the knee on Saturday and was still on the critical list. Jimmie returned home Monday night. He also visited his brother Tom who lives at Tofield, and he had supper with his niece Peggy Graham of the Royal Alex hospital. We all wish Mrs. Summers the very best in recovering from her serious illness.

VISITORS FROM CALGARY

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. Holte of Wildmere were pleasantly surprised to have Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paddle and family of Calgary pay them a short visit. Years ago when just a boy, Fred worked for Mr. Holte. He returned to Ontario where he married. He is a veteran of the second war and after returning from overseas the family came west where they have lived since. They have three children.

Everyone was pleased to hear Robert Dibben is coming along well from his siege of polio and can move his fingers and toes now. He is still in the iron lung at the University hospital. Folks say he is very cheerful and quite determined that he will be O.K. in time. Keep up that spirit Robert and you will win out. Mr. and Mrs. R. Gillholme of Edmonton are at present visiting with Robert's mother at Vermilion.

There will be no Winks next week as the writer is going to Edmonton to take the Civil Defense Course through the kindness of the Vermilion River M.D. No. 71.

AGREE WITH EDITORIAL

What did the readers think of that letter in the Standard last week in reply to the editorial in the Standard re plastic neck bands on ducks? We think our Editor did the right thing when he brought this cruelty to the birds to the attention of the public. You would think that common sense would tell that a one and a half inch neck band was far too long for a small duck. What that bird must have suffered and it would not be the only one! Perhaps it would have been better to have left the egg they speak of out of the nest. We go along with our Editor and claim neck banding should be stopped at once.

Highest Percentage Vaccinated Calves In Canada

Alberta has the highest percentage of vaccinated heifer calves in Canada, according to Dr. E. E. Ballantyne, Director of Alberta's Veterinary Services Branch. 195,000 calves were vaccinated in Alberta from April 1, 1954 to March 31, 1955. There are however, still many herds to get started on a vaccination program against brucellosis in order to bring the present figure of 58% closer to 100.

Living with a contagious livestock disease is costly. It is cheaper and safer to wipe out the disease. Brucellosis can and has caused undulant fever in humans. Every cattleman should have his heifer calves vaccinated to protect his future income and to protect the health of his family, advises Dr. Ballantyne. Now is the time to start in herds where a calfhood vaccination program hasn't been carried out. Calves can be listed with a local veterinarian, district agriculturist or Agricultural Service Board.

It is important to keep Alberta cattle healthy to make them eligible for all markets, Dr. Ballantyne says. A vaccination program for several years followed by a blood test to remove remaining infected animals has proved to be an economical and practical method of controlling the disease without disrupting the cattle industry. The Brucellosis Restricted Area program whereby all heifer calves are vaccinated will go a long way to bringing the disease under control. There are 20 M.D.'s or counties established as such now, with several more petitioning.

WHEAT SURPLUS AND QUALITY PROBLEMS

Although the announced purpose of the U.S. Department of Agriculture plan to place appropriate discounts in price supports for certain inferior varieties of wheat was to improve the general quality of the U.S. wheat crop, it has been suggested that perhaps there is another motive as well. Many of those close to the situation feel that the wheat surplus problem, there, has only one effective solution, namely, to move as much as possible of the huge surplus into feed channels.

A discount premium method would undoubtedly discourage the production of wheat primarily for loan and thus reduce the overall production of the crop. At the same time, lowering the support price of wheat that is more suitable for feeding, would at once make it more competitive with corn. For this reason the suggestion will probably meet with a good deal of opposition.

And the position of corn itself is difficult, there being particularly large stocks, probably some 500-600 million bushels in excess of any reasonable carryover, so that the immediate future price picture for this crop is not any too promising.

In contrast to the problems which face the U.S. administration, therefore, our situation in Canada, difficult as it may appear at times, is a very much smaller one. And as far as the 'quality' factor is concerned, of course, Canada has that well in hand.

Vice President — John David
Sec.-Treas. — Clark Richardson
Councillors — Messrs. David Clark, Angus Smith, Fred Stewart.

The Vegreville and Wainwright A.T.A. locals which were meeting in conjunction with the Vermilion local also held elections of officers, resulting as follows:

Vice-Pres. — John Taylor
Sec.-Treas. — Wm. Labutiuk

VERY HIGH ATTENDANCE

Of a total of 283 teachers in the three divisions, there were 274 in attendance at the convention. Only one teacher from the Vermilion division was absent.

DOHERTY HEADS COMMITTEE

In order to facilitate arrangements among the three locals at the joint convention there was a special committee consisting of:

President — H. A. Doherty
Past Pres. — Miss M. Knapp
Vice-Pres. — J. Humphries
Secretary — J. A. Smith
Executive members — N. L. Hyrnyk, H. P. Chomik, D. L. Clark, C. A. Richardson, Donald Gunn and John Taylor.

The convention committee chosen to be in charge of arrangements for next year's convention is, President, Mr. J. Humphries, Wainwright; Vice-President, Mr. David Clark, Paradise Valley; Secretary, Mr. J. A. Smith, Vermilion.

Except for business meetings which pertained to matters affecting the locals individually, the sessions were held jointly. The discussion meetings were held in groups according to grade and to professional problems which the teachers had in common.

Mr. Doherty was chairman of the opening joint session with the Rev. C. W. MacKay of Vermilion asking the invocation. After an address of welcome by the Dean of Men, V.S.A., Mr. Jack Harcus, the meeting broke up into their related groups for a morning of discussion on professional interests and problems.

FALL TERM OPENS AT V. S. A.

Following registration on Monday and Tuesday all students began regular classes for the winter term at the School of Agriculture on Wednesday afternoon. The enrollment showed reduced numbers as compared with recent years in all classes. The total of 128 is some thirty less than the registration in the fall of 1954.

A group of Second Year students headed by Ted Peck and Vicky Lopushinsky, President and Vice-President respectively of the Student Council, served as a Reception committee welcoming the new students and assisting to show them to their rooms and about the campus.

All new students were given a colorful sombrero hat and V.S.A. streamers to mark their entry to the school.

Famed Canadian Actor To Play Here Saturday, Oct. 22

An exciting show business 'first' is to visit Vermilion this Saturday night, Oct. 22, when St. Saviour's Men's club will present at the armories a professional theatrical production entitled "Two for Company" co-starring Mr. Eric Christmas, the internationally famous stage, radio and television performer, and Miss Anna Reiser, the brilliant young Canadian actress.

"Two for Company" will be a sparkling two hour theatre party filled with laughs, for which Eric Christmas is famous, balanced by suspenseful drama, with a touch of sentiment thrown in for good measure.

Mr. Christmas will be readily known to CBC radio and TV fans. Miss Reiser has recently returned from Europe to electrify Canadian TV viewers with productions acclaimed by Toronto critics.

It is the fortune of Vermilion and district people to have Mr Christmas and Miss Reiser here on Saturday evening. Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

All Invited To Take Part in Carol Service

The Vermilion Mixed Choral will again have a night of carol singing this year. Last year's Carol concert was a great success and played to a packed house. It is for a very worthwhile cause, providing Xmas hampers for the needy of Vermilion. The carol practices will start on Monday evening at 9 p.m. immediately following the mixed Chorus practice which starts at 8 p.m. sharp.

Anyone male or female, over 16 years of age who would like to sing in the Carol concert is asked to be at the high school on Monday at 9 p.m. or contact Mr Cosh or Jack Brown. A choir of fifty voices is anticipated.

Farmers-Members Banquet Planned by Board of Trade

The Agricultural committee of the Vermilion Board of Trade reports that final arrangements have been made for the dinner meeting to be held by the Board for farmers and members.

Mr J. G. McGregor, Chairman of Alberta Power Commission Edmonton, will be the guest speaker. Mr McGregor is very well known in this area having been district superintendent for Canadian Utilities for some years.

In late years Mr McGregor has studied the history of the prairie provinces. He has written several books on the early records of Alberta including "Blankets and Beads" and "Twelve Foot Davis" which are well known and popular books mostly about the early days of our province.

Mr McGregor will speak on the history of this area. The Board of Trade is pleased that such a well known speaker has been obtained. The Chairman of the Agricultural committee, Roy Walker, asks that farmers and their wives get their tickets early.

The dinner will be held in St. Saviour's hall at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 7. Tickets must be obtained from Board of Trade members by Nov 5.

Local Gideons To Honor A. Burnham

Arthur Burnham, general secretary of the Gideons International in Canada is on tour of Western Canada and will visit rallies at various centres in the West.

After the Edmonton rally Oct 29 and 30 Mr Burnham will come to Vermilion for a banquet in his honor to be held at St. Saviour's Parish Hall on Tuesday, November 1st at 7:00 p.m. Mr. Burnham is expected to address the gathering in the interest of the Gideon work.

The Gideons of the local camp have been very active in the territory surrounding Vermilion. Their activities have been in the form of distributing testaments to the grade 5 school children, bibles in hotels, motels and hospital testaments.

A very enjoyable time is expected at the banquet and tickets may be obtained from any of the local Gideons.

The weather has been settled all week with the exception of a tendency to rain on Sunday. Fine headway is being made with threshing and the end of harvest operations is in sight.

Air Cadets Capture Dominion And Provincial Marksmanship Honors

Vermilion Air Cadet Squadron Rifle teams have captured high honors in Dominion and Provincial rifle competitions, according to word received from officials of the Dominion Cadet Rifle Association and the Strathcona Trust competition.

TOPS IN DOMINION CONTEST

The large shield shown above is emblematic of the Dominion Cadet Rifle Association championship, and is open to all Army, Air and Sea Cadets in Canada.

The Vermilion Squadron team won first place and was comprised of WO.2 Victor Kuzek, Sgt. Stewart Cooper, Sgt. Eddie Frissell, Sgt. Bob Hemmingway, Cpl. Albert Roscoe, LAC Morley Hough, LAC J. Stafinski, LAC Ken Shepherd, LAC Ross Beecroft, LAC Brent Long.

The team was coached and trained by Flying Officer A. E. Moore. Practising was done in the rifle range at the Vermilion armories.

Outstanding Accomplishment

The winning of the Shield was an outstanding accomplishment against hundreds of Cadet marksmen from all over Canada.

SECOND IN STRATHCONA COMPETITION

The Vermilion Cadet Rifle team then continued its winning ways in the Strathcona Trust competition, which is open to all Cadet teams in Alberta. In this contest they placed second, being only a fraction of a point behind the winning team, also from an Air Cadet squadron. So close were the targets that an extra judge had to be called in before a decision was reached.

Each member of the Vermilion team received a bronze medallion on which his name is engraved. These are also shown in the photo above. The words "Presented by Strathcona Trust for Rifle Shooting" appear on the medal.

The boys winning these are WO. Victor Kuzek, Sgt. Stewart Cooper, Sgt. Bob Hemmingway, Sgt. Eddie Frissell, Cpl. Albert Roscoe, LAC Morley Hough, LAC Ross Beecroft, LAC. J. Stafinski.

SGT. STEWART COOPER TOP MARKSMAN

Besides attaining honors as a team, one of the Vermilion Cadets, Sgt Stewart Cooper, made the highest individual score in Northern Alberta. For this he was awarded two individual prizes, a Birks Rideau automatic gold wrist watch, engraved with his name, and a lapel pin in gold, purple and white inscribed with the words "Strathcona Trust Best Shot 1955."

CREDITED TO FO. MOORE

This team of marksmen from No. 97 Squadron is a great credit to the Air Cadets and to Vermilion. The members of the team have high praise for the training received from Flying Officer "Bert" Moore. Mr. Moore was hugely elated with the remarkable achievements. He is bemoaning the fact that he has lost a number who have finished school here. Nevertheless he has already started to train a new team. It will take two years with good boys, according to Mr. Moore, before they can expect to reach the top in competitions again.

ARMISTICE CELEBRATIONS

Final arrangements were made at the meeting for the Armistice celebrations. The annual dance will be held in the Armouries on November 10th. The Armistice Parade and church service will be held as usual.

Following the services a get-together and smoker for all members, their wives and Ladies' Auxiliary members and their husbands will be held at the Legion hall.

The Dominion Cadet Rifle Association shield shown above was won by the rifle team from No. 97 Squadron Air Cadets of Vermilion Alberta. It is emblematic of the Cadet marksmanship championship of Canada.

The seven medallions shown at the base of the shield are second prize awards in the Strathcona Trust Rifle competition, a provincial contest in which the Vermilion Air Cadet team was but a fraction of a point below the winning team.

The gold wrist watch and lapel pin are individual prizes won by a member of the Vermilion team Sgt Stewart Cooper. Stewart had the highest score of any Cadet in the northern half of Alberta.

Stewart is a son of Mr and Mrs. Ashley Cooper and is now enrolled at the University of Alberta in Engineering.

Applications From Lloyd. and Lashburn Tabled

Eastern Alberta Hockey League To Function With Five Teams

The Eastern Alberta Hockey league will function this season with the same five teams as last winter, namely Viking, Wainwright, St. Paul, Vegreville and Vermilion, despite the fact that applications were received from Lloydminster and Lashburn for entry into the loop.

The annual meeting of the league was held at the armories here on Sunday afternoon with all five towns which hold franchises represented, as well as delegations from Lloydminster and Lashburn. 33 men were present in all. Dr Bradley of Wainwright, president of the league was in the chair and Jim Humphries also of Wainwright was secretary.

APPLICATION FROM LLOYD

The application for inclusion in the league from Lloydminster was the big surprise of the meeting, and both that application and the one from Lashburn were given very careful consideration. The members of each delegation stated their cases. It appears that Lloydminster is not sponsoring the Jets this winter which team was organized for the purpose of bringing the Western Canada championship to Lloydminster, and very nearly did it year after year.

On the final vote after many reasons pro and con, the Lashburn entry was tabled for a year as it was felt that the town was just too far away. Voting on the Lloyd question was close with Vermilion and Wainwright supporting the Border town's entry, and Vegreville Viking and St. Paul being opposed.

The way was left open for either to apply again next year.

LASHBURN BUILDS ARENA PROMOTES HOCKEY

For a comparatively small centre Lashburn apparently has plenty of pep and energy. Three years ago they built a hockey arena and now have it practically paid for. They also engage a full time hockey coach every winter whose duty it is to organize and coach everything from pee-wee players up. They now have fifty very promising young puck artists coming along and in two or three years will be able to ice a formidable home product team.

Harvey Newell was the spokesman for the Lashburn representatives and Art Dival for Lloydminster.

LEAGUE RULES DEBATED

League rules governing the E.A.H.L. came in for debate, mostly with a view to keeping the expense of operating a team at a minimum. Last year the average cost per team was $4000, that of Vermilion was $3300 with the least paid out to players for transportation. The rule now reads that each team may pay only one man, the coach, but travelling expenses of 10 cents per mile per car is allowable for players living outside the town. These actually supposed to be within a certain territory adjacent to the town. This rule was changed to read 10 cents per mile per player.

Other rules governing players are that they must be registered by January 15, and must have played in three games before the play-offs start. No player can play in any other league. Teams may register 18 players of the team.

Referees will again be supplied from the city with the home team supplying a linesman. Two referees will handle the play-offs, both semi and final games.

SCHEDULE STARTS DEC 17

The opening league games will be played Saturday, Dec. 17 and the schedule is now being drawn up by Secretary Humphries. The schedule calls for 16 games, eight home and eight away.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

At the election of officers the return of Dr. Bradley and secretary Jim Humphries was received with great satisfaction as they have operated the league efficiently and fairly. They are quite willing to take on even greater responsibility regarding ruling in disputes, discipline, etc. A. E. Locke of Vermilion was elected vice-president.

Club representatives on the executive were John Taylor and Jim Humphries, Wainwright; W. Horton and W. Gehring, Vegreville; Stan Manyluk and Al Locke, Vermilion; J. Hafso and H. C. Thunnell, Viking, Romeo Bodard and T. Jolly St. Paul.

The league meeting rotates and next year will be held in Vegreville.

Guidance Supervisor To Address The Home and School

Miss E. L. Palato, Assistant Supervisor of Guidance in the Department of Education in Alberta, is to be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Home and School Association which will be held Tuesday, October 25th. Miss Palato will discuss the problem of developing self-confidence in children.

The Home and School meetings are held in the Junior High School, at 8:00 p.m., the last Tuesday in every month.

HI-SCHOOL HI-LITES

Here we are again for another year, trying once more to keep you up to date on happenings in our particular corner of the world.

Although the student activities were a little slow in beginning they are now well under way.

The program for the year began with the forming of our Students' Union executive. The results of the election which was held on Sept 30th were as follows:

President — Gerry Marshall
Secretary — Tommy Kibblewhite
Treasurer — Adeline Jacula
Social Conv. — Margaret Goodwin
Point Sec. — Edna Martin
Girls Sports Rep. — Lynda Long
Boys Sports Rep. — Wayne Ireland

On October 11 the grade tens and the newcomers to the High school were given an official welcome. On that Tuesday morning a rather strange looking group gathered in front of the school.

The girls usually so charming and becoming were anything but! There faces were colorless, their hair leaped upward from the tops of their heads in a startling manner. In fact one might say that they were strictly for the birds.

The boys were even more pathetic. You could smell them coming! They had attempted to use feminine wiles in a desperate effort to improve their appearance but the lipstick, rouge and eyebrow pencil didn't help matters any. The nylons showed up their knobby joints and skinny legs, making one appreciate more than ever Betty Grable's underpinning. Their locks were enhanced by buns, even this was a crummy affair according to David Smith. These were the frosh on their initiation into the V.H.S.

Just before noon the Senior and Junior High school initiates joined together and performed the annual snake dance. At 3:30 a 'court' was held and the victims charged with various crimes and given penalties. Many and varied were the sentences. It is enough to say that Mr. Bell has his geese plucked on 50th street, a good variety of stationery was peddled and an entrancing hula-hula dance was performed.

HOUSE LEADERS CHOSEN

The Houses and House leaders were chosen on Monday as follows:

SERVICE — Joan Shepherd and Brent Long
LAURIER — Rhoda Hodgson and Al McPherson.
CARMEN — Marjorie Waldenberger and Wayne Ireland

The High school dance scheduled for Friday Oct. 21, has been postponed.

Pharmacists To Hold Short Course Here

The guest speakers will be Dr. Huston and Dr Murray of the Faculty of Pharmacy and C. W. Pickup, registrar-treasurer. It is expected that 25 pharmacists will attend.

Hogs And High Income Farms

Over a longer period of time hogs appear to be most profitable farm livestock, according to Alf Peterson of the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Mr Peterson has been conducting the Mixed Farm Study over the last four years for the Department.

It is interesting to note, says Mr. Peterson, that [illegible] of a total of 50 mixed farms studied in the [illegible]-Wetaskiwin areas, the three top income farms over the last 3 years kept hogs as a major livestock enterprise. These farms averaged well over $5,000.00 per year for their own labor management and risk as compared to only $1,200.00 for the total group of 50 farms and $1,900 for the 19 farms carrying hogs.

The three high income farms each produced over 175 hogs per year nearly double the number produced by each of the other 16 hog producing farms on the study. This, according to Mr Peterson, brings out the the effect [illegible] of operation on net income on a hog farm, even though feed grain may have to be bought to increase hog output.

The [illegible] from hogs on the 19 farms [illegible] to approximately 45 per cent of the total gross farm receipts for the three year period. Mr Petersen points out that higher income farmers are more able to take advantage of improved methods of production. As a result more high quality hogs are shipped from these farms.

Coyote Hunt

The Fish & Game Association of the Derwent-Myrnam district is sponsoring a coyote hunt to take place on Sunday, Oct. 23.

Coyotes have become an increasing menace in the Derwent-Myrnam area and have even carried away weaner pigs as well as molesting turkeys and chickens.

It is hoped to have a party of 200 men turn out Sunday so that the coyote problem can be dealt with more effectively.

If the hunters will provide themselves with a lunch, hot coffee will be supplied.

All interested in helping in this community project please be on hand at the Derwent town hall on Sunday at 10 a.m.

Goose Hunter Is Fined $50.00 For Killing Protected Birds

Charged with having illegally shot two Whistling Swans protected under the Migratory Birds Act, Charles Nevalin of Edmonton was fined $50 and costs by Magistrate A. [illegible] in RCMP court [illegible]. [illegible] of the hunter's gun for one year is automatic in such cases, game officials said. Nevalin said he shot the birds by mistake thinking they were snow geese. The snow goose averages around five pounds in weight, the Whistling Swan weighs up to 20 pounds.

"I am at a loss to know what to say to you," [illegible] Simpson said before passing sentence. "These birds are almost irreplaceable." The maximum penalty for such an offence is $300 or six months in jail, or both, he said.

The magistrate said he could not accept the excuse that Nevalin had not known he was shooting at Whistling Swans and said that if a hunter cannot distinguish between the birds he may and may not shoot, "he has no right to a license."

[illegible] Stewart, officer for the Fish and Game branch of the department of lands and forests, said he was inspecting cars in the Camrose area on Saturday when he discovered the dead birds in Nevalin's possession. Nevalin told him he had confused them with geese.

"The neck alone of a Whistling Swan is about as long as an ordinary snow goose," Mr Stewart said and added that a swan has no black wing tips as has the snow goose.

DANGER TO RARE BIRDS

The serious point, Mr Stewart felt, was that the birds might have been Trumpeter swans or Whooping Cranes. Whoopers are almost extinct and there are only 1500 Trumpeter Swans in North America.

DEPARTMENT PARTLY TO BLAME

The department is partly to blame for such incidents, Mr. Stewart said, for not making the public more aware of what protected birds look like. "However, a hunter must not shoot at every thing that's flying," he added.

This is the peak season for swan migration and a hunter should not pull the trigger on any bird he is doubtful about, Mr Stewart warned, [illegible] other [illegible] could expect to be severely punished.

Whooping Cranes are distinguishable by their large size and the fact that they fly with their necks outstretched and their legs trailing well behind them.

The Trumpeter Swan can be recognized by its all-white color and its size, usually more than 20 lbs.

Another protected bird is the Ross goose. It is often mistaken for the snow goose because it also has black wing tips. The Ross' goose however is smaller. Its bill is more stubby and it does not have a black patch as does the bill of the snow goose. The average weight of the Ross' goose is less than three pounds.

Magdalen Islands

The Magdalens, a lonely serpent-like chain of islands discovered in 1534 by Jacques Cartier, are situated in the Gulf of St. Lawrence midway between New Brunswick and Newfoundland. With only one-third of the island's 70,000 acres arable, the fisheries form the economic keystone of life for the 10,000 inhabitants of this storm-tossed, fog-bound island colony. When the cod, herring and lobster catches are good, some of the island's top fishermen gross incomes of up to $6,000; during the off-season, they turn to farm chores and care for small flocks of sheep like this one on Havre-aux-Maisons Island.

Isolation from mainland throws community and family units close together. In winter, communities are cut off from one another. Double Ring Ceremony Is Feature Of Lyons-Johnson Wedding

The First United Church, Vermilion, was the setting recently when Miss Joyce Doreen Johnson, the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Johnson and the late Mr. Oscar Johnson, became the bride of Mr. George Edward A. Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. George Lyons of Vermilion.

Bouquets of gladioli and asters banked the altar for the double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. C. W. MacKay.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, chose a strapless floor-length gown of scalloped Chantilly lace and net tiers. Her dress was modified with a matching lace bolero featuring lily-point sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Her fingertip veil misted from a lace crown. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Pearl drop earrings, a gift of the groom, was her only jewelry.

Assisting the bride was her sister, Mrs. June Russell, matron-of-honor and Miss Ann Richardson as bridesmaid. They chose ballerina-length gowns, one of pink and one of aqua. Both wore sweetheart headdresses and carried bouquets of pink and yellow carnations.

Attending the groom were Mr. Allan Russell of Stettler and Mr. Art Garland of Calgary.

Guests were ushered by Earle Swift, Ronnie Inman and Ken Caron to pews marked with bows of white ribbons.

Miss Shirley McCormick accompanied by Mr. J[illegible] Brown sang "The Wedding Prayer" during the service and 'Because' during the signing of the register.

The reception was held in the church hall where 160 guests attended. Mr. Hugh Hagen proposed a toast to the bride. Telegrams were read by Mr. Allan Russell.

Draped over the wedding table was a hand-crocheted tablecloth belonging to the bride's mother. Pink sweet heart roses augmented by pink candles decorated the bride's table.

Later in the evening the newlyweds held their wedding dance in the Vermilion Armories where friends and relations danced to Inman's orchestra.

For a honeymoon trip through Banff to the Okanagan Valley, returning via the States, the bride changed to a suit matching that of the groom's. She wore pink and Panama accessories. Her corsage was pink Sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lyons will make their home in Vermilion.

Dewberry High School News

Yes, we're back into the swing of things again. There are a few less of us this year, because grade nine is not included in the high school, but we still have plenty of enthusiasm. All 55 of us welcome (I think) the 1955-56 school year, and the knowledge and social activities it promises to bring.

There are three teachers on the high school staff this year. Mrs. Woollett and Mr. Powell are newcomers. Mr. Smith is back again as principal. They are the teachers of the grades 10, 11 and 12 home rooms, respectively.

Things have been rather crowded in D.H.S. so far this year. The grade 10 home room has been the science lab. They are looking sorrowfully (?) towards the day when the grade nine class moves into the Ellsworth school and they have to move back to their own room.

We wish lots of luck to last year's graduates. We miss you at school.

We have some new students with us this year. Deirdre Woollett, Yvonne Maltais and Alexander Ballas are in grade 11. The new grade tens are Robert Kuziw and Billy East.

Other new additions, or attractions are two goldfish, three guppies, a snail and two clams. They belong to Mr. Powell and we find them very interesting.

INITIATION

Initiation ceremonies were held on Friday, Sept. 16. Last year the atmosphere was that of a hospital. This year . . some described it as a madhouse! The two new teachers, all the new students, and the grade ten class were initiated. They were wonderful sports, especially the teachers.

Mrs Woollett came to school wearing a shapeless house dress and a kerchief tied over her hair. She wore low-heeled oxfords and cotton ankle socks. She carried a dust cloth, and on request had to dust desks or sing.

Mr Powell wore work pants and shirt, a wide-brimmed floppy straw hat and rode a lean broom-tailed nag called 'Silver' (a broom incidentally). He carried with him a hammer, screwdriver, skipping rope and other articles too numerous to mention. On request he fixed the squeaky doors and desks. Somebody stole his horse. If you want the details, ask one of the grade 11's.

The girls who went through the initiation treatment came to school looking like hobos. They wore boys' jeans, backwards; gunny sack shirts; flannel shirts backwards for jackets. They were required to wear a man's work boot with a dress sock on one foot and a heavy woolen sock with an oxford on the other. They had their hair done up in rags and were not allowed to wear any make-up. Each one had a kerchief tied up on the end of a stick. The kerchiefs contained a comb, curlers, wave clips, finger nail polish, shoe polish, a nail file and a few other things. At noon the girl initiates could be seen polishing the senior boys' shoes!

The boys seemed to think that they got worse treatment than the girls. They wore ladies' blouses and gunny sack skirts. Ladies' kimonas served as coats. Ronald Mathison is glad he wasn't a girl. So is Garry Protsch. You can't take big steps with a skirt on boys! The boys wore open-toed sandals which helped to show off their pretty little painted toe-nails. They also wore earrings and carried ladies' purses which contained a rag for cleaning blackboards, 'Bon Ami' to clean windows, finger nail polish, shoe polish for cleaning the senior girls' shoes, marbles, etc.

Because of rainy weather and mud the initiates did not snake dance through the school rooms and downtown as planned. A dance, scheduled for that night, was cancelled because of muddy roads.

ELECTIONS

Nominations for a new executive were held on Monday, Sept. 19. The campaign speeches and election were held on Wdnesday, 21st. The campaign speeches were enjoyed vry much. The election was by secret ballot. The new executive is as follows:

President — Floyd Sweet
Vice-Pres. — Meredith Whiteside
Secretary — Deirdre Woollett
Social Conv. — [illegible]
Lunch Conv. — Betty Timanson
Press Cor. — Leona Mathison
Boys' Sports Rep. — Edward [illegible]
Girls' Sports Rep. — Jean Parr
Staff Rep. — Mrs. Woollett
Grade 12 Rep. — Edna Moore
Grade 11 Rep. — Charlie Saville
Grade 10 Rep. — Marion Wilson
Past President — Jimmy Jones.

SPORTS

The boys have a four-acre football field and as soon as the goal posts were put up the games began. They have been playing flag rugby. The teams are headed by Captains Jimmy Jones and Alexander Ballas. Mr Smith is referee. The boys' sports representative reports that the teams are evenly matched.

For a few days the World Series were the main topic of interest and the boys spent most of their noon hours with their ears glued to the radio.

The girls' enthusiasm for sports seems to have been dampened by the weather.

Doris Giles Becomes Bride Of Edward Hicks In Pretty Wedding

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Friday, October 14 at the Anglican church at Pleasant Valley when Doris Giles, daughter of Mrs. Lily Giles, became the bride of Edward Hicks, all of Vermilion.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. K. A. Minchin of St. Saviour's [illegible].

The bride looked very becoming in a suit of powder blue with pink accessories. Her corsage was pink roses.

The groom's sister, Miss Doreen Hicks, as bridesmaid wore a light tan suit with matching blue hat and gloves. Mrs. York of Cold Lake, a cousin of the groom, was matron of honor. She chose a navy suit with white accessories.

Mr. Fred Maddex of Vermilion gave the bride away.

Lenard Giles and Gerald Powell supported the groom. Ronald Hicks, cousin of the groom, was usher.

Mrs. Waterfield was the organist and during the signing of the register Mrs. Baldock sang beautifully "I Love You Truly."

After the ceremony wedding pictures were taken.

RECEPTION AT VERMILION

A reception was held immediately after at Vermilion at the home of the bride's mother when over sixty signed the guest book.

While receiving the guests Mrs. Giles wore a two-piece royal blue crepe dress. The groom's mother chose a steel grey dress. Both mothers wore pink corsages.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Maddex and was fittingly responded to by the groom.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers. The archway was banked with asparagus fern and with dainty paper roses.

The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip with destination unrevealed and on their return will make their home in Vermilion where the groom is employed at the Crown Lumber Co.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Buccan and son Tom of Edmonton.

More German Firms

More German firms are coming to Canada, reports The Financial Post. Inflation at home and lack of skilled workers is narrowing the margin between manufacturing costs here and on the other side of the Atlantic. Since 1946, some sixty West German firms have set up manufacturing operations here, investing about 25 million dollars.

Cold Lake Flying Students Practise On Vermilion Field

Seven members of the R.C.A.F. grounds crews, who have formed a flying school and are receiving instruction in flying, spent last Sunday in Vermilion, getting in their flying hours from this airport. The airport at Cold Lake is a busy spot and the fliers enjoyed their day here very much, where they could take off and land without the danger of being hit by a jet.

The party had three planes, two Cessnas and one Otter. The seven men were Messrs Anstead, Wood, Goller, Fugura, Gates, Steele and Ruttan. Mr. Fugura comes from South America.

Square Dance Notes From Circle 8

Attention! Calling all members of C8. There will be a general meeting of Circle Eight club members following our next regular dance. That's Thursday Nov 3.

The executive would like everyone who has any ideas for the good of square dancing and the Circle Eight in particular to have them on the tips of your tongues and bring them up at this meeting.

Circle Eight dances have always been popular but they can be better; someone must have some ideas to bring forth. Also we would like suggestions for the annual Xmas dance.

So be sure to attend the next dance and stay for the meeting. Henry Lien that [illegible] from Bowif will be [illegible] for that night. Henry has always been a very popular caller here and everyone will be glad to [illegible] him back.

For all the good people who are waiting to get started square dancing and all the present members who want to brush up a bit, present plans call for the lessons to start on Monday Nov 7th. There's still lots of time to get your name on the list.

Don't forget, next dance, Thursday Nov 3, Henry Lien calling, and a general meeting to follow.

Bride Showered

On Friday, October 7th, many friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Kay Payne for a surprise shower in honor of Doris Giles, a bride-elect of October.

The bride-to-be was presented with a lovely corsage, and during the evening many interesting games were played.

A nicely decorated basket of gifts was placed before Doris. While these were being opened Doris was showered with confetti as flash pictures were taken. After the presents had been opened Doris graciously thanked everyone for the lovely and useful gifts.

During the preparation of lunch, which was served by co-hostesses Kay Payne and Eva Gordey, Mrs. J. Cameron entertained the guests with a contest on sewing.

After a tasty lunch was served, a group picture was taken of Doris, her gifts and her friends, thus ending a very enjoyable evening.

Hard Luck Follows David Kather

David Kather thinks that he has probably had his share of hard luck for awhile. About one month ago, David, who was working in Edmonton, came to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kather in Vermilion. He was riding his motor bike, it was after dark and somehow he crashed in the ditch, and lay there unconscious until morning when he was found by passersby.

He suffered a fractured jaw and a shoulder separation and had to be taken to the University hospital in Edmonton. Just about ready to be discharged from the hospital, he was stricken with an acute attack of appendicitis and had that appendage removed. Last week he finally reached home. However, on Sunday morning he again mounted his motor bike to ride out to visit the Willis home near Claysmore. When turning off the highway at Claysmore his bike skidded and David was thrown over the handle bars into the ditch. The result was another trip to the hospital with a broken collar bone.

Swans on South Lake

H. E. Cooper reports seeing large white birds which he judged to be swans on the lake just east of Buffalo Coulee school on Wednesday. The birds with their long, curved necks presented quite a striking and beautiful sight.

The Standard would like to remind all hunters that there is a fine of $300 or six months imprisonment or both for shooting these rare birds. So if you are doubtful what the bird in your gun sight is, refrain from pulling that trigger! Be a sport — you'll feel the better for it.

Claysmore W. I. Notes

The regular meeting of the Claysmore W.I. was held at the school on Oct. 12 with ten members and two visitors present Mrs. T. Nelson and Mrs. W. McBurnie both of Vermilion.

The meeting opened by repeating the Creed, followed by the Roll Call "Hints on Harvesting Vegetables".

The minutes of the September meeting were read and declared approved by Secretary Mrs. J. Horne.

The treasurer's report was read and adopted.

Correspondence included a letter from Mrs. R. Mead, constituency convener; also a letter from the C.N.I.B. requesting a donation. Mrs. Mead accepted the invitation to attend our November meeting and the members will be glad to welcome her. The C.N.I.B. letter was tabled for the time being.

The members were enthusiastic in their plans for the annual bazaar to be held on the afternoon of Oct. 28th from 3 to 6 p.m. Everyone was willing to help in anyway to make the affair a success. Besides Handicraft, Home Baking, etc. there will be a fish pond to attract the children. Tea and coffee will also be served. Everyone is welcome and a good time is assured. The bazaar will be followed by a dance in the evening.

The study topic for October was Handicraft and Mrs. O. Willes the chairman, gave a demonstration on 'Four Plait Rug'. She was ably assisted by Mrs. McBurnie who showed the ladies how to join the plaits without sewing. The draw for the blanket will be at the bazaar dance.

After the meeting adjourned a delicious lunch was enjoyed.

Ladies will meet again at the school on Nov. 9 and visitors are very welcome.

TV Sales

Canada's insatiable appetite for television, fed by sales of 344,000 new sets in the last eight months, will not slacken, says The Financial Post. Rate of new station openings will keep demand high into 1958, when colored TV will be introduced on a mass scale. Radio purchases are not being hit by the boom. In August radio sales were up 70% from 1954's same month—30% were installed in automobiles.

MOTHERCRAFT

In the near future the Health Unit proposes to start a series of talks on Mothercraft to expectant mothers. These will be given weekly and possibly on Wednesday afternoons in the Health Unit [illegible]. The full series will cover a period of six weeks.

During these six weeks it is hoped that the talks and informal discussions will cover the preparation for Motherhood and follow along the general lines of early infant care.

In this series we have planned to try and help the expectant mother to add to the knowledge she has already gained on such matters as, the general health of the baby; planning of a layette; nutrition and infant feeding. We shall welcome this opportunity to meet her and discuss any of her difficulties and problems arising in this field. We also hope to make these weekly meetings more interesting by the showing of films and demonstrations on such subjects as bathing a baby and preparing a formula.

We look upon these talks as an excellent opportunity for the mother to be to meet the Health Unit staff and to learn how we can help her after the baby is born.

Mothercraft is an entirely new venture for your health unit, its success depends on your support. If this project is the success we hope it will be, we shall endeavor to arrange other series along similar lines.

We are inviting anyone who is interested in coming to these talks to contact the Health Unit by letter or by telephone.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Royal Commission Continues Investigation Of Government Business

EDMONTON — The royal commission investigating into Alberta government business was the big news from the capital city again last week.

The commission, headed by Mr. Justice Hugh John Macdonald of the supreme court trial division, continued its detailed examination of highway contracts. And while the evidence was still technical and voluminous, there were a number of interesting points brought out.

So far, three top officials of the highway department have testified that they know of no preference being shown in awarding contracts to contracting firms by reason of their being indebted to the provincial treasury branches.

Testimony in this regard came from Alex Frame, deputy minister of highways; A. M. Paull, chief construction engineer and L. H. McManus, chief bridge engineer.

They said they had never been requested either by treasury branch officials or by ministers of the crown to give preference to contractors who owed money to the treasury branches. Under the terms of reference, the commission is investigating the suggestion made during the June election campaign that the government favored certain firms with big contracts to help them pay off their debts to the treasury branches.

However, the commission has been told of several firms which did borrow from the treasury branches, and their names keep turning up in the evidence.

The firm mentioned most frequently to date seems to be the O'Sullivan Construction Co. of Lethbridge which was heavily involved with the treasury branches around 1947 and 1948. At the same time the firm was receiving a good share of government contracts.

One interesting bit of information brought out by Mr. Milvain counsel for the Alberta Liberal Association concerned work done in 1947 and 1948 by the O'Sullivan firm on the highway between Edmonton and Morinville.

Incidentally, this is the piece of road which has been mentioned most frequently in evidence. O'Sullivan built the road in 1947. His contract was for surfacing only at a cost of $257,623, but the road wasn't in condition for surfacing and the final cost was $736,444.

In the following year, 1948, O'Sullivan was given a contract to do repair work on 8.4 miles of the same road. Mr. Milvain brought out evidence that the government records show clay and gravel used on the repair work far exceed specifications called for on the original contract.

The Liberal counsel delved into the government report on the total amount of clay and gravel used for the repair work. Then he took the length of the road, 8.4 miles, and the width 26 feet, and suggested the amounts would give a thickness of 32 inches of clay and 18 inches of gravel. The original specifications called for 18 inches of clay and six inches of gravel.

Mr. Paull was on the witness stand at the time and admitted he would be surprised if that much material actually went into the road, but later he said clay and gravel shrink by as much as 30 per cent when compacted.

The witness also denied Mr. Milvain's suggestion that the government records of the amount of material hauled for the job could be wrong. The records are checked by too many people for mistakes to occur, he said.

All of this may or may not prove something. Opposing counsel will present their views on the matter when all the evidence on highway contracts is heard. Then it will be up to the commission to decide.

4-H'er In Two Events

James Kinniburgh of Airdrie, Alberta, has the singular distinction of being the first 4-H club member to represent Alberta in two major events at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto.

James is a member of the Yankee Valley 4-H Swine Club and with his partner Miss Beatrice McArthy of the same club, he was successful in winning the trip to Toronto for the forthcoming National Club contests. Elimination contests were held at the School of Agriculture at Olds in August to decide the winners in the Swine and six other projects.

One of a total of six Angus steers and the only Junior Yearling Aberdeen Angus steer to go to the "Royal" from Alberta is the steer James will show on Tuesday, November 15. The day before, Monday, November 14, James and his partner meet other 4-H Swine Cub members in a Club competition. The National 4-H Club Council granted permission for James to show his own calf.

Alberta 4-H Clubs started going to the "Royal" in 1930 and never before has a 4-H member competed in two major events.

Monday Is Farmers' Night In Canada

Monday night is farmers' night in Canada and commencing Oct. 31, at 8:30 many farm radios will be turned to the National Farm Radio Forum program, so states Jas. R. McFall, the Alberta Farm Forum Secretary.

Farm Forum is not just another program designed for your armchair pleasure states Mr McFall. The broadcast is directed to give arguments pro and con in relation to the subject under discussion. This helps as a basis of information but the real value comes from the discussion by listeners within their local discussion group. Here they analyze the available information, radio and printed work, and form and report their own opinions, which are summarized and reported back the following week.

The first three programs this season include such topics as — "Teacher or Sitter", "Fire on the Farm", Nov. 7; "Is Local Government effective?", Nov. 14th. The Forum groups in discussion on the first night will ask themselves the following questions:

What do you think should be done by (a) Parents (b) Your School Board (c) Municipal Government (e) Federal Government— to relieve the teacher shortage?

Alberta had 56 forum groups last winter. To encourage more groups the Alberta Farm Forum Council is sponsoring a Western Farm Forum Workshop at Banff, Oct 24 to 28. It is anticipated that those attending will help organize new groups and thus encourage a greater participation in this National Radio Program, of interest to all farm people.

Last year the total of motorists visiting Canada from the state of Vermont represented 77.2% of car registrations in that state. Quick Canadian Facts.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

We've had a few days of sunny weather although cloudy damp days persist. Some farmers have finished their harvest, others will be on into the next week.

A note just received from Rev and Mrs D C MacMahon of Sheet Harbor N.S., tells of the birth of a son 'Gordon Rosley' on Sept. 7th. Rev MacMahon was our student in 1951.

Mrs James Walsh and family, Adele, Doreen, Wayne and Laura from the city arrived at the home of her parents Mr and Mrs O Omnene on Oct. 7. Mrs. Don Wilson and daughter Marlene accompanied them to their home. Marlene's operation was very successful and she is getting along well. Mrs. Walsh and family returned home to Edmonton the first of the week. Mrs. Omnene accompanied them to spend a few days in the city.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Martin on the birth of a daughter Patricia Ann on Oct. 13 in the Vermilion hospital.

The Thanksgiving service in the Allandale church was well attended with 55 present. It was very pleasing to see so many from Clandonald. Rev MacKay always has such grand services for his congregations. The next service will be at Clandonald on Oct. 23. The next two weeks at Allandale, Nov. 6th, and so on until Xmas. The harvest offering for the Thanksgiving service was given to the hospital. It was taken in by Mr and Mrs Harold Cooper. We did appreciate their kindness and thanks too, to all those for their donations.

It is now in a cast and he is getting on very well.

WINS BINGO PRIZE

We are very pleased that Mrs. Woody Wilson won a lovely flash camera at the last bingo held in Vermilion.

Mr Martin McBride who had spent the last few months at the coast with daughter Neva (Mrs. Newcombe) and family returned home to Vermilion on Oct. 9th. Neva accompanied her dad home and plans on staying a few weeks. Mr McBride hadn't been feeling too well, but has, we are happy to say, improved since coming home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hogaboam of Derwent spent last Sunday at their nieces, the Baldock home.

PO. Dean Broadfoot, nephew of Mrs. Mildred Baldock is the pilot of the plane that is taking Hon. L. B. Pearson, minister of external affairs, on his European and Asian tour.

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. John Arnold on the death of her mother Mrs. Mattie Hemphill of Picayune, Miss, U.S.A., who passed away Sept. 24 of a heart attack at the age of 80 years.

Closing Thought: "The little that we have is multiplied as we share it with others. The things that we seek together grow richer and sweeter through our sharing in their quest."

BUY CANADIAN

When I wrote a column some while ago saying that from now on I intended to buy everything in my own town, of Canadian manufacture, I didn't expect much reaction. So many have paid lip service to that same idea — but weakened the minute a bargain was offered. Now however, I am convinced that most Canadians are dead serious about it, because I got six times as much reaction from that column as I expected.

One reader, to 'prove that it is not just a bunch of manufacturers who are back of this drive to buy at home' sent me a copy of the Canadian Labor Press. It said in part, 'From the time of our first publication in 1919 the Canadian Labor Press has consistently advocated the purchase of Canadian-made goods as being in the best interests of our working force. Time and the current plight of many of our industries have not changed this policy. As never before many of our industries are faced with the kind of competition that is virtually impossible to combat.'

It was pleasing to know [illegible] workers were concerned about [illegible] problem. Sometimes, of late, [illegible] unions [illegible] to be stubbornly against anything that the bus[illegible] favored.

It would be even more pleasing if labor would go all-out to work hard, produce more units per hour, and thus cut costs. In some industries they are doing that. True, they still can't match the cheap labor of some countries, but they do diminish the spread in price to some degree. Those of us determined to buy Canadian appreciate it.

The Canadian Labour Press urges that same principle. 'Every Canadian worker can do his part to ensure that his company's products are placed on the most competitive footing possible. This involves a sincere effort to keep productivity and quality high and a reasonable attitude in wage demands'.

That sort of attitude deserves three cheers. If union leaders will follow through on it, labour may win back some of the friends it lost through pushing its power too far!

The first export of natural gas from Canada occurred in 1891 when surplus gas from wells near Port Colborne, Ont., was piped to the city of Buffalo, N.Y.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

By Per Fosterity

The hands of a physician are skilled in using the scalpel, the syringe, the splint. These very same hands also have proved remarkably successful with the quill, pen and typewriter.

The writing abilities of physicians are thought by many to be limited to illegible scribbling on a prescription blank. This is far from the truth, for physicians have made considerable contributions to literature throughout history.

One of the first doctors-turned-writer was Johann Christoph Friedrich von Schiller, the famous dramatist who gave up medicine to write. Schiller was jailed in his native land and forbidden to write; but he fled his domain, abandoned medicine entirely and spent the rest of his life writing great dramas.

Other well-known names in literature who practised the art of healing include the dramatist Anton Chekhov, the writer Tobias Smollett, the poets John Keats and Oliver Goldsmith, and the essayist Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of Sherlock Holmes, also practised medicine before turning to the quill.

Of the contemporary authors, W. Somerset Maugham, Albert Schweitzer, A. J. Cronin and William Carlos Williams are some of the more successful physician-authors.

Williams, one of the nation's leading poets, explains that writing enabled him to detach his mind from his life as a physician, and, in turn, has made him a better doctor.

Warning For Parents: Heed Mealtime Storm Signals

Weatherwise, it's the time of year to look for storm signals. Health-wise, it's a good time to realize that lagging appetites and table-time temper tantrums are storm warnings of another type. When mealtime music becomes a chorus of "No's!" from the small fry, parents and oldsters would do well to read between the lines. For, [illegible] growing children begin to turn [illegible] attractive wholesome food, [illegible] food habits and their health are at stake.

Youngsters and appetites are easily [illegible] — a fact to remember when emotional problems are allowed to invade the mealtime atmosphere. Wise are the parents who encourage their children to bring problems home for discussion, but the breakfast nook or the dining room should never be turned into a family court. Any emotional [illegible] — excitement, disappointment, [illegible] or fear — will play havoc with [illegible] digestion. When meals are peaceful, happy, stubborn feeding problems are not so apt to occur.

The child who comes to the table excessively hungry and tired, often becomes discouraged and does not enjoy his food. Pre-school or school age children, constantly on the go, should be encouraged to rest quietly a few minutes before eating lunch or supper. Between-meal or after-school snacks will help to control hearty appetites and avoid the danger of "over hungry" indifference at meal time. A cheese or [illegible] nut butter sandwich of enriched white or whole wheat bread, a glass of milk or some fruit, will provide nutritious between-meal [illegible].

The all too [illegible] 'won't eat it!' tempest can be lessened or avoided by offering new foods one at a time. A [illegible] token [illegible] of the new, with a well liked familiar food, will often be accepted without notice or comment. As the child grows older, new foods or new ways of serving old favorites help to keep mealtime interesting and pleasant. Most children prefer simple, colorful foods. Food mixtures in which the ingredients are not easily recognized, or highly [illegible] foods, may discourage rather than [illegible] healthy appetites.

Don't forget that every storm is caused by weather conditions. A child's mealtime outbreak of protests may be a plain and simple [illegible] of copying the attitudes and [illegible] habits of mother and dad. An ill-timed frown or comment by an [illegible] family [illegible] when a food or a meal is served, will be [illegible] up quickly by the younger set and before you know it, the storm warnings are up!

Thoughtful parents make family meals a pleasant adventure — with good health at the end of the trail!

FALL CULTIVATION

With the soil dry throughout most of the Prairie Provinces and harvesting almost completed, an excellent opportunity presents itself to "take a crack" at perennial weeds.

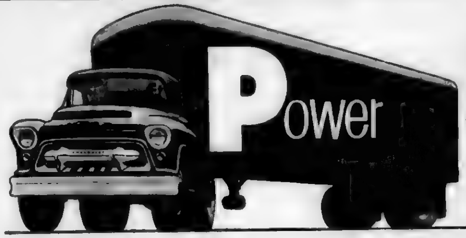
The past few wet seasons have prevented efficient cultivation after harvest. The result is a tremendous increase in Canada Thistle, Sow Thistle and Couch Grass in Western Canada. Fall cultivation will not completely eradicate these weeds but will certainly greatly weaken them.

Canada thistle and sow thistle plants which grew in a grain crop during the summer have been prevented, through the competition of the crop, from storing any appreciable quantity of food in their roots. However, once the grain crop is harvested the thistles no longer have competition and are free to store up food supplies to be used next season. Now is the time to take a "whack" at them and prevent this build-up.

Choice of Implement. Any cultivation implement that will make a clean job of cultivation is satisfactory for the job. The one-way might be first choice, but a cultivator with sharp shovels is quite satisfactory. The important thing is to cut off all the thistles.

Couch Grass Different. Fall cultivation for couch grass control is quite different to cultivation for thistle control. Where a field is to be cropped next year the object this Fall should be to drag as many couch grass roots as possible to the surface of the soil. The duckfoot cultivator or spring-tooth cultivator will do a good job. Two or three times over a badly infested field will bring a surprisingly large tonnage of couch grass roots to the surface. Two or three hours exposure to bright sunshine will kill them. Not all the couch grass roots will be killed, of course, but the competition to next year's grain crop will be reduced.

Yes, fall cultivation is a means of seriously weakening perennial weeds. Let's 'hit' them while we have a good chance.



CHOICE OF V8 OR 6
With your new Chevrolet truck you can choose a short stroke V8 or the famous 6 cylinder engine to do your hauling job better with more power and economy.

LONG WEARING PISTONS
New alloy pistons and ring design, plus Pressure Lubrication, add new life to pistons — in both the famous 6 and the new short stroke V8's.

COMPRESSION RATIO
New highs in compression ratio give more instant response to power demands and squeeze for more power from every drop of fuel.

AXLES AND TRANSMISSIONS
Chevrolet's power carrying units can be tailored to your individual needs. In the rough, or on the road, there's a choice of transmissions, drive lines and axles for you.

12-VOLT SYSTEM
Chevrolet's new 12-volt ignition system assures faster starts, even during the coldest weather. Its hotter spark means more thorough combustion for greater economy, too.

STRONGER FRAMES
With Chevrolet, you get the added strength and full length support of new parallel-design frames, ensuring greater alignment strength.

TUBELESS TIRES
Greater traction, quieter running and increased protection from blowouts – these are just three of many reasons for the superiority of tubeless tires on the light duty models.

SMALL TURNING RADIUS
Now you can make tighter turning circles, get into smaller spaces with Chevrolet's smaller turning radius.

POSITIVE STEERING
Recirculating Ball Steering has been improved to give even greater ease. Power steering is available at extra cost on the heavy duty models.

IMPROVED VISIBILITY
Now you can see all round — with Chevrolet's wrap [illegible] windows front and rear [illegible] around is optional at extra cost).

AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSIONS
These great transmissions make driving easier, automatically. They cut delivery times – and reduce wear and tear on the truck by always being geared right for the load and the road.

NEW DRIVE LINES
New Hotchkiss drive lines, now on all models, absorb drive and braking shock, and promote longer truck life.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Two of the local elevator companies, the Alberta Wheat Pool and the Searle, have large annexes now in the course of construction. The work on the additions is expected to be completed in both cases within the next week.

Mrs. J. W. G. Morrison of Vermilion has been appointed in charge of the Voluntary Registration for Canadian Women for the riding of Battle River. The work of organization has already been started and in the course of a few days forms will be sent out to different centres in the constituency. The registration has for its primary object the compiling of a list of women willing to undertake work for which they are already trained and qualified or to undertake training for these tasks. The registration will also ascertain the number of homes in Canada which would be available under suitable supervision to take refugees from Britain under the age of 16 and over the age of 60 to safeguard them and relieve the government of the problem of feeding them.

The $18,000 by-law for repairs to the E.L. & P. plant failed to carry by the narrow margin of five votes on Monday, the final count being 101 for the by-law while 53 voted against borrowing the money. Two-thirds of the total vote was necessary to carry the plebiscite.

W. R. Hayward of Kamloops, B.C. is spending the week in Vermilion, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cash.

Messrs Gilbert and Henry Dorey of Landonville are spending a month at Vancouver and Victoria, leaving last week end for the coastal points.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Oct. 24, 1923

For the first time in Alberta, the preferential ballot, or in other words, the transferable vote system, is to be used in a province-wide election, on the occasion of the referendum on the liquor question on Monday, Nov. 5th.

The break in the weather Monday which was characterized by a dark, sullen sky and drizzling rain, was followed again Tuesday morning with all the old time Alberta sunshine and it looks like another fine spell of weather.

The Vermilion Municipal hospital acknowledges the receipt of fruits and vegetalbes from the Welledale harvest festival.

What might have been a very disastrous fire occurred on the farm of Gus Throndson on Saturday. Tom Souder had just pulled in and had been threshing less than an hour when one of the pitchers saw flames shooting out of the blower and in less than a minute the whole stack was afire. Through the quick action and cool headedness of the crew the large separator was soon removed from the flames; the engine was then hooked on to the portable granary which was also on fire and containing over 100 bushels of wheat, moving it far enough from the fire to be saved. The fire is of very mysterious origin and is the fourth to occur at threshing machines in the Vermilion district this season.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family in their hour of sorrow.

Farm Delegation Seeks Assistance For Farmers

Following the recent Grain Marketing Conference at Saskatoon, a large delegation went to Ottawa to interview the Federal Cabinet. This delegation consisted of representatives from the Farm Unions of the Prairie provinces, the Wheat Pools, the United Grain Growers, the Federation of Agriculture and the Ministers of Agriculture for Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Alberta was represented by the Hon. Mr. Halmrast, Henry Young of the F. U.A. and Roy Marler of the A.F.A.

Before meeting the Cabinet the delegation held a conference in Ottawa on Oct. 10. It was decided to concentrate on the demand for emergency assistance to farmers and leave some of the more fundamental decisions of the Saskatoon conference to a later meeting. This decision was made over the protest of the Farm Union delegates.

On Oct. 11 the delegation was received by the Prime Minister, together with four of his colleagues, Messrs. Howe, Gardiner, Garson and Harris and some technical advisers. In all 25 persons were present.

The farm delegation asked for a plan of cash advances to farmers against grain stored on farms to be put into effect immediately. The Ministers appeared impressed both by the arguments advanced and by the representative nature of the delegation. It would seem probable that action on this request will be taken in the near future.

A request was made also for a further conference to discuss the deeper problems of the farmers' situation. Arrangements for this can be expected later.

For Safer Cars

From a special committee of California doctors who have seen and treated a lot of traffic injuries, come some suggestions that are decidely worth the serious consideration of the car designers.

To protect the pedestrians and children on bicycles these doctors advocate rubber bumpers, smooth rounded front ends and elimination of ornaments, protruding handles and other points that may spear or catch. To protect the driver and his passengers they would tie things down firmly inside.

Virtually all the changes recommended by this committee have nothing to do with how well the car operates. Wisely, says The Financial Post, the doctors have concentrated on their field, the saving of life. Recently in the new car models some of these safety suggestions have been carried out and for its own sake it is to be hoped that the public or at least the saner part of it, will approve.

More German Firms

More German firms are coming to Canada, reports The Financial Post. Inflation at home and lack of skilled workers is narrowing the margin between manufacturing costs here and on the other side of the Atlantic. Since 1946, some sixty West German firms have set up manufacturing operations here, investing about 25 million dollars.

WOODVALE NOTES

Despite the threatening and blustery weather of last week, threshing and combining have made good progress and not too much is left in the fields to worry about.

Thanksgiving in the county always seems to mean the busiest day in the fall — not much time for that much praised turkey dinner; we often wonder if they really eat them in the towns and cities that day. However, there are other ways to give thanks, than by sitting down to a big dinner. Working to get the harvest safely in is always something to be grateful for.

Rev. Nugent did not come out for a Thanksgiving service. Instead, Rev. J. W. Williams of Lloydminster will be in Ganton community hall on October 30th at 11 o'clock in the morning to conduct a baptismal and communion service.

RED CROSS QUILT AT MEETING

The October meeting of the Red Cross auxiliary was held on the 5th at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Portsmith with seven members and two visitors present. It was lucky there was not much business to dicuss, as three crib quilts kept everyone very busy. Seems to give more work than one big one. One was made for the Vermilion branch, the other two pieced together by Mrs. Amy Portsmith will, for the time being, be kept by the Auxiliary until needed. Lunch surely tasted good after the afternoon's work. The next meeting is called for November 2nd at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Zelte.

Mrs. M. Watson became a grandmother for the third time this year, when her daughter, Mrs. D. G. Cameron, had a baby boy on Oct. 7th in the Lloydminster hospital. All three are grandsons.

NEWLYWEDS TO LIVE AT KOKNEE

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Robinson (nee Hazel Thomson) who were married on Friday in Vermilion, with a big reception in Vermilion and a dance in the Koknee school, crowded to overflowing that night. The young couple are off with a happy start in life together. They will live in the Koknee district.

On the Wednesday before her wedding, a shower and tea party was given for Hazel at the home of Mrs. Betty Lysons. Not all her friends in the community could attend the party, as the men folks were threshing, but enough were there to make it a festive and pleasant occasion. They made her a bride's book that afternoon, describing her life by pasting clippings from magazines in a book, which made for a lot of fun too. Then a big basket, beautifully decorated by the hostess and full of gifts, was presented to Hazel. Afterwards she thanked all very nicely for everything, and a dainty and delicious lunch was enjoyed. There is no doubt about it, Hazel starts her married life with the best wishes of her Tolland friends and neighbors.

Mrs. T. Preston came back home on Thursday after five weeks in the Islay hospital, and feels very much better, but has to keep resting and quiet for a while yet.

[illegible]

George Gow has done a lot of building on the farm this summer. Granaries and a barn were moved, and now the foundation is laid for the large building from the Borradaile refinery that will be moved this fall. It will serve as a machine shed, with living quarters above. A shelter-belt around all of them makes the place look like a pleasant one in which to live.

Ernie Isley attended the teachers convention in Vermilion, as did Mrs. Roberts and Mr J. Hohol.

Mrs. Eva Dickson is staying with her parents in Lloydminster. She is still in a cast and has to return to Edmonton after a while, but very glad to be out of the hospital.

For our last item we have to go back a month, when Ethridge Webber and Bert Portsmith went by car to visit Herman Wolters, who is staying with his sisters, Mrs. Cowan and Rosie Wolters in Drayton Valley. They went to see some friends of Bert's there, too.

Miss Betty Hernon Feted at Shower

A shower was held at the home of Mrs. A. Maggs, on Wednesday, October 12th in honor of Miss Betty Hernon, an October bride-elect.

The living room was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers, and white bells. At the completion of a few games Betty and her mother were seated at the head of the room and a beautifully decorated wagon piled high with gifts was drawn in by Bonnie and Janice Maggs.

When Betty had opened her gifts and the guests had had an opportunity to admire them, she thanked her friends for their good wishes and the lovely shower gifts.

Assisted by Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Skrodeliss the hostess served a delicious lunch. There were 24 guests who signed the guest book which was in the charge of Mrs. Robert Repp.

The evening was concluded with picture-taking, and a shower of confetti for the bride-to-be.

In the ten years since family allowance payments were instituted in Canada, monthly cost has increased from $17.5 million to $30.5 million. —Quick Canadian Facts

764 Young People In Halls of Learning

School Attendance Highest In History

Quite a number of minor repairs and replacements were reported as completed, since requested following the last local board meeting.

A question was submitted by a rural ratepayer as to the reason his land in the Vermilion local school district was taxed four mills more than land anywhere else in the school division. This, it was recalled, was a throw-back to the days before centralization, when it was felt that land contiguous to larger centres enjoyed an educational advantage to that of land more remote from larger schools. This advantage has now disappeared due to bus routes and centralization. Indeed, children in rural areas in the town school district have in many cases to walk much further than those travelling by bus. It was thus the opinion of the board that this extra four mills on the educational route was outmoded and should be eliminated.

Repairs have been ordered for the front steps at the high school and to the air conditioning system in that building; bannisters at the elementary school will be replaced or repaired to eliminate danger from splinters.

Next meeting of the board will be held on Monday Nov. 21.

Seven hundred and sixty-four young people are in the halls of learning in Vermilion, the highest number in history. Of these pupils and students 128 are in the five rooms at the primary school; 289 in the ten rooms at the elementary school; the Junior high has 224 students in seven rooms; and 123 in the high school where six rooms are in operation.

Reports re attendance were given at the regular monthly meeting of the local school board held Monday night. The board meeting is the third Monday of each month. Present were the chairman Don Taylor, secretary Ashley Cooper, trustees Ernie Schurman, Claude Brennan, school principals Miss Olga Tyloski, Mr. W. F. Stewart, Mr. W. B. Novak and Mr. J. B. Bell.

An asphalt apron has been constructed at the Junior high school and should eliminate a considerable portion of the mud problem during wet weather. The board was highly appreciative of the laying of the asphalt by the town public works crew under the direction of Mr. Cecil Weldon. The job was quickly and apparently very efficiently carried out and the board went on record as commending Mr. Weldon and his men for the work.

Serve immediately with crisp vegetable relishes and potato chips.

Even-Flo Gas Burner

Long, straight Even-Flo cast iron burners incorporate an unusually large number of narrow slots for ports. The ports are scientifically placed in pairs to produce a perfect mix of secondary air with the blue flame. Special construction, inside the burners, baffles the flow of the air-gas mixture to give uniform distribution to every port. Never before has a burner of this type been developed to give such stable and uniform flame characteristics. Because the flame for the entire length of the burner is so uniform, the heating surface is heated evenly, resulting in greatest efficiency.

DISCOLORATION IN WHEAT HEADS

This year much more discoloration than usual has appeared on wheat heads in a number of the districts throughout the West.

Although discoloration which appears from time to time has in the past been generally associated with certain varieties it is present to a much greater extent than usual this year and it has been found on all varieties. Plant pathologists tell us that because of the combination this season of high temperatures and excessive moisture various fungus and bacterial organisms have become established in tissue which is normally resistant to them, causing discoloration. These conditions have made it easier for the ordinary diseases such as Black Chaff and Glume Blotch to take hold and they too are present in localities.

Glume Blotch is a fungus disease [illegible] is a bacterial disease. Normally neither of these diseases seems to [illegible] yield, although of the two [illegible] Chaff is perhaps rather more harmful. In addition to Glume Blotch Septoria which causes a chocolate colored discoloration to the heads there is another Septoria which attacks the leaf sheath, working from the top of the sheath downwards. This disease which is regarded as probably more serious has been found this year on both wheat and barley in Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

The fact that discoloration was fairly widespread in 1955 may not be too serious although there might be a tendency for the organisms to carry over in stubble and trash and, of course, these diseases will appear again if conditions are favorable for their development.

September Highway Deaths In Alberta Highest In History

Alberta's toll of thirty-eight deaths in motor vehicle accidents in September formed the "blackest" single month on record according to statistics compiled by the Alberta Safety Council.

The previous high months for motor car fatalities were December 1954, and the same month of 1953, each with thirty-seven deaths.

Officials of the A.S.C. point out, however that there has been a heavy increase in motor traffic this year which may account in part for the increased accidents. In the nine months ended Sept. 30, last, there were 11,840 more motor cars and trucks on the highways than the total during the entire 12 months of 1954.

In 1954, there were 214,301 passenger cars and 113,660 trucks registered, making a total of 327,961. Up to Sept. 30 of this year, the total was 339,801, comprising 222,778 cars and 116,823 trucks.

For nine months of this year, there have been 162 deaths in motor accidents, compared with 135 in the similar period of last year. Of last month's toll, 34 were at rural points, reported by the R.C.M.P., while two were in Edmonton, one in Lethbridge and one at a town.

So far this year, 3,894 persons have been injured in motor accidents, as against 2,576 in the comparable period of last year. For September only, the number was 395, an increase of 108 from a year ago.

The RCMP reported 334 persons injured, up from 245 a year ago, while Edmonton went from 57 to 88 and Calgary dropped from 80 to 84. There were eight in Medicine Hat, 16 in Lethbridge, compared with three a year ago, and three in Jasper Place.

Alberta's total of motor accidents passed the 12,000 mark in the nine-month period. The actual total was 12,105, as against 11,840 in the similar period of 1954.

The September aggregate was 1,395, compared with 1,382 in the same month of last year. The R.C.M.P. reported 717 accidents at rural points, an increase of 117 in September, while Edmonton's total rose from 395 to 528. On the other hand, Calgary dropped from 294 to 282. Medicine Hat increased by two to 22. While Lethbridge had 35, a decrease of one. Jasper Place dropped from 14 to 10 and other Alberta towns reported 11, a decrease of 12.

From 1930 to 1953 infant mortality in Canada was reduced from a rate of 94 deaths per 1000 live births to 38; in 1953 approximately 24,300 children lived to their first birthday who would have died at the rate prevailing in 1930.

Overflow Meeting Friday Sets Fees, 'Spiel Dates

Curling Prospects Bright For New Season

Vermilion and district can confidently look for the most enthusiastic curling season in its history, if the general meeting of curlers held on Friday evening is any sign. To begin with there were over 50 men present and all went to work with a will to iron out financial problems, set fees and bonspiel dates, and generally clear the way for an excellent winter of curling.

Much of the enthusiasm can no doubt be traced to the fact that the artificial ice installation is just about completed and by the first week in November ice worries in the curling rink will be over. There will be a five months' curling season regardless of weather. The bonspiels will all have good ice, in fact everything will be rosy-hued in the curlers' world.

PAY OFF BUILDING MORTGAGE

President Aldous Kent was chairman and an interim financial statement was given by the treasurer, Al Locke. The statement revealed that the mortgage on the new building was now completely paid off.

FEW SHARES AVAILABLE

The sale of shares to finance the artificial ice plant has gone over exceedingly well with 114 full $100 shares sold and 18 partial shares. This left 68 shares to sell.

AVAILABLE ON MONTHLY PAYMENTS

In order to curl, a member must own a $100.00 share or have the loan of such a share. Loans are also available from the bank to finance the purchase of shares with repayment at the rate of $5.00 per month over 20 months. Anyone interested should investigate immediately.

CURLING FEES $25.00

Considerable discussion took place regarding fees. Operation of an artificial ice plant costs considerably more than when depending on nature, so that it was quite obvious that, based on fifty rinks, the fees would have to be advanced. Fees were finally set at $25.00 per male member. Of this $12.50 must be paid before curling starts, and the balance within 30 days.

HIGH SCHOOL

Junior high and high school students will be charged $5.00 this season, but for this they receive five months curling as compared to $2.00 for two months last winter.

Vermilion School of Agriculture students will pay 50c per game and will be allotted four sheets of ice every Saturday afternoon. In case of special events or bonspiels, such draws are subject to cancellation.

RENTALS $6.00 PER SHEET

It is expected that the artificial ice will be in demand for Club bonspiels and casual games by players from clubs not enjoying artificial ice. Rentals were set at $6.00 per sheet for a ten-end game; this is only 75c per player; and $10.00 per sheet per day (9 a.m. to 6 p.m.) for [illegible] bonspiels. Transient curlers from out of town who fill in for the odd game will be charged 75c per game.

RINK SELECTION

In order to select the rinks, the skips will be elected and in turn allowed to pick out his own third man. Names of all leads and seconds will be written on the blackboard, with each skip drawing in turn.

A membership committee comprised of Chas. Heckbert, Mac Simonsen, and George Webb Sr. was appointed to conduct a campaign to list names of everyone desiring to curl.

72 RINK BONSPIEL

The Vermilion open bonspiel will be limited to 72 rinks in order to confine all play to the local curling rink. As it will have artificial ice it was decided that it would not be wise to attempt to use outside rinks as in past years. Five competitions will be played, seven draws per day, and the bonspiel entry fee will be $20.00 per rink.

Dates were not set but the 'spiel will be held sometime from the beginning of the last week in February to the 15th of March. The club has no ice worries due to weather now.

FARMERS' 'SPIEL

The Farmers' Bonspiel has been moved ahead and will be the first week in December.

The annual Sportsmen's 'spiel is scheduled to start January 11th.

It seemed to be the feeling of the large gathering present that the curling club executive is worthy of the greatest praise for their accomplishments of the past few years. They have purchased matched rocks, put up a new rink, and now have artificial ice installed. Financing has kept pace with advancement of facilities.

BINGOS BIG HELP

Treasurer Locke also reported that profits from the regular car bingos held this year were $3400.00, a very worthwhile effort.

ELKS FALL CARNIVAL THIS WEEK END

Once again the Elks of Vermilion have made arrangements to stage their annual fall carnival. And, once again they promise fun and games for everyone.

The Carnival will be on Friday, Saturday and Monday, Oct. 28, 29 and 31. It will be staged in the spacious Elks hall.

The Carnival committee has made plans to have novelty games and bingo played each of the three evenings. There are practical and novelty goods featured as prizes.

Door prizes will be given away every night, so come and give yourself a chance to win one of these generous prizes, at least.

There will be dancing each of the three evenings. So, come and have a good time — whether it's bingo, novelty games or dancing that you prefer. Or, have a try at some of each. All proceeds from the Carnival will be directed toward the charity and community work sponsored by the Elks.

Presbytery W.A. Hears Mrs. Kinsman

"The Past is a goodly heritage; the Present is a compelling challenge; the Future is a beckoning horizon", Mrs. V. W. Kinsman told the assembly of W.A. members at the St. Paul Presbytery meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 12. Mrs. Kinsman, President of the Dominion Council of the United Church W.A., who comes from Stony Creek, Ont., went on to say that the W.A. groups should move under the sign of the cross, not under the sign of the dollar.

Mrs. Kinsman was the guest speaker at the afternoon session of the Presbytery meeting held in First United church, Vermilion.

There were more than 75 W. A. members present at the meeting which was preceded by a dinner presided over by Mrs. Tom Dams, Vermilion as Presbytery president. The dinner was prepared and served by the W.M.S. of First United church.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. N. N. Bentley of Vermilion and the welcome was replied to by Mrs. Hamilton of Wainwright. Greetings were brought to the gathering from Dominion Council by Mrs. Kinsman; from the Presbytery by Rev. C. W. MacKay, Vermilion; from the W.M.S. by Mrs. C. Barr, Vermilion, and from the Alberta conference by Mrs. M. Enger, Irma.

After dinner the afternoon meeting was convened in the main part of the church with a recital of the Creed, the Theme hymn and a prayer.

The Devotional with the theme "Thankfulness" was conducted by Mrs. G. Mather, Vegreville, and with a solo "The Altar of Prayer" given by Mrs. Bruce Bird of Vegreville.

After the minutes were read and the roll called the treasurer Mrs. J. Lee, Lloydminster, gave her report.

Mrs. P. Bootsman, Kitscoty, accompanied by Mrs. Elsie Batty, of Kitscoty favored the gathering with a musical number at this point in the program, and again later in the afternoon.

A report on the progress and achievements in connection with the Presbytery camp at Lake Whitney was given by Mrs. C. W. MacKay. Mrs. MacKay explained to the meeting that the camp was started with very little funds, but with the help and interest of many, had developed to its present very excellent condition. There were about 85 young people who used the camp during the past summer.

Following the guest speaker's address there was a question period. Reports from the various committee chairmen were heard.

Mrs. Enger at the conclusion of the meeting thanked the Vermilion W.A. for their hospitality. A social half hour was then enjoyed during which tea was served.

Purebred Livestock Sale Saturday, Nov. 5

An unusual opportunity will be available for beef cattle breeders and hog raisers on Saturday, Nov. 5th next when the Vermilion Agricultural Society sponsors the annual fall sale of purebred cattle and hogs. Livestock should be brought in the afternoon before or early in the morning of Nov. 5 so that prospective buyers may have an opportunity of looking it over.

The hogs will be sold at the Fair grounds starting promptly at 10:00 o'clock on Saturday morning Nov. 5, and the cattle will go under the hammer at 1 o'clock at the arena which the town has kindly loaned for the purpose.

A fine selection of hogs will be offered, both Yorks and Tams being available for purchase. Some of the finest herds in the country are to be represented and those seeking improvement in their own herds would be well advised to take advantage of the opportunity.

CALVES SUITABLE FOR CALF CLUB SPECIAL OFFERING

The Agricultural Society realizing the necessity of providing outstanding calves for boys and girls entering Calf Club competitions in this and adjoining districts and desiring to assist the D.A. in this type of promotion work, has arranged for some extra special calves to be offered for sale at the time of the annual fall sale and cordially invite all who plan on taking part in Calf Club work to attend and to secure high quality animals.

A-1 BREEDING STOCK

Purebred beef animals from such well known breeders as E. M. Clements, John S. Cross, Homer Campbell, Thomas Smith, Warren Andrews, Leonard Foster, Wm. Handel, T. W. Wannop, Louis Hendel will be available in the Hereford section, while W. E. Cross, Kennedy Bros. and Geo. Colton will offer some fine specimens of Aberdeen Angus cattle. The Shorthorn breed will be represented by W. Lyle Robinson, W. R. Cornish, Clarence Barr, Alex Cairns, Peter Samoil, Jos. Lukasewich and Peter Samoil and altogether the Society feels that the 1955 catalog now being distributed will show some fine animals for sale.

An upset price of $100 for cattle and $50 for hogs has been the established rule for the past sales and will again apply this year; terms of the sale are necessarily cash at time of purchase. Cattle must be TB tested and in accordance with present day requirements all females under 15 months must be vaccinated for Bangs. If vaccination is not possible prior to the date of the sale it may be carried out by a qualified veterinarian on arrival in Vermilion, the cost of such vaccination to be borne by the seller, the rate being 75 cents per head.

Don E. Ball, well known auctioneer of Edmonton will wield the hammer and all attending are assured of a snappy sale of high class cattle and hogs.

Remember the date of the Vermilion sale Saturday Nov. 5. Hogs will be sold at the Fair grounds at 10 a.m. and cattle will be sold at the arena at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Legion Poppy Day Set For Nov. 5th

Once again the Canadian Legion is carrying on with "Poppy Day". The Vermilion Branch will sell poppies on Saturday, Nov. 5. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Legion will as usual be around the business section of Vermilion from early morning until late at night with trays of poppies.

A committee headed by Lawrence Webb will visit business places for sale of poppy wreaths. Organizations planning on placing wreaths at the cenotaph should get them from Mr. Webb.

It is now fifteen years since the end of the Second world war. It is easy to forget the sacrifices of service men and women. There are many needy cases in our own community. As the years go by more problems arise and more help is needed by service men and their families. All money collected is used in Vermilion and district.

Legion President Neil McLean asks that citizens be generous in their giving. Mr. McLean says that Vermilion Branch would like to help a number of veterans who are in poor circumstances if only the money was available in the poppy fund.

The ladies selling tags will be downtown in Vermilion on Saturday so give as much as you can to help those who cannot see. 17x

25 Pharmacists Attend Refresher Course Here

A very successful refresher course for pharmacists was held here Tuesday in the banquet room of the Brunswick hotel. Twenty-five druggists from Wainwright, Cold Lake, St. Paul, Elk Point, Mannville, Vegreville, Mundare and Vermilion attended.

All took part in a panel discussion led by Dr. R. J. Murray of the Faculty of Pharmacy, U. of A., C. King of Vegreville and J. R. Boake of Vermilion.

Guest speaker at the luncheon was Dr. M. J. Huston, Dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy, University of Alberta.

The refresher course was sponsored by the Alberta Pharmaceutical Association and arranged by the Faculty of Pharmacy, U. of A. Among those present was Mr. C. W. Pickup, registrar-treasurer of the Association.

The course is for the purpose of bringing the pharmacists knowledge of the new drugs which are constantly being brought out as a result of research.

Dr. Huston, Dr. Murray and Mr. Pickup remained in Vermilion Wednesday and were guests at the Vermilion Board of Trade luncheon. Dr. Huston was guest speaker and delighted his audience with a wealth of information delivered in a witty and entertaining manner.

The guests were introduced by Ross Boake, local pharmacist and vice president of the Board of Trade.

The Alliance Sunday school contest continues with a marked increase, last Sunday's total attendance being 169.

Real interest in the contest with Stony Plain has been shown. Tracts and dodgers have been distributed by the Young People. A telephone call from Stony Plain is received during Sunday school announcing their increases. Tape recordings are also being exchanged with Stony Plain sending theirs for Sunday.

We won the contest last year come and help us win again.

McCurdy, former Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, and for November 22nd the Club has booked as its guest speaker Mr. Grant McEwan of Calgary. The latter addressed a meeting of the Club a year or two ago, as well as the Agricultural Society, and was exceptionally well received. The Hon. Mr. McCurdy was one of the central personages in the development of aeronautics on this continent in their pioneer days.

For the April meeting the Club will be favored with an address by Princess Caradja, the daughter of one of the richest and most powerful families in Roumania before the second world war. All these addresses will be outstanding in character and should not be missed by the people of Vermilion.

Junior High School Holds Annual Initiation

New students of the Vermilion Junior High went through a successful initiation on Wednesday, October 12th. Students such as Joan Stephens had a "great" time polishing shoes for the senior students.

The girls looked splendid in their long, warm underwear. They wore their hair in bunches tied with rags of different colors.

The boys were dressed in dainty little skirts, nylons and running shoes. Their legs showed up beautifully. On their heads the boys (or girls?) wore a charming hat and they also carried purses in which were lipstick and other sundry articles.

Among some of the notable initiates were "Suzie" Russell with her shapely legs, Wynn Puckett with her raised eyebrows and Lynn Freestone with her long underwear and curls.

After Mr. Cook, who acted as the judge, held a lively court session the guilty parties were taken to the business section of Vermilion and served their sentences.

BASKETBALL STARTED

Miss Behnke started a four-team basketball league for the girls last week. The captains and teams are Diane Taylor, Gliderettes; Lorraine LeRossignol, Blazers; Sandra Park, Globe Trotters; and Doreen Hicks, Juniors.

The first two games were played on Tuesday when the Blazers trounced the Juniors 7-0, while the Globe Trotters ran rough shod over the Gliderettes by a score of 28-3.

GOOD FISHING IN THE LAKE — Fishing is good in the Vermilion Lake, and no one need have any qualms enjoying the catches made there. The recent caution issued by the Health Unit pertained to the river east of the spillway and did not allude to the lake waters.

Driving by a number of men casting on Sunday one could see that the members of the finny tribe were really hungry and were eating up the various assortment of spoons, plugs and bait cast at them with gusto. One fisherman had an even dozen nice-sized specimen while everyone wielding a rod and line had some to show for their efforts.

Making an issue of little things is one of the surest ways to spoil happiness.

Canada's Boy Scout membership soared to a new high of 187,512 during the first six months of this year.

There's one thing about money — it talks, but never gives itself away!

PARENTS, READ THE HEALTH UNIT NOTES — The Standard is continually impressed by the information contained in the Health Unit notes, and this week is no exception. Even if your children are quite healthy and well you can store the wealth of knowledge available to you each issue. It will certainly come in handy should the need ever arise. The suggestions in this week's notes for "pass-times" for convalescing children while confined to their beds are well worth cutting out. The odds are that the amusements mentioned will be very timely, will keep the child contented as possible under the circumstances, and aid him on his road back to normal health.

BE PREPARED — Hallowe'en is just around the corner . . . Monday, Oct. 31!

More Children, More Bicycles, More Cars Means Need for More Driving Care

Greater driving care than ever before will be needed this fall now that children are back at school says Carol Lane, noted travel authority and women's travel director of Shell Oil Co. of Canada.

With an enrollment of over 2,500,000 children going to elementary and secondary schools in Canada, a great many of them will be riding bicycles to and from school.

These children will be sharing the road with nearly 4 million motor vehicles.

"It is shocking to realize," says Miss Lane, "that the biggest single killer of children in the country is motor vehicle accidents." With more children going back to school this year than ever before, and more bicycles and cars on the road, the greatest safety precautions must be taken while driving. This is especially true in school zones, near playgrounds and in residential areas.

Bicycle riders are supposed to observe the same rules as those that prevail for motorists. "But," says Miss Lane, "remember that children are children. It is up to the adult driver to assume the responsibility. Regard every child on a bicycle as a danger signal to slow down, drive with even more care."

Parents must do their part, too, by teaching children the elements of safe bicycle riding, and making sure that the bicycles are kept in perfect working condition.

FALL CULTIVATION

Everybody agrees that fall cultivation is the best way to kill out Canada Thistle and Sow Thistle. It also thins out couch grass. Now is the time to use the discer or the one-way on fields where there are perennial weeds. I notice that not very many fields have been gone over so far.

BULLS FOR SALE

The government bonus on bulls bought at the Vermilion Livestock Sale on November 5th will only apply where the application is made out at least an hour before the sale starts. Cattle sale starts at 1 p.m. The bonus is 15% in Vermilion River municipality and 10% in Minburn M. D.

FARM WATER SYSTEM AND SEWAGE

It may be a little late now for constructing a water and sewage system, however it is not too late to make the plans. We have an excellent bulletin which follows through construction of such a system very well. Anyone who is interested, drop into my office and pick one up.

BLACKLEG

We are informed by two farmers that they have lost cattle with blackleg. We suggest that anyone having young cattle get them vaccinated as soon as possible for blackleg.

FIRE HAZARDS

There is nothing more dangerous or costly than a house fire. It is now a good time to make sure that your pipes and chimney of your house are cleaned out before winter.

Anyone not having lightning rods on their house or barn should give it some thought. Lightning only has to strike once.

District Governor of Rotary Clubs
VERNON U. MINER

Rotary Club To Welcome Dist. Gov.

The Rotary Club of Vermilion on November 4th will be host to Vernon U. Miner, Governor of the 171st District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the 30 Rotary Clubs in his district. He will address the Club and confer with President Reg Mitchell, Secretary Tom McPherson and committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

Mr. Miner is a barrister and solicitor in Lloydminster, Sask. and is a member of the Rotary Club of Lloydminster. He is head of the law firm of Miner & Wakeling. He was born in Cobden, Ontario, and was graduated from the University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon.

Mr. Miner has been a member of the Rotary Club of Lloydminster since 1929 and is a Past President of that Club.

He has served as mayor of Lloydminster since 1951. During World Wars I and II, he was an officer in the Canadian Army. He was elected District Governor of Rotary International for the 1955-56 fiscal year at Rotary's Golden Anniversary Convention in Chicago last June. He is one of 238 District Governors supervising the activities of some 8,700 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 414,000 business and professional executives in 92 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, President Mitchell asserted in discussing the Governor's visit, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Vermilion because they are based on the same general objectives — developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year, this world-wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength. During the past fiscal year, 416 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 80 countries of North, South, and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa and the Islands of the Pacific.

New Wheat Policy

Within a month or so the Federal government will announce a new wheat policy which it is claimed, will answer present criticisms. That promise came from Finance Minister Harris at a political meeting in Toronto.

There may be some surprise at the government's choice of speaker and place for such an announcement, states The Financial Post, but there will be none at all at the news that a new wheat policy is coming. A completely new policy has been needed and needed urgently for a long time.

We are not moving and selling wheat nearly as fast as we are producing it. We are losing our place as the world's biggest exporter. If we don't do something soon, a large part of Canada and an important segment of the national economy are going to suffer seriously.

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

AN OPEN LETTER ON SUNDAY [illegible]

DEAR GOD

I'm sorry you [illegible] Sunday when you did. We could attend church much more regularly if Your day came at some other time. You have chosen a day that comes at the end of a hard week and we are all tired out. Not only that but it is the day following Saturday night.

Saturday evening, You know, is one time we feel we should enjoy ourselves so we go to the movies or a party and often it is after midnight when we reach home. It is almost impossible to get up on Sunday morning. You have chosen the very day we want to sleep late, and it makes it mighty hard to get the children off to Sunday School, especially when it is held so early.

I mean no disrespect dear God, but You must realize You have picked the day on which we have our biggest dinner. Not only that, but the church has fixed the hour of worship at the very time we must be preparing the dinner.

Then, too, You must think of John. He is cooped up in his office all week, and Sunday morning is the only time he has to tinker with the car and mow the lawn. When he gets into his old clothes and his hands are all greasy, You couldn't expect him to be able to get off to church.

I am telling You these things, Dear God, because I want You to get our viewpoint. It is not our fault that we are not able to get to church on Sunday mornings. We would like to go, and we know we should go, and need to go. But it must be clear to You that the real reason we cannot go is because You have chosen the wrong day. If You will select another day, we shall be glad to go to church and Sunday School and be more faithful.

Yours sincerely,
(Mrs.) I. M. BUSY

Pot Luck Supper Well Attended

About 175 men, women and children attended the family gathering sponsored by the United Church on Wednesday, October 19. The social evening took the form of a pot luck supper held in the church hall, followed by a short but entertaining program.

The program arrangements were in charge of Mr. W. Anderson and Mr. E. Schurman. Rev. C. W. MacKay welcomed the newcomers to the congregation and hoped that they would find a congenial and friendly church home here in Vermilion at the United Church.

A sing-song, led by Mr. Ken Tvedt and accompanied by Mrs. A. M. West, was enjoyed by the assembled group.

The C.G.I.T. put on two skits which were found thoroughly amusing. They were followed by two impromptu speakers, Mr. MacKay and Mr. L. Metcalf, who had no intimation that they would be called on to say a few words.

A game of 20 Questions, presided over by Mr. Schurman, challenged the audience to do their best. Mr. Schurman, superintendent of the Senior Sunday School, and Mr. Tvedt, superintendent of the Junior Sunday School, spoke to the group of parents and children.

A final hymn was sung, and the social evening closed with a benediction asked by Mr. MacKay.

The committee in charge wishes to extend heartfelt thanks to the willing workers who helped to set up and serve the supper, and to those who washed dishes after.

ST. ALBERT MAN WINS BINGO CAR

The series of car bingos held throughout the summer and fall by the Curling club, came to a conclusion last Saturday night with a very successful bingo held in the arena. It was attended by one of the largest crowds yet with the result that the curlers made a tidy net of $900 despite the fact that they were the first to offer a 1956 model car as the grand prize. 1956 cars have advanced in price over 1955 models.

It was also a successful evening for Wm. McGuffy of St. Albert, who won the 1956 Ford. Mr. McGuffy was spending the week end with friends near Mannville and accompanied them to the Bingo. He did not own a car, just a light truck, several years old, so the win was thus a timely one, and Mr. McGuffy informed the Standard that he fully intends to keep the new Ford supplied by Oilfield Motors, for his own use.

The arena was heated by a battery of gas stoves installed by Martin's Plumbing and Heating and was quite comfortable. Don Taylor was M.C. and the whole program went off smoothly and efficiently.

The complete list of winners in order of games follows: Hamper, Mrs. Fay Park; Electric fry pan, M. Flemming; Blankets, Mrs. J. Perkins; Tri-lite, Joe Wasnaki, Derwent; Radio, Fred Sydora; Luggage, Bill Delainey; Coffee table, Eva Charchun, Derwent; Flash camera, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson; Chime clock, Roy Oldenberg, Tolland; Ford car, W. McGuffy, St. Albert; Shavemaster, Barbarba Hawchuk, Vegreville; suit, Mrs. A. Lang; suit, Mrs. Nancy Chalmers.

Greenlawn News

The regular meeting of the Greenlawn Goodwill club was held on Oct. 13 at the home of Mrs. Bob Grey with 18 members present.

It was disappointing that Mrs. Tidsbury from the Hobby Shop in Vermilion was unable to be present as expected. However, it is hoped she will be at the next meeting and demonstrate Textile Painting. Those present seemed very enthusiastic over this project.

The annual chicken supper was discussed. It was decided to hold it on Oct. 28 in Greenlawn hall. Prices are to be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 15. Preschool children free. Come and bring your friends. There will be a whist drive following the supper for which the charge will be 25c.

The next meeting is to be held on Nov. 9 at the home of Mrs. Bill McMullen.

The hostess assisted by two fellow members served a very delicious lunch.

SCOUTING and GUIDING

Don't forget the Scout and Cub Mothers' Hallowe'en tea and bake sale at the Legion hall from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29. All proceeds are for the Scout hall building fund and it is hoped that it will be possible to install the water and sewer in the hall in the near future.

Six Guide and Brownie leaders went to Lloydminster last Saturday and received further instructions from Miss B. Riddock, the Training Secretary. They have come back with lots of new ideas that will help them in running their packs and companies.

BROWNIES

The Brownies are having their Hallowe'en party on Monday. Congratulations are extended to Mrs. Peggy Coah who has successfully passed her Guiders examination and has received her [illegible] as Tawny Owl.

CUBS

A very pleasant Saturday afternoon was spent down at Vermilion Lake when 36 Wainwright Cubs came in a school bus to join in a rally with our boys. All the boys appeared to be having a wonderful time and didn't feel the cold in the least. They are all very enthusiastic about holding another rally in the not too distant future.

SCOUTS

The Scouts are now divided into their patrols and are working on getting their badges. Mr. Gordon Ross, District Commissioner and the three Scouts who attended the World Jamboree at Niagara-on-the-Lake, spent an evening at Minburn where each gave a talk to the Home and School Association meeting. Minburn is hoping to be able to form its own Scout Association.

Square Dance Notes From Circle 8

There has been a change in the starting date of the fall class of Square Dance lessons. As no hall was available earlier the first class will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 15 in the Legion hall. The first night will be open house, and everyone is invited. If you are interested at all in square dancing come down that night, join in the fun and then decide whether or not you wish to sign up for the other [illegible] lessons.

Other lesson nights will be Nov. 18, 21, 22, 28 and 29. That means the classes will be over in time for all our new members to attend the dance on Dec. 1 and the Xmas party on Dec. 15. We would also like to stress the point that any member wishing a refresher course may attend any or all of the classes.

Tickets are on sale at Stephens for the Lloydminster Jamboree on Nov. 25. It's in the new school auditorium and five good callers will be in attendance.

Our next dance will feature Henry Lien as guest caller and will be followed by a general meeting of all C8 members. Several important items of business are coming up and your executive would like every member to turn out and give us your opinion.

That's Thursday, Nov. 3 in the Legion hall with Henry Lien calling.

Further Growth In 4-H Membership

Along with more widespread public interest, membership in 4-H club work is mounting annually and this year established a new record in Canada of 72,784 enrolled in 4,952 clubs, an increase of 4,071 members and 164 clubs over 1954.

THE STAGETTES

First of all we want to thank each and everyone who helped to make the Harvest Ball a success.

It must have been the circular fashion we sat in, the opening of the meeting was rather unusual — well, who can sing? No there wasn't a shortage of jawbreakers, they just hadn't got around to the president so she was obliged to sing a solo. How about that next week?

Roll call — where are all the girls?

Home and School . . . Oh yes, what about Marie Miller? She must have forgotten there was a meeting, did you Marie? However, with the exuberance of those present a lot of detail was brought to light, volunteer workers piped up from everywhere. Tag days coming up shortly will see all the available girls out who have offered their service. Sophie is making tickets, Noreen will sew, and we're going to ask Eileen to do something too. Jean is going to check even though she is tired.

Nov. 1st — Handicraft at Lena's, 8:00 o'clock. Don't forget your work.

Checking, Friday, Lena and Nan; Saturday, Doris and Reta; Monday, Marie Miller and Sophie. Where? In the check room, Elks hall.

Home and School Rally Planned At Mannville October 29th

MANNVILLE — The October meeting of the Mannville and District Home & School was one of the most interesting meetings to date but due to the length of the meeting two of the buzz session subjects were not dealt with as fully as they could have been had there been more time. The buzz sessions and general discussion will be held at a later meeting on Arithmetic drill and Formal grammar. Parents interested in the treatment of these subjects will do well to attend these P.T.A. meetings. There should be a closer harmony between the parents and the teachers and that is the real function of the Home & School meetings. In Mannville specially the teachers have been very co-operative in attending these meetings in fact sometimes there are more teachers than parents. Those parents and others interested in their children's school life and those who have problems concerning the child's school work should be interested enough to meet the teachers half-way. The teachers are doing their very best with the large classes and are still very willing to listen to suggestions that will improve the situation. With the enlarged division and larger groups of children in each classroom, present-day school can certainly not be compared with the 'little red school house' and thus adjustments must be made. Also present-day life and the extra activities of the pupils tends to detract from school work. These points and others were brought out at the meeting on Thursday evening. And with a better attendance at the future meetings most of the problems confronting the parents and teachers alike may be solved.

After the general business of the meeting the bus representatives were selected. Several routes were represented and tentative members were elected. A film was then shown on the Mobile Blood Donor clinic. This was a very interesting film and showed the necessity of blood donors and the many ways in which this blood is used and the scattered areas in which it is used. Dr Haslnoff spoke on behalf of the Red Cross and the Legion Auxiliary in urging all those who possibly could to attend the Clinic on Nov. 14 and help the Red Cross keep up their blood bank. Many times in the Mannville hospital the doctor has had to call on the Red Cross for blood in emergency cases and each time they have co-operated to the fullest. All those between the ages of 18 and 60 are eligible with a few exceptions.

Miss Kathleen Thomas gave a very interesting talk on her trip to the U.N. summer school at Banff. She thanked the six W.I.'s and the Students' Union for making the trip possible. There is not space to give a summary of her talk in this week's paper but we hope to have it in at a later date.

The Home & School rally Saturday, Oct. 29 will deal with educational topics. Workshop sessions etc. Dr. Laycock, the guest speaker was formerly the Dean of Education for the University of Saskatchewan. He is now retired but has written several excellent articles. Representatives of Home & School Associations from many northeastern Alberta points will be present. The Mannville and district people are urged to attend. The registration will be at 9:00 a.m. and meetings will commence at ten.

Mrs. Jack Coxford, on behalf of the Legion, asked that Poppy Day be more fully observed by the town and district. These poppies are made by disabled soldiers and the proceeds from their sale is used to help these unfortunate victims of two wars.

Lunch and a short social time brought the meeting to a close.

Bride-Elect Is Feted At Islay

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Patsy Robertson gave her home for a shower in honor of Miss Betty Buchanan, a bride-elect. A very large number of ladies were present. A miniature bride and groom drawing a wagon-load of gifts entered the room to the tune of "Here Comes the Bride" and presented them to Betty. There were many very beautiful and useful gifts.

Mrs. Lily Teskey staged a contest "My Wonderful Body has—". It created some fun! A lovely lunch was served, the wee bride and groom assisting by passing the trays with sugar and cream. They were Jeanie Axley and Linda Torrance. Other serviteurs were Mrs. Jean Axley, Mrs. Edna Torrance, Mrs. Pat Robertson and Mrs. Kay King.

The bride-elect very fittingly thanked the hostesses and the other ladies. She invited them to the wedding to held in the Vermilion United church, and to the reception and dance in the Islay hall.

HOBBIES ARE GOOD

Anyone who plans to retire during the next ten years can help to make retirement enjoyable and useful by planning hobbies and spare time occupations (profitable, if necessary). It often happens that retiring from a busy life to an idle one causes mental and physical shock.

Arthritis Target

Women appear to be prime targets for the great crippler, arthritis. Statistics show that for every man, three women fall prey to this disease.

Rheumatoid arthritis is the malady's formal name. Along with allied conditions, in one way or another, the disease has afflicted more than 10 million people in the U.S. and completely crippled some 200,000 others.

The secretary, housewife and young mother are most susceptible. Arthritis is insidious. Its symptoms at first are usually mild. Gradually they worsen, until one day you wake with an arm or leg that is ... What causes ... have not yet found an answer. ...

NEWS from ISLAY

Hunting and good shooting: that's what we hear these days. It's not all the men, either — Mrs. Bill Purves is as good a shot as "Mrs. Watson on the Farm Broadcast" of noon hour. Yes, Mrs. Purves brought down quite a large hawk, one shot exactly in the head of the bird. The hawk had been molesting her chickens.

The 4-H sewing club has planned a Hallowe'en party, all to wear costumes. It will be in the school and their mothers are invited.

Mrs. McNally and grandson Michael from Lancashire, England, who have crossed Canada and are now on the return, are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waterfield.

Hi, Stagettes! We hope to see you at the Islay chicken supper Nov. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell were dinner guests at the Anderson's on Sunday evening.

UNITED CHURCH SERVICE NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday, Oct. 30th, United church service at 3 p.m. Mr. McGuffin will be the minister, and the soloist Miss Morvan Bootsman, Kitscoty. You are very welcome at the service — why not come once, anyway? Remember what Nellie McClung once wrote?: "Don't wait to be carried in and have the good Lord say, 'Who is that you are carrying in. I never saw him in here before'."

Hello, Yvonne, down there at Banff. Want to know who wanders around the streets here? Well, quite a few old timers are still going strong. Firstly, Ulva McFadyen, Neil McEachern, Archie Chambers, Wilford Potvin, Bill Hannon; Jim Carey still on the gas wagon; Harry Young still on the track. Guess that will do for this time.

Mannville Couple Honored on 25th Wedding Anniversary

MANNVILLE — About 50 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Lugg Monday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Hubbard on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. The happy couple were the recipients of a TV rocker as well as several other lovely gifts.

Their daughter, Mrs. Joe Dowicki and granddaughter Joanne came from Edmonton for the anniversary party.

Dewberry H. & S. A. Members To Attend Mannville Conference

At a packed meeting of the Dewberry Home and School Association on Thursday, Oct. 20th, correspondence on the Mannville conference on Oct. 29 was read by the secretary Mrs. J. S. McKay. It was suggested by the President, Mrs. Braithwaite that a carload should go down to Mannville to hear Dr. Laycock, the whole purpose of whose lectures is to give as much help as possible to the Home and School associations. The motion was carried.

It was suggested by Mr. Angus Smith and seconded by Mr. Whiteside that the new issue of the Home and School News be sent one copy to each family represented in the Dewberry Home and School Association, and that the cost of the paper be added to the fees. The motion was carried.

The financial statement, which had been written on the blackboard by Miss Marylin Whiteside, was studied in detail by the group. This statement had been audited by Mr. Whiteside, Mrs. Mathison and Mrs. Bland.

It was moved by Mrs. Maltais and seconded by Mrs. Witzaney that any Home and School member attending six meetings should be eligible to enter a contest at the June meeting, prize to be six silver teaspoons. Carried.

Meetings followed in various rooms between parents and teachers, to give the parents an opportunity to ask any questions they might wish about the curriculum or their children. When the members returned again to the meeting a discussion followed on the amount allowed for the purchase of books for the use of students. The feeling of the meeting was that the amount was too little, but Mrs. Witzaney pointed out that a resolution had been made at the conference in Vermilion the previous week that the Division be approached to increase the amount.

The meeting closed with a fun contest taking the form of songs acted out in charades.

AIR CADETS ENJOY FLIGHTS

Air Cadets and members of the Civilian committee enjoyed flights as the guests of the RCAF here last Saturday. The big plane made three trips carrying a total of 57 passengers from the local airfield. The first two flights were a circle over Lloydminster and Wainwright while the third was to Cold Lake.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Atoms For Medicine

Scientists have long been troubled by the question "How do antibiotics work?" With the aid of the first privately owned atomic reactor to be built for industrial and medical research, they may soon get some answers.

Scientists have long since demonstrated that antibiotics are potent destroyers of disease-causing bacteria. They now are searching for clues as to exactly how an antibiotic acts once it enters the human body.

By incorporating in the antibiotics radioactive substances to be generated by the new reactor, they will be able to track the course of the drug in the body. These radioactive elements have been in extremely short supply, thus limiting research in this field. The new reactor will eliminate this problem.

To be constructed near New York City, the reactor will be completed within a year. Isotopes generated by it will be used for medical research by Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc., one of the eight companies supporting the project.

According to Pfizer's president, Dr. John E. McKeen, the reactor project will make possible the study of atomic radiation as a method of sterilizing drugs and preserving foods.

The reactor, he said, will also enable Pfizer to investigate use of radio-isotopes in such fields as agriculture and fermentation chemistry, and will expand the radioactive research program begun several years ago at the company's Therapeutic Institute, Maywood, N. J.

The reactor will be built by U. S. Atomics, Inc., a subsidiary of American Machine and Foundry Co. Also taking part in the project are the American Tobacco Co., Continental Can Co., Corning Glass Works, International Nickel Co., Socony Mobil Oil Co. and U. S. Rubber Co.

Chances are you get a "helping" of aluminum as part of your daily diet. Most cities use aluminum sulphate to purify the water from lakes and rivers. Oshawa, for instance, has used it for this purpose for 35 years.
Usually, however, aluminum is associated with the outside of foods. In cooking utensils, cups and frozen food containers—in wrappings for cakes and candy and roasts and left-overs—in bottle tops and hoods—aluminum helps keep what we eat and drink fresh and pure and wholesome.

No technical service available to farmers today is more important and valuable than "Seed Testing". It is a key service for grain growers.

Know Your Seed. It is not too early to find out whether or not the seed you intend to use for seed in 1956 is capable of germinating strongly. If you will bring a sample, dormant, and is free to a high degree of weed seeds. Good seed must also, of course, be free from disease. Every farmer should know the seed value of the grain he sows and can get his help on for a successful spring in 1956.

Germination Important. Obviously, to be of value, seed must grow. Therefore, a germination test is to show the high-speed content of a seed lot is of prime importance, and no one — not even the seed experts — can tell by merely looking at a sample of seed how it will germinate. For instance, wheat that may be high in germination, and in weight and color, and still germinate poorly.

Although most crops of wheat, oats and flax harvested in Western Canada this year have yielded well and produced seed of high germinating quality, the same cannot be said of barley. Many deteriorated barley crops contain a high percentage of thin, shrunken seed, both diseased kernels, if they germinate at all, are likely to be weak and slow to emerge. Such seed obviously always threatens to leave gaps in the stand and weed problems from the very Free Tests Available. To assist western grain growers, our Dominion Bureau of Plant Pathology operates a limited seed testing laboratory.

We will, without charge, test any farmer's seed for germination on his request. We will also make a test for surface borne smut and for weed seed content. Local friends of any of the germination listed above will be glad to have any seed samples sent to us for testing. Be prepared to plant only grain with germinating and healthy seed of the best variety you can obtain. It pays to "know your seed."

Mr. and Mrs. Erdman Honored by Friends

Friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs. Frank Gould to honor Mr. and Mrs. John Erdman, newly married recently at Flatbush, Alberta.

In keeping with an invitation extended by Mrs. Gould to come and play cards, the bride and groom were surprised when they arrived at the Gould home to find themselves entering the room to the strains of "Here Comes the Bride" played by Mr. W. B. Elford.

The evening was spent playing games, and making a bride's bouquet. Shower gifts were carried in and presented to the bride by Sandra Gould and Albert Geeraert, acted as a bride and groom. The bride and groom thanked the gathering for the lovely gifts.

A delightful lunch was served by Mrs. H. Geeraert, Mrs. C. Weldon and Mrs. Gould.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of
Arthur Calvin Mutrey
who died October 30, 1954.
You bade us one a last farewell,
You said goodbye to none;
A dear heart had ceased to beat.
And suddenly you were gone.
They say time heals all sorrow
And helps us to forget,
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.
God gave us strength to take it.
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose you
Dick,
No one will ever know.
Ever remembered by the Mutrey Family.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my dear wife
Caroline Jean Upshall
who died October 30, 1949.
In our home she is fondly remembered
Sweet memories cling to her name
Those who loved her in life
Sincerely
Still love her in death just the same
Ever remembered by her husband George, and son Stan.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Arthur Calvin Mutrey
who passed away so suddenly
October 30, 1954
"We who loved you, sadly miss you
As it deserts another year
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of you are always near."

S. A. Members Leave For Edmonton

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yarwood, who have been members of the Vermilion Salvation Army for some years, are planning to take up residence in Edmonton the first of November.

Mr. Yarwood has accepted a position with the Department of Public Works, Provincial Government, in the capital city. He has been a prominent member of the Salvation Army band here in Vermilion, and was the recipient of a presentation of a watch and chain by his comrades and friends of the S. A. at a recent farewell party in his honor.

Mrs. Yarwood, who has been a leader of S. A. children's organization, the Happy Hour Group, for some years, was honored last Friday evening at a surprise party held in her own home. Her comrades and friends came unexpectedly and brought a complete serving of refreshments for the occasion. At the conclusion of the evening of entertainment planned by the guests Mrs. Yarwood received a lovely ornament, presented to her on behalf of the group by Mrs. Clarence Hodgson.

The Yarwood's daughter, Mrs. Ruby Butler and her little daughter Linda, expect to join them in Edmonton within a short while.

Miss Mills Speaks At Islay Home And School

(By our Islay Correspondent)

The Home and School Association of Islay held a meeting at the school Monday night with a good attendance. The president Mrs. Chas Redmond, was in the chair, and the secretary - treasurer Mrs. Violet Schaffer, read the minutes.

There were several items of business: the swings are to be hung; a whist party will be held soon for the purpose of aiding the Xmas tree.

The guest speaker, Miss Mills, matron of the Islay hospital, gave us an insight into the educational system in England before 1939, and then the changes after the war. We found it most interesting. Miss Mills demonstrated with humorous incidents in connection with her own, as well as other pupils. Miss Mills will continue her talk at the next meeting.

A ruling was made that coffee would be served only when a visiting speaker was on the program—so we had good coffee and lovely large doughnuts.

As Mrs. Bobroski, 'a new teacher on the Islay staff, was present at our H. & S.A. meeting for the first time, Mr. Monckton introduced her to the audience. Mrs. Bobroski comes to us with considerable experience, some of it gained outside our division. She has considerable musical ability and the juniors will have the pleasure of a rhythm band.

The president and the secretary were appointed as delegates to attend the workshop of the Home and School Association, Oct. 29, to be held in Mannville. Several others from here also plan to attend.

Thorncliffe F.U.A.

At the last meeting of Thorncliffe F.U.A. local, it was decided to have the next meeting date November 3rd, at 8:00 p.m. Arrangements have to be made for the annual membership drive at this meeting, so all members and others interested are asked to come. Sub-Division Director Mr. Ralph Wilson has promised to be present also. He will likely have some information on affairs of the Division No. 7 as a whole.

LOOKING FOR GIFTS?

Then come to the S.A. Home League sale of work and home baking. Tea will be served. In the Legion hall, Saturday, Nov. 12 at 2:30 p.m. We would like to see you there! 16-12c

INTERESTING SESSIONS HELD AT A.T.A. CONVENTION

H. C. MELENESS [illegible] ADDRESS

To open the Thursday afternoon session Mr. H. C. Meleness of the Faculty of Education, University of Alberta, gave an address. Mr. Meleness spoke of the fundamentals underlying a teacher's purpose in the classroom with his desire for a higher professional status. The speaker drew attention to the facilities available at the University of Alberta in the Faculty of Education and urged all teachers to make the fullest use of them.

After hearing Mr. Meleness talk the meeting was once again adjourned to allow for further group discussions on teacher interests and problems.

W. PILKINGTON BANQUET SPEAKER

In a very humorous vein Mr. Pilkington, the A.T.A. convention's speaker, justified the present enlarged curriculum. He made reference to the multitude of pamphlets showered on the teachers. He suggested that the curriculum guides be reduced to two pocket-sized. Previous to the guest speaker on the banquet program was a singsong led by Mr. Robin Stuart of Mannville with Mrs. D. C. Falk of the W.A. as accompanist. Then the chairman, Mr. Doherty, presented a gift of some luggage to Mr. J. A. Smith, on behalf of the three locals, as an acknowledgment of Mr. Smith's services to the annual conventions for many years.

Following the presentation the Hon. A. O. Ashborg, Minister of Education, introduced Mr. Pilkington who has been guest speaker at several conventions this year, under the auspices of the provincial executive of the A.T.A.

A dance was enjoyed in the gymnasium of the Vermilion School of Agriculture after the banquet.

PROVINCIAL A.T.A. SPEAKERS

At a joint meeting Friday morning the assembled teachers received messages from two provincial executive members. Mr. M. W. McDonnell representative to the executive of the central eastern section of the A.T.A., and Mr. E. C. Ansley, general secretary treasurer of the Provincial A.T.A.

After hearing Mr. McDonnell and Mr. Ansley the locals met in three different groups for their annual general meetings. At the Vermilion local Miss M. Knapp, as chairman, made a presentation of an end table to Mr. and Mrs. James Smith in recognition and appreciation of their services in the past to the Vermilion local of the A.T.A.

M. O. EDWARDH. AFTERNOON SPEAKER

Mr. M. O. Edwardh, of the Provincial Department of Education, gave an address to the whole convention in the Friday afternoon. He compared recent trends in teacher-pupil, and teacher-public relationships. He emphasized the need for more professional work and study on the part of the teacher. This naturally required more time, and hence certain public obligations on the part of teachers might have to be dropped, or modified.

Floor Prices on Hogs, Cattle Discussed

F.U.A. DELEGATION MEETS HON. J. G. GARDINER

A delegation of five officials of the F.U.A. headed by C. J. Stimpfle, FUA vice-president, and including Mr. S. A. Sanford, Mr. E. Nelson, Mr. O. Hittinger and Mr. W. Logan, interviewed the Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture in the McDonald Hotel at 11:30 a.m. on October 19th.

The question discussed was the floor price on hogs as well as the cattle price. The talk centered around the stability in hog prices. It was finally agreed the price of hogs largely depended on prices in the U.S.A. which are at present a bonus for every pound below Canadian prices. Also at present there is an embargo on U.S.A. hogs which is expected to remain in effect until April 1, 1956. The floor price on hogs at present in Alberta is $18.50 cwt. Mr. Gardiner further intimated that he didn't anticipate any great break in cattle prices as long as the American price remained fairly stable.

Jamboree Stamp Is Popular

The special two-colour, five-cent stamp issued by the Postage Stamp Division of the Post Office department to commemorate the 8th World Scout Jamboree in August is proving to be the most popular special issue of the year, Postmaster General Mac-Dougall announced today.

At the Jamboree 175,000 of the stamps were sold on the day of issue, August 20, and First Day Covers issued by the Post Office in Ottawa totalled 58,970, compared with 28,557 and 33,989 respectively for two earlier special issues this year.

City Hunter Fined $25; Shoots Ducks, Throws Them Away

A little known but a very wise section of the Alberta Game Act was invoked in Edmonton last week at the height of the duck season, and it cost a city hunter $25 and costs. It was the first case of its kind in Edmonton.

WASTE OF WILD LIFE

The hunter pleaded guilty to a charge of wilfully destroying food fit for human consumption.

According to the evidence, he had thrown away seven ducks which he had shot earlier

James Stewart, game officer, told the court he acted on a "tip-off." He went to the man's home and found the seven ducks in the garbage barrel. At the time, they were fit for human consumption he said.

TERRIBLE THING

Magistrate Simpson, in imposing the fine, said it is a "terrible thing" for a hunter to shoot ducks and throw them away.

The man was charged under section 11 of the Game Act which reads: "No person who has taken or killed any bird or animal suitable for food shall wilfully allow the flesh thereof to be destroyed or spoiled".

Mr Stewart pointed out that many hunters probably don't know such a section exists in the Game Act. It provides for a maximum penalty of $200 and Mr. Stewart said the Game Branch will "crack down" on any report it receives of game being wasted.

MAXIMUM PENALTY $200

He said there are any number of homes and charitable institutions which will be glad to receive game birds any time a hunter shoots more than he can use.

FACTS ABOUT RHEUMATIC FEVER

Many parents worry about rheumatic fever and want to know how they can protect their children from it. Fortunately, the chances of your child getting it are slight; only a few out of every 100 children do. It is a much milder disease than it used to be and less likely to be fatal. It is not communicable. You don't catch it by being around someone who has it.

Rheumatic fever attacks the heart and joints particularly and is the cause of rheumatic heart disease. It is also believed that some people are more susceptible to it than others and that it runs in families. It seems to be more common among families who eat less of the right foods than is needed, or who are exposed to cold, wet, and chilling.

It often develops when colds, sore throats, and other nose and throat illnesses caused by streptococcal germs are prevalent in the family or the community. Some authorities believe that children who develop it have a special sensitivity to streptococcal germs.

As a rule, rheumatic fever begins at about ages 5 to 6. Some children have only one attack, while others keep on having them. Unlike other childhood diseases, such as measles or chickenpox, it tends to recur. With some children, the attacks come farther and farther apart and finally stop during the teens.

Adults, too, have rheumatic fever. Most authorities believe that rheumatic fever in adults is a recurrence of the first childhood attack.

THE START

Rheumatic fever usually starts from a few days to about four weeks after a streptococcal cold or sore throat. The early signs may be very mild. Some of them which appear alone or in combination are pallor, poor appetite, repeated nosebleeds, failure to gain weight, low fever which hangs on, and complaints of pain in the arms, legs, or abdomen.

RECOVERY

Some inflammation of the heart almost always occurs during an attack. Occasionally, a child recovers without any heart injury; sometimes the injury is so slight that he can soon get back to normal living; but at other times the damage is lasting.

The big thing while getting well is to give the heart the best possible chance to make a good recovery, or to escape injury altogether. Bed rest gives this chance. During this rest, the heart is spared unnecessary work. Weeks or months of rest may be required. Even though the attack is mild and the child seems well, he should be kept in bed while the disease is active and during convalescence, always until the physician says it is safe to get up.

MAKING CONVALESCING INTERESTING

It isn't easy for a child to stay in bed when he begins to feel better, as he is likely to after the first few weeks of illness. It isn't easy for his parents either, but a cheerful attitude encourages the child to develop patience and co-operation.

Pleasant surroundings help — a sunny room if possible, some growing plants, a bowl of fish. Being comfortable also matters — a good prop when sitting up in bed, and a bedtable on which to work and play.

Occupation for the waking hours should be planned. Reading, radio programs, games, modelling, sketching and making scrapbooks are some pastimes. If a visiting nurse is coming, she may have other ideas for keeping the child happy.

BUIDING UP

Once a child has had rheumatic fever, he needs constant protection from streptococcal infections of the nose and throat—the forerunners of another attack. He should be kept away from anyone with a cold or sore throat.

A well-balanced diet, plenty of rest, play, and sunshine all help to build up resistance. Warm clothes for protection against cold and wet weather are needed.

A child should have regular checkups by his physician so that prompt treatment can be started if he is run down.

BEING NORMAL

Every child wants to be like other children and do the things that they do. So when he recovers, he should be encouraged to have a good time at home, at school, and at play. Of course he will have to go easy on some activities if his heart is seriously impaired, but he may still enjoy many of the same pleasures if his rest and play is carefully planned.

WHEAT MARKETS

The Changing Pattern

A good deal of stress has been laid recently on the extent to which many European nations have tended to become more self-sufficient in wheat since World War II which means that they will require less wheat from abroad. The same trend, however, is to be found on the American continent. In Mexico for instance the rapid increase of irrigated land has meant the raising of more cotton for export and, for the first time in the history of the country, nearly enough wheat to meet its needs.

The increase in wheat acreage since 1950—all on new land—has been 16 per cent but in wheat production irrigation has brought a 38 per cent increase during the past five years. Canada has not exported wheat to Mexico for some years but Mexico has been a valued wheat customer of the United States. The long range Mexican market for U.S. wheat may depend on whether Mexico can increase its own production another 15 per cent. The use of about 250,000 more acres of irrigated land could accomplish this objective, perhaps within the next few years, and under such circumstances, Mexico might even have a small export surplus of wheat.

Chrysler Features Push-Button Control

Here's what the push-button control unit for PowerFlite automatic transmission looks like. The panel houses buttons for neutral, low, reverse and drive. A touch of a finger is all it takes to go from neutral to any driving range, or from one range to another. Cars can be "rocked" out of mud, snow, or sand by alternately pressing the reverse and low buttons. Two safety features are built into the push-button mechanism. One prevents starting the car in any gear except neutral. The other prevents the transmission from being shifted accidentally into reverse at speeds over 10 miles per hour.

Royal Commission Continues Investigations; Move To Calgary

EDMONTON.—A great deal may depend on the answer to a legal question raised last week before the royal commission investigating charges of maladministration against the Alberta government.

The question was: Should the commission investigate loans granted by the provincial treasury branches to companies in which members of the legislature are shareholders or directors? At the time of writing, members of the five-man commission had not arrived at an answer.

J. H. V. Milvain, counsel for the Alberta Liberal Association, was the one who raised the question. He was cross-examining A. K. Olive, superintendent of treasury branches, and asked for figures regarding loans to companies in which MLA's have financial interest.

S. J. Helman, of Calgary, counsel for the government, jumped quickly to his feet and objected to the question. He cited a clause in the commission's terms of reference which he said placed the question beyond the powers of the commission.

The terms of refence call for an investigation concerning the general procedure followed by the treasury branches in granting loans, and in particular granting loans to MLA's. The section adds, however, that to protect the interests of treasury branch customers in general, "No investigation shall be made into loans made to or other dealings with the treasury branches by any other person . . . ." Mr. Helman pointed out that under the Alberta Interpretation Act, a corporation is in the same category as a "person."

It will be recalled that the question of treasury branch dealings by members of the legislature was what brought on the June 29 general election. J. Harper Prowse, Liberal leader, suggested in the legislature that members who deal with the treasury branches in effect have financial contracts with the government, and this is prohibited under the Legislative Assembly Act. A brief period of turmoil followed, climaxed by Premier Manning calling the snap election.

Mr. Helman said the terms of reference obviously were intended to protect treasury branch customers other than MLA's from having their accounts displayed in public. Any companies investigated would have a number of shareholders, and he felt the terms of reference prevented any investigation of them.

James Mahaffy, of Calgary, commission counsel, agreed with Mr. Helman. If the investigation were widened to include dealings by companies, he said, it would involve many persons and corporations other than MLA's.

Mr Milvain, not anxious to let this one get away from him, said the commission probe would be "nothing but a sham" if it excluded members who deal with the treasury branches by "hiding behind the facade of a corporation."

The Liberal counsel pointed out that the summer session of the legislature passed a bill preventing MLA's borrowing from the treasury branches. In the case of a member being managing director or major shareholder in a company dealing with treasury branches, he said, the member would be doing indirectly what he can't do directly.

Mr. Milvain said a search of the provincial companies branch records will reveal companies in which M.L.A.'s are directors or major shareholders. There might be cases, he said, of companies which are owned solely by an MLA and one other shareholder.

He mentioned Canada West Insurance Co. and Riverbend Oils as two companies in which MLA's have an interest, but he didn't identify the members. He argued that the facts of such cases would be relevant, and should be heard by the commission.

Mr. Justice Hugh John Macdonald, commission chairman, adjourned the hearing about two hours early on Friday of last week to consider the question. A decision wasn't expected until Tuesday of this week, when the commission will be back from a visit to Calgary.

In Calgary, the commissioners were to visit land purchased by the government for jail sites and liquor stores, in preparation for another phase of the investigation.

The decision on Mr. Milvain's question was being awaited anxiously, and could have a significant effect on the outcome of the investigation.

Tips on Touring

Women's Travel Authority

Is your car ready for winter? It's not pleasant to hunt for help through snow, sleet or wind. Shell Oil's automotive experts offer this 'stitch-in-time' advice on car care that can take the worries out of winter driving.

1. To be sure your car will start easily in the coldest weather, spark plugs should be cleaned and adjusted; battery and all ignition points checked.

2. A complete lubrication job and motor oil change are needed for easy starting as well as protection for engine, gears and other parts of your car.

3. Have your radiator and cooling system flushed and anti-freeze added. Most people prefer a permanent anti-freeze, but if you use the alcohol type be sure to remind your service station attendant to check it frequently.

4. Skid chains and tires have to be in top condition. Inspect chains for breaks and tires for tread as they are safety guards against winter driving hazards.

5. And for your driving comfort be sure to have the operation of your windshield wiper, heater and defroster tested. While these rarely go out of order, it costs nothing to make sure. We'll soon be gripped by old man winter's frosty fingers. Better hurry!

WEDDING BELLS

Former Vermilion Man Wed At Battleford

BELL — PERNITSKY

Miss Irene Isabel Pernitsky, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs. Bernard Pernitsky of Kerrobert, Saskatchewan, became the bride of Mr Thomas Bell, son of Mr and William J Bell of Vermilion, on October 5th, in North Battleford, Sask. The wedding was solemnized in Notre Dame de Lourdes church, with Father Marcotte officiating.

The main altar was decorated with flowers and candles, and the communion rail with a variety of chrysanthemums, snapdragons and carnations.

The bride entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, Lohengrin from Mendelssohn, played by Mrs. C. Furness, North Battleford.

Miss Pernitsky wore a waltz-length gown of white velvet with long lily point sleeves, a V neckline trimmed with brocade, and a winged effect of brocade trim at the hipline. Her headdress was a bridal ring of pearl-studded brocade medallions with a finger tip veil. The bride's jewellery was a pendant and earrings a gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Wanda Seiben, of North Battleford, as bridesmaid, wore a champagne colored tulle over copper brandy pannaglare waltz-length gown. Her headdress was of talisman rose buds worn around the back of her hair, and her bouquet was of talisman roses.

The groomsman was Mr. Joe Sa-mide of North Battleford, with Messrs. Bill Shumpka and Allan Seachuk, North Battleford, acting as ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and during the signing of the register Mrs. E. Foley, North Battleford, sang "Happy We Who Thus United."

At the reception held in the North Battleford Ukrainian hall, the bride's mother was becomingly attired in a navy crepe dress with pale blue hat and bag, navy gloves and shoes, and wore a corsage of pink sweetheart rose buds. The groom's mother was dressed in a grey suit with rust accessories, and wore a pink sweetheart rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Furniss received the guests as they entered the hall beautifully decorated with pink, white and blue streamers and fall flowers. Miss Florence Charpentier of Radisson, Sask., was in charge of the register. The bride's table was centred with a wedding cake, square in shape, of three tiers and topped with daisies. The table was also decorated with tulle and candles. Catering was in charge of the Presbyterian ladies' church group.

To leave on their honeymoon trip to Glacier National Park in Montana, U.S.A., the bride changed to a white boucle suit with mauve and brown accessories, and with an orchid corsage.

When they return, the young couple will take up residence in North Battleford.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs William Ulrick, Coleville, Saskatchewan; Mrs. Wm. Cross, Vermilion; Mr and Mrs. George Brookman and Miss Ellen Brookman of Radisson, Sask.; and Miss Florence Charpentier, Meadow Lake, Sask.

TARIFFS

My father used to make me pretty mad when he talked tariffs. At 18, I was an ardent free trader. How in the world, I wondered, could father favour tariffs when free trade sounded so good, so liberal, so progressive?

I remember some of his reasons. "The Indians had Free Trade," he would snort, "and look what we did to them—sold them trash and took their treasures. They paid hundreds of dollars in fur for a ten-dollar rifle. Uncivilized countries import baubles; civilized countries build their own industries and protect them, too."

Then he would shake his head and continue, "I can't see why we should be the ones to holler for Free Trade. We're young and we need to grow. We'd build a [illegible] goods, but when our whole economy is threatened by a flood of stuff from starvation-wage lands, we're all out with our dippers, trying to scoop up a gain. Some day, if we neglect our own industries, we'll pay through the nose for everything we import."

Father had other arguments, but at that age I wasn't easy to convince. I think he'd be glad to know that now in my sober forties I have changed my mind.

I still wish we could have free trade throughout the world; but I don't think countries like Canada can afford to lead the parade. Every hundred jobs in industry create 280 other jobs. They support, for example, 28.5 farmers, 1.8 cleaners and laundrymen, 2.8 carpenters, 2.2 stenographers, and so on. If we want these jobs for Canadians, we can't afford too many so-called bargains imported from the low-wage countries.

Wonder how many strange notions my father had that I'll come to agree with by and by?

Sixteen Years Ago Today

November 2, 1939

From Wildmere Winks: Russel Cruthers along with several Basswood folks attended the Gibson-Ford wedding at Tolland last Friday. We wish to extend our own as well as the community's best wishes for a long and happily married life to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson. The young people will reside in Basswood district.

A practically total eclipse of the moon took place last Friday night, starting around 10 and ending at 1:18. While clouds spoiled the sight seeing for most of the time slight rifts every now and again revealed the shadow on the moon quite clearly.

Mrs. H. J. Clarke was the winner of the cake drawn at the Canadian Legion whist drive last Friday evening. The cake was donated by Mrs. Melvin Hill and No. 63 was the lucky ticket.

Then there is the story going the rounds of the four well known ladies of Vermilion who enjoyed playing bridge all one afternoon in an east end home, with four cards missing — and this was not discovered until the man of the house came home and pointed out that they were one card short each.

October 31, 1923

The anniversary services of the Presbyterian church were held last Sunday and were attended by large and appreciative audiences, the special preacher being the Rev. George Arthur of Vegreville.

Sam Barr, of Edmonton, a former member of the firm of Barr & Wotherspoon, Blacksmiths, Vermilion, is spending a few days in town, visiting his parents and renewing old acquaintances.

Manager Pilkie of the Columbia theatre announces that the regular programs commence on Nov. 12. On the nights of the first four days of the week regular pictures will be shown, prices 15 and 30 cents plus tax. Friday and Saturday nights the big pictures, prices 22½ cents and 45 cents and tax.

Alderman East and Mrs. J. Clyde MacDonald, Edmonton, addressed a fairly representative meeting at the Columbia theatre on Wednesday evening of last week in the interests of the prohibition supporters of the present referendum. The speakers were well received.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frederickson returned to their home at Superior, Nebraska, during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Frederickson were former residents of the district and have been visiting with their son and daughter in law Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Frederickson for the past two months.

We were pleased to have a short visit from Mrs. George Kitching of Sudbury, Ont. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kitching will be glad to hear that our old friend George is improving in health. While here she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ma'lon Kitching and other friends.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hatchard on the birth of a son in the Lloydminster hospital.

Fire destroyed the barn of John Warren recently. The only cause as far as is known must have been combustion in the straw or hay. The loss is quite a serious one this time of year.

Mrs. W. E. Mason of Barrie, Ont. arrived to visit with her mother Mrs Emma Shaw. It is quite a few years since Audrey left the West to make her home in Ontario.

DEATH OF E. J. COLEMAN

Our district was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mr E. John Coleman on Wednesday morning. Mr Coleman suffered a heart attack and passed away very quickly. Our sincere sympathy to the family. The funeral was held from the United church on Friday at 2 p.m. Rev. D. D. Davidson was in charge of the service.

The weather during the past week has been ideal and the farmers have cleaned up a lot of odd jobs. Hunters too, have been numerous throughout the area. The M. D. road grader has been keeping busy readying the roads for winter.

Touch football is the order of the day by members of Mr Sparks room. The locals made a trip to McLaughlin to try out their ability. We do not know the score but understand our boys were the winners.

RICHARD SMITH

On October 7th a link with the past was broken when Richard Smith passed on in the Lloydminster hospital. Mr Smith had been ailing for some time and his death was not unexpected.

Mr. Smith was born at Drayton, Ont., on April 23, 1877. He was married on Dec. 10, 1901 to Miss H. Billingsley. In 1917 he came west and has lived in this district ever since. He followed the lumbering business in his younger days.

He is survived by his wife, one son Frank of Toronto, and three daughters Alma (Mrs. Geddes) of Oliver, B.C.; Vesta (Mrs. G. Henry) and Helen (Mrs. T. H. Rayson) both of Paradise Valley. One daughter Laura predeceased him many years ago. There are 11 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Two sisters Laura and Mattie reside at Collingwood, Ont.

The funeral was held from the United church at Paradise Valley on Wednesday, Oct. 12. Rev. D. D. Davidson was in charge. W. J. Sirett Sr. was at the organ. The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. Davidson, Joe McAmmond, Floyd Henry, George Venner, D. B. Baxter and William McLean.

Moore's Funeral Home, Lloydminster had charge of all funeral arrangements. Burial was in the Paradise Valley cemetery.

An Opportunity For Young Farmers

The Nuffield Foundation scholarship is again available for the summer of 1956. Two such travelling scholarships are available to young Canadian farmers.

The scholarship permits the recipient to travel throughout Great Britain, studying farm practices and conditions. The value of the scholarships is adjusted to meet needs and general circumstances but will cover cost of living and travel to and from the recipient's home. It is open to young men or women and, while the age limit is not definite, those between the ages of thirty and thirty-five years are preferred.

Albertans have already won two of these scholarships, Orrin Hart of Claresholm and Bruce Ellis of Hubalta being the winners.

The Alberta Federation of Agriculture, 507 McLeod Building would appreciate receiving applications that can be recommended to the national selection committee. The time for receiving applications is limited so those interested should contact the Federation without any delay.

Diptheria is one of the most dangerous of the contagious diseases, particularly serious to children under five years of age. To bring down the numbers of cases in Canada, every child should be immunized against the disease.

BOWTELL BULLETIN

Here we are again, folks, after two weeks absence; will try to do better in the future.

Th nice weather of the past few weeks gave the farmers time to get finished harvesting. Many are now working the land for next year.

ANNUAL SUPPER PLANNED

The October meeting of the Busy Bees was held at the home of Mrs. A. Morrison with 17 members and two visitors present, these being Mrs. Clendenning and Mrs. Fulton. Mrs. Clendenning gave a very interesting talk on handicraft. Mrs. Gow and Mrs. Tweedy were appointed to put on card parties at the hall during the month of November. A donation of $5.00 was made to the C N I B. It was decided to hold the annual get-together and supper in the Brunswick dining room, Oct. 25 each lady to pay for her own. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. O Repp. Lunch will be served by Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Sherwood.

Congratulations and all good wishes to the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. F. Minard, for a long and happy married life. The young couple were charivari-ed on Friday night. District friends of the newly-weds were disappointed that they did not learn of the charivari in time to join in the festivities.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. Repp on the birth of a baby girl in the Vermilion hospital, Friday, Oct. 21st.

Mr and Mrs. Gerrard, of Edmonton, and Mr and Mrs. Firth of Marshall, sask., were recent visitors at the Robinson home. We are sorry to learn at time of writing that Mr O. Johnson is a patient in the hospital.

We are pleased to report Robert Dibben is coming along nicely but is still confined to the iron lung. Quite a number of his friends and neighbors gathered together recently and finished a field of threshing for him. The western spirit still lives, folks.

Mrs. Knutson and Maybelle will soon be starting on their homeward journey from England. Mrs. Knutson reported in a letter to the writer that they had enjoyed every minute of their three months holiday

Auto Insurance Cuts

The expected 10% cut in next year's auto insurance premiums could be only the first of many rate decreases, says The Financial Post. The auto maker's increased emphasis on safety attachments and the leveled off cost of accident repairs will keep cutting claim totals.

A walk in the country is a tonic for anyone. The exercise is beneficial, and economical. A good lunch carried along makes the walk even more interesting and the food tastes better out of doors. Make whole-grain sandwiches with meat or other substantial filling the feature of the meal, with some fruit or raw vegetable on the side.

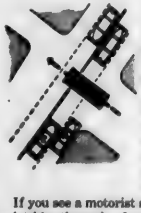
Safety Sam Says...

Give the other driver a break — Let him through the line of traffic



It is a common sight, during rush hours particularly, to see cars entering intersections from side streets forced to sit and wait for a courteous driver to let them through or into the traffic.

Sometimes, too, a driver in one lane lets a car proceed into the intersection, only to have another lane bottle the car up and make a traffic jam. Let's all co-operate to eliminate these unpleasant traffic situations.

If you see a motorist stranded in such a position, slow up and let him through. It takes only a few seconds of your time. Make a habit of courtesy.

F.U.A. Jubilee Day November 16th

The date for the Union's big membership drive, F.U.A. Jubilee Day, has been set for Wednesday, November 16. Following this announcement the Union anticipates that the final plans for the one day membership drive will be put into effect by all District Directors and their Boards, who this year are in charge of district organizations and appointments of local personnel to carry out the membership drive in all unorganized districts.

It is urgent that all locals of the Union be prepared to carry out their responsibilities in the one day drive if we are to maintain a united farm front and to achieve the Union's objective which is "Parity for Agriculture."

Pleasant Valley News

This is the autumn weather we have been waiting for! It was about 65 above today. The harvest is gathered in, but the men are very busy on the land. One would think they are expecting another spring right away. Lawrence Gould was on the land at 6 o'clock this morning. What happened . . . did you whistle at a girl last night?

Doris and Edwin Hicks returned home from their honeymoon which was spent at the Coast. They visited Mr and Mrs. H Perkins. The Jenkins family were here, so they really had a nice visit. They also called on you Annie, but you were away . . . maybe at another flower show. It was a wonderful sight.

WILDMERE WINKS

We wish to extend our own and the community's deepest sympathy to Mrs. Roy Dibben of Basswood on the loss of her grandmother, Mrs. Rodell, of Edmonton. Mrs Rodell was well known in our district, as she frequently visited Mrs. Dibben, and was such a cheerful, pleasant woman to visit.

HARVEST COMPLETED

We believe that harvesting has at last been completed in and around our part, and a lot of fall work has been done as well.

Rev. K. Minchin, of the Anglican church of Vermilion held worship service at Wildmere United church on Sunday afternoon, with a good attendance. He gave a very interesting sermon on "Avoiding God." He explained that it cannot be done. He will hold a service again on Sunday, November 6th at 3:00 p.m., so plan to attend, folks. Mr. R. Cosh accompanied Rev. Minchin.

Please remember, folks: Wildmere W. I. is holding a Home Cooking Sale at Craig's store on Saturday, Nov. 12th, at 3:00 p.m. There will be lots of good things on sale.

THANKS FOR RETURNED WATCH

I cannot close these items without heartily thanking the person who picked up my watch in town when I lost it, and who phoned and let me know. I hope to personally thank Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLean of Islay some time. Anyone who has lost a watch can readily realize how one feels at the time. So again I say it pays to advertise in our local paper, and again we say thanks!

ENJOYED CIVIL DEFENSE COURSE

The writer really enjoyed the General Welfare Course of Civil Defense given at Edmonton last week. Until one takes that course, one has no idea of the necessity of being prepared in case of a disaster. And the writer would gladly give a group an outline of the course taken. Mrs. R. Mead, Vermilion, and Mrs. A. V. Smith, Marwayne, both of the Vermilion River M.D., attended. There were 28 at the course, all women except for three. One meets a lot of wonderful people at those classes. And the instructors are good. The information is plainly put to the classes.

Laurence Graham is at present helping at the Gibson farm.

The Wildmere Beavers' girls club box social and dance held at Basswood community centre last Friday was a decided success. The Eyben and Cleland orchestra furnished the music. Chas. Sweeney was M.C.

Congratulations and best wishes to to Mr and Mrs Grant Robinson, Mr and Mrs Edwin Hicks and Mr and Mrs. Johnny Laporte. May they have a long and happy married life.

Mr George Cruthers is at present working for Mr W Pettigrew, contractor and he and Mrs. Cruthers will be moving to town.

VETERANS BUILD NEW HOMES UNDER V.L.A. AND C.M.H.C.

A year ago Part II of The Veterans Land Act was enacted by Parliament by special request of the Canadian Legion. The legislation provides for assistance so veterans can build their own homes under the joint assistance of The Veterans' Land Act and Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. Based on the great success that resulted from the plan which V.L.A. adopted in allowing veterans to Build Your Own Home on small holding establishments, the Legion made representation urging such assistance be extended to veterans who work in cities and towns and wish to build on individual lots

The grant or subsidy to veterans building on small holdings is not available under Part II V.L.A. but alternatively veterans who have used their Re-Establishment Credits or had less than 270 days University training are not required to repay these advances. Veterans who still have their credits intact can use them toward building or furnishing their homes. The Veterans Land Act materially assists the veterans by bargaining their own contractors by providing Construction Training Courses, free legal and administrative services for documentation and registration of land and drawing up mortgages; a competent staff of Construction Supervisors, who assist veterans to select plans, make up cost estimates and give actual supervision on the job. The Director V.L.A. advances up to $2,000.00 interest free money to veterans as working capital while the houses are under construction. Veteran-contractors absorb or eliminate the usual contractor's profits and contribute much of their own labour; this greatly reduces construction costs and the veterans are able to erect very substantial and comfortable homes otherwise beyond their reach. On completion of the house, title is vested in the name of the veteran who then signs a mortgage in favour of C.M.H.C. repayable over a term of twenty-five years by easy monthly instalments, including taxes. Once the mortgage is signed V.L.A. drops out of the picture and is ready to assist another veteran. C.M.H.C. then takes over their present interest rate is 5% although some approved lenders are willing to take up those mortgages at 5½

(Second instalment will appear next week)

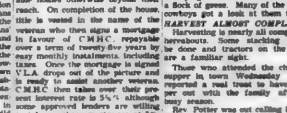
Scouts Pass 187,000

Canada's Boy Scout membership soared to a new high of 187,512 during the first six months of this year an increase of 13,226 over the Dec. 31st total. Canada now has 108,045 Wolf Cubs, 56,982 Boy Scouts, 19,485 Lone Scouts, 1,327 Sea Scouts; 3,002 Rover Scouts, 108 Rover Sea Scouts, a total of 170,009 boy members, plus 17,503 adult leaders.



By Bill & Elsie Lovejoy

Once again Bill and I are reminded that fall is our very favorite season. Picture us these autumn Saturdays raking leaves and generally doing our part to clean and tidy up around the yard in preparation for the snow and cold of winter. Bill's highlight for the day is this: we are allowed three heavenly fall days to prepare for the stern realities of winter. It's Bill's job to get the car ready for cold weather which means a thorough check of brakes, tires, exhaust (remember winter driving usually means the windows of the car are closed) and, of course, putting in the anti-freeze. Did you know that the amount of heat given off by a car's cooling system during heavy driving is enough to heat a six-room house, so Bill says? That's why only the best all winter anti-freeze, which prevents rust and will not boil away, is the wise choice for the protection it needs.

For the wintry young: Keep children's shoelaces even and in place by tying a knot in the middle of each before tying into a bow.

Don't be in a hurry to put away those cherry tam hat for the hot weather is over. Or cold, rainy days they're a wonderful help for drying the bangs of your children, on a table a few feet from the wash. A powerful fan will cut drying time by hours.

Bill took the trouble this year to straighten the gladioli bulbs by color laying them on slotted trays to cure before he put them in moisture. Next year we'll have our own kaleidoscope of color.

You can perk up your nylon pet threats by dipping in a heavy starch solution or Tonette Rinse, in a lime rinse-blue and let it drip dry. This way the hem will regain the necessary fullness and stiffness.

Apples are in abundance this time of year. Very easy you're making applesauce or an apple pie, sprinkle with orange juice for a fine flavor treat.

It's easier to keep pictures and mirrors straight if you use two nails instead of one. Place them about three inches apart exactly in line with each other.

Again a safety note: One of our good neighbors has made a house-to-house canvass of our street urging all of us to park our cars in the driveway and not at the curb, much safer for the youngsters. And now that it's getting dark so early every child should have a good quality flashlight and be carefully instructed when and after dark, to walk on the left hand side of the road and to use his flashlight. We've said it again and like children, your own are always so wonderful.

FARMER-MEMBERS BANQUET PLANNED FOR MONDAY NEXT, NOVEMBER 7th

Arranged by the Board of Trade Agricultural committee, the farmer-members banquet will be held on Monday, Nov. 7 at 8:30 p.m. at St. Saviour's parish hall. This is a much anticipated annual event.

The guest speaker on this occasion will be Mr. James G. McGregor, chairman of the Alberta Power Commission, and President of the Alberta Historical Society. Mr. McGregor was for some years superintendent of this district for Canadian Utilities and is very well known in this community.

Mr. McGregor has written two books on the early history of Alberta. "Blankets and Beads" is a history of the Saskatchewan River area from the earliest records to the coming of the settlers. A more recent book by Mr. McGregor on the Peace River district is the first effort by anyone to put the history of that great area down on paper.

On this occasion the speaker will deal mostly with the recorded history of our own district. He will tell us about our early pioneers and this is most appropriate on this our Jubilee year.

There is a brisk demand for tickets which should be obtained beforehand so that catering may be arranged. Both ladies and men are welcome. All stores in Vermilion have tickets for sale and they can also be purchased at the office of the District Agriculturist.

Canada's First Air-Man Will Address Canadian Club

The first flying machine in the British Empire was built and flown at Baddeck, Nova Scotia. A cairn and tablet commemorating the event has been placed in front of the Court House in that town. The inscription reads:

"Commemorating the work of the Aerial Experiment Association, which resulted in the first flight within the British Empire, carried by J. A. D. McCurdy at Baddeck, Nova Scotia on February 23, 1908."

On Nov. 8th at the Junior high school auditorium the Vermilion Canadian Club will have as its guest speaker the very same J. A. D. McCurdy and recently retired Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia. A social half hour will follow the close of the meeting when people will have an opportunity of greeting this distinguished Canadian.

Purebred Livestock Sale Postponed To Nov. 15th

The Purebred Livestock Sale has been postponed to Tuesday, November 15th, according to an announcement made by the Vermilion Agricultural Society. Postponement was made necessary as road conditions and cold weather The sale was originally planned for this Saturday, Nov. 5th. The program as scheduled will be carried through. Hogs will be sold at the Fair grounds commencing at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning cattle will go under the hammer in the arena rink at 1:00 p.m.

LADY CURLERS HOLD MEETING

The Vermilion Ladies' Curling club held their first meeting of the season on Oct. 12. There was a poor attendance at the meeting so a president for the forthcoming season was not elected, but the remaining executive offices were filled as follows:

1st Vice-Pres. — Mrs. E. David
2nd Vice-Pres. — Mrs. Helen Bell
Secretary — Mrs. Ivy Pare
Treasurer — Mrs. Amelia Payment

It will not be necessary for the members of the Ladies' Curling club to hold a share in the curling rink. The annual fee was set at $10 for the season. It must be kept in mind that the season this year will allow for many more games than ever before, made possible by the addition of the artificial ice plant at the rink. There will be five months of curling.

Any ladies interested in curling, even if just for a few games, are asked to phone either Mrs. Ivy Pare at 149 or Mrs. Brown 68R. Get your name in for the pre-season spiel and get the curling season away to a good start.

"LEST WE FORGET"

WEAR A POPPY FOR REMEMBRANCE DAY, NOVEMBER 11th

Vermilion Branch of Canadian Legion asks for citizens' generous support to the Poppy Fund Flag Day which has been set for Saturday, November 5th. The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Legion will undertake the collection for Poor Fellows.

President McLean wishes it to be known by everybody that all money collected on Poppy Day is used for relief of needy veterans in this district and for no other purpose. Poppy Fund money is kept in a separate bank account and cannot be used for branch purposes

Wreaths for window display in stores or homes can be had from Lawrence Webb. Also anyone wishing to place a wreath on the cenotaph can get one from Mr Webb

The welfare officer of Vermilion Branch, George Martin, reports that there are quite a number of needy veterans in Vermilion and district. Hampers at Christmas and similar small donations to these men many of them old and now, is a great help to them and is greatly appreciated.

Don't forget to get your poppy and to wear it in remembrance of those who fought and died for us.

BIG DOOR PRIZE AT K. of C. BINGO

A trip to the Grey Cup football finals, to be played in Vancouver, is the big prize offered to some lucky ticket holder by the Vermilion Knights of Columbus

The Knights are holding a bingo on Saturday, Nov. 12 at the Vermilion Armories starting at 9.15 p.m. There will be 11 games of bingo, all for only $1, with prizes for each game.

To win the prize of the all-expense trip to the Grey Cup game on Nov. 26th in Vancouver, it is necessary to be in attendance at the bingo. You may buy a ticket from any one of the Knights of Columbus.

Vermilion Rotarians Entertain, Mannville

The Vermilion Rotarians invaded Mannville at noon on Friday last week and entertained business men and farmers of that community at a sumptuous banquet served in the Anglican parish hall. The excellent catering was by the Willerforce W. A.

This was simply a case of keeping up with the Rotarian idea of building goodwill and better friendships through entertainment. The banquet was entirely arranged by the Vermilion Rotarians and each member of the club invited one businessman or farmer from Mannville and district as his guest. All were in attendance.

President of the Rotary club Reg McNeil was in the chair and it was he who planned the social venture. Each member of the club invited his guest. The regular Rotary meeting agenda was carried through with the usual brisk business and a vocational talk by one of the members.

The vocational talk was given by newspaper editor Ashley Cooper and it was a very good address indeed. The speaker was introduced by Rotarian Ernie Hodgson and Editor Cooper following the talk was thanked on behalf of those present by Dr. Ellis King himself a member of a club well known Alberta.

The whole event seemed very much worthwhile and the Vermilion Rotarians were enthusiastic over the success of their first venture of this kind.

BIG BLOOD DONOR CLINIC NOVEMBER 14th

Many of the regular blood donors will no doubt have noticed in last week's Standard that there is a change in the Blood Donor clinic arrangements for the coming clinic open Monday, Nov. 14 in the evening only.

This arrangement is due to the fact that a clinic is to be held in Mannville earlier the same day! For some time past quite a number of Mannville blood donors have attended the clinic in Vermilion.

A strong appeal is being made to regular blood donors in the Mannville corners alike to support the Vermilion clinic in order that the number may be duplicated.

It is understood that the closing hour of the clinic will not be enforced strictly, so that it will be possible to take rare of all who come

TRAFFIC BY-LAWS

Elsewhere in this issue appears a new traffic by-law for the Town of Vermilion. The old traffic regulations have been studied, modernized and consolidated under one by-law. The members of the council and their legal advisor spent a considerable length of time on this work. Chief changes include the elimination of U turns at the top of the river hill intersection, the Canadian Bank of Commerce corner and the Treasury Branch corner.

Drivers who have the habit of running up over boulevards are going to find themselves at odds with the law, while a speed limit of 15 miles per hour is to be enforced in all school zones.

Leaving motor vehicles parked on a street or parking lot for more than 24 hours is strictly against the bylaw. Unloading by trucks must be done from the lane, where such a lane exists.

The Standard recommends that every person in town and country who drives a motor vehicle should read the bylaw carefully. Such traffic regulations are absolutely necessary, they are enacted for uniformity and, provided they are respected, make travelling and parking in town much easier, more convenient and safer for everyone, which is the object of the bylaw.

An anonymous Standard reader wants to know if the flag on the town office is the one under which Nelson died.

HALLOWE'EN ACTIVITIES

Hallowe'en passed off in the usual way in town, while there appeared to be plenty of activity among the young folks, little if any real damage was done. Things were moved around some, windows were soaped although this particular form of "witchcraft" seems to be passing out. The bigger boys appeared to spend a lot of time running about doing nothing much, while the smaller folk made their door-to-door canvass and were seen struggling home with sacks of treats, some of them about as big as the tots doing the carrying.

Regardless of the grumbling parent of today do about the dumped over garbage can, Hallowe'en observances are much quieter, more sensible, and with less damage to property done, than when the Dads of today were in the boyhood stage.

MORE BOYS THAN GIRLS

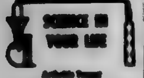
The teen-age population of the towns of Olds, Vermilion and Fairview increased during the month of October. Mid-October saw registration at the Alberta Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics and teen-agers from all over the province, and as far away as Cuba started a program of study in Alberta's leading industry.

Mr J. E. Birdsall, Principal of the Olds School of Agriculture and Home Economics reports a registration of 123 boys in the Agricultural courses and 41 girls in the Home Economics courses. The social committee is going to have a busy time planning activities with boys three times as plentiful as girls.

Vermilion's Principal, Mr N. N. Bentley reports a similar situation at the Vermilion School with 94 boys registered and only 27 girls.

Mr J. E. Hawker, Principal at Fairview school reports a registration of 39 boys and 16 girls.

There are then well over 300 Alberta young people being trained for rural living at the Alberta schools. The five months spent at these schools are long in facts and fun and thus seem all the shorter in terms of time.



Antibiotic Danger

Our life span is 20 years longer today than it was 75 years ago, thanks partly to the antibiotic drugs. Now, by combining antibiotics with vitamins and practising the age-old concept of treating the "whole" patient and not just his disease, science has put new wonder in the wonder drugs.

Just how long you lay in a sickbed suffering from a severe infection depends on your body's ability to fight its way back to normal. Reinforced by antibiotics, your body ... to beat back illness and invading bacteria.

These invading bacteria, and sometimes the germ-killing antibiotics, throw your body's normal functions out of kilter. Your body's nutritional needs are altered and often you cannot eat enough of the right foods to aid your body.

Thus, you suffer a nutritional deficiency which may extend your recovery period long after the infection has been licked.

According to Dr. Felix Marti-Ibanez in the medical journal Antibiotic Medicine, modern science now has the means to attack both the infection and the vitamin deficiency. He reports that a combination of vitamins and antibiotics in a single dosage form such as Tetracyn-SF or Terramycin-SF gives physicians a weapon to treat the "whole" patient and thus shorten his stay in the sickbed.

Delinquent Fathers, A Major Problem

Lack of Grain Policy By Liberal Government Is Criticized

CONSERVATIVES ORGANIZE IN VERMILION COUNTY.

The federal government's plan of guaranteeing bank loans to farmers on the current wheat crop was criticized as unsatisfactory by Allen Ronaghan, president of the Wainwright Conservative Association, as he spoke briefly on agricultural problems following a Conservative organization meeting in Vermilion.

The meeting saw the formation of the Vermilion Conservative Association, covering the provincial constituency of that name.

A meeting has been called to form an association for the constituency of Alexandra. This meeting will be held at the home of Edward McFadyen, four miles from the village of Islay. On Oct. 31 a meeting was held in Irma, with representatives from the five ridings of Sedgewick, Bruce, Vermilion, Alexandra, and Wainwright. The meeting considered the formation of a zone council and problems faced by the five ridings.

George Maxwell, Vermilion insurance agent, was elected president of a provisional executive [illegible] members include Albert E. Williams of Mannville as vice-president and Charles Heckbert of Vermilion as secretary. The constituency was divided into several zones, with Michael Mudryk of Derwent as councillor for that district and John C. Tucker of Vermilion as councillor for the Vermilion district. Councillors for Innisfree and Mannville will be named later.

The executive plans a meeting for November to elect a permanent executive.

Commenting on the recent proposals of the federal government to guarantee bank loans to farmers, Mr. Ronaghan said that it appears to be a step in the right direction. "However the government doesn't seem to have grasped the gravity of the situation.

"The farmers' inability to sell grain is going to affect the entire Canadian economy. Municipalities are finding taxes hard to collect and will find it difficult to meet municipal obligations.

"Millions of dollars are already owed by farmers and interest payments are high. What does the Liberal government do? It gives the farmers a chance to assume a greater burden."

Mr. Ronaghan felt the solution does not lie in guaranteeing loans, but rather in some system of buying grain stored on the farms.

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

Editor, Vermilion Standard.

Dear Sir:

The hunting season is drawing to a close, as a farmer I'd say, thank goodness!

I was under the impression that the rule for this year was to be, that the hunter should execute consideration for property, swathed grain, livestock etc., and permission to shoot on private property.

But, once again all these things have been forgotten.

For example, I know of several instances where blinds were made from the swath held together by poles which when their purpose fulfilled, were left by the nonsensical hunters. Another case where three foot 'fox holes' were dug and left all over another man's field and left covered by the swath. I would say this is a dangerous practice.

Once again, some adolescent person laid a small dead dog under the swath, to this practical joker I would like to say the beast was spotted on the combine table before damage was done.

In conclusion I would like to ask that the hunters please take their 'empty bottles' with them.

If these things continue, in very short order the hunters will find they will have no place to hunt where the land is not posted.

Please bear in mind the farmer does have rights which can be enforced.

Thank you,
I M A Farmer.

Editor, Vermilion Standard.

Dear Sir:

I see in the report of Council meeting in last week's Standard of the passing of another by-law by the members of this body. Just what it was about is not revealed. In all probability, little does it matter. It would be very interesting to the man on the street if the town statutes were delved into and the number of by-laws which have been passed since the town was incorporated, were revealed.

Dozens and dozens of them of course have long since no doubt been out-dated by the progress of modern civilization — but, if we had any way of enforcing some of them, such as the forbidding of double parking, cycle riding on the main sidewalks (or all sidewalks for that matter), dogs running at large, the tying up of traffic by huge trucks unloading from the street instead of from the lane, [illegible] ... generally, and a by-law to keep sidewalks in business premises clear of mud and snow, just to mention a few that have come to mind, still pack a lot of sense.

If a by-law is worth passing — surely it's worth enforcing, that's logical isn't it?

By-Law Billie.

SUGGESTS HELP FOR FARMERS

Edmonton, Alberta.

To the Editor,
Vermilion Standard.

Owing to the fact that farmers are unable to market their wheat through no fault of their own, and in many instances they had to borrow money to build granaries on the farm to store the grain, I would like to make a suggestion with regard to financing the crop. I am not suggesting a Utopian idea but a method that has been used in Canada at various times in the past with success.

In 1915 the Government of Canada issued $16,000,000 in Dominion notes to the Canadian Northern and the Grand Trunk Railways and $[illegible],000,000 to meet maturing obligations of the government, a total of $[illegible].

The government having used this method to help finance the railroads, can also help finance the farmer at the present time, if it so desires.

It should be the function of a democratic government to supply its people with a means of exchange at cost.

In view of the fact that the government may look on the issue of Dominion notes as being inflationary, I would suggest that the advance be made through the ordinary channels of the banks, this advance to be interest free, based on the wheat in storage on the farm, the amount of the advance to be determined by the farmers and the government.

This proposal would cause little or no drain on individual banks and no drain whatever on the general cycle of the Bank, unless it became a matter of foreign exchange. It may be suggested that this would result in inflation.

But, owing to the fact that we have a greatly increased volume of goods to handle, in this instance wheat, we should also have an increased volume of money, unless a fall in the general price level is the objective. As soon as these advances were made, some of this money would find its way back to the banks in repayment of loans that already exist, to that extent cancelling out the inflationary effect.

Briefly stated, the purpose is to create a non-interest bearing revolving fund, to enable the farmer [illegible] at which time the advance would be repaid.

Local Residents Raise Many Goldfish

Last spring Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robson added five goldfish to their outdoor pool, to add to the interest and decorativeness of their lovely lawns and gardens surrounding their home overlooking the Vermilion Lake.

Apparently the goldfish felt very much at home in that ideal setting and promptly started to raise a family. They were very prolific, and although there is only an approximate count of their progeny, the estimate totals about 150 little fish anywhere from a small fraction of an inch in length to about an inch and a half.

Some of the fish are now being kept in an indoor aquarium, but many of them are gladdening the hearts of small children in many different points in Alberta and Saskatchewan. Friends of the Robsons have been presented with fish to take home as pets for the children.

And then, of course, there are other people who keep rabbits as pets.

In 1954 Canadians spent 23.1% of their disposable income for food. Per capita disposable income was $1,102.

Mannville Amateur Night Attracts Good Attendance, Good Talent

MANNVILLE. — Many favorable comments were heard on the Amateur Night held on Friday last in the Orange hall, Mannville, under the auspices of the Happy Hour W.A. of the Anglican church. Although only so many could be given prizes, as Mrs. Rea, one of the judges remarked, they were all winners. A varied and interesting program was given by the 19 contestants. Solos by Miss Ruth Gamble and Mrs. James Johnstone, dances by Mrs. Baguley and Mrs. Blackford, as well as the monologue by Mrs. Reg Lugg, added interest to the program. The pantomine by the Happy Hour Group members while the judges were making their decisions was like a bit of seasoning added to a good meal. While Mrs. Lugg read of the adventures of Princess Nonsuch and Prince Last Chance — their meeting and decision to marry — the W.A. members provided the scenery. Trees, wind, breezes, moon, sun, day, hours, doubts, bright ideas, shadows, were all portrayed by the ladies.

The dance that followed the program was well attended and dancing from 11 to 1 o'clock to the music supplied by Mrs. R. Lugg, Mr. J. Johnstone and Mr. Carmen Hughes was enjoyed by those present.

Many thanks to the judges, Mrs. Rea, Mrs. C. Ramsey and Mrs. S. Jackson for an excellent job and following are the winning contestants:

Pre-school class — 1, Colleen Emmott; 2, Brian Upton.

6, 7 and 8 years — 1, Mavis McCauley; 2, Ross Upton; 3, Leslie Kreller.

9, 10 and 11 years — 1, Bonnie Proudfoot; 2, Frank McCauley; 3, Brian Scoggins.

12, 13 and 14 — 1, Dawn and Lynn Kreller; 2, Vicki Iwaskow and Ruby Kesiuk.

Adult class — 1, Adele Matney and Connie Gerhart; 2, Frank Lychak.

In the 6 o 8 class and 9 to 11 class the other contestants were given a consolation prize in appreciation for entering.

Science Film "Time And Eternity" At Alliance Chapel Nov. 12th

The theory of relativity stars in a new Moody Institute of Science film "Time and Eternity" which will be shown at Alliance Chapel, Vermilion on Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

With imagination and humor "Time and Eternity" shows how time is related to space and motion, and before we realize we are into an obscure subject — understanding it and finding it exciting!

Specially designed cameras were used in this film to compress time or to stretch it and take us swinging off into space — which processes result in some amazing pictorial sprees and which give us a revolutionary idea of time.

"Time and Eternity" brings us a sharp realization that time isn't what we thought it was — it's more than seconds, minutes, hours or years, or past or present or future. For God all time is now. It does not march past Him second by second — He controls this magnificent mystery of time and space.

"Time and Eternity" runs about 44 minutes and is in full color. It is seventh in the "Sermons from Science" series of gospel-science films produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon of the Moody Institute of Science, Los Angeles, a branch of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

These films with sound tracks in 15 languages are shown all over the world.

HALLOWE'EN WAS ONCE A CHRISTIAN HOLIDAY

(From the Salvation Army Magazine "The Young Soldier")

The name Hallowe'en, derived from All Hallow's Eve, suggests the Christian tradition behind our observance of October 31st. It was the evening before All Saints' Day, November 1st, which was set aside about 1200 years ago by the Christian church to do honour to all the early martyrs of Christianity and the great missionaries who laboured through the centuries to spread the Word.

A stamp issued by Luxembourg recalls the story of how commemoration of the labours of the saints became paganized until it completely lost its Christian character. It is a story worth telling because the same thing that happened to Hallowe'en might happen with other Christian festivals. Santa Claus, rather than the Christ Child, all too often dominates Christmas in our homes and the Easter bunny rather than the Resurrection is too often the symbol of our Easter observances.

On this stamp Luxembourg pictures Echternach Cathedral, one of its famous old churches, which has recently been restored from bomb damage caused during World War II. Echternach is revered as the cathedral founded by Saint Willibrord, and Willibrord is the famous "Dancing Saint."

Willibrord had absolutely nothing to do with the weird and superstitious rites which sprang up in his name. The degeneration of the observance in his honour illustrates what has happened to Christianity all too frequently, in our day no less than in his.

Now Willibrord himself was deserving of honour. He was born in Northumbria, England, in 658 A.D. in the midst of the period known appropriately to history as the Dark Ages. Europe, as a whole, was not Christian then. Only in the area of the old Roman Empire had Christianity taken hold. When Willibrord set out to be a missionary in the area that we now know as Luxembourg and Belgium, it was an undertaking no less risky than that of the first missionary to enter a valley of Borneo headhunters.

So grateful were the people for the Word of God Willibrord had taught, for the Christian ways he had brought to replace their ancient barbaric pagan customs, that they immediately set aside a day to his memory.

The German [illegible] his pagans may have been defeated, but pagan customs persisted under the surface, and ultimately they broke through to triumph. Many years after Willibrord's death, the custom of the dancing rites began. Tradition has it that a pestilence struck cattle in this area with a shaking disease and threatened economic disaster for the poor peasants. They thought that by imploring Willibrord's aid in their prayers to God and imitating the shaking disease, a miracle might be induced.

The cattle did recover, and the people thereafter, as a superstitious protection against a recurrence of the plague, performed this weird dancing festival every year. Before long, the ribaldry and indecency accompanying this annual dance was anything but a tribute to a Christian. Had the old saint been able to return, he doubtless would have made the air purple with a fiery sermon about it.

A similar fate, however, had befallen the observances accorded to other saints. Every village was eager to have its own saint and there came to be so many saints' days that ultimately church authorities decreed that all saints should be honoured on one day, November 1st.

What happened? After a few years of solemn religious observance suitable to the occasion pagan customs began to be associated with this day too. The ancient Druids, a pagan group who lived in England and France believed that at the end of the fall harvest the God of Death came down to earth to gather all the souls who had died that year. English country youths dressed themselves like witches and ghouls to frighten superstitious peasants.

The jack-o-lantern, a hollow pumpkin head, with leering eyes, was considered particularly useful to strike terror into the hearts of the ignorant country people.

Before long, the saints, poor Christian crusaders that they had been, were forgotten and the pagan festival of masquerades and pranks became the center of everyone's attention. Unfortunately, the pagan customs have so taken over the day that we have now forgotten why it is even called "Holy Evening."

Best wishes were extended also by the President to Dr Hanlan for his success in Edmonton

Dr Huston gave a very interesting address to the Board in which he stated that it was part of the duty of himself and his associates to bring refresher courses to the pharmacists in the province He, together with Dr. R. J Murray Associate Professor of the Faculty of Pharmacy, U of A., were present in Vermilion on the occasion of a refresher course to the pharmacists in this district, arranged by the University faculty Dr Huston stated that a great many of the recent developments in modern drugs had been brought about by pharmacists and that an enormous amount of research work had been carried on by the Pharmaceutical Industry He also said that in proportion to the average income today pharmaceutical and medical costs per person in Canada were no higher than in 1939

Dr Huston concluded an informative and witty address by stating it was a real pleasure to be here and he hoped he would have another opportunity to visit Vermilion.

Mr Ashley Cooper read the Board's calendar of coming events and the meeting adjourned.

Six-inch Snowfall Bakers In Winter

Snowfalls on Sunday and Monday accompanied with strong cold winds and falling temperatures ushered in a taste of real winter this week. Of course, being true westerners with that never-say-die spirit, everyone is looking for things to clear up, the snow to go and Indian summer to arrive!

On Sunday snow commenced to fall about mid-afternoon after a nice autumn morning, amounting to 3.1 inches with 3.2 inches more falling on Monday. This was gaily whipped around by a high wind resulting in blocked roads so that snow plows had to be used on school bus routes. The snow also created icy road conditions with several accidents reported, none of serious however. Travelling conditions are precarious with the result that many events scheduled for this month have been postponed.

OCTOBER STATISTICS

October statistics at the Beam station here shows the mean temperature for October to have been 36.9 Warmest for the month was 67.1 and lowest 12.2. Rainfall only amounted to one-tenth of an inch but this was augmented by 7.3 inches of snowfall. for a total precipitation of .83 inches.

Huge Increase Is Evident In Use of Chemical Weed-Killer

Western Canadian farmers lost 140,000,000 bushels of grain last year due to the heavy infestation of weeds, H. W Leggett of the federal Department of Agriculture, told delegates at the recent conference of the Canadian Agricultural Chemicals Association at Ste. Adele-en-Haut, Quebec.

Mr Leggett who is superintendent of the government experimental station at Regina, said that of the 43,000,000 acres in the four western provinces planted in cereal crops about 13,000,000 were sprayed with 2,4-D chemical weed-killer. This compares with 500,000 acres sprayed in 1947.

"By breaking down a few projections, we should be spraying 35,000,000 acres of weed infested grain annually," he said.

"BLASTING" IS OATS

Owing to late seeding many oat fields throughout the Prairie Provinces are likely to be severely affected this year by a disease known as "Blast of Oats".

Cause and Effect. Blast of oats is a non-parasitic disease. The cause of this trouble has been traced to environmental conditions. Actually, its presence is an end result to a symptom of exhaustion or unfavorable growth conditions. It is known, for instance, that the appearance of blast on plants when they are from 6 to 9 inches tall, is much greater on drought, high temperatures, waterlogged soil, fertility, damage from frost, soil, and growth of many resulting from disease or insect attack, injury from soil fumigants, etc. In many cases, the cause of "blast" is unknown and appears to be a combination of factors [illegible] and there is no definite [illegible] for the disease.

Blast of oats is a form of cellular collapse. The leaves or stems, which occur mainly on the lower internodes of the panicle, are [illegible] destroyed. The blasted panicle produces no kernels, and the yield is lessened in proportion to the [illegible] damage. The "blasted" panicle is often very conspicuous and quite conspicuous in [illegible] fields. Some oat varieties are more susceptible to "blasting" than others.

Control. By way of control, about all that can be done is to provide the oat plants with as favourable and growing conditions as possible. Excess yield losses from "blast of oats" can usually be avoided by the early seeding of recommended and well-adapted varieties. Early seeding is important because it enables the oat plants to make the best use of spring moisture, and to complete the important [illegible] stages of growth before they are subjected to hot, dry weather, or suffer serious damage from diseases and insects. Seeding, although only seeding is delayed by the [illegible] of [illegible]

Vermilion C. G. I. T. Entertain Vegreville Girls At Social Evening

An enjoyable rally was held in the United Church hall when the Vermilion C.G.I.T. were hostesses to the Vegreville group. Thirty-one girls, their leaders and drivers were welcomed on their arrival by Ruth Beatty the Vermilion department president. Grace was then sung and the girls took their places at the table where a beautiful supper was served.

While the tables were being cleared the girls took part in a jolly sing-song which was followed by three amusing skits given by the Vegreville girls, and by one Vermilion group. The girls then joined in some folk dancing. All lined up in two's for the procession into the church, singing the C.G.I.T. hymn.

Margaret Goodwin was organist and members of the Vermilion senior group conducted the devotions.

Miss Margaret Goodwin rendered the solo "My Task" very beautifully, accompanied by Mrs. K. Stewart on the organ. Another enjoyable number on the program was the singing of the song "In Middles White" by six of the girls.

Mothers of the girls and other interested persons attended the service in the church.

Following this they divided into six groups for 'buzz' sessions. Many and varied were the questions and answers which came out of these discussions. This was summed up very beautifully by Mrs. James A. Smith as spokesman for the mothers when she completed her remarks by quoting the following lines—

"Being a girl is a wonder adventure,
Being a girl is a beautiful thing.
Something like being a great explorer,
Something like being a king."

The Vermilion girls were thanked for the pleasant evening of entertainment by Miss Trevor Dischel on behalf of the visiting Vegreville group. Mrs. K. Stewart, departmental superintendent expressed the pleasure of the Vermilion C.G.I.T. at having the Vegreville girls visit them. The rally was ended with the singing of taps.

The leaders accompanying the visiting girls were Miss Grace Eyton, Miss Sue Carmichael and Miss Kaye Shapka.

The Vermilion C. G. I. T. express their sincere thanks to the ladies of the United Church W.A. who so kindly came in after the supper and washed all the dishes and cleaned up the kitchen.

SCOUTING and GUIDING

The Group committee wish to thank all those who bought tickets for the Elks carnival from the Brownie, Guides, Cubs and Scouts, and the Elks who are so generously donating the ticket money towards the Scout Hall building fund.

Once again Guide and Brownie Mothers' Association are collecting Quaker box tops and coupons. It would be appreciated if anybody who has a box top or coupon would turn it over to a Cub, Scout, Guide or Brownie. Last year almost $10 was raised through this means and with an earlier start we hope to be able to raise more than that this year.

The Scout and Cub Mother's Association wish to sincerely thank all those who patronized their tea on Saturday and made it such a success. Particular thanks are extended to the mothers who did the baking and turned out to help in the kitchen. It was nice to see the Company Is Pioneer In Novel Process

Adults who remember the school days in which they poured over the plays of Shakespeare having to learn passages, will be interested in the experiment started three years ago by a group of Vancouver actors. Recognizing that Shakespeare was slowly becoming a boor when really he should be a source of dramatic excitement they decided to take his plays directly to the students. From the start the students were fascinated. They saw and heard the Bard's wit, dramatic power and great theatrical technique for the first time, and the text books became suddenly alive.

Now in their third season of playing the High Schools and cities of B.C., Alberta and Saskatchewan, the Lancasters have established a regular circuit among these communities which regard great plays as a civilized part of living. It reveals to students and adults alike a new interpretation of Shakespeare. The company of professional actors from Vancouver, San Francisco and Toronto, are all experienced Shakespearian players. The interpretation given Julius Caesar by the Lancasters is modern and alive. The story is of man's avarice, his lust for power and the result of giving way to baser instincts brings death and destruction to all. Shakespeare wrote for the people of his time, but what he has to say is as alive today as it was then.

The Junior and Senior High Schools and the School of Agriculture are bringing Julius Caesar to the V.S.A. auditorium on November 12th at 8:00 p.m. Some of the finest Canadian actors will be seen in the lead roles, and tickets are available now from Junior High School students, and will be sold at the door.

Father Starodub Honored By Parishioners on First Anniversary

"I wish to sincerely thank the members of the parishes of Fidelity, Lloydminster and Mannville as well as Vermilion" said the Rev. Father Roman Starodub "for honoring me on the occasion of my first anniversary in this parish." He was speaking to the members of the Ukrainian Catholic churches of Vermilion, Fidelity, Lloydminster and Mannville who had gathered to surprise him with a party in his honor in the Legion hall on October 30th. There were about 150 people present.

"I am very thankful to all the ladies who took part in preparing such a delicious lunch, and to Mr. W. Bunko who has been such a capable Master of Ceremonies, also thanks to the presidents of the churches, Mr. W. Stoyko of Fidelity, Mr. Kowal of Lloydminster, Mr. Dzubaty of Mannville and Mr. W. Korhan of Vermilion." Father Starodub went on to say "Thanks also to Rev. Father Charkowski of Derwent parish for he was the first one to organize this Vermilion parish."

"And my grateful thanks to all the people who have gathered together for this occasion and who have given me such a lovely gift."

Each of the church presidents spoke a few words in turn, and then the gathering heard from Father Charkowski.

The party closed with a prayer led by Father Starodub.

Flock of Swans On Kenilworth Lake

A large flock of beautiful swans, seventy in number, spent three weeks on Kenilworth lake this fall, and only left on Saturday, Oct. 29, just before the big snow storm which commenced early Sunday afternoon.

The Standard was given this information by Kenny Gunn who lives on a nearby farm. Ken says that 55 of the swans were adult birds and pure white, with 15 of the swans grey, indicating that they were young birds. The swans presented quite a beautiful sight on the lake and afforded the young naturalist much pleasure.

Kenilworth Lake is a game preserve and is proving a grand haven for the birds and very much worthwhile to those who like to see their wildlife alive.

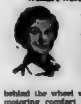
Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority



Take the tension and temper out of driving, and you'll eliminate the major causes of road fatigue. A relaxed attitude and the proper position behind the wheel will add miles of motoring comfort and enjoyment.

Many motorists encourage fatigue unwittingly by assuming uncomfortable and improper steering positions. Avoid being the stiff-arm driver who sits too far away from the wheel, the low-slung driver who just barely peers over the wheel or the chest-crushing driver who pushes the wheel into the midriff. Instead, assure yourself of the most comfort and control by adjusting the seat so that your forearms are about parallel with the plane of the wheel and your feet are within easy distance of the pedals. If necessary, prop yourself up with a car cushion for a clear view of the road.

A famous osteopath I know told me recently that all drivers should make smiling a habit. As he explained it, a smile relaxes the eye and facial muscles, and when the eye is relaxed, so is the brain.

Also, avoid overstrained eyes [illegible] are conducive to fatigue. When your eyes are overtired, good sense, sportsmanship and road courtesy are often forgotten and irritability is increased. Incidentally red lights and stop signs provide ideal chances for relaxation.

Monument To Early Western Explorer

UNVEILED AT MEADOW LAKE, SASKATCHEWAN

A cut-stone monument to Peter Fidler, the Hudson's Bay Company employee who was the first white man to explore the Churchill River from its upper waters to its mouth at Hudson Bay, was unveiled at Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan, on Thursday, October 27th.

The monument was erected by the Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources on the recommendation of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada. It was presented by Richmond Mayson, Saskatchewan representative on the Historic Sites Board, and accepted by Mayor R. Gibson, of Meadow Lake. Miss Gail Collier, a grade 12 student at the local high school, unveiled the historic site, while H. C. Dunfield, M.L.A. for Meadow Lake, spoke of Peter Fidler.

Fidler was born in 1769 and entered the Hudson's Bay Company service while still a youth. He was only 22 when he journeyed to Lesser Slave Lake to spend two years living among the Chipewyan Indians. Between 1791 and 1802 he built four trading posts and for 34 years traded along the North and South Saskatchewan Rivers.

Apart from his commercial activities, Fidler devoted much of his time to meteorological investigations of the Northwest. He also made the first boundary survey of Assiniboia and the settlement survey of Kildonan, both in the Red River settlement of what is now Manitoba. He died at Norway House in 1822.

The Argentina government guarantees wheat producers in that country $2.72 per bushel for [illegible] basis seaboard, yet recently made sales for export at $1.65 per bushel.

The population of the U.S. is now roughly 165 million and births are exceeding deaths by one every 12 seconds.

Make it a rule to relax and you'll enjoy your driving even more.

Donna May Is Edmonton Bride In Double Ring Ceremony

A double ring ceremony was performed in the Westminster United church, Edmonton, on October 29th at 3.00 p.m. by Rev. W. Moss, when Donna Margaret May, younger daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. N. H. May of Vermilion, was united in marriage to Lester Samuel Whitford, elder son of Mrs. Lillian Whitford and the late Mr. Percy Whitford, of Edmonton.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Boyd May, the bride was radiant in a waltz length gown of nylon tulle over taffeta. The bouffant skirt was highlighted by side panels of ruffled lace over tulle. The lace over taffeta strapless bodice was modified by a lace bolero jacket which featured lily point sleeves and a stand-up pointed collar. A finger-tipped veil was held in place by a lace and taffeta cap. She carried a pink colonial rose cascade bouquet. Her only ornament was a gold watch, a gift from the groom.

Her bridesmaids were Miss Maxine Fenton, her only niece, and Miss Evelyn Blanchette. Miss Fenton's dress was pink tulle and lace over taffeta and featured bouffant skirt. Miss Blanchette's was blue lace and net over taffeta and featured a pleated net skirt. Both costumes were completed by bolero jackets, matching head-pieces and mittens. They carried sheaths of multi-colored carnations.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. George Whitford and Mr. Lawrence Savard. Ushering the guests were Mr. Melvin May, brother of the bride, and Mr. Jack Waters.

Following the ceremony a reception for relatives and friends was held at St. Peter's church hall. For receiving the guests Mrs. Whitford had chosen a rosewood colored crepe and lace gown with navy accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. C. Fenton received in a grey dressmaker suit with white accessories and had cream roses en corsage.

The bride's table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake and vases of yellow and bronze 'mums. Mr. E. N. Arthur, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast, to which the groom ably responded.

Mrs. Louise Lang from Vermilion was in charge of the guest book.

In the evening they entertained their friends at a dance in the hall and then left for a trip to Tacoma, Washington.

For travelling, the bride changed to a deep blue acetate dress with brown accessories, a topcoat of muskrat and a corsage of pink roses.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. Boyd May, Mr. Henry Strang, Mrs. L. Lang, all from Vermilion; Miss Estella McDonnel from Lloydminster; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Fenton and Maxine from Streamstown; Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Arthur; Mr. and Mrs. Amos Church from Wainwright; Mr. and Mrs. E. Rustand from Rose Creek; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. May and family from Vermilion; Mr. M. May from Leduc, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Steinhauer from Spedden.

Health Unit Notes

MOTHERCRAFT

In the near future the Health Unit proposes to start a series of talks on Mothercraft to expectant mothers. These will be given weekly and possibly on Wednesday afternoons in the Health Unit building, the full series covering a period of six weeks.

During these six weeks it is hoped that these talks and informal discussions will cover the preparation for Motherhood and follow along the general lines of early infant care.

In this series we have planned to try and help the expectant mother to add to the knowledge she has already gained on such matters as, the general health of the baby, planning of a layette, nutrition and early infant feeding. We shall welcome this opportunity to meet her and discuss any of her difficulties and problems arising in this field. We also hope to make these weekly meetings more interesting by the showing of films and demonstrations on such subjects as bathing a baby and preparing a formula.

We look upon these talks as an excellent opportunity for the Mother-to-be to meet the Health Unit staff and to learn how we can help her after the baby is born.

Mothercraft is an entirely new venture for your Health Unit and its success depends on your support. If this project is the success we hope it will be we shall endeavor to arrange other series along similar lines.

We are inviting anyone who is interested in coming to these talks to contact the Health Unit by letter or by telephone.

Early Winters Are Recalled By Old Timers of Islay District

WINS PRIZE

The Islay 4-H Wheat club held their seed fair Friday afternoon in the hall. Mr. Buchignani and the 4-H members. Mr. Jeffery judged the grain. Mr. Stewart was present to present a billfold to Frances Kowalski for the best plot. Jim Whitmore had the best sample of wheat: Eddie Waterfield, second; Don Martin, third; Gary Needham, fourth. The club members had the opportunity of judging too. The grain samples were fairly good, although some were colorless and musty.

Mr Neil McEachern has been confined to his house for a few days. Thought he was suffering from rheumatism in his shoulder but discovered it was out of joint. Needless to say, that sort of thing is painful

SERVICE WELL ATTENDED

Sunday service was well attended and Mr McGoffin's sermon "God's call to Service" was a very stirring one. Miss Bootsman's solo "My Task" was much appreciated. We were pleased to have with us at the service her sister and mother. Also Mrs. Landall from Edmonton.

The Dave Martin family were Sunday evening visitors at the Bill Shaver's.

We were wondering how many dinners Mrs. August lost will have from that. Ha Ha. Ask us, we have heard of this a.m. on neighborly news.

Sorry to learn of the passing of George Sperberg. He had been in hospital in Edmonton since early August. We extend sympathy to the families.

A contract from here attended the Home & School Workshop in Mannville to hear Dr. Laycock. Mrs. Olive Redmond and Mrs. Violet Schaffer were the delegates. We are awaiting with anticipation our next meeting Nov. 16th to hear reports.

Congratulations on the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wallace (nee Marion Rosbeck) on Oct. 26. Also to Grandpa and Grandma Rosbeck in Vermilion.

NEW BRIDGE FOR THE DEWBERRY HIGHWAY

A new bridge is being built on the road north, the Dewberry highway, as it is known. Traffic is going over the road just now, some also were going over the next road west of that again is cross the river on the Mercer bridge, it being superior to the one by Petrie's.

SO FULL AN ATTENDANCE

HALLOWE'EN VISITORS

Hallowe'en came in with the storm. One would have thought it too stormy and the snow too deep for the spooks . . . but no! They came in hordes — and we had four light blue ones, very well dressed with stripes too . . . an, not those black and white ones — but some with dark eyes like Brown-Eyed Susans; some with hand-made costumes and maybe a missing can. Some little things sort of gave a chase—in this gravel some even Shot and Geoff or is it "Geoff" Anyway we enjoyed that little visit from the bill folk.

Mr. Herb Simmons has been resting in the Islay hospital and we venture to say it is the first rest he has taken in many a year. For a man in his 70's he travels a fast pace. He intends to go home today (Tuesday). We wish him improved health. Take a little holiday this winter Mr. Simmons.

REMINISCENCES

This morning, Tuesday, we heard a lot of reminiscing. Remember the winter of 1906? 1918? Started in just like this. Also 1920, on Oct. 17 a blizzard blew in, piling snow and threshing stopped for 3 or 4 weeks. Then the snow disappeared, threshing was finished. In 1906 Ulva McFadyen of the livery stables here, took two land seekers out south west in June and returned a gully in the vicinity of the J. J. Bell farm (now Caulton's and Jones') they got stuck in snow. They were travelling by team and buggy. Trains were stuck in snow drift of Islay the winter of 1906. There were cars of settlers and their effects, among them the late Al Ebercraft and the late Geo. Wilson. For a week they were snowed in, all the coal Islay could haul, and much of the provisions were taken out. The late Jim Gilchrist of Islay drove out with a flashy little mare carrying feed, the conductor of one train admired the mare so much that he bought it for a good price She was loaded in the baggage car and was off to Edmonton when the train got free. Ah! Times were the days! Then there was the man on the top floor of the Islay hotel who got up hurriedly to take the train — in the night, as now — opened the hall door and stepped down two flights to the sidewalk, got up, ran and fell over a fence, ran some more and did get on the train. After some years he was back and was on one of the threshing outfits here back in 1930 And that is only a sample.

The SWANS ON ISLAND LAKE next thing we hear will likely be A large number of swans have Ed McFadyen and pals off on a big been resting up on Island Lake just game hunt.

Individuals say that if the study about depths there five symptoms will appear: eyes, many times more tightly, headaches, dizziness. Other fact is that about sufferers of visual disturbances are aged at Northern equates have sharp eyes and rather vision, but they are "short-sighted".
Man's eyes, too, are tailored to his environment. Those of ocean say workers, for example, have a strongly developed sense of depth, while those in one of most disabling afflictions. Intestinal Gelatin like Bauer and Black were able to devise inspection from eyeglasses.
A Parisian doctor, died for the past 20 years, recently published the 1000th baby. But these men are eminent exceptions to the general rule.
Doctors warn that serious eye conditions are more common than tuberculosis, injuries or foreign bodies. If you suspect you have a visual defect, if neglected, can lead to eventual blindness.
Happily, however, modern medical research has uncovered effective methods of thwarting serious eye ailments. One of the most recent of these developments is a combined dose of antibiotic and hormone, two-pronged weapon that both combats infection and controls inflammation.
Dr. R. H. Dekkiner recently treated a group of 72 patients suffering from a corneal disease. Of the 72 treated in this manner, 70 showed complete recovery. Twenty-seven of these were in advanced stages of the disease and had been given up as hopeless cases. Only one patient failed to respond to this therapy. None of the 72 patients developed any side effects from the treatment.
Only one ailment listed is exempt to this therapy. None of the test patients suffered from the type of infection and scarring that can be caused by trachoma. This disease is common in Africa, many of the Middle East countries, and, to a lesser degree, in the United States. Fortunately, it is not common in Canada.

Cold Facts
In the next few months to come, nothing will be so common as the common cold. The dry viral surrender thought to cause this costly ailment is as ubiquitous as it is intimate.
Thus far, economists have found no sure way of preventing the cold. In fact, in a switch on the old saw "Physician Heal Thyself" many researchers probing the cause and cure of the cold will be sniffling right along with the rest of us before the winter's out.
Ultimately, their work may pan out; to date it has not been entirely unencouraging.
Dr Christopher Andrewes, for instance, has spent almost a decade studying the ailment at the Common Cold Foundation in Salisbury, England. One of Dr. Andrewes' colleagues, he has found, is that it doesn't matter how small either one catches.
It may be easy to "catch" socially, but it's very difficult to "give" organically. Dr. Andrewes' report sounds defiance. Attempts to transmit the ailment to volunteers artificially at the Common Cold Center were unsuccessful in 50 per cent of the cases.
Far more successful has been work aimed at finding out new ways to reduce much of the cold sufferer's misery.
The recently developed medication, Tyrine, for example, has proven highly successful in relieving one of the cold's worst symptoms—stuffed-up nose In clinical tests on 203 patients, ranging from 18 months to 81 years, Tyrine gave "excellent" to "fair" to 87 per cent of the cases, according to a report in the New York State Journal of Medicine. Added lusted about four hours and the sufferer didn't have any advertisements even when used for prolonged periods.
For combatting other cold symptoms, many sufferers prefer home remedies like the rock candy, grown remedies like the rock candy. But there is one bit of advice on which doctors stand unanimous. Don't "fight" your cold. Take to your bed and hope for the best.

VETERANS BUILD NEW HOMES UNDER THE VLA AND CMHC

One hundred and fifteen veterans are to date building their own homes under Part II throughout the length and breadth of Alberta and the British Columbia Block. In addition to this, some 45 veterans are now building under Part I, V.L.A. on small holdings. These veterans expect to occupy their new homes this winter and are at present hard at work on their new houses, which are going up all the way from Cardston in the south to Fort St. John in the north. These houses are modern, attractive and comfortable and built from C.M.H.C. approved plans with all the latest features and conveniences. In spon-soring the new legislation the Canadian Legion specially stipulated the veterans be required to take a training course in house construction so that they (the veterans) would be more efficient contractors. The Legion is taking a great interest in those houses that are being built; the different Branches have done much to assist in putting on the courses, particularly in making accommodation available. The Veterans' Land Act held a number of training courses last fall which were well attended by veterans intending to build under Part II. These courses are now doing an excellent job as their own contractors. Further courses to be held this fall are being arranged throughout the province, depending upon the number of applications received at the different towns and cities. Veterans wishing to take one of these training courses this fall, so they can build next year, should, without delay, contact the nearest Regional office or field representative of the V.L.A. and submit their applications for qualification. A qualification certificate is a pre-requisite to attending a training course. Once a course has been started no further veterans can be enrolled. Naturally, veterans require a little working capital of their own but it is really surprising how veterans with limited means, initiative and a desire to work and get a modern home can, under this scheme, succeed in acquiring a lovely and comfortable home. The veterans' wives are most enthusiastic and often insist on taking the training course with their husbands and assist them in the actual construction and decorating work.

CEMENT PLANT TO DOUBLE CAPACITY

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Inland Cement Company Limited, held in Edmonton, it was decided to proceed forthwith to double the capacity of the plant, in view of the favorable market prospects.

Construction of the first part of the Edmonton plant, with a capacity of 900,000 barrels of cement a year, is now well advanced and completion is expected in ample time to tak advantage of the 1956 construction season. As adequate provision was made in the present plant for doubling the capacity, this can now be done at relatively low cost.

The first plant was financed by the issue of $2,000 000 of $1 ordinary shares and $6,000,000 of $10 non-callable non cumulative Participating Preferred shares. It is estimated that a further $4,000,000 will be required to bring the capacity up to 1,800,000 barrels but no announcement was made regarding the proposed financing or method for providing the additional funds that will be required.

Whooping Cranes Complete Trip

Thirteen whooping cranes have made their 2,000-mile migration flight from Canada safely and are settled on Aransas national wildlife refuge at Austwell, Texas, for the winter, according to manager Julian Howard of the refuge.

Among them are four young-of-the-year, hatched in the vicinity of Great Slave Lake this summer. Two of these are twin young with their parents and two others are single young, each with a pair of adults.

These families are all new arrivals this week. The first three whoopers to arrive, a pair and a single adult, reached the refuge on October 18.

These 13 are approximately half the world's flock of the 21 who had flown north in April, came back, and, for the first time in many years, had no young with them. All 21 spent the winter months on the refuge and took off again in April for their nesting grounds in the Northwest Territories.

This summer, however, Canadian and U. S. wildlife officials spotted their nesting territory which had been unknown since 1922, and sighted six young whoopers.

If all make the long flight safely, there will be 27 whooping cranes this year. The migration is not usually completed until the middle of December.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather lately has been agreeable and most of the harvest work is finished. Snow, enough to cover the ground, fell on the night of Oct. 21. Coldest so far was Sunday morning, 23rd. The thermometer registered 10 above.

Mr and Mrs Idelore Nelson and daughter Anna spent a few days in the city, going on Oct. 20. They also visited at the latter's sister's home Mrs Lily Swanson and family at Josephburg.

We were very pleased to have Uncle Willie and Aunt Stella (Mayers) at our W A meeting on Oct. 20 at the Omness home. The main discussion was of the supper. The next meeting is to be at the I. Nelson home on Nov. 10. Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Wilson are on the lunch committee.

A speedy recovery is wished Dad McBride. He was taken to the Vermilion hospital on Oct. 21. He is having treatments on his bad knee. Daughter Neva returned home to the coast on the 22nd.

It was nice to see a good attendance at the Clandonald United church service on the 23rd conducted by Rev McKay and Mr Schurman. The next service will be at Allandale Nov 6 at 3 p.m.

THEODORE THRONDSON OBTAINS PILOT'S LICENSE

Theodore Throndson from Yellowknife arrived at his parents' home on Friday, Oct. 22. He had spent eleven days in the city taking a refresher course in flying to obtain his Private Pilot's license which he was successful in getting. While in the city he was at the home of his cousin Delia and family, the Walsh's. It had been 11 years since Theodore left the air force. He left Saturday morning the 29th, by CPA for his home in Yellowknife.

Miss Caroline Strang who had been working for the Husky Oil for some time in Lloydminster, was married on Thanksgiving day to Joe Sporkyles of Calgary. They are making their home in Calgary. Congratulations and best wishes from all at Allandale.

Mr and Mrs. Henry Strang visited their son Ernie and family in Lloydminster on Sunday, Oct. 23. Their grandson accompanied them to visit his parents. he has been working for John Starko and was operating the baler, doing bailing on the Omness farm starting on the 24th.

WEBSDALES MOVING TO B.C.

The Websdales had a sale on Oct. 24th prior to moving. The community held a farewell for the family on the evening of Oct. 27. Mr. Websdale hasn't been too well — we hope the change in climate will improve his health. They are moving to B.C. Our very best wishes to the family.

Auntie Mabel Lee returned home to Vermilion after holidaying in the east for nearly three months. She was with her daughter Esther and husband for most of that time in Toronto. Her grandson Bobby Strang in Toronto visited her there. Bobby has been working on a construction gang for sometime now. On her way home she visited an aunt and family at Borcys, Minn. Auntie was 82 years old last July.

Jack Cross took three of his purebred Hereford heifers to the stock sale in the city held Oct. 29.

Mr and Mrs. Wm. Cross spent most of last week in the city and visiting daughter Betty and husband at Fort Saskatchewan.

Mr and Mrs. Gus Throndson motored to the city on Oct. 25 accompanied by son Theodore. They returned home the next day.

CHICKEN SUPPER SUCCESSFUL

To all who helped in any way at the chicken supper we thank you very much. Your help and co-operation was greatly appreciated, and to the public for your loyal support. Supper and food sold realized the sum of $210.15. Expenses and hall rent amounted to $14.[illegible] This was aside from the bazaar.

Don Wilson and Orley Omness left last Sunday afternoon to visit at the latter's daughter's home, the Walsh's. Monday they planned to go on West for a week's holiday camping.

Closing Thought: "More people fall victims to the tiresomeness of life than to its tears. The greatest tragedies do not always occur in the storms of life. Beneath the dull grey skies of monotony and beneath the sunlessness of routine, very sad things are happening. But no life is useless; and no one need be unhappy, for which we thank God."

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

In a restaurant the other day I heard a man say, 'Look at the stock market acting up because Eisenhower took sick. Shows what a fool thing the market is when one man can cause all that!'

Everyone nodded agreement except me. I happen to believe that one human being can be mighty important, and that if the stock market didn't reflect Eisenhower's illness, there would have been something mighty wrong with the market.

Too few of us appreciate fully the value of one human being. We get fuzzy notions that there is some unknown system or scheme that runs a country. There isn't. It is run by people, just as farms and factories and corporations are run by people.

Hitler was only one human individual — but look at the mess he made. Churchill was only one human being but his courage and oratory saved England.

Every really successful business man I have known has had an intense interest in people and their reactions. Failures go through life in a dreamy state, unaware of the importance of the individuals with whom they come in contact. I've known some social workers, for example, who couldn't tell you the color of the eyes of the person on whom they last imposed their professional charity.

Many of us are too dull to see the merits of others. Because they have eyes and ears and nose, much like our own, we fool ourselves into thinking they are just ordinary fellows who somehow 'got the breaks'.

It would be strange indeed if the stock market failed to reflect the illness of a man like Mr Eisenhower. The man in the restaurant ought to be on his knees, like many Americans, saying a prayer for Eisenhower's recovery. That's how important one human being is!

Biggest Boom

For almost ten years Canada has been enjoying the biggest boom in her history. True there have been a few soft spots and in some industries, a 'rolling readjustment'. But, points out The Financial Post, when we look at the whole broad picture of our economy there is no denying that since the end of the war:

We have been more prosperous than ever before;

We have grown faster than ever before;

We have attracted more new industry and more capital investment than ever before.

How long can we expect this buoyant state of affairs to continue?

Economist Douglas Gibson of the Bank of Nova Scotia faced that question in his recent address before the American Life Convention in Chicago.

His conclusion: "the underlying trend in Canada is decidedly upward." He still sees no end of the boom.

A $25,000 addition has been planned by the board of the Vermilion Municipal hospital and the by-law will be placed before the people of the hospital district for their ratification on Wednesday, Nov. 29 . . . The hospital addition has been urgently needed for several years and the board has been working on details of the by-law and examining building plans for a considerable length of time.

The Vermilion and District Livestock Feeders Association Ltd., a movement sponsored jointly by the Dominion and Provincial governments and operated by stock men in Vermilion and adjacent districts, has already swung into action and has supplied no less than 623 head of feeder stock to those farmers desiring them.

A half-hearted attempt at Indian Summer was made over the week end but fled before lower temperatures and snow on Tuesday and Wednesday driven by a high wind. Thursday morning the thermometer was just nicely clear of the zero mark and three inches of snow covered the ground.

From Tolland News: We are glad to report that Mrs. Sadie Oldenberg who underwent an operation at the Lamont hospital a short time ago is making a favorable recovery.

At a well attended meeting of the Vermilion Curling club held in the town hall on Wednesday evening the following officers were elected: Hon Pres. — Mayor Morrison; President — George Webb; Vice-Pres — Father J O'Sullivan; Sec.-Treas. — H. Reduced Enrollment At The V.S.A.

Following registration on the Monday and Tuesday all students began regular classes for the winter term at the School of Agriculture on Wednesday afternoon October 19th.

A matter of real concern to all who are interested in the V.S.A. is that the enrollment in all classes showed reduced numbers as compared with recent years. The total of 120 is some thirty less than the registration in the fall of 1954. If the Alumni can do anything about this they should get going before it is too late!

A group of Second Year students headed by Ted Peck and Vicky Lopushinsky, President and Vice-President respectively of the Students Council served as a Reception Committee welcoming the new students and assisting to show them to their rooms and about the campus.

All new students were given a colorful sombrero hat and V.S.A. streamers to mark their entry to the School.

Entertainment for new students featured the Staff Reception on the first Saturday night and Initiation for the second week end.

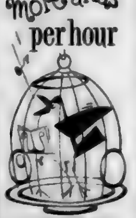
more arias per hour



Dark, dreary days depress canaries, too. They just don't feel like singing. But now—good news for canary cultivators! If they'll arrange to have the bottom of their cages lined with aluminum, they'll sing through the darkest day. The light reflected from the sparkling metal fools them that sunshine's bright.

People find endless household uses for aluminum foil. So does industry for everything from fire-fighting clothing to photo-flash bulbs, to wrapping for candy and food. Canada used 8 million pounds of foil last year.

WILDMERE WINKS

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. George Sperberg and children of Wildwood district on the loss of a loving husband and father, also to his parents, brothers and sister in their hour of sorrow.

Mrs. J. M. Smith and her niece Mrs. C. Scroggie who were visiting here at the Smith home, left on Wednesday night Oct. 19 by plane from Edmonton for their homes in Vancouver. It was too foggy on arrival there however to land, so they had to go to Victoria on the island and come back to the mainland by boat.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Repp of Bowtell on the birth of a baby daughter.

Rev. Heuer of Edmonton put on a good picture show at the Preston Central school last Friday night but only a handful of people turned out as it was not advertised very well. From all reports some wonderful pictures were shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney of Basswood were Edmonton visitors last Friday.

George Riley and Ian Clark attended Mr. and Mrs. Vern Watt's wedding dance at Islay last Friday night. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Watt many years of happy married life.

WILDMERE P. O. CLOSED

Another old land mark has now disappeared from our district with the closing of the Wildmere post office last Friday. It was in May, 1910, that it first opened at the home of the late George Wilson, then later it was moved to the Madill farm and later to the Riley farm, back once again to the Madill farm and later to the Riley farm. Once more it moved back to the Madill farm when the late Mr. Guy Whitlock bought the farm and where it has been since. Mrs. Whitlock has carried on since her husband's death last winter, but as she is moving to Vermilion the P.O. will be closed. Our district however will continue to be known as Wildmere, also our church.

The writer and husband attended the Gay 90's dance last Thursday in Vermilion and a good crowd attended, everyone enjoying themselves to the utmost. Hanna orchestra furnished the music and Mr. T. Thompson was M.C.

A Home Nursing course has been started in our district with ladies from Battleview also attending. Miss Salisbury, District Health Nurse, comes out from Vermilion and teaches the class. It is very interesting and anyone wanting to join may still do so.

FAREWELL WHITLOCK FAMILY

On Sunday evening Mrs. J. Wilson had Mrs. K. Whitlock, Margaret and Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. Holte and Baillie, Mr. and Mrs. L. Howard and Archie Robinson in for supper. Then later Mr. and Mrs. C. Cruthers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallington and Mrs. Bauman dropped in for a little farewell party for Mrs. Whitlock and girls. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed and a little electric lamp was presented to Mrs. Whitlock to help light up her home in town. We will all miss her and the girls very much as they have been grand neighbors, and we wish them well in their new home.

Kenny Graham attended the 4-H Seed Fair on Monday and he got 6th prize for his wheat. Only nineteen samples were in out of a possible 20. Mr. Buckingham and his helpers are very interested in this work, and the boys and girls should be too. A nice lunch was given after the 'fair' which everyone enjoyed.

Baillie Holte left Monday morning for Edmonton to see about work for the winter. Good luck Baillie.

Mrs. Hazel Batke of Basswood is holding an auction sale of farm equipment and some household articles on Wednesday Nov. 9th at her farm home in Basswood. So plan to attend as she has some good articles to sell, including milk cows etc.

Our winter really started with a bang on Sunday afternoon and is definitely still with us at time of writing.

We were pleased to have a chat for a short time on Saturday with Mrs. Moore as it has been quite some time since we have seen her.

Mrs. C. Cruthers and the writer took in the Elks carnival on Saturday night.

Mr. R. Denily of Triangle went to Calgary last week taking his dad home. Mr. Denily Sr. has spent the summer here and intended to make his home here with his son but his wife has not been very well making it necessary for her to be close to medical aid.

LOOKING FOR GIFTS?

Then come to the S.A. Home League sale of work and home baking. Tea will be served. In the Legion hall, Saturday, Nov. 12 at 2:30 p.m. We would like to see you there! 16-19c

Good News for Homemakers

WOW THE CROWD WITH A WONDERFUL MEAL

Next time the crowd comes to your place for a big feast, Madam, take it in your stride. With so many nearly-ready foods at your grocers today, the job of cooking for 2 or 20 is becoming easier and more fun.

Pick up a frozen chicken or turkey at your food market or from your own home freezer. Completely cleaned and packaged, frozen poultry is a real time saver.

Commercially frozen chickens and turkeys are packaged at the peak of perfection and are government inspected. And of course, if you've frozen your own prize gobbler, you're sure of the best. Either way you can't go wrong.

Vegetables for your meal can come from the freezer, too, but a few fresh vegetables add to that homest-to-goodness good eating. Like the tiny white onions so plentiful this time of year. Dress them up with a smacking-good mushroom sauce like this . . .

HOLIDAY CREAMED ONIONS

2 pounds small white onions
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 can (1¼ cups) condensed cream of mushroom soup
¼ cup cream or top milk
¼ cup chopped walnuts
¼ cup shredded Canadian cheese

Cook onions in lightly salted boiling water until almost done, drain. Place in a 1½-quart casserole; dot with butter. Meanwhile, stir soup until smooth, blend in cream and walnuts; pour over onions. Sprinkle cheese on top. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) about 30 minutes or until cheese is melted and slightly browned. 6 servings.

Round out the meal with buttered sweet potatoes, hot biscuits with homemade jam, a molded fruit salad (made the day before), and a heaping tray of relishes. Choice of dessert . . . pumpkin pie and coconut cake. Make these from prepared mixes if you're too busy to start from scratch.

Then sit back and bask in compliments that come your way. Sure enough, you're a champion cook!

BIG CHANGES

Coming back to Canada after a year's absence, Napier Moore writes in The Financial Post of the amazing changes to be found:

"I stood at a window in a downtown Toronto office building and gazed down at the cars which, in solid mass, crammed the parking [illegible]

The building I was in wasn't there a year ago. Nor were its glass-fronted neighbors. Nor the parking lot, which was part of Chinatown when I left. I had been driven from the city's northern outskirts past streets of trim houses which were fields in 1954, past busy shopping centres and banks with beckoning almost gay facades; through chasms of shiny new apartment blocks. Staggering changes everywhere.

"About the downtown streets there was an air of purposeful bustle. An air of growth and progress, of success and prosperity. It was stimulating.

"I breezed into the office of a pal of mine. A business executive. On the wall behind his new and costly desk there hung a sign. It read: THERE MUST BE A BETTER WAY TO GET A STOMACH ULCER.'"

In 1954 Canadians spent 23.1% of their disposable income for food. Per capita disposable income was $1,102.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Margarine Will Be Discussed At Social Credit Convention

EDMONTON. — The question of colored margarine — to have it or not to have it — will be kicked around again in November by the annual convention of the Alberta Social Credit League.

Delegations from the Edmonton and Calgary Social Credit Constituency Associations will go to the convention, scheduled for Calgary Nov. 29 to Dec. 1, armed with resolutions urging the provincial government to remove the color ban on margarine.

However, unless the attitude throughout the province has, in the last few years, changed (and there is nothing to indicate that it has) the resolutions appear doomed to [illegible]

At least once in recent years, SC constituency groups spearheaded by women's auxiliaries have pressed for color in Alberta's margarine. But an overwhelming majority of town and rural members has voted in favor of leaving things the way they are.

Both the Edmonton and Calgary groups this time will base their arguments on the 'nuisance' feature of the margarine color law, although the one from Edmonton makes reference to Social Credit monetary theories and concludes that if Canada had a sensible financial system everyone would be able to afford butter.

The Edmonton group's resolution calls the color ban a 'petty restriction' and describes the law requiring consumers to color their own margarine as a 'penalty for not being able to afford butter'.

According to reports, the feeling of the Calgary group is that: "The housewives find it a great nuisance to have to color it themselves and the manufacturers are prepared to do it for them."

It might be helpful to the convention — and to the government — if someone produced figures showing the ratio of butter and margarine purchases in areas where colored margarine is sold. They could be compared with similar statistics on sales of butter and uncolored margarine in Alberta. This would give an idea what effect the colored margarine would have on butter sales.

In the raft of satistical reports and news releases from the provincial agriculture department and other agricultural organizations, we have yet to see such figures.

Margarine was first sold in Alberta in 1949 and when it made its first appearance it was yellow. Shortly afterward, the legislature passed the present law which says margarine must not look like butter. In 1952, the Social Credit League convention defeated a resolution asking the government to [illegible]

The main objection to colored margarine is that it would prove unfair competition for butter, thereby harming the dairy industry and the province's agricultural economy as a whole.

TEACHER SHORTAGE

Reports in the news last week indicate that emergency measures and easier qualifications [illegible] Alberta's teacher shortage. In fact, it's worse than [illegible] year.

At the end of September, Alberta was short 52 teachers [illegible] with 33 at the same time last year. Of the 52 classrooms without teachers 33 are being conducted by correspondence school supervisors, and 19 are getting along without any kind of teachers.

While the province may actually have more teachers, the old law of supply and demand has stepped in to foul up the situation. The province also has a large number of new classrooms built to accommodate an increasing school population. And for the first time, school boards are complaining of a shortage of [illegible] Figures weren't available but educational department officials said the shortage is "serious."

WOODVALE

A miserable grey Sunday as we write, with a heavy fall of snow. Let's hope this is not the beginning of winter! We will just have to wait to see if it is going to be one of those early snow winters or if it will all disappear in November again.

SCHOOL PARTY

The children had their Hallowe'en party in Woodvale school Friday afternoon. The Junior room was appropriately decorated and the party started with a program of songs and two plays by grades 5 and 6. Lunch was served and afterwards games were enjoyed. We think the twelve youngsters in grade one must specially have enjoyed the afternoon. Now they were participants and not shy guests anymore.

W. W. W. DANCE

The Woodvale Willing Workers club will hold a dance in the Union hall on November 18. Ladies bringing lunch will be admitted free, the others have to pay 50 cents per person. Music by Martin's orchestra.

CHRUCH SERVICE NOV. 6

Church service by Rev. J. W. Williams was cancelled last Sunday. Rev. Nugent of Edmonton however will hold the service in Ganton hall on Nov. 6 in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

PICTURESQUE GATE

We have never commented as yet on the very nice and picturesque gate at the Funnell farm which adds charm to the place and who would not love the name "Melody Ranch"? So appropriate for the couple who live there!

The house for the Gow farm was moved there this week from Borradaile.

We extend belated but sincere condolences to Mrs. Edna Oldenburg and her family on the recent death of her father Mr. E. Coleman.

Friends of Bud Heidebrecht who lived for several years in this district, will be interested to learn that he is getting married on Nov. 10th in Calgary to Diana Miller of Heisler. Their address is 413-15A St., N.W., Calgary.

Agricultural Society Winter Fair Trip Draws Goodly Number

The efforts of the Vermilion Agricultural Society to encourage district residents to enjoy a moderately priced trip to the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto have culminated in a carload leaving for the east from Wainwright on Saturday, Nov. 12th. Taking advantage of the greatly reduced rates on the Canadian National Railways, nineteen have secured their tickets and will be able to enjoy the winter fair which is said to be the greatest indoor show on earth.

With the present day high speed train service the party leaves Wainwright on Saturday afternoon at [illegible] and reaches Toronto early on Monday, Nov. 14. From the train they will go directly to the Prince George hotel where accommodation has been arranged and in addition to the opportunity to visit the Royal Fair daily under the all-inclusive expense system in use they will have an opportunity to tour Greater Toronto, to visit interesting places and plants and to enjoy a visit to Niagara Falls.

Rail tickets are limited to thirty days and this gives all who wish an opportunity to visit relatives or friends prior to their return.

Among [illegible] up the Agricultural Society party are: Miss Jean McPhee; Mrs. Lloyd McFadden; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Simonet; E.H. Buckingham; J. C. Tucker; Sydney Jackson; W. L. Robinson; Billie Robinson; John Brimacombe; S. C. Acheson; George Scarboro; David McPhee; Harry Whitcher; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Powers, R. Jones and A. Jarrett, all of Lloydminster.

It is expected that a most enjoyable time will be had and all will be interested in hearing of the trip on their return.

Sr. Capt. Stewart Returns To Vermilion

Senior Captain and Mrs. Charles Stewart will conduct the services this week end, November 13 and 14, at The Salvation Army, Vermilion. On Monday evening, November 14, the Captain will show two 16 m.m. coloured films taken while on missionary service in Africa: "Safari to Adventure" and "The Salvation Army in East Africa."

The Captain was for a period of four years in charge of The Salvation Army work in Vermilion, prior to his departure for missionary service in East Africa. While stationed in Vermilion he commenced to train the band and orchestra, which are both now a vital part of the local Corps.

While in Africa the Captain married Mrs. Stewart, who is a Canadian girl from Chatham, Ont.

After a period as a training officer in the Salvation Army College at Nairobi, the Captain and Mrs. Stewart were sent to Dar Es Salaam, Tanganyika, East Africa where they opened a new corps for The Salvation Army in 1952. Under the guidance of God the work progressed and on leaving Dar Es Salaam three years later on homeland furlough they thank God for two centres of Evangelism (corps): an old folks home and hostel with 54 fully furnished cottages, a camp for the destitute. All this work was accomplished in a strong Mohammedan area.

The Captain is well known to the people of Vermilion and all are invited to come and spend the week end in welcoming Capt. and Mrs. Stewart back to Vermilion.

Donor Of Library Building Dies

Word was received in Vermilion this week of the death of George W. Whitnell on November 3rd at Lake Forest, Illinois, U.S.A. He was 91 years of age. The late Mr. Whitnell had been identified with the town and district of Vermilion for many years prior to his retirement some ten years ago. He owned a home in the west end of town which he occupied during the summer months returning to his Lake Forest home in the fall, thence later on to his winter home in Florida. He also owned extensive farm holdings in the district. Mrs. Whitnell predeceased him seven years ago and there was no family. The Whitnells came of British forefathers, settling along Lake Waukegan near Chicago.

The deceased, Mr. George Whitnell, became better known to the Vermilion of today when a few years ago he donated a substantial sum of money to provide a public library building in town. This picturesque building now stands as a monument to a public-spirited and generous man.

Mrs. William Steele and Mr. Ed Hart of Vermilion are cousins of the deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Elliott and son Clarence of Waskatenau were visitors last week end at the home of Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elliott.

Esteemed Old Timer Percy Long, Passes Away Monday

A leading citizen of Vermilion since the spring of 1907, Herbert Percy Long died Monday evening November 7th in the Vermilion hospital. Mr. Long served faithfully and well as town and school secretary from the year 1910 to 1941 at which time an illness left him only partial use of his legs. Not only did he carry out his town and school duties fully and efficiently, but he took a full share in the organization and administration of many of the activities of the community.

Mr. Long was born at Orono, Ont., on June 5, 1884, this was in his 72nd year. He came to Vermilion in the spring of 1907. In the year 1910 he was appointed town and school secretary and carried out these duties until the serious illness suffered in 1941 caused his retirement from active business life. Even since then he has maintained a remarkably cheerful attitude and has continued to aid various organizations in many ways. At the time of his death he was secretary of the Royal Arch Masons. He was a Past District Deputy of the A.F. & A.M., and a Past Master of Vermilion Lodge.

He leaves to mourn his loss his sorrowing wife, one daughter Mrs. Jack Morgan of Calgary, and two grandchildren. One sister Miss Nell Long lives in Vermilion, and a brother Will resides in California.

Funeral services are being held this Thursday Nov. 10 at 1:30 o'clock at the United church with interment at the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. C. W. MacKay will officiate.

Moyers are in charge of funeral arrangements.

Eskimo Engineer At Radio Beam Station

Alex Ilisiak, one of two young Eskimo men trained for work in the Dominion Dept. of Transport Radio Beam and weather stations, is now working at the Vermilion beam station on the landing field here.

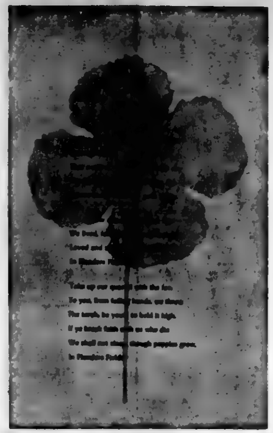
A native of Aklavik, N.W.T., Mr. Illasiak received his primary and elementary education in that northern town. A brilliant student, he was awarded a scholarship by the Hudson's Bay Mining and Smelting Co. This scholarship entitled him to a complete four year high school course in Toronto. Following completion of high school he spent a year in Calgary taking a special radio course which fitted him for his present work. Alex then trained for several months in Edmonton and is now out on his first job. He will act as relief engineer here while all members of the staff take their annual holidays, as none have had their vacations this year.

Eskimos are regarded as an unusual race, possibly because they have chosen the frozen north as their domain. This young man shows us that the Eskimo, given the opportunity, can do anything that his brother Canadians further south can do.

LADIES' CURLING MEETING

A meeting of the Ladies' Curling Club will be held in the curling rink on Sunday, November 13th at 1:30 p.m. Anyone wishing to curl will please phone in their name to Mrs. D. E. Maxwell, phone 259, by 6:00 p.m., Monday, Nov. 14th.

The number of tractors in use on Canadian farms increased from 159,752 to 399,686 in the 1941-1951 period. —Quick Canadian Facts.



Curling Is Away To A Roaring Start On Artificial Ice

With the commissioning of the new artificial ice in the rink this week, curling enthusiasm in Vermilion and district has reached a new high, and the roarin' game is in full swing for a five months' season. The first curling was done last Saturday evening, but the new ice plant and the start of the season was formally opened Monday evening with President Aldous Kent throwing the first rock. Even though it was his first stone of the season, Aldous drew right to the button. From that time on there has never been a dull moment at the big six-sheet curling rink.

Curlers from all neighboring clubs have been invited to take part in the official commissioning of the artificial ice rink, and they have responded with enthusiasm too. The many visitors gives a real bonspiel atmosphere to the curling, and the inter-club games will be the order of the day for the rest of the week.

Plans are being made to draw local rinks on Sunday afternoon so that club games will start next week.

COPY HELD OVER—

Owing to the size of the Standard being curtailed to twelve pages this issue, a considerable amount of newsy copy had to be held over for next week. Peanut Day To Aid Kinsmen Efforts

The Kinsmen Peanut day this year will be held on Friday Nov. 18. This will be in the form of a house to house canvass of the whole town by the members of the Kinsmen club.

The Kinsmen will have for sale one pound cans of Planters peanuts and large tins of peanut butter. These will sell at $1 each and it is hoped that every family will take at least one or both of these items. The proceeds from this venture will go towards improvement of the Kinsmen paddling pool and the setting up of more playground equipment.

This is a very worthwhile project and the generous support of the public is looked for. As well as helping the club each household can avail themselves of delicious Planters peanuts and peanut butter. Buy more than one and send some to friends for Christmas.

So be ready on Friday evening Nov. 18 any time after 7 p.m. when a Kinsmen 'Peanut Man' will be calling on you. 19-20

"Julius Caesar" To Be Presented at V.S.A.

For two months the CBC will be minus several well known voices on its programs from coast to coast, when the Lancaster Theatre presents William Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" on tour of the three western provinces. The production is performing at V.S.A. auditorium in Vermilion, Saturday Nov. 12.

Many in the audience will remember the name Bud Slater on coast to coast broadcasts of the CBC. Bud is portraying the coveted role of Marc Antony. This is by no means Bud's first stage appearance. For three years he has appeared in many Totem Theatre productions, Theatre Under the Stars and has appeared with Margaret O'Brien, Miriam Hopkins, Gene Raymond and Teresa Wright. An accomplished and exciting actor his Marc Antony will be one of the highlights of the play.

Alan Callou, the Brutus of "Julius Caesar" is also a star of western radio. But besides this occupation Mr. Callou is also the author of the British best selling book, "The World is Six Feet Square" and his second book a novel called "Rogues Gambit" hits the bookstands of the American market this month.

Tom Luce, a newcomer to Canada, is a citizen of California where he has been often viewed on television and heard over the American networks. His Cassius is a fine example of his command of the legitimate stage technique.

Richard Keefer is also a radio actor, and was for a time announcer of a radio station in the far north. He plays Titinious and Decius.

Julius Caesar is one of Shakespeare's action packed plays. It is also one of his most popular tragedies. There are no two interpretations precisely the same and the Lancaster version which lasts approximately two hours brings to the stage exciting character touches.

Tickets for the performance can be obtained from the Junior High school students or at the door play night.

Rats Reported Over Much Wider Area

The M.D. of Vermilion River Agricultural Service Board decided last week at a meeting to enforce the Rat Control regulations.

Marshall Sharek, Pest Control officer in this area for the provincial government, reported that rats can be found anywhere along the meridian, north and south of Lloydminster. Mr. Sharek said that parts of Lloydminster are infested with colonies of rats.

The field supervisor for Vermilion River Municipal District, A. Hozack, said that rats had been found on 72 farms on the Alberta side of the meridian. In spite of liberal supplies of warfarin poison being given out to farmers a lot of these farms still had rats. Mr. Hozack further stated that the co-operation of farmers in the infested area in Alberta could only be rated at 10%.

After the meeting at the district office in Kitscoty the board members adjourned for a meeting at Lloydminster where town officials and others met in a conference to decide on future plans for rat control in the whole area.

Wm. Lobay, Pest Control officer for Alberta and his assistant, Joe Gurba, spoke at some length to a well attended meeting of control officers and others interested in checking the march of rats across Alberta.

Mr. Gurba said that the situation was much worse than expected and people in the area should realize that they must stamp out the infestation or they will have to live with rats all around them.

The Service Board instructed the local Pest Control Officer Wilfred Poitras, to take measures to enforce the Agricultural Pest Control Act, by issuing notices under the Act, where co-operation is not obtained and that notices be enforced where required.

Funeral Of Harry Marfleet To Be Held Sunday

Funeral services for Harold (Harry) Marfleet, will be held from the United church, Vermilion, on Sunday, November 13th at 2:00 o'clock p.m. Interment will take place in the Vermilion cemetery.

Mr. Marfleet passed away at the Vermilion hospital on Tuesday, Nov. 8 following a lengthy illness. He was 75 years of age.

The deceased was born at Wainfleet, England, a town that was named after his forefathers. He came to the province of Alberta in 1908, and to Vermilion in 1912. In this connection it is interesting to note that the village of Marwayne is also named after the same Marfleet family, being a combination of their surname and of the city from which the family migrated shortly after the turn of the century, settling in the Marwayne district.

Coming here in 1912 Mr. Marfleet followed his trade as a mason. He quickly became known for the excellence of his brick laying and plastering, and his fine reputation for workmanship was justly merited during his long years of service in this area. He retired in 1951 and has since lived at his home in the east end of town, spending the occasional winter at the Pacific coast where two sons reside.

The deceased is survived by his loving wife, four sons, Jack and Ted of Vermilion, Charlie and Ken in Vancouver, and four daughters, Mrs. G. Harrison, Mrs. D. Currah and Mrs. D. Currie of Vermilion and Mrs. J. MacKenzie of Vancouver, one brother Fred, formerly of Marwayne now in Edmonton; two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Ashworth Sr. Marwayne and Mrs. Wm. Shaw, Port Moody, B.C. There are 27 grandchildren.

The funeral will be conducted by Rev. C. W. MacKay and Rev. J. T. McNair.

Moyers are in charge of arrangements.

Orville Armstrong Dies At Lamont

Orville Wilmer Armstrong, a young man afflicted about one year ago with the dread scourge, cancer, but who never once gave up, and searched every part of this continent for possible cures, passed away at the Archer Memorial hospital on Monday Nov. 7. He was thirty four years of age.

The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, pioneers of the Allandale district, and he had lived his whole life there.

Besides his parents he is survived by his sorrowing wife, two sons, Neil and Murray, and three daughters Carol, Karen and Darlene; two brothers Albert and James, and five sisters Mrs. R. Adamson, Mrs. J. Dwyer both in Edmonton, Mrs. W. Edwards of Vermilion, Mrs. N. Anderson, Lloydminster and Mrs. R. Porayko, Royal Park.

Funeral services are being held this Thursday afternoon Nov. 10 at 2:00 o'clock at St. Saviour's Anglican church, the Rev. K. A. Minchin to officiate. Interment will take place in the Vermilion cemetery.

Moyers are in charge of the last rites.

SUDDEN DEATH OF WILLIAM J. MOSES

William "Bill" Moses, well known citizen and farmer, died suddenly while sitting in a chair at his home this Thursday afternoon, Nov. 10. "Bill" had enjoyed normal health and carried out his usual work during the day right up until the time of his passing.

Mr. Moses was the third Vermilion old timer to pass away this week.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at press time.

Vaccination for Bangs Started by 'Vets.'

At a Service Board meeting of Vermilion River M.D. held in Kitscoty recently, areas were assigned to three veterinarians for Bang's vaccinations under the Live Stock Diseases Act. Dr. Bob Anderson of Vermilion will do all ranges 4, 5 and 6 while Dr. Glen Weir and Dr. Frank Crouch will divide the territory in ranges 1, 2 and 3.

As usual the veterinarians were instructed to vaccinate all heifer calves between the ages of 4 months and 16 months whether or not the calves were to be retained in the breeding herd or to be sold on the market.

Reports to the Board by District Agriculturist E. H. Buckingham and Field Supervisor A. Hozack indicated that Bang's disease was being controlled throughout the area but another year or two of calf vaccinations were necessay to get the disease 'snuffed' out entirely.

The Service Board passed a resolution to the effect that in case of violation of the Bang's Disease control regulations, that the supervisor be authorized to bring the offenders before the court immediately without further reference to the council.

It was mentioned in the meeting that a case of violating the Act came before the magistrate at Vulcan last spring. The farmer was fined and ordered to have his calves ready for the veterinarian at an early date. The Board is anxious, however, to get the co-operation of everyone in the Bang's control program without recourse to the courts.

Vermilion Mixed Chorus Meet

At a short business meeting held before rehearsal on Monday evening Nov. 7 it was decided to hold the annual Carol concert on Sunday Dec. 11 at 9 p.m. Mr. Nick Kowalchuk has kindly consented to the use of the Columbia theatre for this occasion. As was the case last year, the entire profits from the concert will be applied to the purchase of Xmas hampers for selected distribution in the Vermilion district. It will be remembered that $120 was raised in this worthwhile cause last year, and it is hoped to improve on this figure this year. Tickets will shortly be on sale from all members of the chorus. Watch your Standard for further announcements in this connection.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Porter of Dewberry are now living in Vancouver, B.C. for the winter months.

SPORTS IN THE AUTUMN—

Take an autumn day with the leaves turning red or even when the leaves have withered and disappeared. Add a good football game and the crowd of enthusiasts which make spectator sports their recreation and you will have a cross section which is pretty representative of the whole country.

Let those who will call it a waste of time, or decry the loss of active participation. The fact remains that the rugby season, or any other specific sports season, gives a needle of enthusiasm to those who may be tired of sitting at home or following the more staid forms of recreation provided for this generation.

There comes a time when it is a good thing to let loose, to cheer a team to victory and to stand waving arms and being really enthusiastic about a win in which even the loser is not seriously hurt. [illegible] there will be another football season.

It will be a wonderful day when western fans follow the Grey Cup finals across the provinces and through the majority of the mountains to Vancouver where the Pacific bounds a city which is on its way toward being one of the largest ports in the world.

East and west and in the middle good clean sport will do a job of tying together the varied interests of a huge country as well as anything we can think of and these autumn days are the most spectacular of all.

A HEALTHY SCARE—

Since the end of the war, many Canadians have been bothered by the spectacle of one political party sitting securely at the summit of the state, secure from effective opposition. Even staunch Liberals have asked themselves if this was the beginning of one-party government, and a threat to the democratic process.

It's beginning to look as if we can all relax, thinks The Financial Post. The solid Liberal facade is becoming slightly wrinkled. The Liberal party may not lose the next election, but it's certain to be shaken, and that's what matters.

Above all, the Liberal party is going to have to climb down off its pedestal and act like an ordinary political party again. We're still a long way from the day when the party in power is re-elected automatically. There are still penalties for a party that loses its touch.

Canada, with an area of 3,845,774 square miles, is the world's largest country after Russia.

[illegible] AT THE ROYAL WINTER FAIR—

The winning by Vermilion and district citizens of Provincial or Dominion recognition in any sphere of activity, vocational, hobby or athletic always gives the Standard a real thrill. Maybe it's too great a sense of local pride, maybe it's too much sentiment, but the fact remains that we always have a feeling of exultation when any resident of town or district is [illegible] out for honors.

This week we think that the breeders of livestock selected by the Alberta Department of Agriculture to uphold the honor of this province in continent-wide competition at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto calls for congratulations and accordingly extend these to Roderick McMillan of Clandonald, Bryden Bros. of Mannville, John C. Tucker of Vermilion and W. Lyle Robinson of Vermilion.

Yorkshire hogs were chosen from the farm of Mr. McMillan, Clydesdale horses of the Bryden Bros., Percherons from the John Tucker farm and Shorthorn cattle from the Robinson herds.

At the time of the 1951 census, machinery in use on Canadian farms was valued at $1,989,312,982.

28 Whooping Cranes Arrive At Refuge

AUSTWELL, Texas — Twenty-eight whooping cranes have arrived so far at the Aransas national wildlife refuge on their winter migration from the Northwest Territories, officials of the refuge said Saturday.

It was previously believed there were only 27 of the rare birds in existence. The new arrivals include eight young and there may be more of the birds here by Christmas.

BLOOD DONOR CLINIC NOVEMBER 14th

Many of the regular blood donors will no doubt have noticed in last week's Standard that there is a change in the Blood Donor clinic arrangements. The clinic will be open Monday, Nov. 14 in the evening only.

This arrangement is due to the fact that a clinic is to be held in Mannville earlier the same day. For some time past, quite a number of Mannville blood donors have attended the clinic in Vermilion.

A strong appeal is being made to regular blood donors, and newcomers alike, to support the Vermilion clinic in order that the numbers may not be depleted.

It is understood that the closing hour of the clinic will not be enforced strictly, so that it will be possible to take care of all who come.

Old Timers Annual Round-Up Nov. 16

Vermilion Old Timers will again gather at their annual round-up, banquet and dance this fall. The date has been set for Wednesday, Nov. 16th. The program commences with the banquet in the Legion hall at 6:30 p.m., this is followed by the usual short business session and program. The grand wind-up is the old time dance to real old time music.

George Webb is the president of the Vermilion Old Timers Association, and Hilda Cross is secretary. Membership fee is $1.00 per person and the banquet is also $1.00.

It is hoped that this being jubilee year, more old timers than ever will attend the annual event, and make it an even greater success than it usually is. 18-19

NEWS from CLANDONALD

[illegible] operations here at one [illegible] to be behind those of other districts but we are very glad to say that practically all was safely gathered in prior to the sudden and unwelcome arrival of winter.

Yields and quality varied greatly. Some No. 2 wheat has been reported and yields close to the 40 bushel mark. [illegible] the [illegible] of the picture some fields were very badly infested with wild oats and thistle which cut yields extensively; while wheat combined after the prolonged wet [illegible] is only grading No. 5 in some [illegible].

Quite a number of people saw the lightning in the southern sky one evening near the end of October. A very unusual occurrence so late in the season. For those who hoped it signalled the arrival of Indian summer the snow on Sunday was quite a disappointment. One local resident who happened to be on the highway between Vermilion and Wainwright reported quite a heavy fall of wet snow at the time of the lightning.

Gravelling on the new highway, delayed by the heavy snowfall, got started again Saturday. Pat McGuckin has the contract and it is hoped to complete five miles or so yet this fall.

LOCAL PLANE ACCIDENT

On Tuesday before the storm had blown itself out the light plane operated by one of the men associated with the North American Construction Co. flew low over Clandonald, headed for the Company's base of operations northwest of Dewberry. In attempting to land in a farmer's field after having circled the area for some time, a gust of wind flipped the plane over on its back as soon as it touched the ground. Damage to the aircraft was extensive but fortunately the pilot escaped uninjured.

Square Dancing At Derwent, Clandonald

There will be Square Dancing Demonstrations at both Derwent and Clandonald next week. At Derwent the demonstration will be held Tuesday November 15th, at 8:30 p.m. In Clandonald there will be square dancing on Thursday, Nov. 17th at 8:30 p.m. at the Orange hall. Walter Donnenworth will be calling at the Clandonald dance.

On both Tuesday and Thursday everyone and their friends are welcome.

"GREEN ACRES"

LACOMBE PIGS

It has been announced that no release of sows of the new breed will be made this year. Testing of this breed will continue at the experimental station. It appears that the authorities are going to make absolutely sure that this breed is to be pure before any will be released to the public. In all probability, it will be several years before breeding stock of the new Lacombe breed will be available.

[illegible]

Some farmers do not feed protein and mineral supplement during the finishing period to hogs. If this happens to be your practice I would suggest that this is wrong. Supplements should be fed to hogs for both the growing and finishing periods. For the growing period about 1 part supplement to 7 parts grain should be fed and for the finishing period 1 part supplement to about 9 parts grain. The protein content of hog supplement does differ for different companies so to be accurate follow the instructions on the bag. There are some good bulletins on Swine Rations and [illegible] at my office. Anyone interested drop in and look them over.

SEED GRAIN

This is early to be talking about seed, however, we have got some listings for 2nd generation Rodney oats and Husky barley. From all reports Rodney appears to be suited quite well for this area and is also rust resistant. Rust again hit oats fairly hard this year, and it would appear that we will have to start using rust resistant varieties.

POULTRY

If you haven't already done it, now is the time to cull out the non-producers (free boarders) in your poultry house. House only pullets which are healthy and in good condition. Healthy vigorous birds are an asset, not a liability. Good poultry men carry on a culling [illegible] throughout the year, going [illegible] their flocks every week or so taking out the birds which are not laying.

FARM FORUM

Farm Forum is on the air every Monday at 8:30 p.m. The best way to get the most out of these programmes is to form a group to meet at homes during the winter season. I have full particulars on how to form and how to run these groups. They are [illegible] while.

ORNAMENTAL SHRUBS

Again this year the Provincial Government is distributing [illegible] of ornamental shrubs for [illegible] around farm homes. The [illegible] contain about 50 assorted [illegible] such as mountain ash, high bush cranberry, hardy roses, [illegible] etc. Applications are available from this office. A very pretty [illegible] was solemnized in the Holy Name Roman Catholic church, Vermilion, at [illegible] a.m. on November 3rd, when Miss Hazel Clark became the bride of Mr. John Rochford. Father Landrigan officiated at the [illegible].

WELDING SHOP RE-OPENED

An event of considerable importance not reported in our last news bulletin was the re-opening of the welding shop. Established in 1927 and operated for many years by John Grauman, it was closed about two years ago when ill health forced the owner to seek other employment. The new owner Clarence Iserl is no stranger as he comes from Dewberry. He is a son of Mr and Mrs. Albert Iserl long time residents of that district. Clarence also purchased the fine residence which is located on the same premises and moved his family in shortly after the purchase. He plans to further extend operations in the future and we wish him every success as the district is certainly greatly in need of an experienced welder.

It's harder than ever to make money

...To print your own, that is. The Bank of England has made the counterfeiter's lot an even unhappier one by pressing a thin strip of aluminum foil into the paper used for making bank notes. Seems the do-it-yourself enthusiasts find it virtually impossible to duplicate.

It is nice to think that there will probably be a little bit of Canada wherever this new paper currency circulates. Great Britain imports 80% of her aluminum from Canada, and in turn represents one of the major markets for Canadian aluminum.

Mannville Sq. Dance Club To Commence New Classes

MANNVILLE. — The Mannville Square Dance club is starting classes for new members with the first class on November 18 in the Legion hall. So come one—come all—and give it a try. See how much fun is to be had, meeting old friends and making new ones.

If you think you are too old to have fun, or that fun is just for the young, come and start square dancing and find out how wrong you are. The first night is open house.

This will also be an opportunity for old members to brush up on square dancing.

Square Dance Notes From Circle 8

The Vermilion C8 Club had a very good dance last Thursday. While the crowd wasn't quite as big as we would like, everyone had a grand time. Henry Lien was our guest caller, and as always, he seems to be able to carry everyone along in a gay and happy mood, just as he himself always seems to be. We had visitors from several neighboring clubs and we are always glad to welcome them.

A short meeting of our club was held after the dance. The chief item arising from it was the decision to change the night of our end-of-month dance from the third Thursday to the third Wednesday of the month to avoid conflict with local lodges, clubs, etc. As a result of the decision we will very likely be having a guest caller on the third Wednesday of each month, starting with the January dance.

Don't forget the big Jamboree in Lloydminster on Nov. 25. Five well-known callers will be in attendance. Make up your square and get your tickets from Gerald Stephens.

Our next regular dance will be on Thursday, Nov. 17 in the Legion hall with Harold Schacher calling.

SQUARE UP.

Square Dance Lessons Next Week

Sponsored by the local Circle 8 Square Dance club, a series of square dance lessons will start in Vermilion next week.

The instructors will be Harold and Irene Schacher of Bawlf, well known in square dance circles all over northeastern Alberta.

The first class will be held on Tuesday, Nov 15 in the Legion hall here in Vermilion.

This first night will be open to everyone in order to acquaint as many people as possible with the fun that can be had square dancing. The Club takes this opportunity to invite anyone interested to attend this open house evening and see for yourselves.

Balance of the six lessons will be held on the evenings of of Nov. 18, 21, 22, 28 and 29.

Square dancing has become Canada's most widespread and popular entertainment — at little expense, and something that everyone can enjoy.

Mannville Junior High Notes

The election for the Junior High Students' executive reached an all time high in excitement. The whole affair was patterned after provincial government elections. After nominations were made the candidates gave short, appropriate campaigning speeches to the whole student body. Then followed a period of high pressure electioneering. Each classroom showed great interest in the event. On the day of the election polling booths were set up in the typing room and Deputy Returning officers and poll clerks were in attendance, along with the scrutineers and most of the candidates. Voters were lined up three deep to cast their votes. When voting time was up the ballot boxes were sealed until the following day when the votes were counted. A preferential ballot was used and in two cases recounts were necessary. Ninety-five per cent. of the voters appeared at the polls and after counting was completed, the following candidates were elected.

President, George Korchinsky. V-President, Allan Manz. Secretary, Thelma Arnold: Treasurer, Charles Gerhart.

Room representatives were as follows: Grade VII, Eleanor Keushnig: Grade VII and VIII. Dianne Bauer. Grade VIII, Marilyn Gartner. Grade IX, Donna Doherty.

Every student agreed it was the most exciting event in a long time.

Mrs. J. Burnett and Mrs. H. Burnett and boys of Mile 582 are visiting with friends and relatives in Mannville.

T-Bones and Chips At Anglican Men's Club

T BONES etc at SUPPER w IK

A surfeit of supper evenings and banquets arranged by various organizations in the district necessitated the ante-dating of the regular monthly supper meeting from its usual spot on the first Monday in the month to Thursday, Nov. 3rd.

Twenty-two members sat down to an excellent meal of T-bone steaks and chips (French fries to the uninitiated) which had been prepared by the supper committee for this month. Knowing in advance that Denis Hanlan would not be in town to adopt his normal November role of chef, some members, it is believed, were somewhat pessimistic, not only about the quality of the forthcoming meal, but about the menu itself. They need not have worried. Alex Palin stepped bravely into the breach together with Mitch Taylor and proved to all present that there are as many good 'steak bashers' in town as ever stepped out of it.

Your correspondent hastens to assure readers that the purpose of the Anglican Men's Club is not purely gastronomical. Included in the business which followed were plans for promoting the play which is to be presented on Wednesday, November 30th by the St. Thomas' Players from Wainwright. The performance will be held in the auditorium of the Junior High School, and all are urged to buy a ticket from any member of the Men's Club and attend what we are sure will be a good show.

Following the business, a very interesting talk was given by Mr. J. W. G. Morrison in which he explained how Vermilion obtained its present excellent electricity service and at the same time acquired the lake as a basis of the provincial park. It was a great pity that due to a heavy cold, Mr Morrison was not able to speak at greater length from his considerable knowledge of our town's affairs.

500 Rare Egrets Shot by Youths

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. — The slaughter of 500 rare egrets inhabiting two tiny islands near San Rafael caused a storm of protest. "Depraved slaughter of harmless wildlife", was the way a city councilman described the killing spree [illegible] and apparently was committed by two boys with 22 rifles. The egret, a graceful, long-legged bird, is supposedly protected by law.

Ed. Note: This is just but another example of what the dangerous but lightly regarded 22 rifle in the wrong hands can do. The Standard has always advocated in the past, and will continue to do so in the future, a much sterner law regarding the dangerous 22 rifle

MANNVILLE & DISTRICT LOCALS

Much speculation took place on what was going to be built on the lot next the M.D. office when excavation started on Monday. Rumors were many but we have it from a very good source that Mannville will have a modern and up to date dress shop. This will make an excellent addition to Main Street. Mrs. Raoul Bodard will be in charge of the store and, will be welcomed back to Mannville. Mr. Bodard, now that he is in the contracting business is here, there and everywhere.

Mrs. Dick Wilson and two children have left for northern Quebec to join Mr. Wilson there. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Craft of Kitscoty motored with them and will return home by train. On Thursday evening before they left a few friends gathered at Mrs. Whitson's to bid farewell to Beatrice. She was presented with a TV lamp.

Mrs. Elwood has returned here after several months visiting in Edmonton and the surrounding district. In a few weeks she plans to go to Morinville for a visit.

WOODVALE NOTES

After a week of winter the forecast is for more autumn-like weather

While taking the high school students to Vermilion over the snowy roads, Roger Watt's car hit a stone knocking a hole in the oil pan and causing it to empty. Mr Rowe finally brought the passengers to town and [illegible] the car in. Roger is taking the school route for his brother Kenneth, who left for the east accompanied by his wife and two girls. He will drive back a station wagon and is expected home soon. The other two girls are staying with Mrs. Roger Watt.

ATTENDS NATURAL HISTORY CONVENTION

Mrs. O. L. Wolters was a visitor in Regina for a few days where she attended the annual meeting of the Saskatchewan Natural History Society and visited the new million dollar provincial museum where the meeting was held. She enjoyed very much the display of prairie wild life, being herself a keen observer of nature and writing an article for the Society's publication "Blue Jay" once in awhile. En route she visited with her cousin Mrs. Clark and family in Saskatoon.

On Nov 2 the Red Cross held a quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Seitz. In the beginning only five ladies were present, but later two more arrived, but this time the large quilt did not get quite finished and Mrs. Seitz offered to complete and bind it and send it to the Salvation Army. After so

YOUNG PEOPLE PLAN PLAY

A group of young people gathered at the Woodvale school on Friday night to discuss plans for putting on a play this winter. They will go ahead if they can find one more girl to take the part and will have another meeting this Friday to study the script of the play more closely. Mrs. Hohol kindly offered to help with the directing.

Mrs. Eva Dickson, after a short stay at home, left for Edmonton to receive further medical treatment.

Mrs. Elenor Ruud was rushed to the Vermilion hospital Thursday night when the illness she suffered from earlier in the week, took a turn for the worse. At last report she feels much better but an operation in the near future seems indicated. They had to take their four little children along that night as there was no one to look after them at home. Now Mrs. Ruud Sr. is taking care of the family.

Bill McGrath left on Sunday and Frankie Wolters and his dad will go sometime this week to try their skill and luck at big game hunting west of Edmonton.

PRICES TO BE HIGHER

Watch for higher poultry and dairy products prices, points out The Financial Post. Population growth is outstripping production of eggs, cutting into previously big surpluses of milk. There is now less than a 1% production surplus of milk. This could be wiped out entirely by expert sales and increased consumption. Already Canada is importing more and more poultry, some 7 million pounds this year, and starting to bring in eggs from the U.S.

The world's only flock of greater snow geese, which summers in Canada's north and which once was down to 3,000 birds, now numbers about 50,000.

Robinson-Thomsen Nuptials In October

In an attractive ceremony performed by Rev C W MacKay at the First United church, Vermilion, on Friday October 14, Miss Hazel Marie Thomsen youngest daughter of Mr Chris Thomsen of Tolland became the bride of Mr Grant Kenneth Robinson youngest son of Mr and Mrs Alfred Robinson of Kokner. The altar was banked with bouquets of red roses for the occasion. The guest pews were marked with white bows.

The bride entering the church on the arm of her father looked lovely in a ballerina-length gown of nylon lace over satin. The matching bolero was of nylon lace with long lily-point sleeves. She wore a fingertip veil of French illusion net, held in place by a crown studded with pearls and sequins. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and matching earrings a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lena Davies, cousin of the groom and Miss Muriel Heaton. They wore ballerina-length gowns of lace and net over taffeta with matching lace boleros and headdresses. Lena wore pink, and carried blue carnations. Muriel wore green and carried peach carnations.

Attending the groom were Mr. Archie Robinson, a brother of the groom, and Mr Danny Watt. Mr. Ralph Thomsen, brother of the bride and Mr Floyd Robinson, brother of the groom, were ushers.

Mrs A M West played the wedding music. During the signing of the register Miss Helen Davies sang "Oh Promise Me".

A reception was held later at the Legion hall where seventy-five guests attended. Receiving the guests, Mrs. Robinson chose a navy suit with red accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. The bridal table was prettily decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake. The table was laid with a white linen and lace cloth, decorated with pink and white bells and streamers, and lighted with pink and white candles. Mrs. Ralph Thomsen, sister-in-law of the bride, took charge of the guest book. Mr. Wes Funnel proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom suitably replied.

Following the reception a wedding dance was held at the Kokner hall which many friends attended. After a delicious lunch the bride and groom passed cigarettes and chocolates. Following a short honeymoon the happy couple will make their home in the Kokner district.

Anyone wishing to curl is asked to phone Mrs. D. E. Maxwell at 250, by Monday night, Nov. 14 at 6 p.m.

'Time and Eternity'

A quick way to make an omelet — if you can hit anything with a bow and arrow — is demonstrated by Dr. Irwin Moon. This is a sequence from the new Moody Institute of Science film, "Time and Eternity", which through special camera work shows just what happens to an egg pierced by an arrow. It's all part of the film's attempt to deal with the theory of relativity in layman's language. This shot will be seen in a Moody Science film to be shown at the Alliance chapel, Vermilion, on Saturday, Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. Free admission.

New Sulphur Plant

Work is to begin immediately on construction of Canada's largest sulphur plant, reports The Financial Post. Canadian Gulf Oil Co. has finalized plans for a 225 tons-a-day plant at its big Pincher Creek gas field, approximately 50 miles southwest of Lethbridge.

The sulphur content of Pincher Creek gas is high, running around one-half pound per 1000 cu. ft. Plans are to recover 225 tons of sulphur and 1900 bbls. of condensate daily from processing 55 million cu. ft of gas.

Kitscoty High School Notes

Hello neighbors! Oh no, let's not talk about the weather. There surely must be other timely topics, for instance, news and views from the Kitscoty High school. Two months of the school year have already slipped by, so we better catch up with the past before looking into the future.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

As a result of recent Students' Council elections, the following are now installed as officers: Ken Kay, President; Morven Bootsman, Vice-President; Jean Cunningham, Secretary-Treasurer; Ken McLennan, Social Convener; Olga Ulan, Publicity Convener; Russell Beake, Sports Convener; Miss Gwen Dunsmore, Staff Rep. Congratulations to the successful candidates!

NEW STYLES IN STUDENT APPAREL

During the early part of the term visitors to our fair village were slightly shocked at the latest styles in students' apparel. The only explanations, of course, were the solemn rites and rituals of initiation, which, much to the delight of the seniors, succeeded in being mean, cruel and amusing, all at the same time.

NEW PRINCIPAL INITIATED

It was our honor to initiate our new principal, Mr. C. Richardson who has taken the position formerly held by Mr. J. A. Smith, now M.P. for this constituency. We wish them both success in their respective ventures.

The two dormitories are operating again, and although the attendance has dropped from last year, activities are as full of pep and vigor as they have ever been before. Wednesday night dances are holding up well, and it is hoped they will continue until hockey and curling come alive.

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Besides the regular dances, the staff and students of K.H.S. have enjoyed several other extra-curricular activities. For instance, there was proclaimed a half holiday in conjunction with the Kitscoty Jubilee celebrations. Various sports in the afternoon were followed by a parade in which the high school had a singing float. Later that evening, after the weiner roast, which unfortunately, was too much for some celebrators, many of the energetic folk attended the old time dance in the hall.

SUPPER AND PROGRAM

Just two weeks ago, a chicken supper and progam sponsored by the Legion received favorable comment from the students who attended. The musical program under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Batty proved to be very popular with the young and older generations.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Hallowe'en party brought screams from the victims and outbursts of genuine laughter from the onlookers. Six unfortunate souls were treated to historical penalties known only to the pirates. Who wouldn't scream if he had to walk the plank (an elevation of 6 inches) and insert his finger in an injured eye (a juicy orange) while blindfolded. On the whole, it proved to be very amusing, one way or another. A special 'thank you' to Miss Dunsmore who supplied the meals.

Conferences behind closed doors have been going on with regard to the annual formal dance and other K.H.S. problems. You'll hear more about that in the next report folks.!

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

"I didn't sleep a wink last night" the fellow said, "and I'm glad".

Seems that after an hour or two of tossing the man finally made two or three important decisions and determined to carry them out. He felt so good about this that he was lively and energetic next day in spite of little sleep.

Maybe a bit of insomnia once in a while is good for a man. Maybe it is Nature's way of telling us to get busy and face our problems. The fellow who boasts that he can pound his ear at all times may not be so smart after all.

I think a small touch of insomnia is about due for Canadians. We've been sleeping too soundly while serious problems await a solution. Grain piles up; butter piles up, and immigration, which would improve our home market, is decreasing. We keep asking for more welfare, more of the comforts of life, but have yet to build a decent highway across our land, and at the same time we're denying our railroads fair treatment. Our national air service is not as good as it should be, because it is a monopoly. Our TV monopoly is beginning to cost us far more than we can afford yet is doing a shamefully poor job of covering the news.

These are only a few of the problems. The textile industry and those who earn their living at it are in trouble. Theatres are closing unable to compete with subsidized entertainment. Printers and publishers are operating on a dangerously low margin of profit while the government invests millions in printing plants and publications of its own.

Yes, a touch of national insomnia might do some good. Otherwise the rude awakening will be too rude altogether!

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Nov 16th, 1939

Another Armistice anniversary has passed into history; the 21st birthday of what was to have been the 'Great Peace' — and now we are again at war. The spirit of war, of tragedy, seemed to hang over the Armistice observations this year. Gone was the idea of performing a duty which was beginning to lose interest, and to many significance. Instead could be discerned a freshness, a sincerity of purpose, a certain sadness.

A Red Cross Society has now been formed in Islay with the following officers: President — Jack Rogers; Vice-Pres. Mrs. C. C. Mitchell; Sec-Treas. V Riley; Convener of Enrolment committee - Rev. A. D Pringle; Conv of Finance — Mr. Robert Martin; Conv of Soldiers' Service Mrs. W Easton.

Stan Waldenberger, well known local hockey player, has been signed to manage the Vermilion skating and hockey arena this winter. He already has four floods on the ground and in spite of the mild weather has been successful in obtaining a good ice foundation over the big surface.

From Turkey Hill Tid Bits — Congratulations and the very best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life go to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ross who were quietly married at the manse by Rev Mr. Boyd on Wednesday, Nov. 1. Mrs. Ross was formerly Edna Gordon, daughter of Mrs. E. Gordon and the late Eddie Gordon. The happy couple plan on making their future home on the old Connauton farm at Woodvale.

The Islay curlers met on Monday evening and as a result plans were made for the forthcoming season and officers elected. Hon. Pres. — Mr. Irving; Hon. Vice-Pres. — Mr. Tom White; President—Robt. Bell; Sec-Treas. — Darwin Houston.

S. C. Heckbert, vice-president of Alberta Command, Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., was the speaker at the Remembrance Day services in Vegreville on Saturday.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

From the Ads: Large range of ladies' gaiters in fawn, grey, brown and black. They are all very popular numbers and are reasonably priced. Also carried in combination widths.

Rev Frank Chilton who has been pastor of the Presbyterian church at Vermilion for the past three years tendered his resignation a few weeks ago, which resignation was accepted by the Vermilion Presbytery at a meeting held in Vegreville last week. Rev Mr Chilton preached his farewell sermon on Sunday evening and next Sunday the pulpit will be declared vacant. On Tuesday evening the congregation gathered at the church and tendered Rev Mr. Chilton and Mrs. Chilton a farewell reception.

The annual Victory ball held by the local G.W.V.A. took place on Monday night last, and although not so well attended as on previous occasions, was nevertheless a most enjoyable affair. Luncheon was served by the ladies of the next-of-kin at midnight after which dancing was continued until 2 a.m. Music was by Messrs. Elford, Barwick and Porter.

CHATSWORTH CHATTER

Fortunately harvesting was completed before the snowstorm of last week. Now the question asked most frequently is "Is this here to stay?" Snow is piled high in drifts and roads are quite badly blocked. However it is hoped that with a rise in temperature the snow will settle down somewhat.

Some fall work was underway before the snowstorm. Now it appears that main occupations will be the getting out of winter wood and generally preparing for winter.

We offer rather belated, but none the less sincere, good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Maze (nee Anne Wynnychuk) who were married on Oct. 8.

The telephone has been installed at Jim Panter's — the latest addition on the 16 line.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tovell had as their guests in October, the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelles of Delia, Alberta, and her aunt Mrs. Newstead, who was a visitor from New Zealand.

Mrs Harry Good, Susan, and baby Edith were Thanksgiving visitors to Edson accompanying Miss Kathie Fowler of Wainwright, to her home there. The trip was made by car.

Thanksgiving visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs. Morton Tovell were Mr and Mrs. Howard Ferguson and three children of Edmonton, and Howard's mother, Mrs. Irene Ferguson of Vancouver, who has been recently visiting relatives in Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Henningsen were Edmonton visitors on Oct. 28 and 29 where they attended the Golden Wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Purkes, grandparents of Gus. Henny.

COUNTRY CLUB MEETING

The October meeting of the Chatsworth Country club was held at Evelyn Henningsen's on Thursday, Oct. 27th, having been postponed from the 21st, with ten members present. It is planned to undertake a Xmas program and members are to be prepared with suggestions at the November meeting to be held at May Panter's on Nov 17. The Sick committee reported no visits. It was decided to hold a "Cooking Bingo" at the school on Nov. 19 in order to raise funds for Xmas treats for the children of the community. The Sick committee for November is May Panter and Mrs M. Farkash. Social, Mavis Tovell, Lunch Mrs Patterson, Mrs M Tovell, Myrtle Thompson and Evelyn Henningsen. Winner of the nickel draw prize contributed by Mrs. M. Tovell was Mrs. East. At the close of the meeting, blankets, etc., which had arrived from Adanac Co., were given out following which the hostess, assisted by Gladys Tovell and Mrs. R. Good, served lunch, and all enjoyed a visit over the tea cups.

The November meeting of the F.U.A. is to be held on the 14th.

Mr and Mrs. Bob Cameron and family of Joffre, were recent visitors at the home of Bob's mother, Mrs. D. Cameron.

October with the W.I.

PRINCESS ANNE, OCT. 3

This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. M. McKay with nine members and four visitors in attendance. The visitors were Mrs. McKay's daughter Mrs. A. Bitcon of Port Coquitlam, B.C., Mrs. C. Mix, Mrs. N. Armstrong and Mrs. P. McCambridge.

A 12-quart case of home-canned products and the crib quilt embroidered for the Conference Handicraft display will be raffled. Plans were made to repair and paint the W.I. benches. This branch will send $5 to the UNESCO gift coupon fund.

A shower for Miss Betty Harmon was sponsored by the branch on the evening of Oct. 9.

The topic for the day was a paper read by Mrs. F. West, entitled "Enjoy that Meeting" and the social was an excellent contest "Found on a Penny" conducted by Mrs. W. McIntyre and won by Mrs. Reeves.

RAMSAY, OCT. 5

Mrs. J. Goshko presided at this meeting, held at her home. There were six members present.

It was reported that $53 had been raised by the Typewriter fund and a typewriter secured for a Mannville child.

The W.I. scholarship committee will have Mrs. T. Henderson as the Ramsay representative. The 1955 scholarship has been won by Jim Bolding.

A bake sale will be held early in November with Mrs. Goshko and Mrs. T. Henderson in charge of the arrangements for same.

The cash box received a contribution of $1.25 from each member present. $5 was contributed to the UNESCO gift coupon fund. The tenth anniversary of the U.N. and F.A.O. was suitably noted by a pertinent fact being given by each member.

WILDMERE OCT. 5

Mrs. Dave Hughes was hostess to the W.I. in October with 17 members and six visitors in attendance. The visitors were Mrs. Ford of Vermilion and Mrs. West, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs Reeves and Mrs. Mead, all of the Princess Anne branch. A basket of fruit was sent to Mrs. Ray Osterberg and a letter of appreciation from her was read. Crests are to be made so that each member may wear one. The UNESCO gift coupon fund was swelled by a donation of $10 from this branch.

A home nursing course is to be sponsored by this branch, beginning Oct. 17 and several Battleview ladies will also study with them. This course is arranged for and an instructor provided by the Civil Defence director. The Wildmere W.I. has already taken the First Aid and Welfare courses. The constituency convener spoke on "Wider Horizons for Institute Members". The U.N. was featured at this meeting, the roll call being answered by each member naming a country belonging to the U.N., and the social, a contest won by Mrs. Robt. Smith in which jumbled names of countries belonging to the U.N. had to be sorted out.

FIVE POINT, OCT. 6

This meeting was at the home of Mrs. J. te Kampe, with an attendance of eight members and two visitors. $5 was contributed by this branch to the Typewriter fund at Mannville and $6.50 to the W.I. Grade 12 scholarship which was won this year by Jim Bolding.

Mrs. Milton Findlay, who came to Canada from Holland sixteen years ago, gave an entertaining account of her visit by plane to her homeland last February and March. The natives of Holland were of the impression that she was an English lady who spoke very good Dutch.

WILDMERE BEAVERS OCT. 8

This meeting was held at the home of Betty Smith with fourteen members and two visitors present. Dues were paid for the year and gifts exchanged. A box social and dance was arranged for Oct. 21st. Pressed leaves were shown during the social period.

Each member will contribute 10 cents toward the Marjorie Golinsky snowsuit fund as the roll call for next month.

CLAYSMORE, OCT. 12

This meeting held in Claysmore school was attended by ten members and two visitors. Main business of the day was a discussion of the bazaar which was to be held on Oct 28, followed by a dance. Committees were formed to handle all arrangements. One of the visitors, Mrs McBurney demonstrated the art of braiding rugs. Copies of Home & Country were distributed.

SAULTAUX, OCT. 17

Six members and one visitor attended this meeting at the home of Mrs. Bud Staden. Plans were made for a bake sale and fish pond Oct. 29 and roll call was answered by a contribution toward an auction sale. Discussion of handicraft was held over.

VERMILION OCT. 17

This meeting was the first since July. It was held at the home of Mrs. E. Rooks with twelve members and one visitor present. Report on the quilt showed that it had been won by Mrs. Perrier and had netted the group $80. Ellen Baker won the consolation prize of $5.

Twenty sick calls were made and cards, fruit baskets or toys were given in each case. Donations of $5 each were sent to the C.N.I.B. and the Unitarian Relief.

THE STAGETTES

In spite of all the tricks and treats of Hallowe'en and weather that brings back memories of Rudolphus of the carmine-colored snout, nearly every one of our members arrived at the meeting Tuesday, Nov. 1.

The date has just reminded me how near Xmas is. In fact we will soon be trudging through the snow pedding our Xmas cheer in the form of gaily wrapped candies. That will take place three weeks before Xmas, so be on the look out for us.

Tickets will soon be on sale for our annual doll raffle. She should be a beauty this year what with all the sewing and crochet etc that has been going on. The proceeds go to a worthy cause so don't forget to get your ticket.

Stagettes — please remember the next meeting is Tuesday, Nov. 15.

Check girls on Saturday, Nov. 12 are Dorrie and Reta.

W. I. pins were given to the ladies each of whom has been a member of the Vermilion W.I. for twenty-five years or more. The ladies receiving the pins were: Mrs. G. Dunsmore, Mrs. F. Kehoe and Mrs. H. Marfleet.

Thanks were tendered to all those who assisted in any way in the quilt draw, particularly to Craig's and Vivian's for the use of their windows for display.

CREIGHTON, OCT. 27

This meeting was at the home of Mrs. O. Bauer. Ten members and one visitor were in attendance. After missing their September meeting they really got down to business in October, donating $5 to the local (Mannville) Library Assoc.; $3 to the A.C.W.W. travel fund (they read their Home & Country); $5 to the Mannville Typewriter fund; $5.50 membership dues. One of their number was presented with a W.I. pin on her birthday.

October 31, 1955

Dear Member:

October has been a busy month for me, a month in which I have learned many things and met many people.

To begin with, I visited the Wildmere branch, accompanied by four ladies from our own Princess Anne branch, and we spent a delightful afternoon there. To a new, and I might say, very 'green' constituency convener their warm welcome and kindness made my 'initiation' a real pleasure. Then there was the Civil Defence course from Oct. 17 to 22, which I attended sponsored by our Vermilion River M.D. I have no doubt that it was because of my affiliation with the W.I. that I was given this opportunity. Just before leaving, I had a letter from Mrs. Bielish, urging me to attend if at all possible, to represent the W. I. She herself was there, and Mrs. Howes, our provincial president, came up for a few minutes one afternoon. The I.O.D.E. was also well represented. They are very active in Civil Defence work and had two members there under the sponsorship of their local chapters, as well as several members under Municipal sponsorship. Altogether there were 28 at the school, six of us W.I. members, and the course we covered dealt with 'Welfare'. It was indeed worthwhile and I'll be telling you more about it.

The evening of Oct. 27 I spent at Hazeldine organizing a new branch. We had a fine meeting with 19 ladies present. Four of these were visitors from Dewberry and the remaining fifteen formed the Hazeldine W.I. They are extremely interested in Handicraft and under the able instruction of Mrs. W. A. Anderson will really make us look to our laurels at the next conference. Mrs. Trimmings is their president. It is interesting to note that one of their number, Mrs. Quist, is a granddaughter of the Mrs. Johnson, who, with Mrs. Graham, formed the first A.W.I. at Lea Park. In the picture of the first Alberta Women's Institute she recognized her grandmother and also her mother, then a child of about six.

We extend a hearty welcome to you Hazeldine and may you enjoy being with us.

Will you look up the two A.W.I. projects on the front page of your 'Home & Country' and discuss them soon? Remember when considering the numerous appeals that come our way, that our first duty is to our own organization and its projects. We are not expected to contribute to every appeal that we receive. In a great many cases we have made personal contributions and the head office of the W.I. or rather the combined effort of all the branches, also makes contributions, so don't feel guilty if your branch has to pass over some of these appeals. Some of our branches have obligations to meet in regard to scholarships and local charities, and these are very worthwhile and must be met, so consider wisely and use your own good judgment as to how far you can go. We must not lose members because they simply can't afford to belong.

Sorry to be a week late but our road completely disappeared for a few days.

MENTAL HEALTH

WHAT IS MENTAL HEALTH?

Mental health is so closely linked with how we think, feel and do that it would be unwise, if not impossible, to tie it down to a simple definition. There is, however, one quality common to people who enjoy good mental health — emotional security.

Such persons are useful members of society reasonable, happy and well-adjusted, who get along with their families, friends, school mates and business associates. They have their shares of the 'blues', get into quarrels and once in a while lose their tempers, but they have learned to take the ups and downs, the troubles and annoyances of everyday living with a minimum of damage to themselves and others. As you'd expect, these people are able to meet life's serious crises successfully.

Fortunately, mental health isn't a case of 'either you have it or haven't'. Just as physical health can be improved, or become rundown, so too with mental health; that is the encouraging thing about it and the one which seems to be the most misunderstood. A weak or sick individual can build better physical health and similarly most of us can do something about strengthening our own and our children's mental health.

A WAY OF LIFE

Mental health isn't something that is separate from the rest of us, to be strengthened with a 'set of exercises' or a 'course of treatment'. It's interlocked with our physical health, social life, church affiliation, family relationship, work and play and community participation.

In short, good mental health might be described as something we have or can develop from balanced living.

Overwork, not enough recreation, selfish living — these won't necessarily make us mentally ill but they can lower our mental health. Regular, adequate meals, eight hours of sleep, fresh air and exercise is time-tried advice for general health. It applies to mental health, too! Family life, the church and social activities should play their important roles, each in reasonable proportion.

In this way we can keep emotional equilibrium . . . respect for ourselves and others, self control, tolerance of the other person's views, ability to give as well as to take making decisions and accepting responsibilities, facing up to problems and meeting success and failure with equally good grace . . . ability to 'get along'.

ESPECIALLY FOR OUR CHILDREN

Good mental health has been described as a family matter, flourishing in happy home life. How a child is brought up, the kind of family spirit about him — this is what mainly decides the kind of adult he'll become.

The things that are so vital to sound mental health in children are basically simple — love and affection, praise and encouragement, a feeling of security in the home, a chance to really grow without being smothered by too much love and too many 'dont's'.

Wise parents today realize more and more that children need healthy emotional background just as much as good food and clothing and education. If you wish more detailed information about this, there are many helpful publications available free through your provincial health departments or local health units.

W.A. PLAN XMAS PARTY

The Paradise Valley W.A. of the United church met in the church basement Tuesday evening Nov. 1 with 15 members and one visitor present. The ladies plan on having a Xmas party some time in December to which all ladies in the community are invited, so please watch for the date. Instead of having the usual exchange of gifts at the party this year the ladies would like each member and guest to bring a linen or flour sack tea towel for the use of the W. A. with the initials "W.A." embroidered in one corner. The members wish to thank all those who helped in any way to make the chicken supper a success and especially the teachers and school children who put on the program after the supper. At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. J. Storms and Mrs. C. Elliott.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY

The Achievement Day of the Paradise Valley Grain club was held at 1 p.m. on Oct. 28th in the school auditorium. There were 16 samples entered in the seed show. Our assistant district agriculturist Mr Jeffrey judged the wheat samples. He said the quality of the samples were very close. Winners were: 1. Douglas Murray; 2. Ray Kirkpatrick; 3 Fred Weeks; 4. Wilfred Sunderland. While Mr Jeffrey was judging the samples Mr Buckingham told the members how to judge different grains and a judging competition was held. Mr Stewart the Alberta Wheat Pool fieldman presented the prize to Fred Weeks for the best field plot. The weed collections were exhibited with five on display. Mr Buckingham decided to take them to Vermilion to judge them.

We extend sincere sympathy to Mrs George Clay on the death of her mother. The funeral was held on Tuesday at Irma.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Fred Towndrow who has undergone surgery in an Edmonton hospital is progressing very well and will soon be out of the hospital.

WINTER LIKE 1906-07 OR 1918-19?

Is this going to be another winter like 1906-7 or 1918-19? It certainly has started out the same. Let's hope that we will not have to go through the same as in those years. With so many combines being used the farmers do not have the big straw stacks to fall back on for feed. Due to the storms the side roads are in bad shape and Bill Davidson is a very busy man with the M.D. snow plow. Every one wants his road opened up right away.

Patients in the Lloydminster hospital from this district include Mrs. Chas. Beckett, Mrs. L. R. Larson, Mrs. Maud Mayo and Mrs. W. Flint.

Elmer Kreller To Coach Tigers; Lured From Planned Retirement

Elmer "the Shadow" Kreller will again coach the Vermilion Tigers hockey club in the Eastern Alberta hockey league. Elmer has met with remarkable success in keeping the local Tigers in the league finals year after year. Last spring at the banquet which wound up the hockey season, Elmer announced that he was retiring from active participation in the game.

Last week Pres. Neil MacLean and secretary Mitchell Taylor lured Kreller away from retirement and back into harness again. After considerable coaxing, he agreed to once again coach the Tigers.

This will be good news to hockey clubs and fans all over the league circuit as Kreller is a great attraction, with his fine hockey playing and outstanding generalship.

Lloydminster Admitted

Lloydminster has now secured a franchise in the league on a one year's trial basis. Application was made at the regular annual meeting but was voted down on that occasion. An appeal was made by border town hockey enthusiasts to league officials and the latter took a telegraphic vote. This resulted in the Lloydminster team being included for this season, with the possibility that a permanent franchise will be granted if all works out satisfactorily. Six teams will thus play in the league this winter.

It is several years since a Lloydminster team has played in the Eastern Alberta League.

BLOOD CLINIC HAS 140 DONORS

There were 140 registered donors at the Canadian Red Cross blood clinic held in Vermilion last Monday evening. Of these, 137 donors were accepted. There were approximately 40 students from the School of Agriculture who registered with the clinic.

The Vermilion Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society wish to thank all those who helped in any way with this successful clinic. This is a very worthwhile endeavor and it is gratifying to have it well supported by donors and by those who helped in organization and by assistance during the clinic hours.

Armistice Service Well Attended

MANNVILLE—The annual Armistice service, held this year in the Alta Theatre in Mannville, was well attended by some two hundred and fifty people, despite the adverse weather. The Legion and Auxiliary branches and the Army Cadets paraded from the Legion hall. In view of the inclement weather, the committee was pleased with the turnout. The salute at The Last Post was taken by the Branch president and after the silence a wreath laying ceremony took place. Official wreaths were laid on behalf of the Mannville-Minburn branch of the Canadian Legion, the Ladies' Auxiliary, the Motherhood of Canada bereaved by war, the Province of Alberta, the Villages of Mannville and Minburn, the Provincial Commands of the Canadian Legion and Ladies Auxiliary and the M. D. of Minburn. These were followed by other wreaths laid on behalf of businesses in Mannville and Minburn who desired to do so.

The Rev. C. C. MacPherson favored the gathering with a very appropriate and well spoken address.

The Legion Branch held a mixed smoker in the afternoon and the day's activities were closed with a dance in the evening in the Legion hall.

Former Rusylvia Resident Dies

CLANDONALD — Mr. Edward Atkinson a former district resident, passed away at the home of his daughter in Victoria recently. Mr. Atkinson was about 72 years of age.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, a daughter in Victoria and another daughter Mrs Clement Forestall who lives near Clandonald.

The Atkinson family farmed for many years close to the hamlet of Rusylvia leaving for the coast city in 1939.

Mr Ed Baldwin has now arrived at Oliver B.C. where he will be living for the winter.

Peanut Day To Aid Kinsmen Efforts

The Kinsmen Peanut day this year will be held on Friday Nov. 18. This will be in the form of a house to house canvass of the whole town by the members of the Kinsmen club.

The Kinsmen will have for sale one pound cans of Planters peanuts and large tins of peanut butter. These will sell at $1 each and it is hoped that every family will take at least one or both of these items. The proceeds from this venture will go towards improvement of the Kinsmen paddling pool and the setting up of more playground equipment.

This is a very worthwhile project and the generous support of the public is looked for. As well as helping the club each household can avail themselves of delicious Planters peanuts and peanut butter. Buy more than one and send some to friends for Christmas.

So be ready on Friday evening Nov. 18 any time after 7 p.m. when a Kinsmen 'Peanut Man' will be calling on you. 19-20

Well Known Farmer, Wm. Mayers, Passed Away Nov. 11th

Well known and deeply esteemed farmer of the Allendale district, William Joseph Mayers, passed away at the Islay hospital on Friday, Nov. 11, following an illness of several months. He was 72 years of age.

He is survived by his wife, one brother Arthur in Minnesota and one sister, Mrs. W. D. Eggert, also in Minnesota.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, Nov. 16 at St. Saviour's Anglican church with interment following at the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. K. A. Minchin conducted the services.

The very large attendance at the last rites indicated the respect and affection felt for the deceased and sympathy for his widow in her sorrow.

Moyers were in charge of the arrangements.

OLD TIMERS ROUND UP CANCELLED

The Old Timers annual round-up, scheduled for November 16th, has been cancelled for 1955. Decision to cancel the popular event followed the death of four members of the Association within a week previous to the event. The revered old timers were Perry Long, Harry Marfleet, William Moss and William Mayers.

It is possible that a picnic will be held by the Old Timers at the park early next summer.

Sees John Bryden On Television

Jack Horricks of St. Paul, Minnesota, in a letter to his parents-in-law here, Mr and Mrs. E. Jack said that the outfit made a wonderful sight on the screen and that it gave him a real thrill to see John handling the fine team of horses.

Promising Square Dance Club at Derwent

Derwent people were very interested in the square dance demonstration given by Mr and Mrs Johnny Maxwell in Derwent on Tuesday night when over 100 attended. There was a unanimous desire for lessons to be taught and Johnny will commence the sessions on Tuesday, Nov. 22 at 8:30 p.m.

45 Cattle, 50 Hogs Sold At Stock Sale

The annual sale of purebred livestock sponsored annually by the Vermilion Agricultural Society and which had been postponed from Nov. 5, was held on Nov. 15. Approximately 45 head of purebred cattle were sold and 50 head of purebred hogs. Average prices for Hereford cattle and for hogs were down somewhat from last year, while the average for Shorthorn and Aberdeen Angus cattle were up from a year ago. It is considered, taking existing weather and market conditions into consideration, that the sale was generally successful.

Top price paid for hogs was $80, for Herefords $350, Shorthorn $345, Aberdeen Angus $170.

The Society wishes to take this opportunity to express their appreciation to all those who helped in any way, especially to those who bought and sold animals, and those who contributed their time and effort into making the sale a success. This sale is a community enterprise, and it takes considerable effort on the part of a large number of people to make it a successful undertaking.

It is felt that this sale has again served a useful purpose in the community by providing a medium for the buying and selling of quality livestock and the improvement of the quality of livestock that is raised in the district.

TWO VERMILION MEN ARE BADLY HURT IN EXPLOSION AT IRMA

Bernard Ackerman, head of the Ackerman Construction Company, and William Myhren, foreman of the Company, are in hospital suffering severe injuries as a result of a tremendous explosion which rocked the village of Irma shortly after 12 noon Saturday.

Reports up to date Thursday indicate that Bernie Ackerman who is in the University hospital, Edmonton, has not fully recovered consciousness; however his condition was generally showing steady but slow improvement. He is suffering from severe concussion, head injuries and a dislocated hip.

William Myhren, recently a Wainwright man, but who is now living in Vermilion, has badly burned face and hands, and as he was in the reservoir where the explosion took place, is suffering from shock.

The injuries were received when a terrific explosion took place in the cement underground water reservoir, which would store the water for the village's new water and sewer system. The reservoir had been filled with water a few days before, but was found to be leaking. The water was drained out and Myhren had descended into the reservoir to examine the leak. Ackerman was on a scaffold on the top of the reservoir. What caused the explosion is not definitely known. The most likely explanation reservoir along with the water when the big tank was filled. The water was pumped from two wells which had been drilled early in the summer and had been standing since that time. It is quite possible that an accumulation of gas had built up during that length of time and pumped into the reservoir where it remained.

Owing the nature of Mr. Ackerman's head injuries it was thought wise to take him to an Edmonton hospital where he could have the attention of specialists. The injured men were first taken to Wainwright hospital. Ackerman was then removed to Edmonton.

The explosion packed plenty of wallop as it blew the 8-inch steel reinforced concrete roof of the reservoir to bits. Fortunately the explosion occurred shortly after several other construction workers had left the scene for lunch.

The reservoir is similar to the on at the top of the hill in Vermilion, except that the building housing the pumping equipment is on top of the cement structure. The loss is considerable and the damage will probably delay Irma people enjoying the convenience of water and sewer facilities until next spring.

Promote International Understanding, Good Will

Rotarians Hear District Governor, Initiate New Members

Vermilion Rotary Club, newly formed this year, experienced two new phases of Rotary life at their meeting on Friday evening. These were the visit of the Rotary District Governor, and the installation of three new members, the first additions to the charter members of the club.

The official visit of Vernon U. Miner, Governor for Rotary District No. 171 was an event that increased the members' knowledge of Rotary in a very interesting manner, also indicated to them that the club programs and activities were being carried along in tune with true Rotarian ideals and objectives.

Governor Vern's official visit was divided into two sessions. The first of these was his address at the dinner meeting. The second was "Assembly" which was a review of Rotary committee work, and round table discussions of the duties of each. Gov. Vern led the discussion in a manner designed to enlighten the members, and the assembly proved a worthwhile experience for the Club members.

Introduced by Newcombe Bentley, club vice president, Mr Miner's remarks dealt chiefly with the way Rotary works for International Understanding. Rotary Clubs in 92 countries and geographical regions throughout the world are united in an endeavor to promote international understanding, goodwill and peace.

In addition to the activities of Rotary's 8,700 clubs within their own communities to promote this objective, Mr. Miner explained, Rotary International has spent more than $1,750,000.00 in recent years through its program of student fellowships, which enable outstanding college graduates to study for one year in countries other than their own, as ambassadors of good will. Since 1947, when this program was established, 709 Rotary Fellowships have been awarded to students in 57 countries.

"With fellowship and service to others as its keynote, Rotary provides a common ground for 414,000 business and professional executives throughout the world, regardless of differing nationalities or political or religious beliefs," the Rotary District Governor emphasized.

COMMUNITY WORK

"In addition to the promotion of international understanding," Mr. Miner continued, "special emphasis is being placed by Rotary Clubs this year on activities of their own communities which will furnish leadership in youth programs, raise standards in businesses and professions, promote traffic safety, develop good citizenship and build better rural-urban relationships."

Install Three New Members

Installation of three new members was the second feature of the evening. Personnel of the newcomers to Rotary served to enhance the notability of this ceremony. The new Rotarians are J. W. G. Morrison representing law; George C. Webb, farm implements, and James A. Smith, teaching profession. The three new memebers were ably introduced by their sponsors, respectively, Elmore Stewart, Ed Corley and Reg Mitchell. All the newcomers have made successes of their vocations as well as contributing greatly to community services. The charge was delivered by Governor Vern and the presentation of pins by President Reg.

The Rotary Club was instituted early this spring with 28 charter members. Three of these have now moved from town, Sandy Wright, Fred Zurch and Denis Hanlan, and the new-comers now bring the number back to 28. Needless to say, J. W. G., George and Jim received a true Rotarian welcome into the Club.

Will See Grey Cup Game

Jim Robson and Ted Miller of Lethbridge, have tickets to the Grey Cup game at Vancouver on Nov. 26th and fully intend to see that football classic come what may.

Another Vermilion football fan who will be in the stands cheering the Eskies on is Miss Lillian Hareuther.

District Governor Instals Three New Rotarians

Governor Vern Miner of District 171 of Rotary International on his official visit to the Vermilion Club recently, installed three new members. Shown in the photo above are the three newcomers in the top row left to right John W. G. Morrison, Q.C., James A. Smith, M.P. and George Webb. Bottom row on the left is Mr. Miner and on the right is Reg Mitchell, president of the local Rotary Club.

McEwen To Address Canadian Club

The guest speaker at the Vermilion Canadian club Tuesday evening next, Nov 22 will be Grant McEwen of Calgary. Mr. McEwen has been acceptably received on all occasions upon which he has spoken at Vermilion both to the Canadian club and to the Vermilion Agricultural Society. Mr McEwen is a pleasing speaker and has the happy faculty of weaving into his address apt wit and humor to make his subject interesting and informative. The meeting will be at the Junior High auditorium commencing at 8:00 o'clock.

Talk On Financial Situation, Mannville

Mr Jake Shultz, President of the Interprovincial Farm Council, will address a public meeting in the school auditorium at Mannville on Tuesday Nov. 22 at 8 p.m. The subject of his talk will be "The Financial Situation".

Mr Schultz was at one time president of the Manitoba Farmers Union. He is now president of the Interprovincial Farm Council and has just returned from Ottawa where he presented a brief from the western farm organizations.

Wainwright Players Coming Here

"Said To Order" is the name of the three act comedy that will be presented in Vermilion by the players of the Wainwright Anglican church.

It will be recalled that this same group entertained a Vermilion audience with the production of a very successful comedy last year. Once again the St. Saviour's Men's Club is sponsoring the presentation of a play by the Wainwright group.

It will be on stage at the Junior high school, Vermilion, on Wednesday, November 30th, with curtain time at 8:00 p.m. Tickets will be available from members of St. Saviour's Men's Club. Adults 75c; children 35c.

AWAY TO GREY CUP BONSPIEL

Vermilion curlers will play in the "Grey Cup" bonspiel at Vancouver which has been arranged in conjunction with the Grey Cup football classic. The local curlers going to the coast are Gordon Park, Vern Willes, Aldous Kent, while they will be joined by Wally Antrim when they reach Vancouver.

Wins Governor-General's Medal

MARILYN BRAKE

Miss Marilyn Brake, 15-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. Harry Brake of Clandonald, has won the bronze medal awarded by the Governor-General of Canada for obtaining the highest standing in the June Grade 9 departmental examinations in the Vermilion school division. Marilyn attended the Clandonald public school and her teacher was Mr Tony Convey. She is attending high school at the Clandonald Separate high school at present.

Marilyn received a letter from the Hon. A. O. Aalborg which reads as follows:

"I have the honor to inform you that you have been awarded the bronze medal which has been donated by His Excellency the Hon. Vincent Massey to the candidate in the Vermilion school division who has achieved the highest standing in the grade 9 examinations for 1955.

"Please accept my sincere congratulations. This success will, I hope be followed by further outstanding work on your part during your school career."

Marilyn obtained an honors pass with an 'H' in every subject written.

Harold Keushnig of Mannville and Harry Maximchuk of Lavoy of the Vegreville school division were medal winners for that division.

Remembrance Day Is Observed By Solemn Service

Remembrance Day was observed in Vermilion on Friday last, Nov 11 by solemn services arranged by the Vermilion Branch of the Canadian Legion. Despite the coldest November 11th in history the Columbia theatre was well filled and the entire program was carried out.

Due to the extreme cold the outdoor ceremony of "Laying of the Wreaths" at the cenotaph was omitted but the wreaths were laid in due form within the theatre. The parade lined up at the Legion hall and headed by the RCMP in their scarlet tunics and the Legion Pipe band, marched from there directly to the theatre. Included in the parade were the representatives of practically every organization in the town, the V.S.A. and town schools and the Salvation Army band. The parade marshall was Bob Allen.

The Rev. K. A. Minchin, the Legion padre, a veteran of the RCAF, gave the address. A fluent, thoughtful speaker, he held the attention of the large audience throughout his discourse. Assisting in conducting the service were the Rev. C. W. MacKay, Lieut. King and Victor Tillett, Past President of the Legion.

The Roll of Honor again appeared on the screen to the accompaniment of the "Last Post" and "Reveille".

Remembrance Day activities emphasizing the social side of Legion life were the Armistice dance held in the armories on Thursday evening, and a buffet luncheon following the Remembrance Day service on the 11th, which continued throughout the afternoon.

Evangelistic Services Now In Progress

Services are being well attended at the Alliance Chapel with Evangelist and Mrs Joseph Larson of Denver. This is the first effort of its kind in several years, sponsored by the Alliance in Vermilion and aimed to raise the tide of Christian influence in the community.

Evangelist Larson frequently illustrates his sermons with charts making the "Way to Heaven" and prophetic subjects both clear and interesting.

Mrs Larson is a talented pianist and children's worker.

The public is invited to the services held nightly except Saturday at 7:30.

Banded Geese Shot 3 Consecutive Years

A party consisting of E. M. Stewart, R. G. Ross, G. C. Long, John Stewart, Dr Duncan Stewart and C. N. Brennan had a very enjoyable goose hunt in the Acadia district of Alberta during the month of October. In all 60 geese were bagged under ideal hunting conditions. One banded Canada goose was shot which was banded in Baca County, Colorado. This party has shot banded geese in this area in each of the past three years that were banded at the same location. The photo above shows the result of the goose hunt.

"GREEN ACRES"

TURKEYS FOR PROFIT

To get the most money from your birds this fall first of all be sure that you feed them a good finishing ration after you have gradually weaned them from the growing feeds. Unfinished birds are always blue in color and quite unsightly on the market. Also, to market premium birds care must be taken in killing and dressing the birds. If you are new to poultry business or not sure of the correct procedures, call into my office and get a bulletin.

FEEDER CATTLE

The present grain marketing situation will no doubt cause many farmers to think seriously of feeding steers this winter. I understand that good feeders may be purchased at the local yards for between 13 and 14½ cents. If you buy right this is your best way to convert the grain problem into ready cash.

SHIPPING CREAM

With the tightening up of the farmers' purse strings some farmers are going back to the old practice of milking cows and shipping cream. Those who are feeling the economic squeeze could do worse. The old cream cheque goes a long ways towards paying the grocery bills.

FERTILIZERS

Barnyard manure is still the most efficient and economical fertilizer in existence. During the winter is the time to get manure out on the fields. It is making you no money piled up behind the barn and also is unsightly as well as being a breeding ground for disease-carrying flies.

CONTROL LICE

Lice cause untold losses to livestock producers. Animals that are lousy will not put on flesh. If you are able to see lice at all they no doubt are thick enough to be causing damage. Lice may be controlled by any powder containing rotenone, linalone or DDT.

SHIPPING FEVER

It is cheaper and safer to inoculate cattle against shipping fever than wait until they are sick. In 1951 losses due to this disease in Alberta alone were at least $500,000. Be safe use prevention. There are two things to do: Inoculate the entire herd once a year. If animals are sick (have a high temperature with other symptoms) call your vet at once and he will give treatment of streptomycin or sulphas. If you do not know the symptoms for shipping fever call into my office and get a bulletin.

J. G. MacGregor Tells Of Old Times At Farmers Banquet

The Agricultural Committee of the Board of Trade scored a decided success at the banquet [illegible] day night when 150 farmers [illegible] townsmen gathered to hear interesting talks and to partake of an excellent turkey dinner served by the Happy Hour W.A.

This being Jubilee year for Alberta and for the Town of Vermilion as well, the usual plan of having a speaker on an agricultural topic was changed and in its place Mr. James G McGregor, president of the Alberta Historical Society, gave an exceptionally interesting story of this area from the time of the first visit of a white man up to the present. Told in a story-like manner the large audience found listening easy and became quite absorbed in the address.

Acting as chairman for the annual event was Dr A. B. King, the president of the Board of Trade. Rev K A Minchin asked the Blessing, and J W G Morrison proposed the toast to the Queen.

Mayor Hill welcomed all to the banquet stating that the farmer and the townsman were essential to each other and that it was always a pleasure to see them gather together at a fine social event such [illegible].

JAS A. SMITH M.P SPEAKS

James A. Smith, member of parliament for the Federal constituency of Battle River-Camrose, was called upon and paid tribute to the farmers as a group. The only complaint was possibly that farmers were too successful . . . that they produced too much. He mentioned that everyone was acutely aware of the grain situation, and that lack of an export market for wheat was causing grave concern.

While the term surplus was being applied to the production of western farmers, the F.A.O meeting Rome last month stated that 70 per cent of the population of the world would go to bed hungry that night. It is only in a few fortunate countries where there is such an abundance as in Canada.

Mr S C Heckbert introduced the guest speaker, Mr McGregor who became quite well known when superintendent of this district for Canadian Utilities. The present Canadian Utilities steam-electric plant here was built under his supervision. After leaving Canadian Utilities Mr McGregor was appointed chairman of the Alberta Power Commission. He has always been very interested in historical Alberta and is the author of several books including "Blankets and Beads"; "Behold the Shining Mountains", and "Twelve Foot Davis". Owing to his extensive researches into this province's history he became president of the Alberta Historical Society which office he presently holds.

LIKES FRIENDLINESS HERE

In opening his address Mr. McGregor stated that it was a real pleasure to return to Vermilion where everyone he met called him 'Jim' [illegible] 'Mac'. To him there was no town like Vermilion and he was always glad of the opportunity to come here.

REVIEWS EARLY HISTORY

His talk was of times back to 1754 when Anthony Henday crossed into what is now Alberta somewhere in the vicinity of Chauvin. He told of the explorer's wanderings, of his dealings with the Cree Indians, then the great Blackfoot. He defined the trails followed by Indians and fur traders through these parts, and of landmarks at the old trading post sites of Fort Vermilion near Lea Park, Fort George and the Island Fort along the Saskatchewan River. Remains of all the forts may still be seen.

Henday's travels through this part of the country and to the mountains, are recounted in his diary copies of which are still in existence in England. He was the first white man to reach Alberta, 201 years ago, the first to cross [illegible] the first to see the Rocky Mountains. He was also the first to see Indians with horses and the [illegible] to make a horse [illegible]. Apparently near the present [illegible] of Irma he met Cree Indians [illegible] traded a gun for a horse. Intermingled with the story of his travels were insights into the hunting, living and fur trading habits of the Indian. His first impression of the present province of Alberta was expressed in his diary. He wrote, "This is a country with level land, lots of sweet water, and plenty of food". He also noted that the September day was hot, but the next day was too cool. The coolness had the effect of keeping down the mosquitoes.

Mr. McGregor also dealt briefly with the Frog Lake Massacre. Although roundly condemned, the Indians took this as the only means they knew to attract the attention of the government 3000 miles away, to the deteriorating conditions under which they were living.

The rebellion also attracted notice of people to the Canadian West and settlers began dribbling in. In 1905 when Alberta became a province the population was 150,000, the next six years saw the biggest influx of any similar period.

The year 1908 saw the McGregor family come to Alberta to settle on a homestead north-west of Edmonton. The speaker was of the opinion that people enjoyed themselves and were if anything happier in those days than now. He recalled some happy incidents in the little country school house, times and habits of those early and hardy days.

Replete with much interesting history of the area and humorous incidents of the traveller, the talk proved exceptionally interesting. Thanks of the large gathering were well expressed by Mr Claude Brennan, president of the Vermilion Branch of the Historical Society, who noted that no more fitting topic or more able speaker could have been possible in this Jubilee year.

The Agricultural committee of the Board of Trade responsible for arrangements in connection with this annual enjoyable event is comprised of E. H. Buckingham, Roy Walker and N. N. Bentley.

Response To Blood Donor Clinic At Mannville Proves Excellent

MANNVILLE. - The response to the blood donor clinic on Monday afternoon was so great that the Mobile Clinic were unable to accept all the donors. There were about 156 accepted and approximately 30 people turned away. The Red Cross and the Ladies' Auxiliary regret very much that time was too limited to accept all those who came, — and promise that the next time the Mobile Clinic comes to Mannville they will arrange for a whole day rather than just a few hours. The ladies' auxiliary wish to express their sincere thanks for such an excellent response to the call for blood donors and to all those who assisted during the day.

Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion served lunch to the donors during the afternoon, convened by the executive. Members of the Legion assisted in setting up the beds, etc.

Mrs. W. Whitson was in charge of supper served to the staff of the Mobile Clinic at the auditorium and which was donated by the various W. I.'s.

Altogether it was a very successful day. Mr. Edwin Torrance received a special certificate for twenty donations of blood.

One of the main sparks of the ladies' auxiliary, Miss Jean Allenach who had assisted greatly in the canvass and preliminary arrangements, was unfortunately confined to the hospital during the week end, and all wish her a speedy recovery.

India, a growing threat in the world textile market, has a lower textile wage scale than Japan, generally felt to be the lowest in the world.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

Curling Club Organizes At Dewberry

The Dewberry Curling club has reorganized with Fred Braithwaite as president; W. Young, vice-president and Graham Skinner, secretary. Flooding operations are to start at once and the club is very anxious that as many as possible curl so that the club can be run on as economical basis as possible.

SUCCESSFUL SUPPER

Dewberry Ladies Aid once more came through with a lovely chicken supper and a grand evening of entertainment. Bobby Braithwaite in his Italian role of "please don't squeeze da banana" made quite a hit with the large crowd. Take that banana outside these days and we defy anyone to squeeze it!

DEWBERRY F.U.A. MEETS

At the annual meeting of Dewberry F.U.A. Mrs. Elsie Curtis was voted in as the new president with Harold Craige as vice-president and Walter Parker as the new secretary. Mrs. Harold Craige had the secretary post for three years and this opportunity is taken to thank her for her energetic work. Steve Trach and Mrs. Ernest Garnier will go as delegates to the provincial convention.

NEW HIGHWAY IN USE

The new highway, 45, north of Dewberry is handling considerable traffic now. Gravelling is in progress from the west and the bus route part of it west of Dewberry is expected to be gravelled before spring. This new highway will cost the taxpayer about $30,000 per mile when gravelled.

Although this is a lovely road it tends to make other roads in the district look bad, as the one mile cost equals nearly as much as municipal expenditure in the whole of Division 7. A talk on municipal matters will be given in Clandonald early in December.

NEW RESIDENTS

All the way from Boston Mass. come new residents to [illegible]. They are a sister to Mrs. Elmer Elliott, and husband. They have bought the former Wheat Pool house and intend to make their home here from now on.

Mrs J White of Sudbury Ont. is visiting her daughter Mrs J. Anderson of Dewberry for a few weeks.

WATCH FEED SUPPLIES

What with the prospects of a long winter feed supplies will be watched very closely. Not so many cattle are being bought for feeder purposes so far in this district as in other years. However Ernest Garnier has purchased a carload of feeders and Joe Braithwaite is also entrenched in the feeder business in a big way.

Congratulations are extended to the newlyweds Mr and Mrs A. Butz (nee Charlotte Ryan). A wedding dance will be held this Thursday Nov. 17 in the Dewberry [illegible].

Our sympathy is extended to the Armstrong family of Adenlale who have been bereaved by the death of Orville Armstrong. The writer enjoyed many an hour of sport with the deceased who was a great sportsman and who has gone on to seek greater victories.

Pioneer Canadian Aviator Addresses Canadian Club Here

"The roads you travel so briskly lead out of dim antiquity, and you study the past chiefly because of its bearing on the living present and its promise for the future" was the concluding sentence and summation of his talk by the Hon. J. A. D. McCurdy, formerly lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia, to the Vermilion Canadian club on Tuesday evening of last week.

Mr. McCurdy had been outlining a history of Nova Scotia to the members. He stressed the importance of the personal stories of great figures in history in encouraging and maintaining an interest in history.

He told of John Cabot landing in Nova Scotia in 1497, and then of the later travellers who started settlements under the patronage of King Henry IV of France. Then Sir William Alexander was sent out to establish more settlements by King James 1 of England who was also the King of Scotland.

Mr. McCurdy mentioned many of the prominent early settlers among whom was Joseph Howe who was the first to fight for complete democracy by establishing the principle of the freedom of the press in a suit for libel against him.

Sir Alexander Graham Bell, so well known for his invention and development of the telephone, was a personal friend of Mr. McCurdy's. With Sir Alexander, three American scientists and himself a group called the Aerial Experimentation Association was formed. They were the first in the British Empire to fly a plane, and did so within a very short time of the flight by the Wright brothers in the U.S.

Mr. McCurdy told of some of his early flying experiences in such a way that his audience gained a vicarious thrill in hearing of them.

J. W. G. Morrison, president of the Canadian Club introduced the speaker, and N. N. Bentley, on behalf of the members, thanked Mr. McCurdy for his interesting talk.

During the lunch period following the meeting it was announced that Grant McEwen would be the next speaker for the Canadian club on Tuesday, Nov. 22.

Old Timers' Ranks Thinned By Death Of Wm. J. Moses

Ranks of Vermilion old timers were further thinned last Thursday, November 10th, when William John Moses passed away. The death took place at his residence and was sudden and unexpected as he had carried out his usual work earlier that day. He passed quietly away while sitting in his favorite chair in the living room of his home.

The deceased carried on extensive farming operations along with many business undertakings during his long residence in the valley on the north side of the town. For many years he supplied the town with soft water, ice, sand and gravel. He was an active member of the Vermilion Old Timers association and on the executive for many years.

Mr Moses was predeceased by his wife, and is survived by four sons, James, Roy, Robert, of Vermilion, Harry of Sexsmith, three daughters, Mrs. George Harrison of Vermilion, Mrs. Roland Golledge of Grand Centre, Mrs. W D. Elgie of Vancouver. There are six grandchildren and one sister, Miss Jessie Moses.

Funeral services were held on Monday, Nov 14th at the United church, and interment followed at the family plot in the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev C. W. MacKay officiated.

Moyer's Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Knutsons Return From Overseas

Mrs. K. C. Knutson and her daughter Maybelle have just returned to Vermilion after four months visiting in England. They made both crossings on the "Empress of France". The ocean voyage was pleasant as no rough seas were encountered.

They visited with many relatives and found Mrs. Knutson's elder brother in very good health and they were also able to see all the younger relatives. It was Mrs. Knutson's first return to the old country after being away for 44 [illegible].

Many places of historical interest were visited and they were very fortunate in having the opportunity of seeing the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh in the town in which they were staying at the time. The Queen looked lovely in a white satin gown, white furs and a diamond tiara.

Wonderful weather was enjoyed during the whole of the trip.

The travelling arrangements were made through the local C. N. R. agent.

Local Implement Dealer To Show Films In Color On Farming And Travel

The farmer's role in modern agriculture, the dramatic revival of Greece as a bulwark of freedom in the Mediterranean, and a Woody Woodpecker comedy will be shown in full-color movies at the Columbia theatre on Friday, Nov. 25th at 2:00 p.m. by Super Service, local Minneapolis-Moline dealer. The program is free.

Modern Greece as an important bulwark of freedom in the Mediterranean, with its present armed forces, agriculture, and people is shown in "The Rising Star of Greece," one of the three new 1955 films produced by Minneapolis-Moline company. The ancient glories of classical Greece, with full-color scenes of the famous Parthenon on the Acropolis at Athens, the Bay of Salamis, where one of the greatest sea battles was fought, the Areopagus where Paul preached, market-places where Socrates taught, and the site of the Academy of Plato; Marathon, Delphi, Corinth, Sunion, Salonika; farmers harvesting grain with a sickle and fishers mending their nets provide fascinating and gripping moments.

"The Businessman on the Farm" is a film describing the many skills the farmer of today must have. He must be an expert in soils, animals, bookkeeping, machinery maintenance, weather, plant pests and diseases, marketing. Today's farmer must be able to run his farm as efficiently as a manufacturer or a businessman runs his factory or business. The farmer, too, has many tools and labor-saving machines to speed his work and improve his production.

"Solid Ivory" is one of the hilarious comedies produced by Walter Lantz Production with mischievous Woody Woodpecker cast in the role of the villain and a setting hen as the heroine. A white billiard ball, a pair of three-toed nylon stockings, and a rhumba make for high jinks in the henhouse.

The program is scheduled to start at 2 p.m., it was announced by Vic Rogers of Super Service, the local Minneapolis-Moline agent, and it is free to all.

Square Dance Notes From Circle 8

The new fall class of square dance lessons sponsored by the C8 club got off to a very fine start on Tuesday evening with four full squares of beginners squaring up for their first session.

Harold and Irene did a fine job of getting everyone off on the right foot, both in squares and the round dance mixers.

The second class will be held tonight (Friday Nov. 18) and the club would like once more to invite everyone who is at all interested to come down to the Legion hall at 8:30 and see for themselves what fun it can be and how easy to learn when good instructors are in charge.

To all you square dancers who feel you'd like to brush up a bit before coming back to regular club dances or travelling to other towns, now is the time to get in your refresher course. It only costs fifty cents to all members and you'll be surprised just how much fun you can have brushing up.

Tickets for the Lloydminster Jamboree have been returned to Lloydminster so anyone who wants more, contact Mrs. McBeth at Lloydminster.

Greenlawn Good-Will Club

The Greenlawn Goodwill Ladies' club held their meeting on Nov. 10 at the home of Myrtle McMullen with a good attendance despite icy roads and a cold wind.

Our secretary, Veva Jones is still out in Vancouver so Josephine Gray acted as secretary for the meeting.

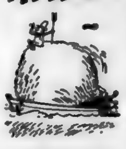
Mrs. Tidsbury failed to get out with her hobby demonstrations again, due to the condition of the roads.

The report on our annual chicken supper and whist drive which was held on Oct. 28 was read and it seems that we cleared around $96.

The December meeting is to be held on the 8th at the home of Alma Rainey and discussion re a Christmas concert is to take place.

Upon adjournment of the meeting our hostess and her daughter Una served a lovely lunch.

HAY AHOY!



Some farmers in the picturesque, low-lying Suffolk Broads district of England bring in the hay by water. So it was logical for a British boat builder to use lightweight aluminum to produce a 600-pound punt capable of carrying a load of hay more than six times its own weight.

In Canada aluminum is better known among farmers as a non-rusting, heat-reflecting, easily handled material for barns and roofs and silos . . . though of course it has many other farm uses, from milk cans to windmill blades. No hay-boats, though.

LOANS TO GRAIN PRODUCERS

OTTAWA — The Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, announces that arrangements have been completed with the chartered banks to facilitate loans to grain producers in the prairie provinces.

Loans, up to a maximum of $1500 will be made available to producers, in order to meet financial difficulties arising from their inability to deliver grain because of congested storage conditions. If the value of the grain the producer may become entitled to deliver in the current crop year is less than $3000, or if the producer has been able to deliver grain since Aug. 31, 1955, against 1955-56 delivery quotas, loans will be correspondingly lower than the $1500 figure.

The rate of interest on the loans shall not exceed 5% per annum, simple interest. The banks have been authorized to grant guaranteed loans up to an aggregate of $50,000,000.

The liability of the Canadian Government to the banks in case of defaulted loans will not arise until Oct. 1st, 1956, and will be limited [illegible]

1. Guaranteed loans made on or after Nov. 15, 1955, and before June 1, 1956.

2. In the case of each bank, 15% of its total guaranteed loans up to an aggregate principal amount of $100,000 and 10% of the aggregate principal amount exceeding $100,000.

Mr. Howe stated that a producer receiving a loan must apply at least one-half the proceeds of each delivery of grain against repayment of the loan. This arrangement will ensure the producer of a continued income while repaying the loan.

Application forms are now in the hands of local branches.

125 Mannville Old Timers Gather At Annual Round-Up, Banquet

MANNVILLE — About 125 Old Timers sat down to a delicious turkey banquet on Friday, Nov. 4th, served by the L.O.B.A. Due to other activities, the usual bus load from Edmonton was unable to attend. The recent storm and slippery roads also cut down the attendance making it impossible for some of the older people to get in. [illegible] those present all reported a wonderful evening and voted in favor of a banquet again next year.

At the close of the banquet, Mrs. [illegible] Scott, president, proposed the toast to the Queen and then called for one minute's silence in tribute to old timers who have passed away. She expressed the appreciation of the Old Timers' Association to the Orange Ladies for putting on the banquet.

Mr. A. E. Williams proposed the toast to the Old Timers, bringing back to mind the hardships they experienced in the early days — with none of the modern conveniences that we enjoy today — their motives in coming to this country which was to better their families — catching rabbits and [illegible] food, oxen their only mode of transportation. The winters were tough for tough, hardy people and the old timers were those people. They bartered with their neighbors, a wheelbarrow for chickens, a [illegible], etc. In closing, Mr. Williams read a poem honoring the old timers.

Mr. Charlie Finlay replied to the toast. He expressed the opinion that the old timers didn't know they were having hard times — that was just the way everyone lived, and they had a lot of good times — maybe more so than now when everyone is so busy. There was a [illegible] of good fellowship and neighborliness to compensate for the inconveniences of pioneer life.

Mr. Norman Crooks proposed the toast to the ladies. They were responsible for the bringing in of art, music, schools, etc., to the families of the old timers. They took their share of responsibility in opening up the new country.

Mrs. G. Whitson, one of the 'real old timers' and whose story we hope to have in print soon, replied to Mr. Crooks. She gave a few of her experiences in the early days of living in tents, having four chickens on shares with a neighbor and the pleasures as well as the hardships of those early times.

A short business meeting followed and after the reading of the minutes by the Secretary Miss K. Sutton, Mr. Williams took the chair for the election of officers. He would allow no withdrawals and the following are the new officers for the coming year:

President — Mr. Jack Clark

Vice-Pres. — Mrs. N. Crooks

Sec.-Treas. — Mrs. W. McCauley

3-Year Term executive — Mrs. A. M. Rutherford, Mr. E. A. Williams and Mr. Jas. McLuckie.

There was some discussion about who were actually old timers and eligible to attend the round-ups but it was decided to leave it until next year's party. It appears there has been quite a lot of controversy about this and several did not attend on that account. It sounds only logical that anyone west of the Great Lakes by 1911 or earlier should be considered old timers no matter where they settled. Many had settled in the west prior to the formation of Alberta as a province. There were only about seven or eight who were in the Mannville district in 1905.

A film was shown by Dr. Hasinoff of local scenes and events which was much enjoyed by those present. Solos by Mr. Jas. Johnstone and Mr. Jack Clark completed the short program. Dancing followed and at midnight a lovely lunch was served by the lunch committee of the Old Timers' Association.

Claysmore W. I. Notes

The regular meeting of Claysmore W.I. was held at the school on the afternoon of Nov. 9 with eight members and three visitors present. Visitors were Mrs. R. Mead, constituency convener, Mrs. F. West and Mrs. Richardson, all members of the Princess Anne W.I.

The meeting was opened by singing 'O Canada', followed by the Creed and roll call which was "A Study of India". Minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary and declared approved by the president, Mrs. J. Willes. The treasurer Mrs. A. Olstad reported the sum of $119 taken at the bazaar, dance and blanket draw. The members are pleased with the amount on hand and wish to thank all those who attended the bazaar from surrounding districts.

The business meeting was short. Correspondence included a letter from Mrs. Baldwin, constituency Handicraft chairman, enclosing the Handicraft list. After some discussion it was decided our Handicraft chairman will attend the committee meeting on Nov. 26 and get the revised list. Auditors were appointed to audit the books for the annual meeting which will be held one week earlier. Our annual Christmas concert will be held on Dec. 16th.

The highlight of the afternoon was a talk by Mrs. R. Mead, our constituency convener. Being one of the branches not too long organized we enjoyed her talk on "Dues, Projects and Donations". Mrs. Mead suggested that we try and make our W.I. a means of improving our standard of living; to make things a little easier for the country women, to help in our own community first, to donate as we can, etc.

It was a very profitable afternoon and we look forward to meeting Mrs. Mead again in the near future.

After collection was taken and adjournment, a delicious lunch was enjoyed by all.

Civil Service Association Presents Gift To Provincial Government

CALGARY. — The Civil Service Association of Alberta has unanimously approved the action of its executives in obtaining a new mace for presentation to the Province of Alberta in commemoration of the golden jubilee.

At their general convention in Calgary Nov. 4 the delegates were told that the three-foot long mace had been specially designed in England for Alberta's 50th anniversary. The official announcement was made by A. Earnshaw, association president.

Inscription on the mace states: "The Civil Service Association of Alberta presented this mace to the people of the province, to be held in trust by the Legislative Assembly, as an expression of loyalty and in commemoration of Alberta's Golden Jubilee, 1905-1955".

The mace, approximately three feet long, is made of silver, engraved and gilded. Surmounting the staff, which is chased in panels of stylized wild roses and wheat sheaves, emblematic of the province, is a crown and ball. At the apex of the crown is the figure of a beaver in an erect position. The ball bears the Royal coat-of-arms and coat-of-arms of the Dominion. Below the crown, where the head of the mace reduces to the staff, is the coat-of-arms of the province, in colored enamels and surrounded by engraving similar to the panels on the staff and on the reverse side is the inscription. Below the coat-of-arms is a ring of seven semi-precious stones — amethyst, lapis lazuli, beryl, emerald, ruby, topaz, aquamarine — the initial letters of which spell the word "Alberta".

The convention was advised that early last winter it came to the attention of the provincial executive of the Civil Service Association that the Government was considering the purchase of a new mace for use in the Legislative Assembly, replacing the one which has been in use since the inception of the province. After some discussion among the members of the active executive a meeting of the full executive was called in January to discuss the feasibility and advisability of the association buying a mace and presenting it to the Provincial Legislature as a token of goodwill and as a permanent and enduring symbol of the role and functions of the civil servants in the government, which is service to the people of the province. The members of the provincial executive unanimously authorized the purchase of a new mace and a committee was named to make all the necessary arrangements for selecting and approving an appropriate design, deciding on a suitable inscription and arranging for the presentation.

"It is considered that this gift will mark not only the Golden Jubilee of the Province, but also the 'coming of age' of the association, which has been operating since March 19, 1919", stated President A. Earnshaw.

THATCHER WHEAT CONTINUES TO SERVE

As the 1955 season draws to a close, there are indications that, outside of the main rust areas in Manitoba and Saskatchewan and in a few areas where the wheat stem sawfly is a problem, Thatcher wheat will continue to be grown by the majority of farmers whom it has served so well for so long.

The reason, of course, is that during the past 20 years this variety has been tried, tested and approved under all manner of soil and moisture conditions and, apart from its inability to resist race 15B, it has shown up remarkably well from the standpoint of adaptability, yield, drought-resistance and shattering. It has, in fact, demonstrated that it can take the punishment that no other wheat variety has yet been able to take and that is why it continues to be held in such high regard in Western Canada. Unless or until, therefore, a variety makes its appearance which is superior to Thatcher in all the above respects as well as possessing resistance to 15B, or unless, because of location, a grower cannot afford to take a chance on possible loss from rust, it is likely that producers generally will stay with the old reliable.

True the unusual experience of 1954 when the rust scourge extended far into the west, could be repeated, but that is a chance which a good many producers seem prepared to take.

Open New $13 Million Oil Plant

A tour of the new $13,000,000 lubricating oil plant of Imperial Oil Ltd. at Edmonton was a feature of a ceremony held Wednesday afternoon last when Premier Manning of Alberta closed a switch to officially place the plant "on stream". In declaring the plant open, Premier Manning said it was a "marvelous engineering achievement". In the above photo are left to right, Hon. J. J. Bowlen, lieutenant-governor of Alberta, Premier E. C. Manning and J. R. White, president of Imperial. They are looking over the lube process area.

4,800 New Customers Served By Gas

Northwestern Utilities Completes 1955 Construction Programme

The $3,000,000 capital program undertaken by Northwestern Utilities, Ltd. for 1955 is now nearing completion, it was announced this week by Mr. D. K. Yorath, General Manager of the Gas Company.

The Company's production systems were augmented by connecting seven gas wells during the year, all of which are excellent producers. The seven include one well in the Acheson field, 8 miles west of Edmonton, four in the Fort Saskatchewan field and two in the Fairydell-BonAccord field north of Edmonton.

In addition the Company is undertaking certain exploratory work in the Beaverhill Lake area north of Tofield. Here three exploratory wells are being drilled this year and it is hoped that the area can be developed as an important source of gas supply. Mr. D. K. Yorath stated the Company's total production system capital expenditures for this year will be about $650,000.

New transmission lines were constructed in the Edmonton area, extending natural gas service to the industrial plants of Inland Cement, Premier Steel and an asphalt plant of Mannix Ltd. Other pipelines were built to meet the increasing gas requirements of Edmonton's existing large industrial users. Another extension of the Company's transmission pipeline system was the laying of an eight inch line to the industrial area east of Edmonton so that residue oilfield gas could be supplied to these consumers. This is in line with Northwestern's policy of providing as large a market as it can for residue oilfield gas

Turn-on ceremonies were recently held in the towns of Spruce Grove and Stony Plain as these communities west of Edmonton were added to Northwestern's system. Over a quarter of a million dollars was spent by the Company on transmission and distribution facilities to serve these communities.

By the end of this year an estimated 4,800 new customers will have been added to the Company's system including approximately 350 in the communities of Stony Plain and Spruce Grove. This will bring the number of customers in the 35 population centres served by the Company to over 65,000, more than three times the corresponding figure of ten years ago. At the end of 1945, 19,567 customers were being served, which shows a better than three-fold increase in the past ten years.

The continuing extension of natural gas service and the growing number of customers served by the expansion of the Company's head office facilities in Edmonton. To make room for expansion in the downtown office building, several departments of Northwestern Utilities Ltd., moved during October to the newly completed Service Centre building located on 112th street costing approximately $400,000. This building houses the meter repair and testing shop, customer service department, plant records, distribution office and the sales and service departments. Pipe coating and storage facilities located adjacent to the new building are being moved to the Company's new pipe yard on Edmonton's southeastern outskirts.

Football Move

Eastern Canada football which turned pro on the playing fields just a few years ago is showing signs now of 'going pro' corporately as well. Control of this colorful $1 million plus sport business appears to be switching from the dedicated and often able amateurs in the front office to full-time paid administrators who can give the big business aspects of the game the attention they need.

Montreal Alouettes may be the only Big Four league team to make a profit this year, reports The Financial Post, and informed sources suggest that the Montreal team's corporate structure might be the cause. Alouettes are set up as a public corporation while the other three teams in the league Toronto Argonauts, Ottawa Roughriders, and Hamilton Tiger-Cats are non-profit private organizations.

Look for some changes this winter. The Post says, if not in corporate structure at least in the appointment of full time professional managers by the Toronto, Hamilton and Ottawa clubs.

Bowtell Bulletin

We wish to extend our own and the district's deepest sympathy to all who have been bereaved since our last writing. The Armstrong family on the passing of a husband and father in the prime of life. The very large attendance at the funeral bore testimony to the esteem and affection felt for the deceased; also to the families of the following old timers: Mr Mayers, Mr. Long, Mr. Marfleet and Mr. Moore. May God comfort them in their hour of need.

VERMILION CHOIR AT CHURCH SERVICE

Due to the oil stove not working properly church was held Sunday at the Sherwood home with 29 present. Rev. MacPherson of Mannville gave an inspiring sermon. We were also very pleased to have nine members of the St. Saviour's Anglican church from Vermilion.

Grandma Jones is a patient in the Vermilion hospital and at time of writing is waiting to undergo an operation.

Don Harrison has been confined to the house for a few days with an abscessed tooth — lucky you Don, missing this cold weather!

The writer was pleased to have Mr. and Mrs B. Hobbis and family and Mrs. Nora Ronaghan as guests for supper Monday.

Your scribe saw three cute pups today at the farm of Frank Robinson and we understand they are to be given away.

(Held over from last week)

Due to the snowstorm and the blocked roads we were unable to get our news in last week. The school busses driven by Mr. Little and Mr. Millar were unable to travel their routes for three days. During the worst day, Monday, it took the Bowtell bus nearly three hours to make five miles, being pulled most of the time by Don Harrison's tractor, but today folks Nov. 8th, we have a balmy spring day and melting snow.

Congratulations and all good wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. J. Rochford who were recently wed.

Some seventeen ladies enjoyed a social afternoon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Don Harrison. After a few games of cards the hostess assisted by Mrs. Fenton served a delicious lunch of home baked buns and cake. It was decided to meet once a month. The next meeting will be at Mrs. O. Repp's on Nov. 23. Any lady in the district is cordially invited.

We are sorry to report that Grandma Jones hasn't been well of late and is to enter the hospital for an operation in the near future.

We are pleased to see a hospital bulletin in the Standard. Thanks to those who make this possible.

Miss Patsy Fenton is working at present at the Agricultural college.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Margaret, and Brian were Saturday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Repp.

Charlie Pierman returned home from a big game hunt in the Pincher Creek district, but reported no buck.

A meeting held at the home of Mrs. Robinson by the Pleasant Valley church attenders resulted in the purchase of an oil stove for the church. So folks, by the next service the building should be very comfortable.

NEWS from CLANDONALD

TED GODDARD WINS CAR

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Goddard of Wainwright were very pleased to hear of their extraordinary good fortune recently. Last Saturday night Ted won the 1956 Dodge car at the bingo in Wainwright. Ted has had a bit more than his share of bad luck lately so the win is a very welcome one. It may be recalled that a year or so ago he almost lost his life and was in hospital for months as a result of an accident when fighting fire at a refinery. He was unfortunate enough to fall into a tank of nearly boiling oil and would have certainly perished had he not been pulled out instantly.

Joe and Winnie Martin and infant son from Prince George have been visiting their families and friends in the district during the past few weeks. Mrs. Martin is the eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs. Mick Convey while her husband is a son of Mr and Mrs. Jas. Martin.

LONGS MOVE TO VERMILION

Residents of the Landonville district for many years, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long have now retired from farming and are making their home in Vermilion in the future. Neighbors bucked snowdrifts through the field to the highway last week to move their household effects for them.

FAMILIES LEAVE DISTRICT

As reported last week in Allandale news the Webedale family have now left for their new home at Armstrong, B.C. where Harold has purchased a farm of about 80 acres. It is with much regret that we see this family leave but the loss of the use of one hand made it necessary for Harold to give up farming here. We wish them every success in their new surroundings and feel sure that they will not be long in finding good friends and neighbors.

Also another family which we regret to lose is Mr. and Mrs. Tom Foy and family who will be located at Streamstown in future where Tom is operating an elevator. The Foys were always to be counted on for a helping hand at social gatherings and Tom was also quite active in the F.U.A. He has been president, secretary and later sub-district director. To this family also we wish every success in their new surroundings.

Several people have fallen victims of the peculiar brand of flu which seems to plague us at any time of the year nowadays. Mrs. Harry Brake spent a few days in hospital, as did Henry Schneider. Both are home now and much improved.

Mrs. George Convey's father, Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, a former resident of Rusylvia and now living in Edmonton, is visiting with his daughter and family for a few days.

Cliff Stockwell, also from Edmonton, spent a few days at the home of his brother during harvest. The accused murderer, Petlock, lived for about a week just next door to where Cliff rooms and was arrested just across the street.

WINS MEDAL

Marilyn Brake received the good news that she had been awarded the Governor-General's medal for her outstanding achievement during the past school year. Much credit also goes to her teacher, Mr Tony Convey, principal of the Clandonald public school.

In connection with the school busses mentioned in our last news there are about 75 pupils now attending the public school whenever roads permit.

New Car Plates Red and White

Alberta's 1956 license plates will have red numbers on a white background it was announced last week by officials of the provincial motor vehicle branch.

For the first time, the plates are being manufactured by inmates at the Fort Saskatchewan jail. They already have started manufacturing the plates, and will have to turn out from 350,000 to 400,000 before licenses go on sale next [illegible].

Special stamping machines and painting equipment have been installed in a workshop at the jail.

License No. 1956 will be given to Hon. Dr. J. J. Bowlen, [illegible] governor of Alberta. As in past years, all government license plates will start with "AA".

Accidents Prove Big Cause Of Deaths Among Children

School-age accidents account for about 4,000 deaths yearly in the United States, according to a report from the Metropolitan Service received by the Health League of Canada.

Among boys 5 to 14 years old the loss of life from accidents is seven times that from acute poliomyelitis, and nine times the loss from pneumonia and influenza combined, according to the statistics. Among the older elementary school boys — those from 10 to 14 — accidents take a greater number of lives than all other causes combined.

Although accidents are not as dominant a factor in the mortality among girls as among boys, they account for more than one-fourth of all deaths and outrank every other cause of death in the 5 to 14 age range.

Motor vehicle mishaps are by far the leading cause of accidental death, accounting for two-fifths of the fatalities. About three-fifths of the children killed in these accidents were pedestrians.

Drownings rank second as a cause for accidental deaths among children, causing one-fourth of the fatalities. Other causes contributing in appreciable measure to the grim total are burns and conflagrations, firearms, accidents and falls.

The report gives figures [illegible] more deaths due to accidents among boys than among girls, of all three age groups. In the 5 to 14 age group there were 2,367 male deaths [illegible] female deaths; in the 5 to 9 group there were 1,163 male deaths to 502 female deaths; in the 10 to 14 group there were 1,204 male deaths to 324 female deaths.

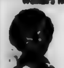
The only accident area in which female deaths consistently were higher than male deaths was that of deaths from burns and conflagrations. This is explained by the fact that female children are more likely to be in the kitchen and laundry of the home than boys, and that their clothing is more likely to catch fire.

A report by the statisticians points out that accident prevention constitutes the broadest single area for life conservation among children of elementary school age.

"Since one out of every six of these fatalities occurs in and about the home, it is clear that parents can do much to make the lives of their children safer," the report states.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority



Car accessory makers have a number of gadgets and gimmicks up their sleeves designed to make car travel safer, more convenient and more pleasant for today's motorists.

For car comfort, there's a handy electric shaver which plugs conveniently into the cigarette lighter. If the man of the house dashes out too fast to get his morning shave, he can have it in the car while his wife drives him to the train or office.

Are you an inveterate . . . snacker? There's an easy-to-install car tray for handy auto eating. It also serves as a writing desk, a make-up table and a utility table for mothers travelling with infants.

Whether you are looking for car gadgets to amuse, amaze or aid, you'll find them at your local car appliance shop.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Winter has come! On Sunday, Oct. 30 the largest amount of snow fell at one time than we've seen in ages. Since, warm weather came, melted the snow, now it is cold again and very icy, roads being especially treacherous. Nov. 12th it was 20 below here.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Broadfoot from Saskatoon came to the latter's sister's home, the Baldocks, on the evening of Oct. 28. Added Sunday dinner guests were son Bev, Ann, daughter Shelly from town, and Uncle Wilmer and Aunt Mamie Hogaboam from Derwent. Mr. and Mrs. Broadfoot left Monday morning for their home in Saskatoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Idelore Nelson's sons Lee, Vernon and Leslie, and Helen and daughter Susan motored to Ferguson Flats on Oct. 30 to visit at the latter's parents' home, the Ochermans.

The campers arrived home on Nov 3. The snow didn't frighten them home but they wished later it had. It kept coming down and had the tent banked high. They were snowed in until a snowplow came to get a truck loaded with lumber that had been snowed in too.

CHURCH SERVICE

There was a good attendance at church service on Nov. 6 conducted by Rev. MacKay and Mr Schurman. The sermon "The Importance of Decision" was especially for the young folk, but a grand sermon for all. It was taken from the Old Testament Joshua Ch. 24, beginning with the 12th verse. Next service is to be in Clandonald this Sunday, Nov. 20 at 3 p.m.

A grand holiday is wished Mr. Dave McPhee and daughter Miss Jean McPhee, R.N., from the Vermilion hospital who left for the east Nov. 12th on a month's holiday.

The sympathy of the community goes to Mrs. Orville Armstrong and family, parents, brothers and sisters in their recent bereavement on the loss of a dear husband and father, son and brother. "We saw you fading like a flower, but could not make you stay. We nursed you with tender kindness until God called you away".

Mrs. Dorothy Johnson and son Ronnie have sold their livestock and have left the farm for the winter. Mrs. Johnson just now is visiting daughter June and Allen at Stettler, then she will visit her daughter Joyce and Eddie in town for awhile before leaving to spend Christmas with her mother at Vernon, B.C. Ronnie is working in the city.

It was good to attend the Dewberry chicken supper where an excellent meal was enjoyed as usual. It was nic to see old friends and be able to visit with them. Noticed Mr. and Mrs. R. Bowman [illegible] well and enjoying the meal, also Mrs. Johnny Butz (Ellen Swan) who is holidaying with sister Jennie (Axley). The program was exciting and very interesting. We all 'had a tour of the world', which was enjoyed greatly.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Greaves and family Brenda and Brian from Edmonton spent the long week end with the latter's parents, the Baldock's.

Our deepest sympathy to Aunt Stella Mayers in her recent bereavement on the loss of her husband Uncle Willie Mayers. Another old timer and pioneer of the Allandale district called home. "He had a nature you could not help loving and a heart that was purer than gold; and to those who knew him and loved him, his memory will never grow cold".

W.A. MEETING DEC. 1

There was no W.A. meeting in November. The December meeting will be at the Idelore Nelson home on the 1st.

To all the bereaved families in town and surrounding districts our deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in faith and prayer. "This isn't our home, we are just passing through."

CHATSWORTH COOKING BINGO

A 'Cooking Bingo' will be held at the Chatsworth school on Nov. 18. Prizes for the winners will be pies, cakes, etc. Proceeds are in aid of Christmas funds. Everybody welcome. 19-20

FALL BAZAAR

The St. Saviour's W.A. will hold their fall bazaar, tea and home cooking sale in the parish hall on Saturday, Nov. 26, from 3 to 5 p.m. 19-21

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

New Relationships Between Provincial Government And Municipalities

EDMONTON. A 'new look' is developing in relationships between the provincial government and the municipalities of Alberta.

As we predicted in this column a few weeks ago, a new position of public relations or liaison has been created within the department of municipal affairs, and the appointment has gone to Blake MacKenzie, a former co-ordinator of cultural activities.

This is one of the first major 'reforms' since last summer's cabinet shuffle when Hon. A. J. Hooke was moved from public works to head the municipal affairs department which handles all dealings with municipalities including grants and loans. The appointment of Mr MacKenzie was confirmed by Mr Hooke last week.

The establishment of a liaison between the senior government and local government is seen as an attempt on behalf of the province to establish a closer link with the municipalities. There has been altogether too much complaining lately, with the municipal governments claiming the provincial administration turns a deaf ear to their problems.

The recent innovation doesn't mean the province will be pouring more money into the municipalities. The big change is that Mr MacKenzie's ear is not deaf. His job is to listen to complaints, act as a sort of trouble-shooter and try to improve relations.

In some cases, his duty may be to attempt to talk the government into something for the municipalities. In others, he may have to explain the government's stand and talk the municipalities out of something. But in any case he'll be there to listen.

Let's look at it from the standpoint of a municipal council wanting a higher government road grant. The first step is to call upon the department of highways. The answer may be a simple no without any explanation.

The next step will be to see Mr MacKenzie who will listen to the arguments of the municipal council and then find out the government's view. Then he'll see what can be done. Maybe nothing can be done but at least someone has listened.

In addition to his other duties Mr MacKenzie will [illegible] weekly publication for distribution among Alberta municipalities. It will contain articles on [illegible] financing road construction, administrative practices and other subjects of interest to local councils.

Mr MacKenzie was co-ordinator of cultural activities from [illegible] till September of this year. Prior to that he worked in radio and drama and served in the RCAF during the war.

COMMISSION EXTENDS ADJOURNMENT

The royal commission investigating government affairs has been adjourned for another week. It was adjourned for two weeks originally when the chairman, Mr. Justice Hugh John Macdonald, was confined to his home with a recurrence of a back ailment. Hearings were to resume in Edmonton this week, but Mr. Justice Macdonald was advised by his physician to stay at home for another week.

When the investigation does resume, the commission will finish its probe of treasury branch loans to members of the legislature, and then probably will move on to government real estate dealings.

THAT MARGARINE QUESTION

We've been advised that we erred somewhat in last week's column in the background material regarding colored margarine. We said that at least once in recent years the annual convention of the Alberta Social Credit League has defeated resolutions asking the government to permit the sale of colored margarine.

Orvis Kennedy, provincial SC president, says the convention in Calgary two years ago passed a resolution in favor of colored margarine because of overwhelming support from women delegates.

So whether the forthcoming SC convention in Calgary at the end of this month will pass or reject resolutions calling for colored margarine is anyone's guess. Both Edmonton and Calgary groups are in favor.

If the resolution is passed government action will be the next big question. At one time the government was prepared to pass a bill permitting the sale of colored margarine in the province but the late Hon. David Ure, then minister of agriculture, all but threatened to resign if the bill went through. It didn't and the government has remained silent on the margarine question ever since.

PAINLESS MONEY

Social Credit swept to power in Alberta in 1935 on a platform of promising monetary reform and [illegible] [illegible] Social Credit government must surely take the prize for [illegible] painless way of scooping in millions of dollars for the benefit of its people [illegible]

Last week provided a good example. The government placed on the auction block 37 parcels in the [illegible] parcels of other [illegible] and 6 wildcat parcels. When the bidding was finished the provincial treasury was richer by $21,610,000.

So far this year the province has taken in $38,864,792 from mineral rights sales and the total since oil was discovered at Leduc in 1947 stands at more than $415,000,000.

NEWS from ISLAY

The 4-H Sewing club met in the school on Nov 9th and opened with the usual formalities. Marion Tuohey acted as treasurer in the absence of Dorothy Axley. Mrs. Moncrief showed how to cut a pattern for a sewing kit and how to sew on bias tape. The next meeting Nov. 23rd will be at Vera Budzikla's home when two demonstrations will be given. The meeting ended with the singing of 'Taps'.

A pot luck dinner is being planned for the Standard scribes at Mrs. Gladys Gould's home on Sunday Nov 20 at noon. We hope the weather is milder by then.

The W.A. are sorry not to have held their chicken supper. The cancellation was put on the radio but evidently some did not hear it, which quite often is the case. They were very brave to have travelled so far, the Shattucks, the Marklunds and Mercers. Thanks Mrs. Mercer for the bundle for Korea.

The W.A. hope for a good day in every way for their bazaar on the afternoon of Dec 3.

A few more pieces of clothing are needed for the box for Korea. This box should be away by the end of November.

There was a good attendance at the United Church W.A. at Mrs. King's. Plans were laid for the Bazaar on Dec 3. Also names were drawn for gifts for the W.A. Xmas party at the December meeting at Miss Anderson's.

Miss Katherine Carey was home for the holiday week end.

Mr. Paulson Robertson of Oliver spent the week end with brother Charlie and family.

Premier Accepts New Mace For Province

EDMONTON — Official acceptance of a new mace purchased for the province by the Civil Service Association of Alberta was made Saturday last by Premier Ernest C. Manning.

"I am both honored and pleased that the public servants of this province should take such a tangible means of expressing their loyalty and in commemorating the Golden jubilee," stated Mr Manning. "On behalf of the people of Alberta I am most happy to accept this magnificent mace."

The presentation of the mace was announced Nov 4 at the annual convention of the association in Calgary. It is approximately three feet long and is made of engraved and gilded silver. Surmounting the staff which is chased in panels of stylized wild roses and wheat sheaves, is a crown and ball. At the apex of the crown is a beaver, while the ball bears the royal coat-of-arms and the Canadian coat-of-arms. Below the crown is the provincial coat-of-arms and seven semi-precious stones whose first letters spell the name 'Alberta'.

The mace is the traditional symbol of authority of the legislative assembly. It is borne into the assembly at the opening of each daily sitting and commands a permanent position in the chamber.

The old mace which has been in use since the first session of legislature in March 1906 is made of steel and non-precious metal and decorated with gold paint.

Alexandra Conservatives Organize At Islay Meeting

ISLAY. — Northern Alberta's fourth Conservative Association to be formed during October has been organized for Alexandra constituency. Conservatives met at the home of Ed McFadyen, near Islay Friday, Oct. 28 and formed the Alexandra Conservative Assoc.

John Anderson of Dewberry was elected president. Ed McFadyen Islay was elected vice-president. Dr Sweet of Islay was elected secretary treasurer. Councillors for the Marwayne and Kitscoty areas were named, and for other areas in the riding are to be named at a later date.

Allen Ronaghan, candidate in the constituency during the provincial election this year, reported to the association members on party organization since that election. He reported that Conservative associations have been organized in Bruce Vermilion and Wainwright constituencies. At the time of the provincial election there were no organizations in these constituencies. Organization has now reached the stage where Conservatives could nominate candidates in a majority of Alberta provincial constituencies he said.

"I am convinced that a session of Parliament ought to be called immediately to deal with the current agricultural situation", said Mr. Ronaghan. Speaking about the sale of wheat the speaker said that if something is not done the Liberal government will be guilty of gross negligence of duty toward the nation generally and toward western Canada".

Mannville Student Attends V.N.O. Course at Banff

By KATHLEEN THOMAS
Mannville High School Student

MANNVILLE. — My trip to the United Nations was made possible by the generous support of the Students' Union and six W.I.'s, namely, Happy Centre, Birch Creek, Saulteaux, Creighton, Ramsay and Minburn.

On Sunday, Aug. 21, 85 of us registered for the six-day summer school. On Monday, Mr. Wooton (director of the school) welcomed us and introduced the lecturers. During his speech he defined the difference between the United Nations and the United Nations Association—

U.N. is a world organization dedicated to bringing about peace and co-operation between all nations.

U.N.A. is a voluntary association of citizens who try to build up interest in the U.N.

While there, each had a country to represent and we held a miniature general assembly. This was to give us an idea of how the General Assembly works. We discussed and voted on the question of outlawing atomic weapons.

We also held an indignation meeting of all non-member countries who had applied for membership in the U.N. and had been refused. They voiced their opinion of the reasons given why they could not join. There has never yet been an indignation meeting in the United Nations.

We had four, one hour lectures a day. The lecturers were Dr. Blackly, Dr Wonders, Mr. Weber and Mrs. Wonders. Dr. Blackly spoke on the history of peace. He reviewed from the time of the Greeks and Romans to man's ultimate achievement, the U.N., as an organization for bringing about world peace. He reviewed other peace treaties such as the Brian Kellogg pact and the League of Nations; Dr Blackly gave six points which would help towards World Peace.

1. Every country disarm; 2. Wider spread education; 3. Correction of economic maladjustment; 4. Get rid of nationalism, 5. Make war so terrible no one will try it; 6. Have an international government.

He also spoke on atomic warfare; he believed that every type of atomic weapon should be abolished. If an atomic war occurred we would have a very poor chance of putting up a defence as our warning system is too slow for the high speed weapons that would be used, therefore disarming is the best bet, but to do so every country must have a great deal of trust in its fellow neighbors and today that does not seem to be the trend.

Dr Wonders and Mr. Weber concentrated on the Middle East, as in the future it is going to become a very important area. There are two reasons for this:

1. Because it is the meeting place of the three continents, Asia, Africa and Europe, therefore many trade routes of those continents must go through the Middle East to reach sea ports.

2. Because of its oil. The Middle East has four-fifths of the world's oil supply. Europe has hardly any and must therefore turn to the Middle East for its supply. The Middle East as yet cannot export or produce in large quantities because of problems of transportation and not having refineries. Dr. Wonders gave a geologist's view of the Middle East describing physical features, the rainfall and reasons causing them. Mr. Weber spoke on the difference in the culture, religion and races of people in the Middle East. An interesting fact mentioned is that there is no Jewish race of people, only a Jewish religion.

The fourth lecturer, Mrs. Wonders was a cartographer or map drawer. She showed us all the different instruments from rulers, pens and erasers to the type and size of paper used in making maps. Mrs. Wonders worked in the Secretariate building of the UN headquarters in New York for two and a half years. She said that if you wished to get a job in the UN you must have something special to offer. It is almost essential to have at least two languages and one must be of the two workable languages, English or French. All employees of the UN live in the same residential area, where recreational and educational facilities are provided for their pleasure. It is compulsory for the UN to hire people from all over the world so a person living there would meet many interesting people. Mrs. Wonders was very enthusiastic over working for the UN.

While at the summer school no special course was offered on the UN itself or any of the special agencies, but pamphlets were given out which we were advised to read. These included: A pamphlet on the "Charter of the UN, and the Statute of the International Court of Justice" giving the powers and work of the UN and its special organs such as the General Assembly; A pamphlet giving a list of gift coupon projects from Canada. Clubs, school children, teachers, scientists or artists in war damaged parts of the world send for a project. They are given a list of needs for the particular area they picked, and also the background story. The money raised is sent in a coupon, hence the name gift coupon projects.

While we were at Banff we formed a UN club and everybody paid 10 cents dues. The money collected was sent in a gift coupon to the UNESCO and they picked the needy country. A pamphlet on the Specialized Agencies of the United Nations. These were, The International Labor Organization which helps its member governments by providing missions, conducting training courses and doing research on which numerous social studies, economic reports, statistics and periodicals are based. It also helps raise the living standard in countries by giving technical advice. It also helps raise the living standard of countries by giving technical advice. It has [illegible] member countries. The Food and Agricultural Organization. Its chief aims are to help nations raise the standard of living, to improve nutrition of the people of all countries, to increase the efficiency of farming, forestry and fisheries, to better the condition of rural people and to widen the opportunity of all people for productive work. It has 71 members. UNESCO — United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. In education it works to improve and extend educational facilities and in science it negotiates meetings between scientists and aids international scientific organizations. It also gives special encouragement to scientific research. Its cultural activities aim at promoting co-operation among artists, musicians and philosophers. It tries to protect and acquaint people with creative work. It has 72 members; The International Civil Aviation Organization studies Civil aviation and establishes international standards and regulations. It has 64 member countries; The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development promotes the flow of money for productive purposes by financing the rebuilding of war devastated areas and in the development of less developed areas. It has 57 members. The International Monetary Fund is for furthering international monetary co-operation and the balanced expansion of world trade. World Health Organization works for the attainment of the highest level of health by all people. Its programs are to help countries take the right steps in strengthening their public health services. W.H.O. has 81 member countries; The Universal Postal Union carries out the regulations of the Universal Postal Convention which provides for orderly and economic movement of international mail. The I.T.O. International Telecommunication Union has three main purposes — the improvement and rational use of telecommunication, development and efficient operation of the technical facilities and, to co-ordinate the efforts of nations to attain these ends; The World Meteorological Organization extends knowledge and exchange of meteorological information. 86 members.

Two other organizations, the inter-governmental Maritime Consultative Organization and the International Trade Organization are not yet in existence. They have however been planned. These numerous agencies are very important and beneficial to the work of the UN.

A pamphlet on the "Universal Declaration of Human Rights" which states the rights of an individual; A pamphlet telling how to organize a UN club in high school.

Our recreational leader was Mr. Rutledge. He took us to such places as the chair lift, cave and basin, museums, Upper Hot Springs, Rock Gardens, Bow Falls, the fish hatcheries and Banff Springs hotel.

We stayed at a place called Holiday House which was two miles from the Banff School of Fine Arts, so we had to walk two miles every morning. We all agreed we had a very wonderful time.

OUR MAJOR WHEAT VARIETIES

Annual surveys made by the Line Elevators Farm Service show that the number of distinct varieties of hard red spring wheat grown commercially each year in the Prairie Provinces is about 15. Of these, however, 4 or 5 varieties account for a very large proportion of the total prairie wheat acreage. For instance, no less than 90.1% of the 21,812,000 acres of wheat grown in the Prairie Provinces in 1955 was occupied by 4 varieties — Thatcher (50.5%), Selkirk (16.0%), Rescue (7.5%), and Lee (6.1%). None of these varieties was known 20 years ago. Three of them have been introduced since 1945. A brief discussion of the distribution of the major wheat varieties by provinces follows.

Manitoba. In 1955, Selkirk, the new stem rust resistant variety, occupied 64.3% of the total Manitoba wheat acreage. Lee held second place with 16.8%. Redman ranked third with 9.5% followed by Thatcher with 5.2%. These 4 varieties accounted for 95.8% of the area devoted to wheat in Manitoba.

Saskatchewan. Five varieties accounted for 92.4% of the total area devoted to wheat in Saskatchewan in 1955. In order of importance they ranked as follows, Thatcher (56.4%), Selkirk (14.3%), Rescue (11.2%), Lee (7.3%) and Chinook (3.2%).

Alberta. In 1955, Thatcher was the predominant wheat variety in Alberta. It occupied 57.3% of the total provincial wheat area. Saunders held second place with 12.8%. Other varieties of importance in Alberta were Red Bobs (4.9%), Chinook (4.8%), Rescue (3.9%), Garnet (3.7%), and Marquis (3.5%).

Western farmers are doing an excellent job of following the wheat variety recommendations of their provincial Cereal Variety Committees. However, let's not rest on our accomplishments. We must continue to protect and improve the quality of Canadian wheat. Today, quality is Canada's key to wheat sales in the markets of the world. Plan now on planting only top-quality wheat varieties in 1956.

WILDMERE WINKS

(Held over from last week)

Wildmere and Basswood communities were deeply shocked last Wednesday when word was received that Mr. Osterberg had passed away suddenly. He lived in our district for several years and was a good neighbor and friend. His son Ray now resides on the home farm. The deceased's cheery greeting when met in town will be greatly missed. We all extend deepest sympathy to his sorrowing wife and son Ray in their hour of bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. Osterberg would have celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary next year. A well-filled church at the funeral bespoke the esteem in which the family is held in town and community. Rev. MacKay gave a very comforting service to the sorrowing ones. Mr. and Mrs. R. Osterberg of Lethbridge, nephew of Mr Osterberg, attended the funeral, and Mrs. Osterberg went back to Lethbridge with them for a few weeks.

We wish to congratulate Mr and Mrs. Gordon Green on the birth of a son; Mr and Mrs. Bill Arthur and Mr and Mrs. Melvin Arthur who also have had recent additions to their families.

Are Mr and Mrs. T. Sherwood ever the proud grandparents of their new granddaughter! We were talking to them Saturday.

We wish Mrs. E. Jones of Bowell the very best of luck for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. C Whitlock of Wildmere has now moved to Vermilion. We will all miss you Katie but our best wishes are always with you wherever you are.

Several from our corner attended Mr and Mrs Rochford's (nee Hazel Clark) wedding dance last Thursday at Thorncliffe. We wish this happy couple many years together.

On Friday of this week William and Adam Smith, accompanied by their sister, Mrs. C. Cruthers, expect to leave for Vancouver by car. Bill and Adam will spend the winter with their mother, while Mrs. Cruthers will visit her mother for a couple of weeks. We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Smith is not feeling well and all hope she is soon feeling better.

On Sunday Mr and Mrs. C Cruthers and family, Mr and Mrs. R. Martin and Doreen, Bill and Adam Smith were supper guests at the home of Mr and Mrs. F Gibson of Basswood. Later Bill and Adam went in to show pictures at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rowe in Vermilion.

SUNDAY SERVICE NOV. 20

Rev. K. Minchin was out on Sunday and gave a service at the new Preston Central school. A nice crowd turned out. Service will be held there again on Nov. 20 so keep that date in mind folks.

We had a nice chat with Mrs. George Dibben on Monday and were pleased to see her looking so well and so cheerful after all her trouble this past year.

Robert is doing as well as can be expected after his siege of jaundice.

A five million cubic foot flow of natural gas was struck at the Vermilion-Franco well early Tuesday morning. The pressure was gauged at 525 pounds. The well is located some 13 miles north-east of Vermilion on the former Gilbert Shane farm and was drilled with the express intention of locating a supply of natural gas for the town of Vermilion.

The Standard takes this opportunity of impressing upon its readers the importance of voting for the hospital by-law which is being submitted on Nov. 29 for the ratification of the residents of Vermilion Municipal Hospital District No. 2. In the judgment of the Standard, the fact that the hospital board is presenting the by-law for $25,000 with which to build an addition, is proof enough of the need of such an action.

The Salvation Army Women's Red Shield auxiliary will have their first parcel of comforts for the soldiers and refugee children ready to send by the first of December. Each article has a little Salvation Army red shield attached and the size of the garment written on.

The meeting of the trustees of the schools of the inspectoral division of Vermilion held here on Friday last was well attended, no less than 82 trustees attending this initial gathering. The deliberations of the meeting resulted in formation of the School Trustees Association of Vermilion Inspectorate with the election of the following list of officers: President F Marfleet, Tring, 1st Vice-Pres H P Long, Vermilion, 2nd Vice-Pres Mrs. Jones Ellsworth. Sec Treas. — N F Bell Islay; Executive committee: John Tough Deer Lake, A B Casey King Edward; Mrs. Geo Bennett Creighton, Geo. Whitson, Mannville; W P Pilkie, Vermilion, N F Bell, Islay.

A meeting of the Vermilion Curling club was held in the town hall Monday night last, with a large number of curlers in attendance. The prospects for at least 15 or 16 rinks this season are bright there being quite a few new curlers signed up. This necessitated using more than the two sheets of ice and a proposition from the Rink Company offering three sheets for a stated amount and the fourth sheet for use by ladies if they decided to play, was accepted by the Curling club.

The Vermilion High school will meet the Minburn High school in the first round of the inter-high school provincial debating league on Friday, Nov. 23.

The Wildmere W I met at the home of Mrs F Gibson with Mrs. R. Martin as hostess. The meeting opened with 'O Canada' and a recital of the Creed. Sixteen were present to answer the roll call with new roll calls for our 1956 program books. Mrs Crothers, Mrs. [illegible] and Mrs Bathe came later to the meeting. [illegible] Mrs. R. Smith was absent. Social services convener [illegible] to report.

There was a letter from Unitarian Services, also one from Mrs. Mead, our district convener. Mrs. L. Howard, one of our group directors, reported on new program books being made. Mrs. W J Garnett read a letter from Mrs. Geo. Bennett, convener of National Citizenship, on topics we should study during the year.

Mrs. Garnett suggested we should have one member take 'current events' for a month and have a round table discussion instead of the social. Our annual Xmas party will be put on again with Mrs. Hughes to direct it. Anyone having dialogue books please pass them on to her.

A donation in memory of Mrs. Rodell, Mrs. R. Dibbon's grandmother was made to the Wildmere United church. Five dollars was donated to Mrs. H. Bathe and members are to help with lunch at her sale.

"Home & Country" was subscribed for. Mrs. Holte asked for hints on handicraft.

The topic was taken by Mrs. Hughes who chose to talk on Ceylon which lies fifty miles from India. Rainfall is 80 inches on high land and 200 inches on the marsh land. There are tea rice and rubber plantations there. Ceylon tea is claimed to be the best in the world. It was a very interesting paper made in a booklet form and highlighted with pictures of Ceylon. Mrs. L. Howard won Johnny Jump Up.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. J. Baumann's who is taking Mrs. Osterberg's meeting. It will be a Pot Luck lunch. Bring your Xmas gift for your secret pal, also tray ornament for the hospital. The meeting closed with 'Gems of Thought' from each member. Our hostess and helpers then served a tasty lunch which everyone enjoyed.

At the close of the meeting our president, Mrs. Gibson, on behalf of the W W I., presented two of our members who are leaving, Mrs. Whitlock and Mrs Bathe, with gifts. We hope they continue to be members and can attend our meetings once in a while. They are both charter members of W.W.I.

Remember December is our annual meeting and all members are asked to please attend.

Extensive School Building Program Planned By Vermilion Division

The Board of the Vermilion School Division has planned an extensive building program for 1956 which includes the construction of four schools with a total of 24 classrooms, and four gymnasiums. In addition to this, modernization of seven additional schools will be carried out by the installation of water and sewer facilities.

The building program has been carefully studied and is planned to take care of the growing educational needs for accommodation for many years ahead, with the possible exception of junior high and high school needs in Vermilion.

The construction program includes the following projects:

Six-room school with gymnasium at Dewberry;

Six-room school addition with gymnasium at Kitscoty;

Eight-room school addition with gymnasium at Vermilion;

Four-room school at Paradise Valley;

Gymnasium at Marwayne;

Installation of water and sewer facilities will be made at McLaughlin, Rivercourse, Paradise Valley, Islay, Woodvale, Clandonald and Tulliby Lake. All these schools have two or more rooms.

Plans for the various schools and gymnasiums are already well underway by the architects, Patrick Campbell-Hope of Edmonton. All preliminaries will be completed so that a start on actual construction can be made as soon as conditions permit in the spring of 1956.

Details of the building program and various requirements are advertised by the School Division Board elsewhere in this issue of the Standard.

EXPENDITURE OF $750,000

The extensive and necessary building program calls for the expenditure of $750,000. Of this amount $250,000 is by way of grants from the Alberta Department of Education, while $500,000 will be borrowed on debentures from the province.

EIGHT ROOM SCHOOL AND GYM AT VERMILION.

The building in Vermilion will be an addition to the primary school in the east end of town, where the gymnasium will also be located. Plans call for eight classrooms and a commodious gym. When completed the use of the two cottage schools on the grounds and a temporary basement room in the primary school will be discontinued.

Community Hall, Store And Cafe Burn At Paradise Valley

A disastrous fire Tuesday night in the Village of Paradise Valley destroyed the large community hall and the Luke Lee store and cafe. The fire engine and brigade from Kitscoty answered the SOS call and prevented the spread of flames to adjacent buildings. It looked for a time as if the whole business section of the village was doomed.

Discuss Schools At Landonville

Over 60 people gathered in the Louise Lake school to attend a meeting which dealt with the problems of our school. Mr Ted Dorey, Mrs. Osinchuk and Mr. Wynnychuk explained some of the problems of the school. A question period was held and many important points were brought up for discussion. Lunch was supplied by the ladies of the Louise Lake district.

Don't forget the December 9th meeting. A number of educational features are being planned. A whist party will be held after the lectures. Everyone in the district is invited.

Madeline Brennmiller has reorganized her Silver Willow Ramblers and will soon be on tour with a stage show and dance. She will be playing for regular community folk dances which will be sponsored by the school. Invitations will be issued to all members of the community. If you have been left out, please see any of the pupils of the Louise Lake school and they will only be too happy to let you have an invitation.

The last blow had the best part of the Landonville male population out shovelling snow in order to let the school bus through.

Bernie Ackerman Condition Unchanged

Bernie Ackerman, who suffered injuries as a result of an accident on Saturday, November 12th when he was inspecting work done by his construction company in Irma, is still in the University hospital.

Bernie is under the care of Dr. T. J. Speakman, Neurosurgeon, of Edmonton. His condition is generally unchanged, and he remains semi-conscious with very brief periods of consciousness only occasionally. The multiple cuts on his head, having received about 25 stitches, are healing, and his dislocated hip has been adjusted. It was found that his collar bone had been broken, and it has been taped.

Mrs. Ackerman, who has been in constant attendance at the hospital, came home to Vermilion for two days at the beginning of this week, but has returned to Edmonton.

The Ackerman boys are in Vermilion; Bob, 14 years of age, and his brother David 12 years, are "batching" at home. Richie, who is 6, is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brennan.

It is of great concern to the many friends of the Ackermans that they have had this misfortune, and it is hoped that the next reports about Bernie are to the effect that he has achieved a rapid improvement.

William Myhren, also of Vermilion, who suffered badly burned face and hands, five broken ribs and a punctured lung in the same accident, is reported to be making satisfactory progress towards recovery in the Wainwright hospital. Mrs. Myhren and the two children live in Mrs. Reah's residence in the west end of town.

Capt., Mrs. Stewart Are Welcome Visitors

The visit of Sr. Capt. and Mrs. Chas. Stewart to Vermilion proved to be a time of spiritual blessing. Mrs. Stewart opened the Home League sale on Saturday, Nov. 12th, wishing the League success. The sale proved to be a worth while venture despite the cold north winds.

The Sunday services were well attended and the Captain had the opportunity of meeting many old friends.

On Monday, Nov. 13th, the Captain showed two films, "Safari into Adventure" and "The Salvation Army in East Africa." For this meeting the hall was crowded to capacity. Many fine comments were heard concerning the films.

On Wednesday, Nov. 16th, Capt. Stewart had the privilege of addressing the Board of Trade. He told of some of the hardships the missionary must endure in East Africa, and the work of the Missions.

While the Captain travelled to Lloydminster Wednesday evening to show his films in the Salvation Army hall, Mrs Stewart was the guest speaker at the Home League meeting in Vermilion. After the meeting Mrs. Stewart was presented with a footstool made by the ladies of the Home League.

Darleen Marshall Honored At Shower

On November 6th in Victoria, at the home of Miss Lorraine Rowan, the X-ray Department of the Royal Jubilee hospital gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Darleen Marshall and two friends, Miss Beverley Koski and Miss Joy Russell.

All three bride-elects are registered technicians, recently graduated from the department. Gifts were charmingly presented to the girls in a pink and blue ship for Darleen, pink and blue oil drum for Miss Russell, and a pink and blue airplane for Miss Koski, their fiancés being respectively in the navy, the Shell Oil business and commercial aviation.

Darleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Marshall of Vermilion.

Diesels, so railwaymen say, are the most efficient form of railway motive power yet developed.

Canadian Club Elects Officers

Before hearing the speaker for the evening, Grant McEwan, M.L.A., Calgary, the Canadian Club of Vermilion held their annual meeting Tuesday, Nov. 22.

Mr Morrison, who was chairman for the business meeting, made the announcement that arrangements had been made for two speakers, Dr. John Convey, who will address the Club on Jan. 6th, and William Courtenay, Feb. 13. The members will be notified of these meetings in advance and more details concerning the speakers will be made available to them at that time. Plans for speakers for other meetings during the current term are being made, and will be announced.

The attendance at the first Canadian club meeting of the season was approximately 50, and there was an audience of about forty to hear Mr. McEwan whose address will be reported in next week's Standard.

Safe Driving Day December 1st

An all-out province-wide effort is planned for S-D Day, (Safe Driving Day), Thursday, Dec. 1, by the Alberta Safety Council, in co-operation with its branches in Edmonton, Calgary, Medicine Hat and Red Deer.

For the Alberta Safety Council, the day is doubly significant, because it will mark the opening of the annual Winter Driving Hazards and Pedestrian Safety Campaign, which will be waged right through until after New Year's day.

Plans for S-D Day will be linked with similar drives in Canada and the U.S., as this will be an international safety appeal at the same time on both sides of the border. Last year, Alberta was the only province which had an S-D Day.

On this day, the primary objective is to have an accident-free 24 hours in the belief that it will show that greater safety can be attained on all other days of the year.

The ASC will distribute 168,000 pieces of safety literature including 60,000 safety paper place mats for restaurants, dining rooms and other eating places, 60,000 children's blotters which feature Slippy the penguin, 7,000 traffic accident statistic booklets, based on official Alberta reports; 8,000 posters which emblazon the slogan, "No Thanks, I'm Driving"; 10,000 green and white colored lapel pins with the words, "Remember S-D Day, Dec. 1".

In addition 5000 safety posters are being distributed to 76 towns and eight Alberta cities for display purposes on S-D Day. Letters also are being sent to 6000 Alberta teachers of grades 4, 5 and 6, urging them to have their pupils write and take letters home to their parents or guardians on Nov. 30, giving them effective reminders of S-D Day.

School patrol banners calling for observance of S-D Day also are being sent to various centres in the province as part of the widespread safety movement.

Alberta is acting without delay, following the proclamation by the Prime Minister of Canada of Safe Driving Day across the dominion.

Premier Manning has named Hon. Gordon Taylor minister of highways, as S-D Day director for the province. The minister is expected to appoint local S-D Day directors or ask the mayors of communities to act.

S-D Day
Safe Driving Day, December 1st

EVERY CITIZEN OF VERMILION is hereby asked to pledge that he or she will accept full personal responsibility for complete adherence to the following basic safety principles:

1.—OBSERVE THE LETTER AND SPIRIT OF ALL TRAFFIC REGULATIONS.
2.—BE COURTEOUS TO EVERY OTHER DRIVER AND PEDESTRIAN.
3.—BE ALERT WHEN DRIVING OR WALKING.

Tigers Hockey Club Organizes for Season

The Vermilion Tigers Hockey club held the annual meeting recently and Neil MacLean was re-elected president and M. Taylor secretary. The complete list of officers which will guide the hockey association through the coming season are:

President — Neil MacLean
Vice-Pres. — Thos. McPherson
Sec Treas. — Mitchell Taylor
Executive members — Stan Manyluk, Clem Hildreth, Les Williams, Joe Winters, Irvin Gordon, Steve Onesko, Russell Carroll, Bill Novak.

HAVE BANK BALANCE

Contrary to the experience of many hockey clubs, the Tigers carry forward a nice balance of $644.43 to start the new season according to the financial report submitted by Secretary Mitch Taylor.

League delegates appointed were Stan Manyluk and Al Locke.

Since the meeting was held two important developments have taken place in hockey circles. The first and main point is that Elmer Kreiler has been prevailed upon to act as playing coach for one more season for the Tigers; the second that the application of Lloydminster to play in the E.A.H.L. has been approved so that it will be a six-team league this winter.

DEARTH OF PLAYERS

Officials were just a little pessimistic about hockey material for this season. It was pointed out that Johnny Laporte, starry goalie, had completed his course at V.S.A. and left a great big gap between the Tiger gas pipes. In fact Johnny will be playing for Wainwright this winter. Another big loss is first string centreman Stewart Cooper, second high scorer for the Tigers last season who is in Edmonton attending varsity. Still available to the team however are many of last year's stalwarts including Les Williams, Bill Novak, Marv Little, Frankie Ewing (who is now working in town) Bill Schmidt, Wally Footz, Stew Barr, Leo Leaky, Bill Williams and it is hoped that a few dark horses will show up during the first practises, also that the college will come through with a starry performer or two as usual.

Ice is about ready in the arena so let's get going.

Dewberry H. & S. Hears Talk On Banff Workshop

A meeting of the Dewberry Home and School Association was held at Dewberry high school on Thursday, November 10th, Mrs. Joe Braithwaite presiding. Convenors for the Games Committee were elected, as follows: Mrs Jones, Mrs. Witzaney, Mrs. Holmes, and Mrs Garnier.

After the business of the meeting had been concluded a very interesting report on her visit to the Banff Workshop was given by Mrs. Holmes. Mrs. Fowlie who has come to Dewberry teaching staff from New Brunswick and who finds the Alberta weather much more congenial than that of New Brunswick, organized a very amusing game in rhyme concerning a list of objects "not used in Grandmother's day."

Refreshments were served and the ladies of this lunch committee who are on a three months' tour (Mrs. Philbin, Mrs. Ewen and Mrs. Jensen) carried round heavy trays of sandwiches and cakes and steaming pots of coffee and tea. Mrs. Smith came to their assistance with a crate of tea cups. As hitherto, it was excellently served.

Christmas Carol Concert Dec. 11th

The Vermilion Mixed Chorus will again present a carol concert in the Columbia theatre on Sunday, Dec. 11 at 9 p.m. The use of the theatre is being kindly given without charge by Mr Nick Kowalchuk.

Carols old and new will be rendered by the chorus; they include the lovely Czech carol "Rocking", and the gay and bright Welsh carol 'Deck the Hall", as well as the old favorites like "While Shepherds Watched" and the ever lovely "Silent Night". The chorus is again including a carol that is not too well known, it is "The Holy Well". This has a delightful tune and the words tell a simple story of an incident in Christ's life as a boy. The program will also include the magnificent work "The Heavens are Telling" from Haydn's "Creation". This is a composition that requires all the skill of the chorus in order to be presented correctly, but they have been working very hard and have this number almost to perfection right now.

The concert will be brought to a close with the singing of "The Hallelujah Chorus" from the world-wide known "Messiah" by Handel.

December 11th promises to be another musical treat for the people of Vermilion and district. The chorus is under the direction of Mr Jack Brown with Dr. C. W. Stephens as accompanist. The entire proceeds are for the Stagette Christmas Cheer fund. Tickets are on sale now and may be obtained from members of the chorus and from the Stagettes. Ticket holders only will be admitted until 9 p.m. when the doors will be opened for rush seats. So don't be disappointed, get your tickets as early as possible.

Six Lives Lost Daily On Canadian Highways

Each day six Canadians lose their lives on Canadian streets and highways.

Figures compiled by the Canadian Highway Safety Conference show that one Canadian dies every four hours as the result of a traffic accident. Every six minutes someone is injured.

Property damage runs to roughly $800 a minute all day long.

In face of these alarming figures the Canadian Highway Safety Conference is sponsoring Safe Driving Day (S-D DAY) throughout Canada. The Conference hopes to cut the tragic toll which amounts to a national disaster.

S-D Day December 1 is timed to coincide with a similar drive in the U.S. sponsored by the President's Action Committee for Safe Driving. W. M. V. Ash, chairman of the Canadian Highway Safety Conference said: "The joint drives are being backed by civic and political leaders on both sides of the border.

"To add impact to the campaign the drive is being limited to one day. S-D Day but will be preceded by ten days of intensive promotion, advertising and driver and pedestrian education" Mr. Ash said.

"The result, it is hoped, will be a drastic cut in the number of accidents on December 1. It will then be up to the individual to show that every day can be a S-D Day with an absolute minimum of accidents.

"If each person, motorist or pedestrian, can keep out of accidents for that one day, and then do the same on Dec 2, Dec 3, and for the rest of the year, the campaign will have paid off."

Nearly every Canadian community is joining in the drive and many public-spirited businesses and organizations are lending their full support.

Results are to be compiled on a community level. If each community and region can cut its accidents down to zero the national total for S-D Day will also remain at the hoped-for figure. The Highway Safety Conference figures that for S-D Day zero is par.

British Bride Wed In Vermilion Ceremony

A lovely, quiet wedding took place in St. Saviour's Anglican church on Saturday, November 19, at 3:30 p.m. At the ceremony, at which the Rector Rev. K. A. Minchin officiated, Miss Mary Gladys Carle Logan became the bride of Aubrey Rendell.

Miss Logan had just arrived a few days earlier from Cornwall in England, and Mr. Rendell has been well known in this district for many years. The matron of honor was Mrs. Fred Haines and Mr. Fred Haines acted as the best man. Mr. George Haines gave the bride away. It was very nice to hear the bells of St. Saviour's as they pealed, according to the ancient English custom, at the conclusion of the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Rendell will make their home in this district.

APPRECIATION

The Vermilion Kinsmen extend their sincere thanks to the general public for the support accorded them on their Peanut day. The results were very gratifying and will aid the Kinsmen considerably in their kiddies' wading pool and playground project.

Health Unit Notes

PREPARING YOUR CHILD FOR HOSPITAL

The experience of going to hospital often leaves emotional scars on a child which may persist long after physical health has been restored. He becomes frightened when a man in a white coat tries to cut his hair or give him an injection. He often clings unduly to mother and is terrified when she leaves him alone even for a short time; he gets frightened in a closed room or has night terrors. Of course, many a child does come through hospitalization without such apparent ill effects but the hazard is always present. The danger is that in one devastating event his whole feeling of security can be undermined. It's not only that he's uncomfortable and in pain in a strange place, but if — when he needs them most—his parents seem to have deserted him, or deceived him, serious damage may be done to his personality.

You can guide your child past this danger. Tell him, simply and matter-of-factly, why he's going to hospital so he won't feel afterwards that the hospital was a mean trick played on him, or a punishment for his own wrongdoing. Also, fear of the unknown is far more terrifying than anxiety about the known. The amount of detail you give depends on the age. The eight-year-old might need to be reassured about surgical masks lest they suggest faceless monsters from the comic books. Let him know about the anaesthetic that will make him sleep comfortably so he won't feel a thing. And tell him he'll wake up right after the operation is over. Present a rounded picture of the hospital — it's more than an operating room.

Some experts advise giving this information only a few hours before, to prevent prolonged brooding about it. Perhaps this is wise for the school-age child, particularly if he's a worrier. Its disadvantage lies in your own difficulty in being as calm and matter-of-fact as you might have been a week before. Also it gives you little time to deal with whatever worry or fear the child may express.

For the pre-school youngster, repeat the explanation until he understands and his confidence is built up. A week before might be best, giving him ample time to ask questions and get used to the idea. Then drop the subject until the night or morning before the operation. (If a child has to go to the hospital without warning, he knows, of course, that he's in trouble. Reassure him that at the hospital he will be helped out of this trouble).

HONESTY IS KEYNOTE

Be completely frank about coming pain, how much you can visit, how long he'll be there. Tell him that when he wakes up after the operation it will hurt, assuring him that he will be able to stand it and that it will go away after a while. Find out from the hospital exact details about visiting regulations so you don't make promises about being with him and have to break them. It's just as harmful to deceive him innocently as it is to mislead him wilfully — in either case you have betrayed his trust in you. Let him know he can expect you so he won't be waiting tensely and in vain for you to show up.

HE NEEDS YOUR PRESENCE

Take the child to the hospital yourself and if possible be with him before and after the operation. Visiting, wisely handled, brings to your child the affectionate support he needs. Be prepared for some emotional disturbance when you come. Your presence may set off a storm of tears and pleading to be taken home. Let him cry it out and, when the worst is over, help him regain his calmness with toys and games. Screams and sobs may accompany your departure but this doesn't necessarily mean he's unhappy when you're gone. Try and smooth over this farewell. For example, "Wave till I'm out of sight," or "Here's a surprise for you to play with now that I must go." Be sure he has his favorite toy with him.

The child appreciates surprises, too, but also needs the familiar doll or teddy to confide in and cuddle. Supply toys which can be used in a variety of ways and aren't easily damaged. Modelling clay, paper and crayons, balloon that can be tied to the bed — all these are better than expensive, elaborate mechanical toys which are quickly tired of.

AVOID THESE ERRORS

Don't bribe him. He may decide the reward isn't worth it and he'll just stay home, thank you.

Don't lie about his destination. The circus was never like this.

Don't tell him it won't hurt a bit — if you want him to believe you again.

Don't let him see your own concern and anxiety.

Don't discuss the operation with another adult in his presence.

Don't expect hospital rules to be suspended for you.

HOW TO GREASE YOUR OWN CAR

FIRST—Put on your dirtiest clothes and an old cap so you can crawl under your car.

SECOND—Jack up your car with four jacks, or dig a hole in the driveway so you can get under your car.

THIRD—Buy a supply of universal joint, chassis, and water pump grease, also some for the transmission.

FOURTH—Equip yourself with lots of strong words like "Darn" and "Uh hang", keep repeating them on the stubborn joints until the grease comes through.

FIFTH—Buy yourself a complete set of wrenches to open all the cases to check the lubricant inside. Also some Nu-Skin to graft on knuckles when the wrench slips.

SIXTH—Fill a spray gun with penetrating oil and get a couple of the neighbors to rock the car back and forth while you spray the springs. Do not breathe for about ten minutes as this stuff is ghastly on the lungs.

SEVENTH—Be sure not to miss any spots that should be greased — it could cost you the price of twenty grease jobs if you do.

EIGHTH—Don't forget little places like the door hinges, hood catch, generator and distributor.

NINTH—Finish the job by sweeping the interior and washing the windows.

OR — If this seems like too much trouble, bring it over to us and we will do it for $1.50.

Kitscoty High School Notes

Congratulations are extended to Isobel Matthewson who has been awarded $50 as the result of her Grade 9 examination marks for rural girls in the Wainwright S.D. Isobel is enrolled in Grade 10 at Kitscoty this year. She is a dormitory resident.

K.H.S. students filled two school buses to capacity when word was received that they could attend the drama presentation 'Julius Caesar' in the L.H.S. auditorium last week. From what can be gathered, it is evident that the performance was thoroughly enjoyed. Some praising comments were made on the [illegible] tive lighting arrangements as well as on the presentation itself.

Last Wednesday classes were dismissed in the middle of the afternoon and everyone filed into the gymnasium to hear a talk about the Navy by an R.C.N. officer, and to see a film of our armed forces during the Coronation exercises.

December 9th is the date set for the annual Snowflake Frolic, our midwinter formal dance. Preparations are on the verge of breaking into full swing with the invitations, [illegible] and decorations occupying the top three positions on the agenda. We are hoping to see some of you friends then if all plans proceed on schedule.

MANNVILLE & DISTRICT LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and family are moving to Edmonton where Mr. Smith has purchased a house in the new development near Calder. They hope to be moved by Xmas. Mr. Smith who has been in business in Mannville for more than fifteen years was always very obliging when any trucking was needed or someone needed a taxi at a late hour or a car brought into town. His help was always given cheerfully for any community project. Mrs. Smith has been an active member in the Happy Hour group, the L. O. B. A., the Ladies Auxiliary to the Legion. They will both be missed in the town and best wishes of the district go with them to their new home.

Caretakers have been obtained for both the curling rink and the skating rink and both rinks should be in operation before very long. Mr. Garney Majeau is the caretaker for the skating rink and with the help of Les Kreller and others already has ice in the rink. Mr. E. Hubbard is the caretaker for the curling rink and has started to make ice. Unless there is a drastic change in the weather, curling and skating will soon be in full swing.

The dance at Braes last week was very well attended and a good sum was realized for the annual Xmas party. There will be a dance at Braes on Friday night of this week.

Two district couples were remembered at surprise parties with gifts of china on the occasion of their 15th wedding anniversaries. On Sunday, Nov. 13 a group of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet McLaughlin and on Tuesday of the same week they surprised Mr. and Mrs. Mirrel Johnson.

The mean temperature for the month of November, 1955, up to Nov. 23 is 7.3 above. The highest temperature so far for November has been 47 above, and the lowest for the same period has been -21.

The mean temperature for November until the 23rd is the lowest since records have been kept in Vermilion. The first recorded year, 1945, the mean was about two degrees higher, and since that time there has been a considerably higher mean temperature.

In 1954 the highest temperature for November was 60 above on the 5th, and the lowest was one above on the 30th.

YOUNG—PETRAS

Miss Lillian Helen Petras, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Petras, of Viking, Alberta, became the bride of Mr. Harvey Frank Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young of Vermilion, at a double ring ceremony at St. Mary's Catholic church, Viking, recently. Rev. Fr. R. J. O'Neill, pastor of Assumption church, Edmonton, solemnized the vows. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The church was prettily decorated with daffodils and pink roses. The guest pews were tied with yellow and white bows.

Mrs. Albina Fratt presided at the organ when hymns were sung, "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "Mary Dear, Pray for Me," and "O Sacred Heart, O Love Divine".

The bride chose a princess line gown made of Chantilly lace over white bridal satin featuring a yoke of fine French illusion drop shoulder net with seed pearls, and a Bouncer of illusion and seed pearls around the skirt, bolero of lace and lily point sleeves. Her headdress was a coronet set in seed pearls and brilliants. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Mary Petras, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a white nylon embossed strapless gown over lemon taffeta, featuring a wide cumberbund with matching bolero and headdress. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sue Carmichael of Vermilion, wore daffodil yellow nylon embossed lace gown lines gown with scalloped neckline and matching bolero and headdress. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bride's mother chose a blue grey dress with lime accessories and her corsage was of carnations and sweetheart roses. The groom's mother wore a navy dress with shrimp accessories, with a corsage of carnation, pansy and lily of the valley.

The groom was attended by Mr. Alphonsus, a friend of the groom, and Mr. Louis Petras, brother of the bride. Ushers were Mr. John Laporte and Mr. John Pratt.

After the ceremony a reception for 85 guests was held in Viking Community hall where the ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion served. The toast to the bride was given by Rev. Fr. O'Neill, to which the groom ably replied. Attended by friends and relatives a lovely party was held at Islay in the home of the bride and groom.

For the honeymoon trip to California, the bride changed to a travelling costume of old rose with rose beige accessories, and a corsage of tea roses. Upon their return the happy couple will make their home at Islay.

Thirty-third Annual Meeting Of The Alberta Wheat Pool Underway

The 33rd annual meeting of the Alberta Wheat Pool got underway in Calgary on Tuesday of this week. A net earning of $1,333,278 was reported by A. T. Baker general manager. This is much less than the previous year's surplus of $2,448,108 mainly because of additional depreciation on new construction and a decline in terminal earnings as a result of a reduction of wheat shipments from the West Coast.

Handlings of Alberta Pool elevators at country points amounted to 35,429,377 bushels, about 750,000 bushels less than in the previous year but still the fourth largest in the history of the organization. Close to 30% of all grain delivered in Alberta in the 1954-55 crop year was sent through Pool elevators.

An extensive building program was carried out in the 1954-55 crop year with the number of Pool elevators increasing from 507 to 523. Eleven new elevators and 15 annexes were built and 7 elevators purchased, increasing capacity of the Pool country elevator system by 1.8 million bushels and bringing it to 37.3 million. In addition, a 2-million bushel extension is being added to the Pool's Vancouver terminal which will be ready to handle the 1956 crop.

During the year under review the Alberta Wheat Pool distributed $5,216,347 in patronage dividends of which $686,783 was in cash and $3,819,564 in reserve credits. Reserves for purchases during the year from members amounted to $704,844.

A total of 2,082 new members joined the Alberta Wheat Pool during the year.

Petitions Presented To Islay Hospital Board At Regular Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Islay Municipal hospital board was held in the hospital on Nov. 5 with the following present: G. D. Jack, D B. Shirreff, John Whiteside, R. G. Purves and secretary.

The minutes of preceding meeting and financial statement were adopted as read by resolution.

A letter of appreciation was sent to Mrs. Erma Purser, expressing the Board's appreciation of her services as matron.

Estimates and specifications re case room lighting were reviewed, and a shadow-proof, explosion-proof unit was ordered

A delegation attended the meeting presenting two petitions with a number of signers which read:

1 "We the ratepayers of Islay Hospital District request the resignation of George D Jack, who does not reside in the ward he represents, and does not work to the best interests of the ratepayers concerned."

2 "To Islay Hospital Board — We want action or we want a plebiscite on the resolution forwarded at the June 22nd meeting giving everyone their choice of hospitals with the M.D. (being Islay, Vermilion, Lloydminster or Elk Point)."

Due to the lack of time to properly consider the petitions, a resolution was adopted tabling them for consideration at the December meeting.

Further consideration was given to the matter of appointing a lab and X-ray technician, and a decision to discuss the matter in further detail with applicants was adopted.

Salaries and accounts were ordered paid as approved.

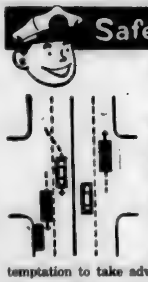
Safety Sam Says...



Watch how you pass other cars when in a hurry!

How often have you seen a car suddenly try to pass on the right — squeezing through at an intersection, possibly forcing you to take evasive action to avoid being sideswiped.

It's trying on the nerves to say the least — it can cause a serious accident. When in a hurry, there is always a strong temptation to take advantage of the other driver to make time. Suppress this urge and let your sense of fair play and courtesy prevail.

Farmers are being urged to make periodic checks of their year-old grain bins, particularly for the Rusty Grain Beetle and the Grain Mite. Often a few simple steps will help to keep these insects under control.

Farmers who have storage problems of this nature, are advised to write to the Stored Products Insect Laboratory, Dominion Public Building, Winnipeg for information and guidance.

School Board Considers Safety Patrols – Examine New School Plans

The local school board at the regular meeting held on Monday evening, examined the plans for the proposed new school and gymnasium. The blueprints were presented for discussion by the divisional trustee, Claude N. Brennan and were the subject of some concentrated study. A member of the firm of architects was scheduled to be in town for interview and to discuss changes later this week. For this meeting Ashley Cooper was appointed to [illegible] with Mr. Brennan and Mr. Simonson.

ONE WAY TRAFFIC

Some traffic congestion has built up at the primary and elementary schools. To remedy this the school board will have one way signs placed on the private school bus road leading across the primary school grounds. Entrance to this road is from the south only. It was never intended that this would be a public thoroughfare, it is on school grounds and for the use of school busses only.

Some thought was given to the use of Safety Patrols at the three intersections on the west side of the east end school grounds. This is being investigated and may be instituted before long.

School attendance figures for the preceding month were: Primary 132, Elementary 292; Junior High 225; High school 121. Total 770.

Attending the meeting were the chairman Don Taylor, and trustees C. N. Brennan, E. Schurman, A. H. Cooper; Principals Miss O. Tyloski, Mr. W. F. Stewart, Mr. Wm. Novak, Mr. Jas. B. Bell; superintendent Mr. S. D. Simonson.

25 Rinks Playing In Farmers' Bonspiel

Action got underway Wednesday morning in the annual Farmers' bonspiel sponsored by the Vermilion Curling club and the business men of the town. Three competitions will be played with complete sets of four prizes in each.

Besides a large number of rinks comprised of district farmers, entries are from Irma, Mannville, Islay, Derwent, Buffalo Coulee, Tolland and Wildmere.

Draws are being made by Lorne Pockett with George Webb and Aldous Kent looking after prizes and general arrangements.

Final games will be played on Friday afternoon and if necessary, Friday evening.

Wainwright Players Delight Audience

There are about one hundred Vermilion people practically raving today about the three-act comedy, so excellently presented by the players from Wainwright at the Vermilion junior high school on Wednesday evening.

The play itself was well chosen, a real comedy, with many hilarious situations and extremely clever dialogue. It had to be well presented to capitalize on its value, and this was fully achieved. The actors were peculiarly well suited to their roles, much more so than is usual in amateur theatricals.

The actor Julien Narrymore was exceptional, closely followed by Faith Martin, Carl Martin, Aunt Abigail and Miss Spears. They gave the small but appreciative audience an evening of rare entertainment, and were full value for a packed house.

Short Agenda Is Handled At Town Council Meeting

A regular meeting of the town council was held November 21st, with Mayor M. Hill and Councillors R. K. Chalmers, E. A. Locke, D. R. Mitchell, G. W. Sutherland and C. E. Thompson present.

Councillor H. J. Payne was absent as he is at present in hospital.

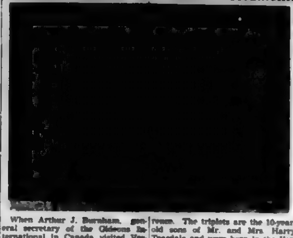
Correspondence was received from T. J. Pounder & Co. re account; Alberta Civil Defence re Alert and Action, Union of Alberta Municipalities re Resolutions.

By-law No. 10-55 re Vehicle Traffic Amendments, and By-law No. 11-55 re building on Lot 21, Block 7, Plan 6647-S were given first, second and third readings and finally passed.

DAMAGE COMPENSATION

It was moved and carried "that Town pay $400.00 for settlement of damage claimed by John Brimacombe to Lot 11, Block B upon receipt of release from any present or future claim in this regard, and Town undertakes to make no further excavations on Lot 11, Block B."

Triplets Presented with Gideon Testaments



When Arthur J. Burnham, general secretary of the Gideons International in Canada visited Vermilion recently he met with an unusual experience and this is depicted above. In presenting testaments to grade 5 pupils, which is done yearly in Vermilion, he found that the class to receive the presentations contained triplets. It was the first time in his activities that he had met this unusual occurrence. The triplets are the 10-year-old sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Teasdale and were born in the Vermilion Municipal hospital. From left to right they are: Robert, receiving his testament from Ernest Schurman; James, from Roy Watkins; Glen from Ernest Clendenning. Shown in between Mr Watkins and Mr. Clendenning is Mr. Burnham.

State Deputy Attends K. of C. Initiation – 40 New Members

On Sunday, Nov. 20th, some forty new members were initiated into the Knights of Columbus at Vermilion.

Vermilion and Edmonton members conferred the first and second degrees and the Saskatoon team conferred the third degree.

Despite the cold weather there was a good turn out for the occasion. The Vermilion lodge was honored to have in attendance the State Deputy for Alberta, Dr L. Patterson of Red Deer, as well as other State and Districts officers.

Following the initiation a sumptuous turkey banquet was served by the members of the C.W.L.

The program consisted of an address of welcome by Rev. Fr. Steward of Clandonald. A toast to State Deputy, Dr. Patterson. The Past State Deputy for Saskatchewan, Bill Reed of Saskatoon, proposed a toast to the new members. Fraternal greetings were extended by Past State Deputy J. E. Enright of Edmonton. Following this Bro. Joe Dubuc of Vegreville, proposed a toast to the ladies.

The guest speaker for the evening was Rev. J MacLellan of St. Joseph's College Edmonton. He chose for his topic "Education in Alberta". Musical selections were rendered during the course of the program by Rev. Fr Strickland, Grand Knight Eugene Phillips of Saskatoon and Bro. Ed Bouvier of Lloydminster. Grand Knight A. MacMillan acted as M.C. for the evening.

The Grey Cup bingo sponsored by the Knights of Columbus proved to be very successful. The lucky winner of the major prize was Ross Evans of R.R. 2, Lloydminster.

The Knights will hold their next meeting at Vermilion on Tuesday, Dec. 6th at 8 p.m. sharp.

Tigers Start Training

Coach Elmer Kreller has started his Vermilion Tigers on their training schedule and practises have been held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Dropping in at the arena Wednesday 22 players were counted trying out so it does look as if material is on hand for another bang-up, never-say-die Tiger hockey team.

The league schedule starts Dec 17th with Vermilion playing at Wainwright. The first game in Vermilion is Monday, Dec. 19 with the Wainwright team supplying the opposition.

High School Notes

The outstanding event of the past two weeks was the 'Yokum's Yump' which was put on by the House of Service. V.S.A. students and Mannville high were our guests. Drawings, decorations and door tags, which were Dogpatch characters, well suited the Sadie Hawkins theme. According to reports everyone had a good time. Thanks Service!

As far as basketball is concerned Service still hasn't pulled out of the slump. Carmen and Laurier are tied with 14 points each and Service is trailing far behind with only four points.

The girls 'A' team plans to play the V.S.A. girls on Thursday evening. The majority of our players are new but we expect to give the college girls a good game.

SUCCESSFUL AMATEUR

The first literary committee presentation took the form of an amateur program last Saturday evening at the end of which Orvis Schneider, Paul Shabada and Steve Kuzio as the 'Three Musty Steers' took first prize. Other entries in the competition indicated that there is an abundance of excellent material available for the forthcoming 'Lit' programs.

SCHOOL ORCHESTRA FORMED

Mr J Harcus, Dean of Boys' residence, has every reason to be very proud of the school orchestra he has assembled to provide music for the regular Saturday evening parties. Last time out, he had Orvis Schneider at the piano, Rudy Guettel on the drums, Dick Wedman, trumpet, Paul Shabada guitar; Ron McGinnis and Rod Skaret each with a clarinet. Mr Harcus played the saxophone. The enthusiastic acclaim of the dancers gave very real encouragement to the musicians.

ESKIMOS WIN THE GREY CUP

VANCOUVER. — A power-packed band of Edmonton Eskimos, led by the quarter-backing wizardry of the incomparable Jackie Parker wrote Grey Cup history in Vancouver's jam-packed Empire stadium Saturday afternoon.

Rolling along the damp turf like a giant tank, the hard-hitting Edmontonians became the first western club in history to capture the classic in successive years when they humbled the eastern champion Montreal Alouettes 34-19.

The brilliant victory was achieved before a crowd of 39,417, largest ever to witness a single sports event in Canada.

Carol Concert To Feature A Variety of Christmas Music

At the Carol concert being presented on Sunday Dec 11th in the Columbia theatre you will hear "The Coventry Carol". This carol is quite ancient, the text being by Robert Croo 1534. The Coventry plays were witnessed as early as 1456 by Margaret, Queen of Henry VI. The modern version of the tune is changed a little in the time from the original tune of 1591. This song is sung by the women of Bethlehem in the play just before Herod's soldiers come to slay their children.

You will also hear a rather delightful arrangement of "I Saw Three Ships". No carol concert would be complete without the descriptive "Deck the Hall".

"Deck the hall with boughs of holly,
'Tis the season to be jolly
Don we now our gay apparel
While we troll the Yuletide carol
See the blazing Yule before us"

All these gay words go to describe one of the happy Christmas eves that many of us sit and dream of. It is a gay and spirited song like many of the songs of Welsh origin.

You will hear "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" which was written by Charles Wesley who was one of the most prolific of hymn writers.

You will hear these and twelve more at the carol concert on Dec. 11th in the Columbia theatre at 9 p.m. Ticket holders only will be admitted until the concert starts at 9 p.m. Tickets are available from members of the choir and from the Stagettes. All of the proceeds are for the Xmas Cheer fund which is being operated this year by the Stagettes. Do not be disappointed, get your tickets now and be assured of a seat.

Speaker Declares Western Canada Has Short But Rich History

Starting his talk by informing the Vermilion Canadian Club that Western Canada has a very rich history, although a short one, Grant MacEwan, M.L.A., Calgary went on to develop his theme, which he had chosen as appropriate to this Jubilee year.

His method of approach to the subject was unusual in that he gave a talk on Western Canadian history through a description of outstanding men of the west, comparing them on an equality with the heroes commonly known to boys.

He had made an extensive survey concerning boyhood's typical heroes and found that they were either fictional or of some other place than Western Canada. But he claimed that our west's historical figures were deserving of hero worship too.

For Tom Sawyer it is possible to substitute Kootenay Brown" explained Mr MacEwan. Kootenay Brown was a reckless, restless type who, after wandering around a large part of the world, finally settled in Waterton, Alberta. He was the first settler in that part of the province.

Instead of Robin Hood as a hero a boy could take an interest in 'Old Dor Shad', a rebel type of humanitarian who befriended many people in northern Saskatchewan where he lived.

The first man to blueprint the formation of a western province was Frederick Haltain, the first and only premier of the North West Territories. He was a great statesman who had a conception of provincial rights and powers so advanced that his advice wasn't followed until many years after the actual formation of Alberta and Saskatchewan. He might be compared to the boyhood hero Abraham Lincoln.

The Julius Caesar of the West might be in the person of the colorful punctual and dictatorial George Simpson who was a governor of the Hudson Bay Company and as such was a virtual ruler over many thousands of square miles in Western Canada.

Stefansson, the Canadian born explorer of the Arctic, could be compared to Sir Francis Drake and the hockey player Syl Apps was a hero who could have Twelve-Foot Davis as his counterpart.

Norman Luxton, still living in Banff could be compared to Robinson Crusoe because he had taken a South Pacific trip in a primitive dug-out canoe, and had become shipwrecked.

And so the comparisons went, with a story of each of the heroes told with the true raconteur's relish. And with it all, the audience learned a lot of Western Canadian history. Mr. MacEwan personally proved his thesis with enthusiasm and entertainment — that the 'Story of the West' is worth hunting for, and worth telling.

Board Of Trade Hears Evangelist

At the regular meeting of the Board of Trade last Wednesday, the members heard a very interesting talk by Evangelist Joseph Larson of Denver, Colo. Mr. Larson was introduced by the Rev J. T. McNair.

The speaker stated that in the last few years there had been a great upsurge of 'Revivalism' all through England, Canada and the United States. Mr. Larson said that there was a great need to refresh our faith in the old standards and the Bible, that there was need for the people to study the Bible more, and get its thoughts into their hearts and minds so as to move them to become better citizens.

President Ern King thanked the Rev Larson kindly for his talk.

Arena Rink Opened For the Season

The arena rink has opened for the season, the earliest opening for many years past. First flooding was done on Monday evening, Nov 28 when the Tigers held a hockey practice followed by general skating by the public. Three open air rinks are also in full operation, besides numerous 'backyard' arenas.

RECREATION IS EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

The importance of recreation in the daily lives of Alberta citizens will be stressed next month at the second annual Provincial Recreation Institute, which will be held in Red Deer, Dec 28 to 30.

Special speaker at the three-day course will be Dr E. J. Tyler, a professor of psychology at Brandon College, Manitoba, who will deal with the subject "Recreation is Everybody's Business". The Institute, a joint program of Community Recreation Branch of the Alberta Government and the Alberta Recreation Association, is designed to aid anyone providing group leadership in the province. This includes church and school groups, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and other organizations. At the first course held last year, applications were received from cities, towns and rural areas throughout the province.

During the course, workshops, lectures and discussions will be held on such subjects as sports, the importance of leadership, modified games, recreation for senior citizens, social recreation, junior and teen-age crafts and puppetry. Applications to attend the class are available from the Community Recreation Branch, Room 218, Alberta Block, Edmonton, or from any local recreation department.

'CARE' AND THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

November brings Christmas within view and in plans for Yuletide giving many Canadians take account of the needs of people in less fortunate parts of the world. The appeal of the CARE relief agency for $260,000 should therefore bring a generous response. CARE, which has raised $6,000,000 in Canada since 1946, has never before set a monetary objective during its nine years of operation as a non-profit organization in this country.

Part of the fund will be sent to help refugees in Laos and South Viet Nam. Part will be channelled to Berlin, Italy, Finland, Yugoslavia, Israel, Greece and Korea. Aid is being sent to flood victims in India and Pakistan.

CARE has discontinued the larger part of its Western European service and is concentrating on self help programs in underdeveloped areas. The major effort is "Freedom Village", a policy of supplying the basic needs of a community that is trying to raise its standard of living. These supplies may include school books, plows, farm and craft tools, sewing and weaving machines, and farm animals.

Starting in Korea, the program is now benefiting 241 villages in Northern India, a region of special interest to people in the Commonwealth. Donors are asked to sponsor undesignated individual or community packages. Their names will be known to the recipients and they will receive reports on the use made of their gifts.

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed please find money order to cover my subscription for the Standard.

We always enjoy reading the paper as we get the news of the town and district, thereby keeping tab of what the "Town Fathers" are doing, the Board of Trade, the churches and other organizations and then feeling with those who sorrow as different old timers and younger ones too, pass away. Of course we follow up the marriages and other activities too.

I have always admired your paper because of your unbiased coverage of news, both political and religious regardless of personal convictions. I followed the elections with keen interest both federal and provincial and you are to be commended.

We enjoy our work here in Abbotsford and have seen a great increase in our congregation for which we are thankful to God. The people are good to us and have taken us into their hearts but I still tell people that VERMILION, ALBERTA, is still the friendliest town in the West.

In our district-wide Sunday school contest we were the only village in Western Canada with an attendance which placed it in the city category. In the six week period of the contest we had an average of 277.8 in attendance with as high as 320 on a Sunday. That in spite of an unfinished church. By the way, we are opening our church on Sunday, Dec. 11. You are all invited.

Yours respectfully,
Rev. Eric P. Berg.

THE ONLY CHILD

Bringing up an only child can present a challenge but just as there are advantages and disadvantages in the day-to-day coping with larger families, so with the one-child household.

To begin with, the only child doesn't present a unique problem because every first child in any family comes into this category. All parents have the fun and task of a small three-unit group for at least part of their parenthood. It is when a lengthy time intervenes before brother or sister comes along, if at all, that the parents of an only child may run into certain difficulties.

ADVANTAGES

With only one child to take care of, parents are presented with many opportunities. Events too expensive or troublesome for the large family — like taking in a ballet or ice show or going on an interesting trip — can be more readily shared by parents and child. [illegible] time and energy are available for building play areas in backyard or basement.

[illegible] the efforts of [illegible] of many children, mother and father can concentrate on following through the interests and activities that will enrich the child's life. And fewer [illegible] can mean more sympathetic understanding and attention.

There is more money to spend on the 'gifted' child to encourage and nourish special abilities in music or dancing, science or art, mechanics or collections.

DISADVANTAGES

But the pitfalls that face the parents of an only child can be many and it's here that much of the criticism and fear about an only child [illegible].

Basically, such a child finds himself in a world lacking some important things which normally help in the development of the healthy, well-adjusted adult. One factor is the support which children in the same family give to one another. Such support comes out of shared secrets, loyalties and experiences. He misses, too, the world of make-believe enriched by play with sisters and brothers.

Again, being an only child tends to emphasize him too much as the centre of attention — it's no wonder that so many lose all sense of proportion of their own importance and become truly spoiled!

LOVE . . . BUT THE RIGHT KIND

Without doubt the [illegible] around in [illegible] by the only child in the [illegible] of his 'aloneness'. It's only [illegible] that so many parents try to make up for this by extra attentions and care, unfortunately too often to the point of over-indulgence. The youngster is constantly in the spotlight. It becomes his measuring stick for love. The more attention he gets the more he figures Daddy and Mummy love him. He demands more and more attention and becomes truly spoiled.

A child need not be spoiled by love. Love is the only [illegible] for a child's healthy growth. It gives him self-respect and [illegible] and establishes firmly the all-important feeling of security. The smothering over-protective kind of love [illegible] him of from learning the things he has to learn and gives him a distorted view of the world he's got to grow up in makes a child spoiled and demanding.

PLAYMATES HELP

What can be of considerable help to the only child is the opportunity to grow up like other kids. If he can't have the benefit of brother and sister companionship then the next best thing is to supply him with the closest substitute [illegible] [illegible] friends of his own age. Very early in life he needs to play with other children, to create a habit, get in to arguments and have them settled, learn to give and take in a group.

A nursery school is excellent for the three and four year old. For the older child, [illegible] groups and [illegible] [illegible].

The only child may need to be introduced into appropriate group activities [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] he can [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] to do things [illegible] [illegible].

Theatre Officially Opened At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — Wednesday evening marked another milestone in the progress of the Village of Mannville when the Alta theatre was officially opened by Mayor A. E. Williams. As Mr Williams said, being mayor is quite often a serious problem when complaints come in about muddy streets, rough lanes, etc., but to be privileged to open such an up-to-date modern theatre compensates for all this. So it is with the folks in town and district, the addition of the theatre to the village is something that has been awaited for many years and the theatre is one of the best. Mr and Mrs. Phil May will have the support of the community in appreciation for bringing such a welcome addition to the town.

Mr May introduced his father Mr Phil May Sr. of Wainwright who has been in the theatre business there for many years and who has two theatres as well as a drive-in at Wainwright. He then introduced Mr Hall, deputy mayor of Wainwright who brought good will greetings to Mannville and expressed best wishes to Mr May in his theatre here adding that it was another milestone in the progress of Mannville which in the last few years has accomplished a great deal with two fine schools, a large new auditorium, installation of gas and water and sewer. Mannville, he stated was a very progressive town.

Mr. May thanked the Council and business men for their splendid co-operation since he started the theatre here. The new sidewalk to the theatre and the new street lights along main street are a very welcome addition to the town. He was sure also that he and his wife would enjoy becoming a part of this community and expressed the hope that the new theatre would fulfill the entertainment needs of the district as a good theatre should.

On behalf of the community, Mr Williams presented Mr. and Mrs. May with a hostess chair and rug. Mr May expressed his thanks on behalf of his wife and himself.

HERE'S WHY...
You Should Buy your USED CAR Now!

1—When new models are announced, many owners change cars and this brings the greatest number of good used cars to the market in the Fall.
2—The greatest factor in depreciation of a car is the introduction of new models. A used car bought now will depreciate only half as rapidly as cars bought in the spring.
3—By buying a Used Car now, you will get 12 months use of it before it's another year old.
4—You get a car that will stand the hazards of winter driving and be safe and comfortable.
5—You'll save the repair and maintenance expense on your present car. You and your family will enjoy safer driving and eliminate expensive accidents due to mechanical weakness of an older car.
6—You'll have a car that is sure to run properly and economically all through the cold weather.
7—You'll have a car with tight doors and up-to-date ventilation to give you greater comfort and protection from dangerous drafts.
8—By summer your car will be half paid for and you'll have more money for vacation trips.
9—The modern finishes used the last few years have kept used cars looking new.
10—Today, highways and streets are kept open for winter driving, so you have plenty of opportunity to enjoy and use a good car now.
11—Prices are lower in the fall because dealers write off what it would cost to carry cars over until spring.
12—Dealers sell twice as many Used Cars as new ones and therefore cater to and satisfy the Used-Car Customer.
13—Used Cars now are better than ever before. All cars built during the last several years are modern cars.
14—Buy now before prices advance and save money.

Square Dance Notes From Circle 8

The 1955 series of square dance lessons, sponsored by C8, and conducted by Harold and Irene Schacher, are finished. We would like to bid welcome to the 35 new members of our club and hope that they will enjoy being with us as much as we, the older ones, will enjoy having them. All 35 seem to be very enthusiastic and we are sure that square dancing will soon become their favorite recreation.

Last Friday a couple of squares of Circle Eight members visited the big Jamboree sponsored by the Chain and Circle club of Lloydminster. It was a big success, the place was full and everyone had a very fine time. Ione Forbes and the executive of the Chain and Circle are to be congratulated on organizing such a successful event.

With Vegreville's Art Zeigler as M.C., the dance featured four very popular callers, namely Doug McColl, Tommy Davidson, Henry Lien and Harold Schacher, with Art calling occasionally as well as acting as M.C.

We haven't any idea exactly how many people were there, but the auditorium was jammed. Seems rather odd that the rent for a public building such as the Lloydminster auditorium, should be so high as to take the biggest portion of the proceeds from an affair as large as the Jamboree.

Circle Eight plans in the works at the moment are to have Doug McColl as our guest caller for the second dance in January.

Next dance - Christmas frolic, Thursday, Dec. 15 at the Legion hall.

(Written for last week but were crowded out)

Hi Square Dancers! Like to go to a Christmas square dance party? Here are a few dates to mark your calendar. Start Dec 14 at Vegreville; our own dance on Dec 15th in Legion hall; then Lloydminster on Dec. 16; Greenlawn, Dec 17. Rest up over Sunday, then Blackfoot Dec. 19, and end up at Mannville Dec. 22. So there's no reason to be idle through December if you like to square dance. Any or all of these clubs will be very glad to welcome you at their Xmas party.

The series of square dance lessons now in progress will finish up next Monday and Tuesday nights.

The new class has proven to be very good. Over four squares of new members have signed up and will be a real asset to our club membership.

Last Saturday evening the Greenlawn community hall was the scene of a Silver wedding anniversary celebration in the form of a square dance, for Walter and Aline Parker. Dancers from several clubs, as well as the entire Greenlawn community gathered to tender best wishes to two of eastern Alberta's most enthusiastic square dancers. Henry Lien came all the way from Bawlf to call the dances and everyone had a wonderful time. Two carloads from Circle Eight as well as several Mannville dancers were in attendance.

SQUARE UP.

THE STAGETTES

The spirit of Christmas is in the air and Santa's helpers (the Stagettes, of course) are busy packing their bags of goodies in preparation for the coming candy sale. Yes, folks, the girls will be calling at your door this coming Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. A two-night canvass has been planned this year to give better coverage of the whole town. A warm reception by you will help to give those less fortunate a brighter, merrier Christmas.

Start digging out the warm clothes girls, the weatherman certainly seems to be with us again!

Tickets for the Carol concert on Dec. 11 may now be purchased from any of the Stagettes. Get yours early folks, and be sure of a seat!

Have you met our littlest Stagette yet? If not, drop around to Craig's this week where she is on display. Some little miss will be happy to have her, so take your chance at starting that happy smile.

Arrangements for the big dance on Boxing night are well underway. Advance tickets will be easier on that Xmas budget too! Plan to join your friends at the Elks for a real fun-packed evening, won't you? Never an idle moment for these busy lasses. Saturday night Doris and Berna will be in the check room to serve you. Dec. 10 will find Daisy and Marie Miller on hand.

'Till the big canvass Tuesday night. Cheerio! Don't forget the important meeting Dec. 12th girls.

Lesley Robson Is Bride in Double-Ring Ceremony

An informal, double-ring ceremony on Saturday, November 12th at 2:00 p.m. united Lesley May Robson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robson of Vermilion, and Lawrence Oswald Jones, son of Mrs. M. A. Jones of Calgary, in marriage. The wedding took place at the Scarboro Avenue United church in Calgary, with the Rev. Dr. Parsons officiating.

The church was decorated with baskets of gold and bronze chrysanthemums. The pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a light beige dressmaker suit with matching accessories. She carried a corsage of bronze baby mums mounted on a white prayer book.

The bridesmaid, Jean H. Robson, sister of the bride, was dressed in a rust dressmaker suit with beige accessories, and she, too, carried a corsage of bronze baby mums mounted on a prayer book.

J. Hunter Robson, brother of the bride, was the best man and the ushers were George Sarginia of Calgary and Keith King of Vermilion.

The wedding reception, following the marriage service, was held at the Harris Club Skyrooms where fifty-four guests partook of the bridal supper. The bride's table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake made and beautifully decorated by the bride's mother.

The mother of the bride received the guests dressed in a dark beige tailored suit, with dark green accessories. With this ensemble she wore a corsage of bronze mums and a brown squirrel cape. The groom's mother assisted in the receiving line, wearing an orchid tailored suit with black accessories and a corsage of gold mums.

The toast to the bride was proposed by E. C Miller, of Lethbridge, formerly of Vermilion, and the groom suitably responded.

Telegrams of good wishes and congratulations were read. These were received from: Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones, Mannville; Dr. and Mrs. R. Eldem, Edmonton; Mr and Mrs. C. McAndrews, Lethbridge; Mrs. A. Moor, Sunderland, County Durham, England; S/L E. Hall of Florida.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Kneale; Mrs. L. P. Horne; Mrs. M. Simonsen; Miss M. Knapp; Mrs. C. M. King, Miss Joy King and Keith King, all of Vermilion. Other guests from points outside Calgary were: Miss Eva Clark, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller, Lethbridge; Miss J.W. Dinkel, Miss M. Thomson and Mr. N. V. Hay, all of High River.

Rev and Mrs. D. A Ford, formerly of Vermilion, and now residing in Calgary, were also guests at the wedding.

The newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, are now at home at Suite 2, 10109-123 St., Edmonton.

A donation to the Rheumatism and Arthritis fund in memory of the late William Mayers was made by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mead.

Former Vermilion Girl Wed In Ponoka

Keitha Lennas Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Dawson, formerly of Vermilion, was married to Fay Gordon Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Johnston, both families of Ponoka, Alberta. The ceremony took place in the Ponoka United church on November 11th.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin wedding dress with lily point sleeves, and a finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Dott Johnston was the maid of honor, and there were two bridesmaids, Marilyn Maxwell and Shirley Lattery. The bride's attendants wore yellow net dresses and pale green coronets in their hair. Their bouquets were of bronze baby mums.

Mr Herbert Abt acted as best man and the groomsmen were Jack Johnston and Robert Rienkoff.

To greet the guests at the reception in the church hall, the bride's mother wore a two-piece navy dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses. The groom's mother was dressed in a light grey suit with navy accessories, and also wore a corsage of yellow roses.

For her travelling ensemble the bride chose a navy box suit with navy and dusty pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The young couple have taken up residence in Edmonton.

HAPPY HOUR GROUP MEETS

The regular meeting of the Happy Hour group of the Anglican church was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Reg Legg. Plans were made for the Xmas bazaar and tea which is being held in the parish hall on Saturday, Dec. 3.

After the business part of the meeting, a presentation was made to Mrs. William Smith by Mrs. P. Laidler on behalf of the group. Mrs. Smith is leaving in the near fuaure to make her home in Edmonton. She has been treasurer of the Group and her willing help will be missed both in this group and other organizations she has belonged to. We all wish her the very best of luck in her new home.

The dance held at Braes on Friday night to raise funds for the Community Club Xmas party was very successful. There was a good crowd and all enjoyed the music of Jimmy Panter and his orchestra. Winners of the raffles were: Goose E Hubbard; Turkey, C Meece, Rooster, Bonnie Proudfoot; Duck Jim Allanach.

Mr Don Allanach and Mr Bruce Hubbard of Mannville attended the wedding on Saturday at Fort Saskatchewan of Miss Donna Allanach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Allanach.

We cried and prayed that your dear life
Would not be taken away.

Second Section The Vermilion Standard

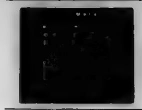
Page 1 — Second Section Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, December 1st, 1955.



Widmere F. U. A.

Due to the absence of our retiring secretary Mr. B. N. Holte, our meeting on Nov. 9 was almost like getting started all over again. There was a good turnout and Mr. A. N. 'Noel' Garnett was chosen to succeed Baillie as secretary.

Medical services came under a great deal of discussion, especially the proposed provincial health scheme. M.S.I. had prepared, as requested, a scheme acceptable to M.S.I. and the College of Physicians for the department of health at Edmonton and handed same to the minister about the time that the legislative assembly dissolved and as yet we have not heard that any action has been taken.

Wheat sales were discussed but no one seemed to have, or at least to voice, an opinion as to how it should be done, but I do think Stan Ross gave a good lead one day recently when he suggested that the crown declare wheat a strategic supply and store in government storage against the time when we will have a crop failure, which is actually more certain than war.

Mr W. J. 'Billy' Garnett was elected delegate to the annual convention. So be sure to come out to our next meeting as we expect an excellent report and incidentally that meeting will be held in the Preston school on Thursday, Dec. 15th at 8:30 p.m.

1,000,000th Copy Of Testament Presented

An historic milestone was reached by The Gideons International in Canada on Monday, Nov. 21 as the 1,000,000th copy of their special Youth Testament edition was presented to 5th Grade pupil John Weicker in a public ceremony at Kitchener, Ont. The presentation was made by the National President of the Association, Mr. Roy C. Spaetzel.

This particular phase of the Gideon ministry was commenced in October, 1946 and has steadily grown in scope and importance. The program now involves an annual distribution of 150,000 New Testaments and is carried on in public schools in all of Canada's ten provinces, the Yukon and N.W. Territories. Gideon Testaments, including the Psalms and Proverbs, familiar hymns and the National Anthem, are offered 5th grade pupils yearly. The Gideons also place Bibles in hotel guest rooms, motels, auto courts, hospitals, penal institutions, schools and military establishments.

The Gideons International in Canada was organized nearly 50 years ago and the head office is located at 146 Jarvis St., Toronto, Ont.

There was already $70 collected on the projector fund, so I'm taking this opportunity to thank those who have already contributed and request those who have not yet done so, to please step forward so that we can get on with the job. This is being done on a three-way ticket: one-third community, one-third divisional board and one-third grant; the projector to remain the property of the school.

Mannville Student Presented With Governor General's Medal

MANNVILLE. — The regular monthly meeting of the Mannville and District Home & School Association was held on Thursday last in the auditorium. After the reading of the minutes and the report of the treasurer, the president, Mrs. Calder called upon Mr. Facey to make an important presentation. This is the first time Mr. Facey has presented two similar awards on the same night. Harold Keushnig tied with a Lavoy student for the Governor-General's award and two medals were presented in the Vegreville S.D. The honor students, stated Mr. Facey, have built a reputation for themselves and he sincerely hoped they would continue with the same standard. There are 49 medal areas based on departmental exams and the top student in each area is presented with a bronze medal. Mr. Facey expressed his pleasure in presenting this medal to Harold Keushnig. Harold started school at Creighton with Mrs. Hamilton as his teacher for two years, since then he has been coming to Mannville on the school bus. As well as his school work he a great help to his father on the farm.

Mr. Russell Whitson, on behalf of the Vegreville S.D. board, presented the following honor students with Alberta Golden Jubilee Anthologies: Howard Schreyer, Trudy Keushnig, Alice Dach, Adele Matney and Harold Keushnig.

Mrs. Otto gave a talk on the library and free reading. She advocated that more attention should be given the local public library and that the school children should be able to obtain their extra reading from the library and thus the money allotted for library books at school could be used for reference books. She hoped that more and more young people would take advantage of the facilities of the public library.

Further to the discussion on arithmetic at a previous meeting, Mrs. Baldwin gave a talk on the Course of Studies in Arithmetic for grades 1, 2 and 3. This gave the parents an opportunity to know exactly what is in the course of studies for the various subjects in each grade. This is the first in a regular series.

On the walls of the auditorium were displayed some British Water Colors, paintings from the private collection of J. F. Baron of Calgary. Little booklets described some of the paintings and Mr. Allan Rostron gave a short talk on them.

Coffee and sandwiches served by the Clovelly-Claysmore ladies were welcomed before braving the cold.

The attendance shield was again won by Mrs. Morrison's room.

Several from here went to the bingo and dance at Clovelly Friday evening.

Vern Willes has gone to Vancouver to curl in the 'Grey Cup' bonspiel with Aldous Kent of Vermilion.

Mr and Mrs. Ernie Livingstone and Doug were Friday evening supper guests with Mr and Mrs. Oliver Willes and family.

Mr and Mrs Harry Obendorf of London, England, are visitors at the Percy Willes home. They find it rather invigorating here right now.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schumacher of Mannville were callers at the Jim Horne and Allan Olstad homes Saturday evening.

There is a C.N.R. repair crew on the siding at Claysmore doing repair work to the tracks.

ENJOYABLE PARTY AT THE GOULD HOME

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gould of Islay, on Sunday, Nov. 20, when the Editor, Social Editor and families of the Vermilion Standard and some of the district correspondents and their husbands were guests at a buffet dinner.

All enjoyed the delicious dinner and meeting the news writers from the various districts. Sorry there were several who were unable to attend.

All voted this a very nice idea that could bear repeating each year either as a house party or as a picnic at Vermilion Lake during the summer.

FEEDING PHOSPHORUS

There is not enough mineral in hay and grain to nourish livestock properly. In one feed test it took three times as much feed where steers were not getting enough phosphorus. Cattle should be fed free choice iodized salt and bonemeal at the ratio of one to one. Pigs should be fed limestone.

SHOOT THE BULL!

Every purebred bull is not necessarily a good one. Just because a bull has a pedigree does not mean that he is of top quality. Some of these light boned, thin fleshed, slow growing bulls should go to the yards. No one can improve his cattle unless he uses growthy bulls of good beef type.

FARM FORUM

Farming today is big business and like any other business to be successful must be conducted on a business-like basis. A farmer today must not only be a skilled tradesman along many lines but also a skilled manager. In no other business, except farming, is it even attempted to manage without a proper bookkeeping set up. To farm successfully farmers should keep books. Listen in on Farm Forum Monday night, Nov. 28th on "Why Keep Farm Accounts?" Listen and hear what they have to say — maybe it will be of great vaue to you.

MACHINERY REPAIRS

There is nothing so useless as broken down machinery. Tractors and implements should be overhauled during the winter months and made ready for spring. So often we neglect repairing worn parts that break and cause costly delays in the spring. Why not make plans now for going over all your machinery? When spring comes be all set to get out and go.

CALF CLUB RE-ORGANIZES

Why not get that junior partner of yours into the Calf Club this year? Through these clubs boys and girls learn to develop pride in ownership. They accept and discharge responsibility and cultivate a scientific attitude towards the farm and home. Parents and children united in a common interest make for better homes and living. More members are wanted for this year's Vermilion 4-H Beef Club. If you are interested, come in and see me or drop me a line.

SELF FEEDERS

Care must be taken this fall in getting steers started on to self feeders. I understand that many feeders going in on the feed lot this fall are developing scours. This is costly as scouring causes weight losses and general weakening of condition. Two pounds of grain daily mostly or all oats is about right to start them off. Gradually increase this until at the end of 10 days or two weeks the self feeder may be brought into use.

Campaign To Build Friendship Between Hunters and Game Wardens

EDMONTON. — The big game season has opened in Alberta, and officials of the game branch are conducting a campaign of public relations aimed at building friendship between hunters and wardens.

There's a good reason behind it too. If hunters and game officers learn to become good friends and co-operate, conditions will be better for everyone. A hunter is mistaken if he thinks he has to sneak about like the top man on the RCMP most-wanted list and regard the game officer as a mortal enemy.

The game officer's work is directed toward assuring that there is always an abundance of game in Alberta's plains, marshlands and forests, for the sportsmen of this and future generations. And, if hunters co-operate, the game warden's job is that much easier.

The public relations program is being carried out mainly by the big game checking stations throughout the province, where officials in charge exert a special effort to make a hit with hunters.

Sportsmen on their way out after big game are issued a cordial invitation to stop in at the station for the latest information on areas where game is abundant, and on the condition of roads getting there. In return, the hunters are asked to check in on their way back and report what luck they had. It works both ways.

John Stelfox, government game biologist, explains it this way: "If the hunter can become acquainted with our game management problems through meeting game officials at the checking stations, he will become more conservation minded. And whenever problems arise during hunting, he will go immediately to a game official instead of shying away as if the officer were a cop waiting to prosecute him."

Hunters can actualy be of great assistance to game officers. They see more game and cover more area than the officers can, and the information they provide can help game officials in developing the province's wildlife resources to assure future sport.

There are problems in wildlife management which must be solved if the game animal population is to flourish. Contrary to the belief of many, wildlife doesn't thrive if left to its own resources and not disturbed by man.

It may seem hard to believe, but there are actually more game animals in Alberta now than there were before the white man took over this part of the country. The population has increased through good management, but the problem is to keep it increasing, and combat conditions which could cause a decline.

In some ways, game animals such as elk and deer are their own worst enemies. For example, when they are undisturbed, their population grows so large that the food supply is wiped out. As a result, the animals are forced to exist on food of poorer quality, which in turn lowers the general health of the animals.

A weakened condition makes the animals susceptible to disease, which kills many. Other weaker ones starve to death in the stiff competition for food with healthier members of the herd. Once the herd is thinned out this way, the supply of food plants can re-establish itself, but in the meantime undesirable vegetation has developed on the range, so it will never be able to support the animal population it did before.

Through good management, the large number of game animals lost to disease and starvation can just as easily be taken by hunters. Oil exploration roads are opening up vast new areas of the province, and the government game branch wants to make available to hunters the many big game animals in these areas.

The solution, according to Mr. Stelfox, is in range management. The food supply must be kept healthy and vigorous. Hunting pressure on the animals must be regulated so that the herds are culled continuously, in much the same way ranchers cull their herds of cattle to obtain maximum returns.

If everyone co-operates, Alberta can continue to be a paradise for big game hunters indefinitely. Wildlife management is a relatively new science which has had to fight for recognition, and in Alberta the game branch officials are making big strides. They deserve support from sportsmen.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather has been 'just cold' for two long weeks. On Nov. 23 it was 26 below, so much different from last year when we hardly had any snow until Xmas and our first below zero weather was Dec. 24.

It was good to see, though, at a sad occasion, relatives who came to attend the funeral of Uncle Willie Mayers, on Nov. 16. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Omness and daughters Irene and Janice from New Sarepta; Mr. Gerald Omness, Kindersley, Sask.; Mr Allen Roneghan, Irma; Mrs. Gertie Swanson, Elk Point and Mr. and Mrs. Auburn Kepke and Mrs. Rufus Kepke from Spring Park.

What a kindly act for Pleasant Valley scribe to give her time and home for all the Standard correspondents on Nov. 20. Sorry I could [illegible] join you. I'm sure all would have a very enjoyable time.

Our congratulations to Miss Marian Brake of Clandonald on winning such a high award in her grade 9 standing. Congrats too, to her [illegible] Mr. Convey. Our very best [illegible] Marian, in your future schooling, as we know you will always strive to achieve your aim.

Sorry we missed church at Clandonald on the 20th, but attended Vermilion at 11:30 a.m. and enjoyed a very fine sermon, in part, "Be a cheerful giver." It's good to see so many at church in town.

Next service here and likely the last one for the winter will be at Allandale on Dec. 4 at 3 p.m. Let us all try and attend. We are very fortunate in having a church in which to worship.

Mr and Mrs. Don Wilson and daughters, Dorothy and Marlene, motored to the city on Sunday, Nov. 20. Marlene had her eyes checked on Monday. They visited at sister Della's, 14804-105 Ave., while in the city.

Eddie Throndson who has been at Yellowknife working and staying with brother Theodore and family, returned home on Nov. 19.

Little Brad Armstrong, son of Mr and Mrs. Jimmy Armstrong was taken to the Islay hospital the middle of the month with a cold. He is now home again and feeling fine.

Mr and Mrs. Jimmy Armstrong and daughter Valerie motored to Royal Park, sister Joyce and Ronnie accompanied them to the city to attend the last football game of the season. Mrs. Jack Dwyer (Aunt Violet) cared for Valerie while they were in the city.

Mrs. Mabel Lee of town had a very successful Ronald Ware party on the evening of Nov. 24. Her niece Mrs. May Edwards, was saleslady. May has a large assortment of this ware which proves very essential in any home.

Aunt Stella Mayers is staying at this time with her sister Mrs. Mabel Lee in town. The farm is locked up for the winter.

HOME BAKE SALE

For those who may be interested the members of the Order of the Eastern Star are having a sale of home baking on the afternoon of Dec. 10 in Craig's store. Everyone is invited.

READY FOR CHRISTMAS?

"Ready for Christmas", she said with a sigh, as she gave a last touch to the gifts piled high. Then wearily sat for a moment and read, 'til soon, very soon, she was nodding her head. Then quietly spoke a voice in her dream, "Ready for Christmas? What do you mean? Ready for Christmas, when only last week, you wouldn't acknowledge your friend on the street? Ready for Xmas, while holding a grudge? Perhaps you'd better let God be the judge. Why, how can the Christ Child come and abide in a heart that is selfish and filled with pride? Ready for Xmas when only today a beggar lad came and you turned him away, without even a smile to show that you cared? The little he asked it could have been spared."

"TAKE THAT, and THAT!"

Before a new telescope-type stretcher, made of nylon and aluminum, was adopted by the Canadian Armed Forces, it got the works. They jumped on it, dropped rocks on it, tossed it out of aircraft and army trucks, froze it in ice, buried it in mud and sand. They finally gave up —and placed the order.

Its lightness and compactness make this rugged stretcher a natural for everything from northern air-rescue work to the needs of hospital, police, Civil Defence and other authorities ... Another job for Canada's aluminum and the men who work wonders with it.

Our communities, Wildmere and Basswood, along with the writer, wish to extend heartfelt sympathy to all those who have lost loved ones since we wrote last. To Mrs. Long, Mrs. Mayers, Mrs. Marfleet and to the Moses family. These fine men were all old timers and their friendly smile and pleasant greetings will be greatly missed by everyone. Our old timers are fast slipping away to their well earned rest. It can be truly said of them all, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, take thou thy rest".

RENDELL-LOGAN WEDDING

On Saturday, Nov. 19, a number of friedns gathered at the Anglican church in Vermilion to see Miss Gladys Logan and Aubrey Rendell joined in holy wedlock. Miss Logan only recently came over from England. It was a nice and very quiet wedding. We wish them every happiness. They are staying for the present with Mr. Geo. Haines. A wedding dance will be held in Basswood school on Friday, Dec. 2. Everybody welcome.

CORRESPONDENTS' PARTY

On Sunday the writer and husband went to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gould's near Islay, where a pot luck dinner was put on for the Standard staff and scribes. We were sorry we could not get in touch with Mr. Stockwell or Mr. Anderson to have them present too. Those attending were Mrs. Jack, (Wildwood); Mrs. Pidcock, (Kitscoty); Mrs. Reeves, (Campbell Lake); Mrs. McMillan (Claysmore); Mrs. Van Wageningen, (Woodvale); Mrs. Gould, (Pleasant Valley); Mrs. Wallington, (Wildmere); Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. N. Bentley, Mrs. Bothwell, Mr. Pidcock, Mr. Reeves, Mr Wallington, Mr. Van Wageningen, Mr. Jack and Mr. Gould. All marched around a well laden table and stove for a delicious dinner to which everyone did justice. After sampling in generous helpings some of the men said they couldn't take any more as they were on a diet . . but we think they did very well. Mr. and Mrs. Gould are wonderful hosts and make everyone feel at home. A very jolly time was enjoyed by all.

Wildwood East

Misses Eileen and Doris Jack spent the week end under the parental roof.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hearty made another flying trip to Edmonton.

Mrs. G. D. Jack has returned from a weeks holiday spent in the city with her daughter.

Pleasant Valley

Don't look for the robins folks, they have gone for good. Somebody close by is saying that this weather is going to clear off, so is the snow, and the birds will be singing on Christmas morn — but don't believe it! Right now it's is drifting with a cold north wind.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark journeyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hobbis on Sunday for dinner.

Hi Chatsworth, what happened to you on Sunday? We were very disappointed at not seeing you. Our pot luck dinner was much enjoyed, we think, by everyone. There were eighteen altogether. We hope all arrived home safely. It was certainly nice meeting the scribes. A package of stationery was left on the table. I will leave it at the Standard office.

We hope next year everyone will attend. It's going to be a big chicken dinner, Mr. Bentley!

Sorry to hear you were sick Islay scribe and we hope your sore throat has cleared up by now.

Bad colds are quite numerous at present in our district. Mrs. Gillies has been laid up with the flu.

Supper guests at the writer's home on Sunday were Gordon Gould and family and Laurence Gould and family.

Monday night Mrs. Gillies and David were supper guests, also Annie and Christie Clark.

Mr and Mrs. Potvin attended the funeral of the latter's aunt at Minburn last week.

Sympathy is extended to all the bereaved families in the surrounding districts.

We wish Mrs. Jones a speedy recovery to health.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Dec. 7th, 1939

In the Dominion-wide campaign of the Canadian Red Cross to raise a fund of $3,000,000 for the carrying on of its humanitarian work for the next twelve months, the people of this town and district are being appealed to for co-operation and assistance.

Very gratifying returns were had from all over the riding in connection with the voluntary registration of Canadian women for service in national emergencies. Over 3000 registered and the forms have been sent in to headquarters.

Many improvements have been made at the hockey and skating arena this fall in preparation for a good season. ...

Christmas Carol Concert This Sunday Evening

Sunday night, December 11th is the Carol Concert, and that is this Sunday in the Columbia theatre at 9 p.m. Have you got your ticket? Ticket holders only will be admitted until after 9 p.m. This concert is for a very worth-while cause, as the entire proceeds go to the Christmas Cheer Fund which provides hampers for selected people in Vermilion. The distribution of these hampers is being done by the Shogettes this season.

The Vermilion Mixed Chorus of 45 voices has a program of sixteen selections for your enjoyment, and everyone connected with the concert and chorus are giving freely of their time and effort. The chorus is under the direction of Jack Brown, with Dr. C. W. Stephens as accompanist. Mr. G. W. Sutherland will be the Master of Ceremonies.

Among the numbers being presented is "The Hallelujah Chorus," by the great Handel. "What Child is This" which is sung to the well known tune of "Greensleeves"; "We Three Kings," "Good King Wenceslas," and eleven more which include "The Heavens Are Telling" from the great work of Haydn, "The Creation." While not a Christmas carol, "The Heavens Are Telling" still suits the season as it is telling of the glory of God, and what is more fitting for Christmas?

Doors will be opened at the theatre at 8:15 p.m. and the concert will commence at 9 p.m. promptly. Children 12 and under may purchase their tickets at half price and please note once again ticket holders only will be permitted until after 9:00 p.m.

November 22, Mrs. Bentley spoke to the girls on the important topic "Dating." The girls were keenly interested and asked numerous questions which were answered frankly. The girls want to thank Mrs. Bentley for leading this interesting and enlightening discussion.

ST. PAUL TO PLAY THE TIGERS

Senior Hockey Saturday Night

The first game of the oncoming hockey season will be played in the Vermilion arena on Saturday evening commencing at 8:30 when the St. Paul Hornets play the Vermilion Tigers in an exhibition game. A return fixture is scheduled for St. Paul on Sunday afternoon.

The Tigers have been practising faithfully for two weeks now and will be in better condition than is usual when the hockey season opens. For the past few years the opening game has been the first time out for many of the players.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, GOAL

The Tigers 'may' have solved their biggest problem as George Washington will be seen between the goal posts on Saturday evening. George is a local product and has turned in many a sterling exhibition on Vermilion ice. It is now some years since he last played here and during that time he has appeared on Lloydminster, Red Deer and Grande Prairie teams, in which places he was employed at the time. It would be a big relief for the local Tiger executive and players too if George is induced to take on the job of regular net custodian.

Be on hand fans, for the Saturday night exhibition and give the Tigers a mighty push along their 1955-56 season.

The regular E.A.H.L. schedule starts Dec 17th with the Tigers playing at Wainwright. The first league game in Vermilion takes place on Monday, Dec. 21st, also against Wainwright.

4-H Turkey Club Plan Show and Sale

Shortly after 2 o'clock the auction sale of dressed turkeys will start. People in Vermilion and district have purchased their Christmas turkeys from the Club for the past seven years. The turkeys are well finished and well dressed by the club members themselves.

The club president, Bruce McDonald of Mannville, and District Agriculturist E. H. Buckingham ask that Vermilion people come around to see the show and to buy their Christmas turkeys.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

Christmas shopping has not really got into high gear yet. One of these days it will really happen. Men all of a sudden will remember that they have done nothing towards Christmas. The women folk who have been planning a long time ahead, and are methodically drawing up their list will really go to town. Then the problem will arise what to do with the things that have been bought until the great day dawns. In any home there, of course, are little nooks and corners which can be pressed into service. If these prove too small there are always the neighbors.

The Scrooges among us will not be too happy about all this. They look on it as another method of prying money out of their pocket books. It is all too commercialized they will say; there is too much high pressure advertising and anyway people only give because others are giving.

Now, there may be some truth in this, but what would a mere man do about getting ready for Christmas were it not for the advertisements. A popular pastime these days is watch the mere man scanning the newspapers, and always the funnies and the sporting pages, but the ladies' wear and toilet advertisements as well. It is alright. How is a man to know otherwise?

When the Scrooges in our midst tell us that the whole celebration of Christmas is an unhealthy custom, each person giving presents because others are doing it, they may have something. There is no doubt we are all moved to action by convention and custom. We have to keep in the swim or drown. We have a sneaking suspicion though, that many of those who complain about having to bow to convention just want to get out from under the responsibility of doing the generous thing. So [illegible] pressures [illegible] loosen up a bit it is good [illegible]. After all there are those who would rarely spend a nickle on a good cause if custom or convention did not [illegible] to do so. If so-called [illegible] to force a man to [illegible] we are for it even [illegible] principles we are opposed [illegible].

But we like to think that this giving and receiving of gifts, which may be overdone a bit in certain quarters, has a much deeper purpose and origin than appears on the surface. It is based on the first Christmas when the greatest gift that man ever received was presented to him. In these days of wars, hot, cold or warm, days of tension, national and personal greed, it is good to know that during one season of the year at least, we can concentrate on the welfare of others to the exclusion of our own selfish interests. After all that is one of the deep meanings of Christmas.

WI PRESIDENT URGES HOSTESSES TO THINK SAFETY—

Responsibility for much of danger that accompanies highway driving during the holiday season must be placed on Canadian housewives who entertain at Christmas and New Year's without thought of their guests safety. Mrs J W Adams, president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, declared.

Throughout the country, Mrs. Adams said, this is a period of gaiety and family reunions. Thousands of people from the large cities travel to see their friends and relatives in the rural areas and many people from the small towns and villages drive to bigger centres for holiday celebrations. All this is part of the holiday festivity but unfortunately, it too often ends in tragedy. This can be prevented in many cases by the wise and thoughtful hostess.

By keeping these simple rules in mind, Mrs. Adams concluded, women can help to make this a safer and thus a happier holiday:

1 When your guests are leaving urge them to drive carefully and, if they have a long way to drive, suggest that they stop part way for a snack and a cup of coffee to overcome fatigue.

2 Ifyou belong to the great number of Canadians who serve alcoholic beverages, it is kinder to your guests to serve them moderately.

3 To eliminate the effects of even moderate drinking serve your guests hot, strong coffee or hot soup or cocoa made with milk as 'one for the road' just before they leave.

4 Promote the safety rule — "If you drive, don't drink". Persuade guests who have, to leave their car and drive home with others rather than endanger themselves and others on the highway.

5 Make sure that your guests have sufficient warm clothing and wraps in the event of car trouble or road blocks in Canadian winter weather. It is wise to carry along a thermos of hot coffee or other alertness beverage if you have long distances to travel.

These few rules may save lives this Christmas and New Year's.

District 7 F.U.A. Board Meets

The Board of Directors, District No. 7, of the Farmers Union of Alberta met recently at Wainwright. The business of the meeting was extremely varied. Sub-directors and Mrs. Redman, District FUA director reported on the Jubilee Day membership drive. Despite the bad weather and scarcity of funds, it was expected membership would be as high as last year.

As sub-district 2 has been without a sub-director since the resignation of Tom Foy, the Board, acting on the nominations from locals in that area, appointed Walter Parker of Dewberry to this position, with Erven Garnier appointed as an alternate. Mr Garnier is also from Dewberry.

A number of resolutions to be submitted to the Provincial convention were dealt with. Those passing the Board concerned marketing legislation, chicken rustling, a national farmers' union, the marketing of natural gas, long-term farm financing, institution of safety devices and designs for boats, cars, tractors.

L. Killeran of Wainwright, was chosen as the district delegate to the provincial convention, and it was decided that again sub-directors attending the convention should receive some remuneration from the Board. Plans for the annual district banquet held in Edmonton during convention week were made.

Mrs. Redman reported on the pre-Jubilee Day committee meetings held in each sub-district. Some consideration was also given to the possibility of obtaining outside speakers to address meetings in the district, not necessarily on Farm Union matters, but on subjects of interest to farmers.

SQUARE NOTES From Circle 8

The Circle Eight club's regular dance last Thursday was a great success from all angles. Fourteen squares were in attendance the best crowd by far this year. Our new members turned out in full force and had from all appearances, a wonderful time.

We had visitors from several clubs, including Marwayne, Blackfoot, Wainwright, Mannville, Greenlawn and a very welcome group from the new club at Elk Point. We are always glad to welcome [illegible] visitors and hope they will be back.

Speaking of Elk Point, that club will hold its first open dance next Monday, Dec. 12. They have lots of room and will be glad to welcome all square dancers. Johnny Maxwell will be calling. Let's go. Oh, and give Elk Point and Johnny our support next Monday.

Girls — don't forget to phone Leona Wilmer at 409 and say what you'll bring to the Xmas dance on Dec 15. SQUARE UP.

R. R. 3, Vermilion.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard
Dear Sir:

I wonder if you could find room in your paper for the following items? At the C.C.F. conference held in connection with the Battle River-Camrose federal constituency at Viking on Saturday, Nov. 26th, the following resolutions were passed:

1. Advance payments by the Wheat Board on the purchase of farm-stored grain.

2. The Government of Canada to assume the cost of carrying [illegible] on grain in store at the end of each crop year.

3. A comprehensive scheme of agricultural supports based on the principle of parity.

It was further resolved as a solution for the current marketing problem, establishment of an export agency to: (a) Extend credit to underdeveloped countries, (b) Accept foreign currencies for grain purchase; (c) Utilize barter methods in disposing of grain, (d) engage in famine relief program.

I think resolutions on the preceding lines should be pressed on our Federal government by [illegible] parties and farmers [illegible]. This would be one way of our government acquiring more storage right away ... the farmers' grain ... on the farm.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours truly,
Hardy Wear.

She has gone to Turo, N.S. to visit Mrs. W. G. Roebuck who is ill. Mrs. Roebuck is a former Islay resident.

An election of officers for the forthcoming year was held with the following results: President — Muriel Stone; 1st Vice-Pres. — Mrs. McLennan; 2nd Vice-Pres. — Mrs. Jean Axley; Secretary — Mrs. Irene Martin; Asst. Secretary — Mrs. Violet Schaffer; Treasurer — Bessie Anderson; Bazaar committee — Mrs. Vera McLean and Mrs. Betty Purser; Sick committee — Bessie Anderson to attend to fruit baskets and every member to act as a visitor.

This meeting was also our Xmas party, a new event for us. There was a brick (paper) chimney with Santa standing on top holding a number of strings, as each member pulled a string up came a gift. A very lovely lunch was served by Miss Anderson and Mrs. Purser.

The January meeting, on the first Thursday, will be at the home of Mrs. Moncrief and hostesses are Mrs. [illegible] and Mrs. Moncrief.

Islay hospital has Mrs. Walton again on the staff. Nice to see [illegible] return to our little village, welcome back Mrs. Walton. Also welcome to Miss Gammel, R.N. newly arrived from England. We hope our winter won't frighten you.

CURLERS IN FARMERS SPIEL

Three rinks from here took in the Farmers bonspiel in Vermilion. The Bill Shaw rink of Dave Martin, Paddy McGuigan and Jimmie Barnett came home with 4th in the Grand Challenge; Bill Belton and Billie McGuigan also took rinks.

Mrs. Frank Hancock is now at her daughter's home, Mrs. Irene Martin.

GIDEONS HOLD SERVICE

Mr. Watkins and Mr. Schurman of the Gideon Society very kindly took the church service Sunday for Mr. McGuffin who is away in Calgary to be married. Mr. Schurman took as his theme 'Landmarks' from a verse in Proverbs, and a very interesting talk it was. The Gideons are doing very wonderful work, so willing to help out a congregation needing a service. They seem to be a quiet organization and if you want to know something about their works you should ask one of their members, say, Mr Clendenning, Mr. Watkins or Mr. Schurman, to mention only a few, and you will be surprised, and pleasantly too.

Miss Emma Old who has been working in Edmonton since summer is home for awhile. Mrs. Olds is in the hospital. We wish her a quick return home.

SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR

The United Church W.A. bazaar on Saturday was well attended and quite successful. The hand work was very lovely, the home baking table with candy was well supplied and pies for the tea table were of many varieties. We were pleased to see Mrs. Reg Kay with her two boys and two girls from Kitscoty. The boys, both pre-school, seemed to be having a really good time. Also glad to see Mrs. Wylie from the south and last in were Mr and Mrs. Bill Waterfield, and Mr Bowser, the latter is looking well and does not show his 80 odd years at all. It is all working together that makes an effort a success and that is what our W.A. is doing thanks to all the members and many others who help us. We must not forget the two young boys Donnie Schaffer and Jimmie Shaw who were right there at the last to carry home a dish pan, tea kettle or what have you. Those are the little errands that count so much when the day is finished and we are all tired out. Thanks boys, and to the men who put up the tables, thank you.

Mr and Mrs. Dalton Torrance and Linda were supper guests at the home of Mr and Mrs. Jimmie Barnett on Sunday.

On Sunday there was a real family gathering at the home of Mr and Mrs. Merlin Moncrief, celebrating Mr Moncrief's birthday. A brother Richie Moncrief from Ribstone his two sisters Mr and Mrs. Hugh Symington and family from Cadogan, and Mr and Mrs. Glen Paege and family from Edmonton also a friend Mr and Mrs. Tom Symington and family of Cadogan, nineteen being present in all. A very happy time was spent.

Mr and Mrs Duff McGrath were noticed in town Monday calling on the Machell family.

Syd and Ralph haven't called for their usual game of Canasta at the Dalt Torrance home for over a week now—maybe too busy making ice at the curling rink. It is now ready and the members met Monday night to draw up rinks.

We extend congratulations to Miss Marilyn Brake of Clandonald for obtaining the Governor-General's medal in the Vermilion S.D. We note Marilyn had an H standing in every subject. The Islay school had one student obtaining an H in every subject namely Jimmie McGuigan. It would be interesting and more satisfying if the percentages could be given in such cases. We find some parents do not understand the letter standing, but a percentage is easily understood.

Mr and Mrs. Caro and Jack spent Sunday at their daughter's home, Mr and Mrs. Edgar Williams, who were celebrating their tenth wedding anniversary.

SCOUTING and GUIDING

The Scout and Cub mothers held an afternoon meeting at which a vote of sincere thanks was extended to the Legion for so kindly donating the use of the hall and kitchen when they had their tea and bake sale, also to the Kinsmen who provided the means for printing the tickets. A farewell gift was presented to Mrs. Hanlan, one of our most faithful workers who is leaving to take up residence in Edmonton in the near future.

GUIDES

The Guides are working on their Toymaker's badges and are making doll clothes.

BROWNIES

The Brownies have been very busy this past while. Mrs. Kay Hart is most generously giving her time towards teaching a number of the girls sewing. Three girls have been enrolled, Diane Tvedt, Marilynne Williams and Ellen Waldenburger. Beverly Strome is to be congratulated on obtaining her Golden Bar. The Brownies are holding their Christmas tea in the St. Saviour's parish hall on Monday, Dec. 19 at 4:30 p.m. At this tea they are inviting their mothers to be their guests.

CUBS

All the Cubs met together on Tuesday when Mr. R. Clarke from Provincial Headquarters conducted the meeting. The leaders as well as the boys thoroughly enjoyed the meeting and found Mr. Clarke's suggestions most helpful.

SCOUTS

Mr. Gordon Ross took Pat Bentley with him to the Buffalo Coulee Home & School meeting in November where they gave a talk to the parents on Scouting. Mr. Clarke was just spending the one day in Vermilion so the Scouts met Tuesday evening to give them an opportunity of meeting him. The Provincial Commissioner, Mr. Holloway only had a short time to spend here and tried to meet as many of the leaders and people interested in Scouting in that short while as possible. It was a pleasure to have them here and all who met them became more enthusiastic about Scouting and its possibilities.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Helping Hands

It's often claimed that the hand is quicker than the eye. Our manual swiftness probably accounts in part for the fact that most of us reach old age without some permanent hand injury.

Since many of us depend heavily on our hands for a livelihood, even a minor injury can be serious. Despite modern safety measures, one out of every four industrial accidents involves the hand.

Regardless of the cause, all hand injuries should be given immediate attention. Prompt care is the key factor in preventing permanent disability.

Everyone should be taught first aid for hand injuries, Dr. Robert H. Kennedy stresses in the New York State Journal of Medicine. He says that protection is the all-important consideration — protection from infection, from added injury, and from future disability.

In the pre-antibiotic era, even relatively slight hand injuries sometimes led to mutilating surgery, amputation and even death. Doctors still must resort to surgery for some bad hand injuries. But antibiotics protect the entire body against infection and ward off serious complications that may follow even a minor hand cut. Dr. Kennedy, for example, uses antibiotics such as Terramycin and Tetracyn to prevent infection complications when treating hand injuries.

Dr. Kennedy offers these first aid rules for hand injuries.

Cover the injured area with a sterile dressing, if available, or with the cleanest material at hand. No matter what, cover it. Do not apply antiseptic of any kind to the wound. Bandage hand and separate each finger with gauze. Immobilize hand in position of rest. Contact a physician.

TRING NOTES

Hustle! Bustle! Everyone is in the midst of Christmas preparations. We are reminded daily of the number of shopping days left before the big day, but I wish there was more Christmas music played over the air.

Bingo seems the rage these days. Chicken ones, turkey ones and now a host of toys to be played for on Dec 8th at Marwayne. Nancy Hyatt was certainly lucky to win two turkeys last week at the Legion bingo. The rest of you don't feel too badly however as there is another chance coming on Dec. 15, same place same sponsors.

Mrs. P. Millar and Martin are visiting relatives in Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Elderkin and family were recent week end visitors at Roy Bendixson's.

Joe Ure suffered a broken left elbow while playing at school. It is now in a cast and he may have to spend a few more days in hospital. Hope it gets all better real soon Joe.

The last F.W.U.A. meeting was held at Della Protsch's. This was the annual meeting. Galine Knvill and Frances Gray are the delegates to go to the convention in Edmonton next week. The Christmas meeting will be held on Dec. 17th at Gladys Hutchinson's and there will be an exchange of Christmas gifts.

November 25th was a day for celebrating so Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ure had a good old fashioned house party. Games and contests with everyone taking part was a lot of fun. Celebrating birthdays were Sharon Bendixson, Jean Rocks, Herb Ure; wedding anniversaries, Helen and Roy Bendixson, Cecil and Mildred Sinclair. There were thirty-five present. The evening closed with a tasty lunch.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Needham of Hazeldine on the birth of a daughter, Kandis Ann.

May I take this opportunity to extend Merry Christmas wishes to the Editor and staff of the Standard and all the readers too, and a great big Happy New Year!

NEW RAIL CAR — The first car of its type to be introduced in the railway industry in North America, a double-deck automobile transporter, will be placed in service by the Canadian National Railways next spring. "Gardener's Gold" from Earthworms

A little-known earthworm, recently imported from Tennessee, promises to be the answer to many of the farmers' most serious problems. The "Red Wiggler", smaller than the common earthworm produces topsoil over 300 times as fast. Burrowing a dozen feet into the earth, the Wiggler builds an inch of topsoil a year.

Captain C. E. Minner, a former lake sailor, who imported the worm says he now needs no sprays or fertilizers on his 400-acre Fenwick, Ont. farm. The worms produce a rich, dark soil which he calls "Gardener's Gold". It grows hardier, earlier maturing plants, which resist disease and parasites.

Worm culture first interested Minner when he took over operation of the family farm on retirement; discovered the high cost of commercial fertilizers. Now he sells both worms and compost as far away as Australia, New Zealand and South America.

Preservation of many ancient ruins has been credited to the common earthworm. Tiny as he is, the busy fellow has changed the earth's surface; undermined huge rocks with his excavations. Recently, he has sparked the "worm culture" trend—breeding worms to cultivate the soil. Nature's original farmer, the earthworm not only adds lime from his own system to the soil, but keeps minerals and other organic matter near the surface where plants roots can utilize them.

Less selective than the earthworm, Wigglers are proving a sound but economically for Minner. They eat almost anything from coffee grounds to vegetable tops, are resistant to heat and cold, breed prodigiously. Above, Minner holds a sod filled with worms. Wigglers average from 1—4 inches. National Film Board Photos. Herb Taylor

Crop yields on Minner's Lorraine Gardens farm have increased tremendously through the use of Red Wigglers in the soil. Here, Minners tends strawberry plants whose yield has increased from 4,000—6,000 quarts an acre to an average 14,000 quarts. In background, compost bed where worms are bred.

HON. ANDERS AALBORG SPEAKS AT KING GEORGE MEETING

Hon. Anders Aalborg, minister of education for the province of Alberta was speaker at a Social Credit rally held at King George hall recently. Others in the visiting party called upon by the chairman Mr. Joe. Boyko, were Ashley H. Cooper, Joe. Miller from Clover Bar, and James A. Smith, M.P.

Prior to the meeting in the hall the visiting party had been guests at a sumptuous dinner served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller in Elk Point.

The first speaker called upon was Mr. Cooper, candidate in the last provincial election. He dealt with the votes cast in the last election, noting that Social Credit votes had increased in the Vermilion constituency, and that the Social Credit vote cast in the province was the highest in the history of the movement.

Mr. Smith dealt with grain marketing problems and stated the Social Credit program in connection with agricultural grants. He also gave in an interesting way the impressions gained during the 14 days he spent in the House of Commons at Ottawa.

Mr. Miller from Clover Bar, an ardent organizer for Social Credit brought an enthusiastic message from that area.

Mr. Aalborg dealt with grants, and the desire of the Alberta government to relieve the tax burden of the people by means of increasing these grants, for education, for road building, for general construction and for hospitals.

A great many questions were asked and the gathering [illegible] to be of the opinion that the help in the way of grants given by the Alberta government was not fully realized nor appreciated by the people generally.

The system of the tansferrable vote came in for criticism as it was claimed that it contributed to the large number of spoiled ballots, and also gave disgruntled parties the opportunity to gang up on the government no matter how good a job was being done.

The Social Credit meeting at King George was the second such rally to be held, the first was in Vermilion the preceding week. Another is planned for Mannville on Dec. 13th.

We will skip the weather and not complain too much. It's a little above zero at present, but for how long? Until after Christmas, maybe who knows? Saw a flock of ducks flying north on Saturday. Some of the rabbits are still brown, too, so everything seems to be mixed up with Old Mother Nature.

On Sunday evening the Giles family, the writer and hubby sat down to a bountiful supper at Laurence and Christie Gould's home. Such mouth-watering goodies—roast beef, salads, vegetables, ice cream, lovely layer cakes and cookies, yum, yum! It was a birthday supper for Mrs. Gillies, folks, and she's another year riper than I told you last year, —remember?

Leonard Giles, Louise and Lily Giles motored to Edmonton on Monday.

Annie and Christie Clark were supper guests at Betty Gould's home Sunday night.

Gordon Goulds were dinner guests at Betty Shaw's home on Sunday, where a goose dinner was enjoyed.

Sylvia and Marvin Gould were supper guests at the Parker home in Kitscoty recently.

I hear your deep-freeze is just bulging, Helen. I'll be around when my shelves are empty. They are a wonderful food storage and time savers as well.

A tea was held at the writer's home last Wednesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell. They have left the old homestead and are living in Vermilion now. We presented Mrs. Bothwell with a table lamp and magazine rack. She was greatly surprised and thanked us all. The words were "Oh, it's the very thing I would have had to get when I got moved into my home!" Let's hope you are nice and warm, folks.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Plundering Parasites

Diet is more than just a four-letter word for food. Nutritionists have piled up a mass of knowledge about food in terms of proteins, fats, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals. We now know pretty much what we ought to have on the table to round out a well-balanced diet.

Not so generally realized, however, is the importance of diet in our defense against intestinal parasites. Dr. William W. Frye, dean and professor of tropical medicine of Louisiana State University Medical School said recently that dietary deficiencies lower our resistance to parasites in our intestinal tract, and leave us open to infection.

Dr. Frye described a series of laboratory and clinical studies of intestinal infections ranging from outbreaks in a rural Tennessee town to an epidemic in a Korean prison compound. The studies, Dr. Frye said, show that the relationship between diet and parasitic infection is striking.

Improper or inadequate food supply may produce changes in body tissues that are favorable to the parasites, the dean pointed out. Only slight changes are sufficient to throw our defenses out of line. Specific vitamin, protein and other nutritional deficiencies were found to be prevalent in many cases.

These studies have shown that our resistance to parasitic infection depends largely upon diet, constitution and age. To serve in developing the most potent resistance to parasites, he adds, diet must include adequate vitamins, minerals, and other substances essential to a well-balanced ration.

LOCAL NEWS

Only 90 Seconds Vermilion To Ottawa

Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Stone were a little concerned about Ken's mother, Mrs. Roy Stone. She left Vermilion in August for a visit in England, and duly informed [illegible] of her safe arrival back on [illegible] continent about a month ago. Her plans were to visit with her sister and cousin in Ottawa for a while and then return to Vermilion.

Perhaps Ken and Arleigh [illegible] over-anxious about seeing [illegible] Stone again, but they expected her to let them know that she was arriving in Wainwright last week end where they would go to drive her home.

However, no wire! So Ken phoned the cousin's number in Ottawa and it took only 90 seconds for the call to go through — probably a much shorter time than it used to take him to answer when his mother called him in out of the yard for supper! Unfortunately Mrs. Stone was at the home of her sister, so Ken phoned that number after talking to the cousin for a few moments. It was busy. The cousin was phoning the sister to tell her the news of Ken phoning. However, now it is all arranged. Mrs. Stone Sr. is expected to be home in Vermilion this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rose 50 Years Married

Mr. and Mrs. Hughie Rose, now resident at 1949 Barclay St., Vancouver, celebrated their golden wedding on Dec. 1st, 1955. Mr. and Mrs. Rose are well known old timers of Vermilion and this area of Alberta.

Hugh reports the weather as being very good at the coast, with only two real frosty nights; temperatures vary from 30 to 46 degrees. A picture of the new home of the Roses is enclosed with the note. The house stands three storeys high on 6 foot granite walls.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Enjoy Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Amos arrived back in Vermilion last week end. They had been away since the end of July. After picking up a new car in Ontario they spent three months visiting relatives in that province. Their daughter Betty (Mrs. J. Roth) of Edmonton then joined them and they proceeded on a motor trip down the east coast of the United States as far south as possible, to the Florida Keys. From there, visiting friends en route, they travelled the inland road north to Chicago then west through the northern states entering Canada across the southern border of Alberta at Coutts. They made it to Edmonton just half an hour before the broadcast of the Grey Cup game where they visited with their daughter Margaret (Mrs. Ronald Smith) for a few days.

The Amos family travelled through 16 states, as well as through Ontario and Alberta in Canada, putting almost 10,000 miles on their new car. They really enjoyed the trip and the sight of different places and scenery, but are very happy to be home once more in Vermilion, in spite of the snow and the cold.

Additional donations made in memory of the late Harry Marfleet: [illegible] Dorothy and Bill Pettigrew: To Crippled Children's Fund: Mrs. Elliott, Lottie and Ken Urquhart.

A donation to St. Saviour's Building fund in memory of the late William Moses was given by T. C. Milligan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson of Allandale announce the engagement of their oldest daughter Joan, to Arthur Roberge, of Lloydminster, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Roberge of Edmonton.

Mrs. Lorne McLean is [illegible] this week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Hollands of Edmonton.

Miss Noreen Sawtell leaves this week end for New Westminster, B.C., where she will be a bridesmaid at her sister's wedding. Noreen plans to make her home in New Westminster from now on.

Mrs. M. Swanson of Vegreville was a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Swanson.

Mrs. George Washington had as her guests over last week end, her son George of Edmonton and Miss Shirley Eaton, also of Edmonton.

Wm. T. Bothwell of Regina has spent the past week in Vermilion, during which time he assisted his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bothwell, move from the farm at Islay to their recently purchased home in town, the former Stan Manyluk residence. "Bill" left on the return trip to Regina Thursday morning.

Little E. Katz who left here on Sept. 29th when he went to Temple University, Philadelphia, for an eye operation, returned home on Thursday of last week. The eye trouble has now been remedied and he reports the sight gradually growing stronger. The operation was performed by Dr. Gibson, an eminent specialist, and arrangements were made by Dr. Max Katz, a son of Little E. Dr. Katz is now specializing in psychiatry. On the way home Mr. Katz spent three or four days at each of Atlantic City, New York, Montreal, Toronto, Windsor, Detroit, Winnipeg and Saskatoon. He is already back at work and bought a carload of cattle last week end.

H. J. Payne returned home last week after receiving medical attention at the Col. Mewburn hospital in Edmonton. Joe is already beginning to feel and look much better.

Councillors Chas. Thompson and Bill Sutherland, along with public works superintendent Cecil Weldon were visitors to Edmonton on town business Wednesday.

Mrs. Magistad who now lives at Ponoka is visiting in town and district. At present she is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walker in the Bowtell district.

Miss Irene Moffatt was in Edmonton Wednesday and Thursday of this week on hospital business.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my appreciation to all who helped to make my recent stay in the hospital more pleasant. I especially thank Dr. C. W. Stephens, Miss A. Keith and the nurses for their care of me. To all the kind friends who sent flowers, cards, fruit etc., and to those who visited me, one big, grateful "Thank You".

Mrs. S. E. Jones.

In memory of Paul Horvether
—who passed away Dec. 16, 1948.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
And who, though absent, is just as dear.
Ever remembered by his loving wife and family.

WEDDING BELLS

SCOTT—CLARK

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr and Mrs George Clark of [illegible] when their youngest daughter, Lillian Marie, exchanged vows with James Castle Scott, son of Castle Scott of Vermilion, on Saturday, November 26th. Rev Holter performed the ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father looked charming in a light blue suit with pink accessories and wearing a corsage of red roses.

Miss Donna Hanning was bridesmaid. She wore a charcoal gray suit with pale blue accessories, and a corsage of pink roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Robert Scott.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony for about thirty-five friends and relations. Jim Bennett proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom suitably replied.

The happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to Edmonton and Calgary and upon their return will make their home at Vermilion.

SWAN—EVANS

At a quiet but charming wedding, Lorrine Lura Evans, daughter of Mr and Mrs Ronald Lura of Fort Saskatchewan, became the bride of Vern (Barky) Swan, son of Mr and Mrs. Walter Swan of Islay.

Rev I Holter of Mannville conducted the marriage service which was held in Mannville on November 19th. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The matron of honor was Mrs. V. Cooper of Maughan and Mr Cooper acted as best man.

A buffet lunch was served to 20 relations, friends and neighbors at the groom's farm north of Islay.

Telegrams of congratulations were read from Joe Best of Winnipeg, Hardie and Evelyn Swan of Calgary, and Flo Mackell of Vermilion.

The newly-weds will make their home north of Islay.

WATT—BUCHANAN

A very lovely wedding was solemnized in First United church, Vermilion at 2 p.m., Friday, October 28th, when Betty Louise, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Lidden Buchanan, of Islay became the bride of Robert Melvern Watt, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Erle Watt of Viking.

The ceremony was performed by Rev C. W MacKay.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a waltz-length gown of white satin with lace bolero. Her fingertip veil hung from a beaded crown. She carried a bouquet of red carnations.

The grooms' sister, Miss Marjorie Watt, acted as bridesmaid and chose a waltz-length gown of blue net with matching headdress and gloves. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Daniel Watt brother of the groom, acted as best man and Donald Christie and Gerald Miller, brothers-in-law of the groom, ushered the guests to their places.

Mrs. William Roebuck played the wedding music.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at which there was a large attendance of friends.

The bride's mother received the guests in a black afternoon dress with a black hat. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted at the reception wearing a navy dress and a wine hat and corsage of pink carnations.

The reception rooms were tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and pink bells.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Dalton Torrance and fittingly responded to by the groom.

Later in the evening a dance was held in the Islay hall where relatives and friends danced to the music of Hanna's orchestra.

The young couple will make their home in Vermilion.

Rotarians Hear "The Grey Cup Story"

"The Grey Cup Story" as told by Jim Robson was thoroughly enjoyed by Rotarians at their regular dinner meeting on Friday last. Jim attended the game, had come home and would say nary a word about it, making his public pronouncements at the Rotary club luncheon. The speaker painted a vivid word picture of the entire outing in an extremely interesting manner. The trip by C.P.R. from Calgary, the City of Vancouver and the Grey Cup parade, the appearance of the huge Empire stadium, before, during and after the game, the bands, cheer leaders, drum majorettes, all came in for praise and witticism. The game itself of course with its standout plays and all the drama contained in the 60 minutes' of action was excellently portrayed to his avid audience.

Snapshots taken at the game by Rotarian Ross Boake were passed around and served to illustrate many of Jim's points.

Mr Robson made the trip in company with Ted Miller, formerly of Vermilion, and now in Lethbridge. Two other members of the local Rotary club were at the big game, Ross Boake and Aldous Kent.

Several visiting members were present at the luncheon from Lloydminster and along with a guest or two made a full house.

Delegates Selected F.U.A. Convention

Despite a very cold night enough members were present at Rye school for a very interesting F.U.A. meeting on the second Thursday in November.

Election of officers was held over until the December meeting when a larger turnout is hoped for.

Delegates elected to attend the F.U.A convention are Harry Braine and Henry Dyjur. The next meeting will be held on Dec. 15, one week later than usual in the Orange Hall, Clandonald, to enable the members to hear a report from the convention delegates.

Landonville Items

Mr Quince Burgly took a nasty fall last Saturday as he was fixing his stove. He has been taken to the Elk Point hospital.

A whist drive and meeting will be held in the Louise Lake school on Friday evening. All the people in the district are invited to attend. There will be a few educational features and an election of officers before the whist party. [illegible]

Still Time To Receive Souvenir Scrolls

Thirteen Per Cent. Of Alberta Pioneers Still In The Province

Approximately 13% of the people living in Alberta in 1905 were alive to celebrate the 1955 golden jubilee ceremonies.

Figures released today by the Alberta Golden Jubilee committee indicate that 20,000 persons have received senior citizen scrolls, signifying their residence in Alberta during or prior to 1905. The population of the province in 1905 was about 185,000.

The distribution of senior citizen scrolls has now been completed, although applications will be [illegible] until the end of the year. An average of 15 applications a day continues to trickle in.

J. E. Plewes, administrator of the golden jubilee, urges anyone who lived in Alberta during or before 1905 and is still a resident of the province should make immediate application for a scroll. Requests should be sent to the Alberta Golden Jubilee Committee, Legislative Buildings, Edmonton.

Jehovah's Witnesses Report Successful Assembly Here

The Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses held at Vermilion on Dec. 2, 3 and 4 finished with a grand climax with the public address "Overcoming the Fears of this Generation" by C. E. Hepworth, a representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society. Speaking to a capacity audience at the Columbia theatre the speaker pointed out that Satan the god of this world, is the culprit and the one primarily responsible for the fears of this generation.

World authorities are aware that a marked change has taken place since 1914 and that nations can never return to pre-war days. the Bible and their fulfillment in the Bible find their fulfillment in our day. A sure indication that we are living in the last days of this system of things" said the speaker.

"Now is the time for rejoicing for the Kingdom for which Christians have long prayed for is here".

"Look beyond the present telescopic view to the time when disease, sickness, sorrow and death will be eliminated. No power will be able to stop the fulfillment of God's promised blessings of peace, health and life through His Kingdom under Christ", said the speaker.

Qualification for the ministry and being the right kind of minister, was the theme of the assembly. "The identifying features of a right kind of minister is his preaching activity". Also the purpose of the assembly was to increase and step up the door to door ministry with the use of the Bible to increase knowledge of what these world conditions mean and point people to God's New World of Righteousness. Educating others for life was a responsibility no witness of Jehovah can escape", he said.

In line with this theme many hundreds attended the free educational film 'New World Society in Action' at Mannville, Vilna, Elk Point, Ashmont, Hairy Hill and Hylo. In the near future many more localities will have the opportunity to see this wonderful and interesting film.

Following the main address Sunday afternoon, impressions on European conventions were given by delegates who attended one or more of these assemblies.

At the baptismal service Saturday afternoon held at the Elks hall, three new ministers were ordained. Mr D. M. Hosie, Circuit Servant for Central and Northern Alberta, brought to their attention their responsibility before God and the obligation resting on them to 'preach the good news of the Kingdom publicly and from house to house, as commanded by Jesus Christ."

A cafeteria and snack bar served the attenders very well.

Jehovah's Witnesses publicly thank the citizens of Vermilion for their hospitality and kindness shown toward the visiting delegates.

Higher Wheat Yields

These big wheat yields we have been having in recent years have not been altogether a matter of luck, and we are not flattering our wheat growers when we pretend that they are, states The Financial Post.

Since 1939 the long-term average yield per acre has been creeping up. In the 17 crops to 1955, only four have fallen well below 17 bushels per acre, five have been far above, and the average for the whole period has been well over 18 or about 20% better than prewar.

That development is not surprising. With the war came mechanization on a big scale. Crops went faster and were taken off faster. There was much less chance of weather damage.

In the old days much seed went into soil that had become too dry for good germination. It just wasn't possible to finish seeding in a matter of days as it is now. At the other end of the season snow and rain might damage much of the crop because there were not enough fine days for the long drawn out harvesting operations. Agricultural science in the form of earlier-maturing and rust-resisting strains has helped to boost production. So have weed killers and commercial fertilizers.

Barbara was born in Edmonton on May 29, 1941, and has lived in the Lakeshore district all her life. WILDMERE WINKS

Mr. and Mrs. F. Gibson and family enjoyed a dinner with Mrs. Gibson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ford of town, on the latter's 40th wedding anniversary on Nov. 17th. May this fine couple enjoy many more happy years together.

Laurence Graham who has been in Edmonton taking the Civil Defence Rescue course for the past two weeks [illegible] home on Saturday last. He really enjoyed the course and thinks others should take it, as you really learn a lot.

The Wildmere Curling rink has been a busy place lately, getting ice made so curling can get going. This week rinks will be playing at the Farmers' bonspiel in town on artificial ice. A lot of the curlers here have had no practice this fall yet but we wish them the best of luck.

We believe everyone had their ears on the radio Saturday to hear the football game. We were all pleased to hear the Esks win again and keep the Grey Cup in the west for another year.

Mrs. A. Holte and Mrs. Gibson of the Wildmere W.I. attended a Handicraft meeting in Vermilion on Saturday, and the list is now out so everyone can get busy during the winter months.

We were all sorry to hear Mrs. Fred Martin of Vermilion had contracted polio and all hope for a complete and speedy recovery. Her sister, Mrs. Rochford of Bowtell, has her baby during her illness. We are all thinking of you Florence.

J Wallington and A. Hozack attended an Agriculture Service board meeting at Regina.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ruud of Battleview on the birth of a baby daughter Dec. 2 at the local hospital.

Mrs. Cliff Cruthers and daughter Wendy returned home on Saturday after visiting for the past three weeks with her mother Mrs. Smith in Vancouver. She went out with brothers Bill and Adam who are spending the winter with their mother. Adam is busy helping at a curling rink and Bil does odd jobs around. Mrs. Cruthers visited with Mr and Mrs. Cairns while out there.

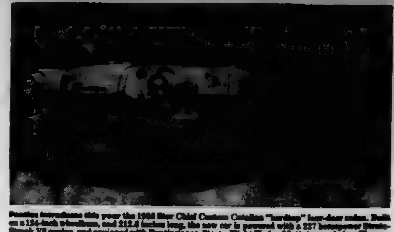
What does YOUR label read?



Pontiac introduces this year the 1956 Star Chief Custom Catalina "hardtop" four-door sedan. Built on a 124-inch wheelbase, and 212.6 inches long, the new car is powered with a 227 horsepower Strato-Streak V8 engine, and equipped with Pontiac's new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic transmission. The new four-door "hardtop" offers more spaciousness than ever before seen in a model of this type. The four-door "hardtop" is also available in the 870 and 860 series.

NO WINTER SHUT DOWN NOW

One doesn't have to have many grey hairs to remember when construction started to shut down tight in Canada as soon as the leaves commenced to fall. Times certainly have changed, says The Financial Post.

A DBS bulletin reports an 8% increase over the previous year in the number of housing starts in September. Most of the construction in these cases will be going on during the shortest and coldest days of the year.

We may like to pretend that Canadian winters are not as rugged as they used to be. But that's not the main reason for this steady increase in cold weather construction. It is due almost entirely to new building materials or processes — faster curing concrete is an example — and clothing that is light enough to permit work but which keeps out wind and cold.

Bodily Injury and Property Damage rates on Farm Trucks will be reduced in some cases up to 20%—reduction in Collision rates up to 10%.

CAR DRIVERS SET THEIR OWN INSURANCE RATES
Increased safety consciousness by Alberta motorists, together with improved highway safety measures and strict enforcement of driving laws, have resulted in fewer claims, thereby enabling "BOARD" Companies, members of The Western Canada Insurance Underwriters' Association, to bring about these substantial rate reductions.

Note—These rate changes apply only to policies becoming effective on or after January 1, 1956.

TEMPER, AND HOW TO CONTROL A CHILD'S OUTBURSTS

Temper is quite common at two years. Parents are often surprised when their 'little angel' of a year and a half or two years of age, begins to have temper spells. The baby's 'temper cry' means usually that the baby is hungry, or physically uncomfortable for any of a dozen reasons, and he is telling the world how he feels about it.

But there is a stage of development around two years of age, when the child is walking and talking, at which temper tantrums are especially common. At this age, even children who are usually placid will shatter the peace with angry outbursts.

What is happening is that your baby is becoming a person able to make his demands more clearly known. He is demanding his right to explore his expanding world and to make a few decisions for himself. While he is a helpless baby we expect him to behave as such, but when he begins to walk and talk we expect him suddenly to have almost as much self-control as an adult.

Anger and resistance are natural reactions to 'stop' signs. It is important that parents limit their controls over the child to the most necessary ones. If you restrict him excessively you can expect not only outbursts of temper throughout the early years, but a feeling of frustration that may lead to difficulties later.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO

When your child resists dressing, eating, or giving up some treasured object, two courses are open to you. One is to hold fast to your determination, thus creating even stronger resistance in him, the other way is to respect his resistance, to see the situation from his eyes, to try to appreciate and support his effort to 'do it myself'. If the job must be pushed through, a firm but friendly way of going about it is highly desirable. The resisting child can respect authority if it is not turned against him. To build a co-operative relationship with your child rather than an antagonistic one is the aim. It takes time, for the 'trial-and-error' ways of a small child are slow and fatiguing to an adult. There is no quick way out.

Even in the midst of a temper tantrum it is far better to take the child off to some quiet place with new objects of interest, not in isolation, but with an adult close by — an adult who is available and understanding. Security is what he lacks when he loses control of himself. Punishment only increases his feeling of insecurity.

Preventing temper spells is far better for all concerned than having to cure them. Hunger and fatigue make such outbursts more likely to happen — so be sure your child is getting enough sleep and having his meals on time. He has a strong need for play materials suited to his development and for the companionship of other children of his own age just as much as he needs the right kind of food. Repeating 'bad' and 'naughty' to your child is to be avoided.

HE NEEDS HIS ENERGY

The early temper spells disappear for a period of time, but usually re-appear in bold fashion sometime during the 4 and 5 year old period. The new outbursts, following a period of more controlled behaviour, are indications of new growth and are not a 'back track'. In this period parents tend to become exasperated and a more rigid control usually goes into force. "Surely by four and a half he should be able to put away his toys," a mother says. In fact, his new laziness and resistance stem from a hundred new interests and abilities that he has just grown into. From his point of view there isn't time to pick up his toys. He needs his energy to explore these new interests.

Affectionate assistance for him at this age may prevent displays of temper and a feeling of hatred of his parents. It can help him to become more responsible, as a result of which he will voluntarily take hold of many responsibilities during his 5th and 6th years.

If his temper spell causes an outburst on your part, it will only increase his opposition. Give him plenty of attention at other times, talking to him and spending more time in his company. When it is obvious that he is trying to make you give in to his wishes by a temper spell, it may be advisable to isolate him for a few minutes. And don't worry if he yells, 'I hate you!' He will get over this habit of talking back, because he will eventually copy his parents example of courtesy. He will learn to master his tongue also because he wants to be liked by his companions. It is possible to love and hate at the same time and it is better that your child express his hate. If you curb him too sharply on this point he may become sullen.

SET A GOOD EXAMPLE

Prevent anger from becoming a serious handicap to your child. As an adult you can't afford to have a 'hair trigger' temper exploding every time things go badly. Avoid this type of behaviour in your child by setting a good example. See to it that he does not meet too many frustrations in early life. Be sure that his training and his opportunities are suited to his age level.

Anger is not something that you can eradicate from a child's nature, but you can help him to manage it.

Although a [illegible] storm kept most of the people at home on Friday night, the few who did come out to the dance sponsored by Louise Lake pupils, had a wonderful time. The pupils and parents tried everything from Modern square dancing to the Bunny Hop, Butterfly and old timers like the Charleston and Four Step. Madoline Benemiller's orchestra supplied the music and Mr. Butz called the square dances. Another dance will be held a little later and it is hoped that weather will be a little better.

A whist party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nettleton on Saturday, Nov. 26 where a wonderful time was had by all. The male card sharps were Mr. Glovitski, Mr. A Melnyk and Mr. E. Heineman. Miss Sonia Glovitski, Mrs. Heineman and Mrs. Etherington were the lady winners.

Mr. Norman Stanley is now working in Edmonton. Mrs. Stanley is looking after the farm while the children attend school.

Mrs. Phil Smith made a quick trip to the hospital last week end. She is now resting at home with a slight case of pleurisy.

Children of Louise Lake school are busy writing exams. The senior room members have been square dancing each Friday, but this Friday they are going to start working on puppets.

BASHWOOD DANCE

There will be a dance at Bashwood sponsored by the Wildmere Bashwood W.I.G.C. on Dec. 28. Everyone is welcome. 23

WHEAT TROPHY GOES WEST— Robert Cochrane, pioneer farmer at Grande Prairie, Alta., has been proclaimed the new world wheat king at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. In his absence, Hon. L. C. A. Metcalf, of Montreal, C.N.R. traffic vice-president. Pretty Olga Petry, "Miss Super Continental" was on hand to dispatch the awards aboard the crack trans-continental train.

APHID DAMAGE TO GRAIN

Following the fairly extensive outbreak of aphids during the past season, several observers in Western Canada have suggested that certain varieties of oats and barley appear to be less affected by this insect than others. Whether or not this has been a common experience, it is not known but entomologists agree that it is quite possible that aphids do show a preference for certain varieties, some of which may be more palatable to them than others. They point out too, that the stage of maturity of the plant has a good deal to do with how vulnerable it may be at the time an outbreak occurs.

In the past, quite long intervals have occurred during which aphids did not appear and were not a problem, thus it has not been possible to follow their habits closely season by season. However, should this insect show a tendency to occur more frequently, it is likely that a good deal more attention will be paid to a study of its feeding habits and preferences, if any; and it is conceivable that plant breeders might some day be forced to investigate the possibility of breeding for resistance to this insect.

A good deal of work has been done already on the feeding habits of grasshoppers and here it has been definitely established that certain species of grasshoppers prefer certain types of plants or varities and that their ability or inability to obtain what we might call their 'preferred diet' does influence the manner in which they thrive as well as the number of eggs which they lay. This whole field, therefore, provides an interesting opportunity for further observation and study.

FARMERS - WAKE UP

Hunting pheasants down around Souris, Manitoba, I saw car loads of wheat stored in the fields. When it seemed certain I would get no pheasants, I decided I'd at least have some wheat to take home to my wife. Nora was raised on a farm and when she was a youngster she liked to chew wheat until it turned to gum.

So I bought a bag to take home. Nora washed it and let it dry out in our back yard. Our children are learning to chew it like gum. Bill took some to school and a classmate, a Ukrainian lad, asked him for some to take home to his mother. She makes a swell Ukrainian dish of boiled wheat with sugar and poppy seeds. My bag of wheat is the talk of the neighborhood. It seems everybody in the city wants a bit for some purpose or another.

I am sure some smart farmer could make a pretty penny fast. Wash up a few bushels of plump wheat. Put it in one-pound transparent packages. Peddle it door to door in cities and towns, with a few recipes for its use. (Write me for recipes if you like, in care of the Standard). I think he'd sell it at mighty good prices. Along our street he'd have no trouble getting forty cents a pound.

Farmers just don't seem to have any merchandising instinct. Look at the ads in your paper. Everything else under the sun advertised — but never a good ad about butter or cheese or eggs and the like. Editors sometimes run free publicity for such protein food — but this needs following up with hard-hitting and persuasive display advertising.

In my opinion most farm organizations need a good shakeup. They try to force people to buy farm products. Why not persuade them with smart ads?

I refuse to eat twice at a restaurant dishing out tiny daubs of butter. There should be a series of ads letting folk know the war is over and that they are entitled to insist on generous servings of butter at restaurants. But farmers themselves meekly accept little dabs that won't cover pee-wee buns!

Farmers, wake up! You are proud of modern production methods. Match them with modern selling!

Will fertilizing pay on my farm?
Yes! in my work as an agriculturalist I've found fertilizer to be an important part of good farming.
Agriculturalists, and over 100,000 prairie farmers, have learned from experience that fertilizing means better farming and bigger profits. Besides increased yields, farmers who fertilize reap additional benefits in earlier harvesting, improved quality, and control of weeds. Municipal Districts Convene In Edmonton -- 32 Resolutions Dealt With Over 250 delegates attended the 47th annual convention of the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts which was held in the Macdonald Hotel, Edmonton, for three days, November 16, 17 and 18.

Councillors for the M. D. of Vermilion River who were present at the convention were: John Anderson, Dewberry; J. Wallington, Vermilion; P. McGuigan, Islay; Tom Baldwin, Onion Lake; J. Kelly, Kitscoty; R. D. Heath, Paradise Valley, and Jim Stone, Wildwood. J. Batty and J. Currie of Kitscoty also were in attendance. Castle Scott, RR1 Vermilion, was one of the councillors of the Minburn M.D. who were present at the Edmonton meetings.

Because of the policy of co-operative purchasing through the buying division of the Alberta municipal districts, the Vermilion River M.D. was able to save $1,454.70 in obtaining goods and materials.

Some 32 resolutions were dealt with on a wide variety of subjects such as road widening, weather modification, weed control, road grants, culvert installation, road bans, the P.F.A., Assessment Act, M.D. Act, road signs, rat control, etc.

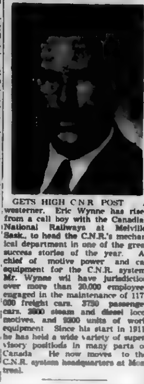
A resolution from Vermilion River M.D. No. 71 on Prairie Farm Assistance, asking for increased amounts, as outlined in the Standard some time ago, was defeated by a small margin after very little discussion. Defeat seemed to come from one man's determination, that as the assistance stands it is better than nothing, so let's not lose what we have, regardless of the unfairness of it.

Something new to many was the weather modification resolution. This was explained by a man of authority on the subject. It now seems possible to stop drought and hail by seeding clouds with dry ice or other material. This would do a great deal to improve yields in the district so treated. The resolution asked that a mill rate be allowed, to be charged against farm assessment to cover the cost of such weather modification. If this is to be allowed in future under the act, a two-thirds majority of ratepayer farmers must be in favor of the project in the designated district.

Mr John J Brownlee, Q.C., solicitor for the M.D. Association, spent almost half a day in explanation of the legal aspects of various M.D. problems. He dealt with such subjects as rock damage to motor vehicles, pound cases, the Line Fence Act, the Domestic Animals Act, stock piling of grain in open fields, road hazards, etc.

The convention was interesting and many of the councillors had an opportunity to hear of the problems of other districts. This information should prove helpful in dealing with administrative problems that arise in the future.

Gets High C.N.R. Post



GETS HIGH C.N.R. POST — A westerner, Eric Wynne has risen from a call boy with the Canadian National Railways at Melville, Sask., to head the C.N.R.'s mechanical department in one of the great success stories of the year. As chief of motive power and car equipment for the C.N.R. system, Mr. Wynne will have jurisdiction over more than 20,000 employees engaged in the maintenance of 117,000 freight cars, 3750 passenger cars, 2800 steam and diesel locomotives, and 9200 units of work equipment. Since his start in 1911, he has held a wide variety of supervisory positions in many parts of Canada. He now moves to the C.N.R. system headquarters at Montreal.

NEWS from ISLAY

The Islay 4-H Sewing club met Wednesday evening Nov. 23 at the home of Vera Budzilka. The usual formalities were read and the roll call given in stitches. The treasurer read her report. Next meeting is Dec. 14. Names were drawn for Christmas presents. We read in the Etiquette book how to conduct a business meeting. Demonstration on care of the face and on making of cold cream was given by Vera. Linda Redmond moved a vote of thanks to Vera and her mother Mrs. Budzilka for the delicious lunch and use of their home.

Hi there Donald Millward, way out in warm B.C., how goes the music and grade 9? Hope you make the grade and get the Governor-General's medal.

We heard Mr McGuffin's service from Grace United church, Lloydminster last Sunday, over North Battleford station. Rev. Mr. Smith took Communion service on his field that Sunday. Mr Reeves of Lloydminster will occupy Knox pulpit next Sunday. Mr McGuffin is being married but he will be home to take service again on Dec. 18 at 7:30 in the evening. All other services are as usual at 3 in the afternoon.

Mrs Ken Reid has her father Mr. Glazner visiting with her and the family this week. Mr Glazner comes from Riley.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Redmond had a birthday party for Mrs Redmond's father, Mr James Barnett, his 71st; a most happy time was had.

Noticed Dave Hanna in town one day recently, and he is getting used to his artificial leg. The very cold weather has kept him at home at brother Charlie's.

Noticed Dalt Torrance with a car now, in place of his second truck. Saw him start away Tuesday morning with a truckload of cattle. It seems as if he is hauling quite a number these days.

Bill McLean had two cars of coal on track. It soon disappeared and at that all customers did not get enough. If more people would put in some coal early in the fall there wouldn't be such scramble for coal when the weather turns cold. It was some cheaper too in August.

Another pioneer has passed on, Mrs John Young of Red Deer on Thursday Nov 24 and funeral was held Monday. Mr and Mrs Young came up to this area from Sibbald, a dry area, farmed north-west of here for a time and then moved in to Islay about 1911. In 1949 they left here to reside with their daughter Mrs. Trussler at Red Deer. Mr Young passed away last summer. A son, Bill Young, farms close by Dewberry. The Youngs came from Ontario back about 1912 to the south country and saw the [illegible] hard [illegible] here in Islay when they moved away.

Incidentally the antlered big game season is shaping up as one of the best in recent years according to all reports. The season was closed on deer and moose for the last two years and hunters are finding them in great numbers. From reports received at checking stations to date Alberta may even produce a record trophy before the season is over.

Meeting held at the home of Mrs. Frank Gibson on Nov. 2 with an attendance of 17 members and one visitor.

Woollen blankets from Fairfield's were distributed to those who had ordered them. Mrs. Opal Hughes will convene the committee in charge of the district Xmas concert. Two charter members who are leaving the district, Mrs. Hazel Batke, moving to B.C., and Mrs. Whitlock, to Vermilion, were presented with parting gifts. 'Home and Country' subscriptions were renewed. The topic for the day was 'Ceylon', given by Mrs. Opal Hughes. A bake sale was planned for Nov. 12. Members planned to help Mrs. Batke with her auction sale. The nursing course is progressing nicely, proving very interesting, and attended by twelve Wildmere and four Battleview women.

FIVE POINT

Mrs. Wm. McCauley was hostess to this meeting on Nov. 7, with 8 members and three visitors attending. The visitors were Mrs. Wm. Kuchik, Mrs. P. Hawley and Mrs. G. Enfield.

An item relevant to Armistice day was given as a roll call response. This group will help the Mannville library by donating the lunch for a tea to be held and $5 toward bingo prizes for its benefit. A campaign was suggested which it was hoped would eliminate undesirable publications from local newsstands. Other local W. I. branches are to be contacted in connection with this movement. Mrs. Summers won the birthday draw.

PRINCESS ANNE

This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. W. J. McIntyre on Nov. 7th with thirteen members in attendance. The roll call was answered by a donation of one quart of a home canned product to be used in the W.I. draw. The handicraft list was presented by Mrs. G. Richardson and some slight changes were suggested. The invitation from the Vermilion W. I. to a pot luck supper was enthusiastically accepted. A discussion on donations followed, and it was agreed that for the time being the donations be limited to A.W.I. projects, (a) 25c from each member for the A.C.W.W. travel fund; (b) $5 to the A.W.I. fund. A card party at Campbell Lake school was arranged for Nov. 18. The topic was a talk by Mrs. R. Mead, constituency convener, for a 'Strong Civil Defence Organization', and how it fits in with the slogan of the W.I., 'For Home & Country'.

RAMSAY

This W.I. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Thos. Henderson on Nov. 9th with an attendance of six members and one visitor.

The roll call 'What I Was Doing When I Was 20', showed 3 teachers, 1 nurse in training, 2 housewives. A letter of thanks was received from Mrs. Ruttan of Mannville in connection with the Typewriter fund. A $4 donation was made to the Mannville Library fund. Arrangements were made for a bake sale Nov. 12. A letter from Mrs. Mead was read and discussed. It was felt by this branch that the monthly report and newsletter should be in the Mannville Mirror in order to reach all W.I. branches. The handicraft list was read and discussed. The topic was an excellent talk and demonstration on 'Huck Weaving' given by Mrs. R. Jory of Vermilion. Mrs. Jory also showed some interesting felt work samples.

CLAYSMORE

The meeting of this branch was held on Nov. 9th in Claysmore school and was attended by eight members and three visitors, Mrs. G. Richardson, Mrs. F. West and Mrs. R. Mead, all from the Princess Anne branch.

The roll call was an interesting item on India. Mrs. O. Willies presented a Viewmaster film as her contribution. A letter of thanks for a basket of fruit was read from Miss Donna McCauley, a recent hospital patient. The handicraft list was read and discussed. This branch is donating $15 to the Mannville Arena fund. Plans were made to hold a Xmas concert at Claysmore school on Dec. 16. A talk was given by Mrs. R. Mead in response to a request by the Claysmore branch on general information on W.I. dues, projects, etc. Many points were cleared up that had not been quite clear to this comparatively young branch.

SAULTAUX

This meeting, attended by six members and two visitors was held on Nov. 9th at the home of Mrs. L. S. Smith. The two visitors were Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Pheasey. A $5 donation to UNESCO was raised by having two Ho-Bo teas. The A.W.I. projects were all responded to, $5 to the Rheumatism & Arthritic fund, $5 to the A.W.I. fund, $2.50 to the Travel fund. Mrs. Smith enclosed a letter explaining their Xmas project. Instead of spending the usual $2 each on toys for orphans and crippled children they plan on sending a Xmas [illegible] to a family in England. The mother in this family is a W.I. member and known to several of the Saultaux ladies. The family has suffered severe illnesses and misfortunes and there is likely to be little left for Xmas festivities.

CREIGHTON

Mrs. R. Wagner had this meeting in her home on Nov. 10th with an attendance of nine members.

A letter of thanks was read from Mrs. Ruttan in connection with the donation to the Typewriter fund.

This branch also requested that the newsletter and report by the constituency convener appear in the Mannville Mirror, as a monthly feature. Plans were made for a bake sale Nov. 14th.

HAZELDINE

The first monthly meeting of the Hazeldine Branch was held on Nov. 15th at the home of the president, Mrs. E. Trimming, with all sixteen members and the constituency convener present. Meetings were set for the first Tuesday of every month at 8:30 p.m. Correspondence included a letter of welcome from Mrs. Prendergast, provincial secretary, who had sent them their supplies.

The handicraft list was read and discussed. Standing committees and their work were explained by Mrs. R. Mead as well as other phases of W.I. work. Directors of the branch, and conveners of all standing committees were appointed.

WILDMERE BEAVERS

This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Bowman, the assistant supervisor on Nov. 21st. The roll call was answered by donating 10 cents to the snow suit fund for Marjorie Golinsky (I might explain here that Marjorie Golinsky is a little blind and deaf girl who has been adopted by the A.W.I. Girls' clubs. They have sent many gifts to her to taste feel and smell, as well as encouraging letters and money to buy things she wants — Ura. Cury.)

The treasurer's report showed $6 on hand. W.I.G.C. pins were presented to Hazel Whitlock, Janet Cruthers and Sylvia Steele.

VERMILION

This meeting was held in the Legion kitchen with 14 members and 14 visitors in attendance. The visitors included the Princess Anne branch invited to a pot luck supper.

Mrs. Perrier, the treasurer, is leaving on an extended holiday in the east and Mrs. O. Clarke will be in charge of the books. Mrs. J. McCaig and Mrs. Perrier will attend committee meeting on Nov. 26. The handicraft list was read and discussed. W. I. Pins were presented to Mrs. Maddox who joined the W.I. at Lea Park in 1910 and to the treasurer, Mrs. Perrier.

Mrs. R. Reeves, one of our visitors, won the mystery box.

The meeting closed with the very beautiful Mizpah benediction, "May the Lord watch between thee and me, while we are absent one from the other."

The constituency convener's letter will follow in the next issue of The Standard.

Improved performance and a freshness in styling that extends throughout the three series of passenger cars headline advances in 1956 Chevrolets. The nine-passenger station wagons and two four-door sport sedans will be new-comers among 19 models. Front ends will be made more rugged appearing in a re-design of grille and forward sheet metal. Models have a lower, longer look. New colours, unique two-toning and tasteful interiors give each of the series complete distinction. Engine choices include V8s and a more powerful six cylinder.

Modern lines of the 1956 Chevrolets are evident in the above view of the Bel Air sport sedan. Frontal appearance has been smartly altered by new sheet metal and brightwork.

Resolution Asked For Dividends To Replace Increased Grants

EDMONTON. — Delegates to the Social Credit League convention in Calgary last week may have been just day-dreaming when they passed a resolution asking the government to consider direct dividend payment to citizens from natural resources revenue.

On the other hand, they may have been serving the provincial government in a function which is commonly called "flying a kite" — putting forth a controversial or radical idea for the purpose of testing public reaction.

According to the resolution, the dividend payments to individual citizens would be made instead of continuing to increase government grants to municipalities. With the dividend payments, citizens would be able to afford higher taxes, and that would take care of municipal financial problems, according to the Social Crediters.

The resolution may have added significance in the light of a statement made by Premier Manning last year, when he read the budget address. The Premier hinted that at some time in the future the government might consider paying "citizens' participation dividends" in lieu of increased assistance to municipalities.

If the idea was to obtain public reaction, it got quick results. On Thursday of last week, the executive of the Union of Alberta Municipalities met in Edmonton and turned thumbs down on the proposal. The group, which represents Alberta cities and towns, passed a resolution asking the government to increase grants to the municipalities.

Talk of dividends always recalls the promise of 'basic dividends' made by the Social Credit party just before it swept to power in 1935. However, from the statements of Mr. Manning and the Social Credit resolution, there would appear to be a marked difference.

The dividends promised in 1935 were based on Social Credit monetary theories, and would have involved an extension of credit directly proportional to the production of goods in Alberta.

"Participation dividends" would merely give the individual citizen a direct share in the money earned from the administration of Alberta's natural resources.

When the premier spoke about dividends last year, he said they would provide another source of revenue for municipalities, and would prevent them becoming too dependent upon the provincial government for financial aid. In addition, he said, the individual citizen would feel he was deriving direct benefit from Alberta's oil and gas.

There has been no comment from Premier Manning since the resolution was passed. If the government is considering dividends, the big question is: 'How much will the individual receive'?

It could hardly be $25 a month as mentioned by Social Credit in the 1930's, as that would certainly amount to too much even for oil-rich Alberta.

Let's look at it on the basis of what the province estimates it will spend during the current fiscal year on direct and indirect aid to municipalities. The figure in the estimates is almost $67,000,000. On the basis of a population of one million, that would come to nearly $67 a year for every man, woman and child.

However, even if the government is considering such a scheme, there is no way of knowing in advance what sort of formula might be devised for making payments. Undoubtedly, the premier will have something to say about the matter in the near future.

When considering any kind of increased assistance to municipalities, the government must wonder where it will get the money. According to the public accounts for the last fiscal year, released recently, the province had to take $12,864,795 from its reserve fund to make ends meet.

However, it must be pointed out that Premier Manning's government has been anxious to begin exporting Alberta gas as quickly as possible, and here is another potential source of great revenue which could keep the pot boiling for some time, possibly until municipal financial problems get back to normal. Whatever happens, the idea is interesting, and Albertans will be awaiting further word from the capital.

NO COLORED 'MARGY'

Reports from Calgary say there was 'heated debate' over resolutions from Edmonton and Calgary SC groups asking the government to permit the sale of colored margarine. However, the 300-odd delegates unanimously rejected the proposal after Hon. L. C. Halmrast, minister of agriculture, said that it would be a distinct threat to butter sales and thereby harm the dairy industry. There must have been substantial difference of opinion, since the debate lasted for an hour, but apparently Mr. Halmrast convinced even those who sponsored the resolution to vote against it.

It's harder than ever to make money

. . . To print your own, that is. The Bank of England has made the counterfeiter's lot an even unhappier one by pressing a thin strip of aluminum foil into the paper used for making bank notes. Seems the do-it-yourself enthusiasts find it virtually impossible to duplicate.

It is nice to think that there will probably be a little bit of Canada wherever this new paper currency circulates. Great Britain imports 50% of her aluminum from Canada, and it is one of the major markets for Canadian aluminum.

Dewberry Couple Honored On Silver Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday, Nov. 18 a reception in honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parker was held in the Greenlawn hall.

The evening's entertainment was the new modern square dancing which the Parker's enjoy so much, being members of a club.

Friends and relatives were present from Hardisty, Irma, Mannville and all local points to wish them congratulations on the occasion. After the entertainment the Parkers were presented with a lovely stainless pot and pan set by friends of the community.

Headley and Vic Dennill attended the banquet of the Lloydminster Fish and Game Association last week.

The Frank Bowman hunting party [illegible] left for the tall timbers again [illegible] west of Edson.

[illegible] Dennill hunting party came back recently from the big game country with moose, elk and deer.

John Whiteside and Mrs. McKay motored to Edmonton to attend the funeral of their aunt Mrs. Wyn.

F.U.A. DRIVE SUCCESSFUL

The membership drive of the Dewberry F.U.A. was quite successful again. Only a few refused to join while some found money too scarce and did not wish to help mould the future security of the farmer. The Dewberry F.U.A. will hold their annual open dance in Dewberry hall Dec. 16. The purpose of this dance is to raise money for operation of the local and sending delegates to conventions. The Dewberry F.U.A. also sponsors the free showing of National Film Board movies to the public once a month.

CURLING, SKATING UNDERWAY

Curling should be underway this week while the skating rink is now open and that pastime is in full swing.

DEWBERRY H. & S.

Dewberry Home and School will have another party night on Dec. 9th in the school. Everyone is welcome.

NEW CARS APPEAR

Noticed Tom West with a new Ford and Vernon Keast with a new Plymouth.

Rah, Rah, Rah, for those Esks. Many people are now very keen over football who have taken no particular interest in other years.

A good amount of snow is on hand and a heavy blow right at the present would be disastrous to our side roads.

BETTER ROAD TO VERMIL

Considerable amount of mileage on new highway 45 is gravelled and it now proves a better road to Vermilion than other routes, though a little longer.

AFTER THE COYOTES

Allen Bensmiller is out on the coyote trails again with his hounds. Harvey Bowman is proving dangerous to this pest once more with his trusty 30-30. Also noticed Wally Curtis bowling a coyote over with his rifle — safer than kicking them aye Wally!

Carol Concert To Feature A Variety of Christmas Music

At the Carol concert being presented on Sunday Dec. 11th in the Columbia theatre you will hear "The Coventry Carol". This carol is quite ancient, the text being by Robert Croo, 1534. The Coventry plays were witnessed as early as 1456 by Margaret, Queen of Henry VI. The modern version of the tune is changed a little in the time, from the original tune of 1591. This song is sung by the women of Bethlehem in the play, just before Herod's soldiers come to slay their children.

You will also hear a rather delightful arrangement of "I Saw Three Ships". No carol concert would be complete without the descriptive "Deck the Hall"—

"Deck the hall with boughs of holly,
'Tis the season to be jolly,
Don we now our gay apparel,
While we troll the Yuletide carol,
See the blazing Yule before us" . . .

All these gay words go to describe one of the happy Christmas eve's that many of us sit and dream of. It is a gay and spirited song like many of the songs of Welsh origin.

You will hear "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing", which was written by Charles Wesley who was one of the most prolific of hymn writers.

You will hear these and twelve more at the carol concert on Dec. 11th in the Columbia theatre at 9 p.m. Ticket holders only will be admitted until the concert starts at 9 p.m. Tickets are available from members of the choir and from the Stagettes. All of the proceeds are for the Xmas Cheer fund which is being operated this year by the Stagettes. Do not be disappointed, get your tickets now and be assured of a seat.

HERE'S WHY . . .
You Should Buy your USED CAR Now!

1—When new models are announced, many owners change cars and this brings the greatest number of good used cars to the market in the Fall
2—The greatest factor in depreciation of a car is the introduction of new models. A used car bought now will depreciate only half as rapidly as cars bought in the spring.
3—By buying a Used Car now you will get 12 months use of it before it's another year old.
4—You get a car that will stand the hazards of winter driving and comfortable
5—You'll save the repair and maintenance expense on your present car. You and your family will enjoy safer driving and eliminate expensive accidents due to mechanical weakness of an older car
6—You'll have a car that is sure to run properly and economically all through the cold weather.
7—You'll have a car with tight doors and up-to-date ventilation to give you greater comfort and protection from dangerous drafts
8—By summer your car will be half paid for and you'll have more money for vacation trips.
9—The modern finishes used the last few years have kept used cars looking new
10—Today, highways and streets are kept open for winter driving, so you have plenty of opportunity to enjoy and use a good car now
11—Prices are lower in the fall because dealers write off what it would cost to carry cars over until spring.
12—Dealers sell twice as many Used Cars as new ones and therefore cater to and satisfy the Used-Car Customer.
13—Used Cars now are better than ever before. All cars built during the last several years are modern cars.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Dec. 14th, 1939

Anyone who has not visited the arena rink gymnasium this fall should do so for their own enlightenment. They will certainly be agreeably surprised. The good work of improving the big gym started several years ago by a badminton club, was continued last year and what was not done then has been accomplished this fall, due to the co-operation of the town council, aided and abetted by P. T. classes under Miss Eleanor Dunsmore and A. L. Macumber, assisted greatly by the genial caretaker, Arthur Snape.

Business affairs of the Vermilion Tennis club have been wound up for the year 1939 and Secretary Ashley Cooper announces that the club is in the healthiest condition of any year since the new courts were constructed in 1932. The club numbered 62 members.

The Texaco Co. of Canada is enlarging its present holdings in Vermilion by the immediate construction of a brick and tile garage, size 48 by 50 feet with a 14-foot wall. The new garage is being built as an extension to the present fine Texaco service station on 1st street south and will allow for an up-to-date workshop, storage space and the carrying on of a general garage business.

Anyone trying to keep pace with the improvements being effected at the Columbia theatre during the last year or two would be a very busy person indeed — for no sooner has the hustling manager, W. P. Pilkie, completed one change than he goes on to another.

Just to prove that we really are enjoying summer weather in December, the weatherman opened up about 1:30 a.m. last Saturday and sent down a deluge of nearly one-half inch of rain. This filled soft water tanks for which many are thankful but also covered the roads with a coating of extremely slick ice.

From Cummings Flashes: Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Samuelson on their wedding which took place in Vermilion on Dec. 1. They are making their home in this district

Big Building Job

If Canada could meet all current needs in school, hospital, highway and other public works, federal, provincial and municipal governments would spend an additional $800 millions a year for the next ten years, estimates The Financial Post. There is plenty of work available with which to prime the pump in case of any future decline of the current record-breaking construction pace

Big Blizzard of '55 Blocks Roads, Disrupts Schools, Communications

The big blizzard of 1955 swept across Alberta from west to east practically unheralded on Monday morning and gathered momentum as it travelled. The ultimate result was blizzard conditions prevailing for thirty hours, from 7:00 o'clock Monday morning to 3:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Winds of a steady velocity of 42 miles per hour were registered at the beam station here with gusts up to a possible 50 miles per hour. The strongest winds were at noon on Monday. 6.8 inches of snow fell which the high wind whipped into drifts up to four feet deep around town and much deeper in the country, and packed these solid; visibility was reduced to practically nil even during the daylight, by the driving snow. Steadily dropping temperatures saw the mercury sink from 16 above Monday morning to 11 below that night with a further drop to 20 below Tuesday.

Drifts very effectively blocked highways stopping motor and bus transportation, plugged up railway right of ways caused trains to run as much as 14 hours late and cars and trucks by the score were abandoned along roads.

School children were brought in from the country Monday morning as no storm warnings were flashed across the country even though the big blow hit Edmonton at 4:00 a.m., and as blizzard conditions increased during the day as many as possible were rushed back to their farm homes.

At Dewberry and Derwent all the children were kept right in the villages, housed and taken care of by citizens and school carried on as usual.

All meetings were cancelled for Monday and Tuesday, and activities, including Christmas shopping, came to a standstill. Things began to return a little to normal around the town on Wednesday and Thursday with the public works department doing a heroic job of clearing the huge drifts from the streets, and milder temperatures being enjoyed. Travelling conditions are now a major problem about the country, especially off the highways.

Schools Close Friday, Dec. 23

Schools in Vermilion school division will close on Friday afternoon, Dec. 23rd for the Christmas holidays. They will re-open on Tuesday morning, January 3rd, 1956.

Blizzard Briefs

There was a blizzard in Vermilion this week. The rest of Alberta, and Saskatchewan also felt the effects. Here are some of the predicaments that the people of Vermilion and district had to face —

On Tuesday morning, after a day and night of high winds and drifting, driving snows Mr and Mrs Bob Allen were snug in their house. So snug in fact, that, due to drifts piled up to their back door and the front door being frozen tight, they were unable to get out of their house. Fortunately, they were able to phone and a good-hearted neighbor, W. R. Staden, came over and dug out the back door sufficiently so that the Allens could emerge.

• • •

North and west of Vermilion, well out in the country, at a farm home which was truly isolated, even the phone lines were down, a son was born during the height of the storm to Mr and Mrs. Ralph Strome. It is fortunate to be able to report that this brave family came through their ordeal well. Both mother and baby are doing fine and father is convalescing nicely.

• • •

Meetings were called off in every direction all the way from the littlest Cubs to the keenest curlers just took it for granted that, once at home, there they would stay.

• • •

Mr and Mrs. Bob Tidsbury and family were in Edmonton for the week end. They had planned to come back to Vermilion Monday afternoon, but a glance at the weather was sufficient to persuade them that another 24 hours in the city would be the safest policy. On their return to Vermilion on Tuesday they didn't encounter any snow to speak of across the road until they reached Claysmore. And it wasn't until the actual town limits on highway 16 were reached that there were any really large drifts

• • •

Mrs. Bill Cross came into Vermilion Monday morning from their farm home in company with Dave Chase who is employed there. Hilda was on her way to Edmonton, but decided to stay over in town until Tuesday when she motored to the city. She was concerned about Dave getting back to the farm with the truck. He left Monday afternoon, but it has since been discovered that he only got six miles on his way when the truck stalled. A hospitable farm home took him in for the night, and then next day he walked 12 miles to get to the Cross farm where Bill Cross was without phone, car or truck and had no help with the farm chores.

• • •

There were four travellers coming from the west, to Vermilion where they planned to stay over night. They got as far as the college and although they were so close, could not reach the town. They were given shelter at the School of Agriculture.

• • •

The biggest drift of all the 120 miles from Vermilion to Edmonton was right on the town's west boundary, across highway 16, near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dibben. By actual count it took the snow plow 12 runs at it to get through. The untouched parts of the drift were over 6 feet in height right on the hardtop road.

• • •

There were at least 25 school children from the rural points around Vermilion who were unable to get to their homes over Monday night. Thanks are extended to those who made their homes available to these children. Julius Mueller's bus route seemed to be about the worst hit by the storm and he had to bring several of his load back on Monday as he was unable to complete his route. By Wednesday morning two busses delivered school children but each of them had only partial loads.

• • •

Three small boys, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blyan living in the Chatsworth school district, were unable to reach their home, so through arrangements made by the School board they were fed and housed in one of the Vermilion hotels. They thoroughly enjoyed 'being kings for a day'.

• • •

Johnny Maxwell who has a school bus route made arrangements for someone else to drive his bus while he attempted to take part of the bus load home in his own car. In the almost zero visibility on the road north of town he had a slight collision with another vehicle: no one was hurt but some scraped fenders resulted. Peering through the driving snowflakes Johnny found, adding insult to injury, that his own bus had run into his own car!

• • •

At Myrtle Hill, out of Kitscoty, the school bus was able to get within three miles of its destination, but at that point it was necessary to give up the struggle and farm hospitality solved the lodging problem.

• • •

It will be noticed that the Standard looks devoid of news from the rural correspondents. No rural mail deliveries have been available. The news of the district is sorely missed and it is hoped that the stories from the rural writers will come in shortly so that all can be assured that everything is all right again.

• • •

Extending from the front of Fred Richardson's office, along the main street sidewalk as far east as Kupin's grocery, was a drift of at least three feet in height. Fortunately the swirling snow left a narrow margin between drift and store fronts. Since the streets on Monday and Tuesday were something less than crowded it was no hardship for the pedestrians to walk single file.

• • •

In the stores of Vermilion on Tuesday morning the customers were so scarce that each was welcomed and hailed with delight, in fact, treated like a blessed event.

• • •

At one farm there were 54 pigs sheltered in a building normally quite adequate for their use. But the severity of the wind blew the snow through cracks around a window, forcing the pigs to take shelter in a warmer corner of the building. The consequent pile-up of pigs resulted in the death of 37 of them by smothering. A most unfortunate occurrence.

• • •

For the first time in many years there was a brisk demand at one of the local hardware stores for cutter gears and horse blankets. Their headquarter's store asked them for any such articles that they had in stock, but they were already sold out. It seems that many parts of the country were back to relying on the good old horse and cutter as a means of transportation. However the hardware is still retaining its inventory of automobile accessories!

• • •

The V.S.A. truck kept to most of its regular runs between college and town. But the driver, Arnie Winters, had his problems. On Monday at 5 p.m. when it was necessary to bring Mrs. Bell, the secretary, and Mrs. S. C. Acheson, an instructress, plus the mail downtown. Arnie loaded up the back of the truck with about eight V.S.A. students for ballast and manpower, just in case. The trips down and back were made through the summerfallowed field to the south of highway 16, across from the fair grounds. Visibility was completely non-existent at times, with only short intervals when it was possible to take a bearing by the lights in the campus houses. That field by the way was really rough and frozen mighty hard!

• • •

On the lighter side. There were members in one household in town who went to bed Monday night snug and warm, but a little concerned as to how they were going to get out their doors next morning because the snow was drifted tight against them, and it looked like a big shovelling job. However, when they got up in the morning by some freak of the shifting wind, their walks had completely blown free again.

Mrs. Thomas Crisp Passes Away

Mrs. Frances Chrisp, beloved wife of Mr. Thomas Chrisp, passed away at the Vermilion hospital on Sunday morning, November 11th. She had been ill since midsummer. Mrs. Chrisp who had lived in Vermilion since the year 1913, was 72 years of age.

Funeral services will be held at St. Saviour's Anglican church on Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with interment in the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. K. A. Minchin will officiate.

Mrs. Chrisp was born Frances Bell at Wark, Northumberland, England, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bell. Her mother was Jane Forster, the great-great-great-great grand niece of the heroine in the historical book called "Jane Forster". This is a true story of English history centring around Jane Forster. One of the cherished keep sakes of the Chrisp family is a volume of "Jane Forster", a story which commenced in the year 1708.

Mrs. Chrisp was married in England and the family came to Canada in the year 1913, coming directly to Vermilion where they have lived ever since.

She is survived by her sorrowing husband, one daughter Mae (Mrs. Lloyd Williamson) of Caledonia, Ont., and two sons, Thomas of Edmonton, and Richard of Vermilion. There are ten grandchildren.

Salvation Army Christmas Cheer Kettle On Streets

In a letter to the editor of The Standard written by Lieut. King of the Salvation Army, there is notification that their Christmas Cheer Kettle will be placed on the streets of Vermilion before Christmas.

In the letter appearing elsewhere in this issue, it is announced that the Christmas Cheer Kettle will appear on Saturday, December 17th. It will also be in evidence on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 22nd, 23rd and 24th.

The work of the 'Army' is well known, and it is at Christmas time each year particularly that they help provide a measure of Yuletide cheer to the needy of our own community. This is an annual enterprise well worthy of the support of the more fortunate citizens of Vermilion and district.

For those who find it impossible to be in town on the days mentioned it has been arranged that all donations sent to the Salvation Army, Vermilion, will be acknowledged and a receipt sent by return mail.

Extra Hours for Christmas Shoppers

Extra shopping hours will come in handy between now and Christmas, due partly to the blizzard of 1955, and because people, men particularly, leave a lot of gift buying until the last minute. Realizing the need for more shopping hours, Vermilion stores will remain open all day Wednesday, Dec. 21st, and be open until 9 p.m. Friday, December 23rd.

In brief, during Christmas week stores will be open as follows:— Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, open every day from 9:00 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Friday, open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday, open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., (Christmas Eve).

Stores will close for three days over Christmas week end, Sunday 25th, Monday 26th and Tuesday 27th, but will be open all day Wednesday, Dec. 28th.

Commencing on Saturday, Dec. 31st, stores will start the usual winter hours by closing at 6:00 every Saturday.

Fair Board Annual Meeting Postponed

Due to the storm the first of the week the annual meeting of the Vermilion Agricultural Society was necessarily postponed until Monday, Dec. 19, at 8 o'clock and the delayed meeting will be held in George's Lower deck at that time.

A review of the work of the past year will be given, officers and directors will be elected for the ensuing year and plans laid for the conduct of agricultural promotion work for 1956 instituted.

The Agricultural Society of Vermilion has taken an important place in the life of the community and would welcome the co-operation of all who are interested in the continued development of our most important industry.

Vermilion 4-H Turkey Show & Sale Sat.

You are invited to come and buy your Christmas turkey. Everybody is welcome.

Conveners Report At Auburndale W. A.

The annual meeting of Auburndale W.A. was held Dec. 6 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Everett with 25 ladies present. Mrs Beth Seale was in the chair with Mrs. June Symes as secretary. The meeting opened with the singing of the W.A. theme song followed by a devotional period and prayer by Mrs. Bessie Stone, her theme being "Peace", a very timely topic at this Xmas season. The members of the group each brought a gaily wrapped Christmas gift for a needy child. These gifts are to be sent to a United Church home or orphanage. After a short business meeting the various conveners gave their reports for the year 1955. Mrs. Bessie Stone on Christian Devotions. Mrs. Wear as Christian Literature convener, Mrs Nora Eyben as Christian Education convener, Mrs Ruth Everett as Christian Citizenship convener. Mrs. Agnes Green as Christian Fellowship convener. Mrs Rose Harle as Press convener.

After the group repeated in unison the W.A. theme prayer the president declared the meeting adjourned. The Heatherbell group provided a delicious lunch at this last meeting of 1955.

Meetings of the Board of Trade for the next two weeks have been cancelled, the usual custom during the Christmas season. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday Jan 4th

Rio Cafe Treats Board of Trade Members To Christmas Dinner

As Wednesday of this week saw the final luncheon meeting of the Board of Trade for 1955, the manager of the Rio Cafe, Suey Fore, provided a full course Christmas dinner to the 34 members present.

Manager Suey Fore has provided excellent and tasty dinners all year and sentiments to this effect were stated by the president, Dr. Ben King. Cook Lee was also called in and thanked for his culinary achievements. Finally the waitresses who have been very faithful and patient, Mrs J. Kinney and Miss Shirley Leahy were given the results of a very generous collection.

Board meetings for the next two weeks have been cancelled and will resume on Wednesday Jan 4th. Everyone is invited to attend these gatherings.

Tigers Play Commandos Monday In First Home League Game

The 1955 editions of the Tigers and the Commandos from Wainwright meet here on Monday night in a game that will pry the lid off the regular league season as far as Vermilion is concerned. The schedule opens Saturday Dec. 17th with Vermilion playing at Wainwright and all teams going into action.

Tigers hope to have their team at full strength which means that the old reliables Elmer Kreller, Les Williams and Bill Novak will be in the line-up to bolster the big crop of youngsters who are trying out this season. A valuable acquisition to the team among the new players is Andy Redford, big and fast Andy adds some much needed experience and weight to the Tigers as the new crop of players is light and young.

More about the players will be found in the commentary "Hockey Chit Chat" by Gerry Marshall.

Attend the game Monday night at 8:30 and help the Tigers on their way to a good season and the E.A.H.L. championship and Craig cup.

Rotary Club Donates $150.00 To Scout Hall Building Fund

As a result of funds raised from the Community Calendar project, the Vermilion Rotary Club have donated $150.00 to the Scout Hall building fund. It is the desire of the Scout organization to enlarge the building in order to install water and sewer facilities. The hall is used almost daily by young people's organizations, Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies, and was originally built by the Vermilion Elks for that purpose.

In addition to the above the community minded Rotarians will provide two radios for use of patients in the hospital. They will also see that these are properly serviced and kept in repair and good working order

Other funds have been set aside for student loans and scholarships; to add to facilities at the Vermilion provincial park, and for providing books in the Library. These books will be of an Alberta historical nature.

All the above grants and expenditures were recommended by the executive and approved at the general meeting held at Friday noon last week.

For entertainment the Rotarians listened to an exceedingly interesting and well presented story of his trip to Scotland this summer, given by Rotarian Mitch Taylor. Scotland is Mr Taylor's homeland and his description indicated a booming condition there with all industries and trades enjoying plenty of demand. Wages are lower than in America, but so are the prices of commodities. Mitch's sidelights on how people cling to old time customs, of travelling along the winding highways particularly where they converge to flow through a larger town, were particularly amusing. Incidentally Mr. Taylor knows his bards and his poetry and made use of a few quotations to further enhance an excellent talk.

Christmas Greeting Advertisements

Christmas Greeting advertisements are on display at the Standard office, and should be selected immediately. Deadline 6 p.m. Friday.

The Standard will publish its Christmas Greeting issue on Dec. 22. The issue of Dec 29th will be cancelled.

Vermilion's First Gas Man Retires

Jim Kirk, Vermilion's first gas man, has retired due to ill health. The reason is actually an injured knee which was operated on this fall and which has given him trouble.

It will be recalled that Mr. Kirk was the man who supervised the laying of the gas lines in Vermilion in 1941. Since that time it has been his responsibility to keep the convenient fuel coming through the lines in sufficient quantities to serve all the cooking, heating and industrial needs of the town. Sometimes this has been a great worry, as before the auxiliary line was run across from the Kinsella gas field increase in the consumption of gas was growing faster than supply. This caused gas company officials and especially Jim, a great deal of worry.

During th cold weather every mile of the gas line, which formed the gathering system was checked to ensure uninterrupted service. Many will still recall the break that caused quite an emergency in town a number of years ago. During an excessively cold spell frost reached down and caused a break in the line five miles south of town.

The break was along an unused winter road and bulldozers had to clear the way for welding machines. Under Jim's direction, workmen dug and toiled all night to fix the break. It was 37 below most of the night, and just when most of the homes in town were cooling off, the siren sounded the "all's well."

Mr Kirk, retired gas superintendent, first for Franco Public Service and then for its successor, Northwestern Utilities, can look back to many, many such vital and stirring incidents and people will continue to know Jim as Vermilion's first gas man.

Mixed Chorus Concert Draws Capacity House

On Sunday, December 11th, the Columbia Theatre was filled almost to capacity on the occasion of the annual Carol concert presented by the Vermilion Mixed Chorus. At least one new face was to be seen by the audience. Bill Sutherland had undertaken to announce each item, giving the listeners interesting details of the carols sung. This, apart from a slight and entirely inadvertent run-in with Good King Wenceslas, he carried out very well indeed.

In addition to the usual well-known carols the choir sang the charming and effective Czech carol, "Rocking" which proved itself so popular last year. "What Child is this?", set to the old English folk song tune "Greensleeves," was a welcome addition to the choir's repertoire. Perhaps one of the highlights of the evening was the delightful carol "I Saw Three Ships." The unusual setting and contagious rhythm were most persuasive.

The carol of the Magi, "We Three Kings," was characterized by three soloists, Tom Watts, Dr King, and Bill Fooks, who sang the individual parts with conviction.

Each half of the programme was rounded off with a majestic chorus from an oratorio. "The Heavens Are Telling," from Josef Haydn's "Creation" concluded the first half of the programme. The contrast between the full chorus and the double trio of the angels was well drawn. The evenings entertainment was brought to a close with the singing of the Hallelujah Chorus," from Handel's "Messiah."

The whole programme was arranged and conducted by Jack Brown with his usual aplomb. The essential and often difficult task of accompanist was competently accomplished by Dr. C. W. Stephens. The proceeds from the concert, traditionally devoted to the Christmas Cheer Fund, will be handed over to the Stagettes who will be in charge of its distribution this year.

The very grateful thanks of the Chorus are due to all who helped in any way to make the concert the success it undoubtedly was. Special thanks go to Nick Kowalchuk for so kindly loaning the Columbia theatre, and to the Vermilion Standard for the publicity given in their columns.

CHRISTMAS CAN BE CHRISTIAN WITHOUT BEING STUFFY

Children have a birthday party. After being scrubbed until their faces shine, they start out, little girls with their frilly dresses, little boys with their hair all slicked back looking for all the world like the cherubs they are not. They refuse to start for the party, though, until they have their presents. They must be nicely gift wrapped, too.

Children enjoy giving presents as much as they enjoy receiving them. They have not yet become sophisticated. They are as natural as can be. At Christmas-time adults become children again. They take off their wrappings and unashamed do the natural childlike things. Looking for appropriate gifts becomes a national passion. We get a lot of honest-to-goodness fun making other people happy, and by giving gifts to all sorts of good causes as well as to our friends.

Christmas is the time of the year when we can be supremely happy. It commemorates the great event in history, the birth of the founder of Christianity. It is a birthday holiday, and a time when the child spirit reigns supreme.

Through the years certain customs, practices and goings-on which have no connection with Christmas have in the public mind become associated with its celebration. These have often obscured the real meaning of the Holy Day. But more and more, thoughtful men and women are coming to realize the religious significance of the celebration. Make Christmas Christian. Be careful of your habits, avoid all extravagance. Cut out all drinking. Drinking is dangerous and might easily be the cause of unhappiness and sorrow. What a Christmas for the family if the father and mother are sleeping off the effects of a party when Santa Claus comes!

When all is said and done Christmas is basically and profoundly a religious experience. It celebrates not only the birth of a child but the birth of an idea. Peace, the greatest need in the world, is in short supply. So is enlightenment. We can help build up reserves. Christmas can be Christian without being stuffy. The churches will be telling us to put Christ into Christmas and to make Christmas Christian. Well, why not?

The excellent and well-deserved tribute to the late William Mayers which appears on page one section two in this issue, was written by Mrs. Ethel Lyons of Barrhead. The signature was inadvertently excluded from the article.

Hotelmen Urge Moderation

The busiest hosts in Canada during the Christmas-New Year's holiday season are deeply concerned about highway and street accidents which each year take a heavy toll of life.

"The mid-winter holiday period is our busiest season", A. G. Swinarton, President of the Alberta Hotel Association said in an interview the first of the week. "During the next few weeks we will be welcoming thousands of guests young and old. We hope to serve them well, but we are also anxious that they should do everything possible to survive the holiday without injuries or accidental death.

"Our staffs are under orders not to serve alcoholic beverages to any people who have already had enough or too much to drink. We try to follow that policy and remain courteous and attentive. May we urge our prospective guests to keep that in mind and not feel that they are being badly treated or insulted.

"At this holiday season when so many people and organizations are urging special precautions to avoid accidents, we join them in suggesting that holiday merrymakers observe these few simple rules:

1. Leave your car at home and travel by taxi or bus.

2. If you must drive your car, be extremely moderate in your drinking and before you leave [illegible] restaurant, or hotel, drink a cup of strong coffee as your 'one for the road'.

3. If you overindulge, coffee or some [illegible] abstinence beverage will help you, but you should still leave your car where it is and take a taxi home or drive with friends.

4. If all our guests observe these rules, it will be a merrier Xmas for us and also for them." Mr. Swinarton concluded.

Vermilion, Alta.,
Dec. 10, 1955.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

Commencing Saturday, Dec. 17, the Salvation Army will again be placing on the streets of Vermilion the Christmas cheer kettle. The moneys collected helps to bring a little extra cheer to the needy during the Christmas season and for the winter relief.

The response to this appeal in the past by the people of Vermilion and district has been wonderful and once again we know you are going to help the Salvation Army keep open the door of mercy. Remember the Salvation Army help all peoples, regardless of religion or color.

If you find it impossible to get to town and would like to make a donation to the Relief fund, just address it to The Salvation Army, Vermilion, Alta., and a receipt for income tax purposes will be sent by return mail.

George King (Lieut).

Heatherbell W. A. Has Active Year

The year 1955 has been a busy one for the Heatherbell United Church W.A. Donations have been as follows: $5 to Red Cross, $5 to Cancer fund, $5 to Foreign Bible Society, $5 to Lake Whitney Camp fund, and one Camp Whitney share, $5. We have made 41 baby nighties for the local hospital, also fourteen pillow cases, 12 pairs of rompers and 16 pairs of bootees for the Beulah Home in Edmonton. We also helped the other groups with a pacel of used and new clothing for the needy of Korea. The ladies sponsored a cancer film at Buffalo Coulee school; held a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Ethel Macnab and with the Willowby group held a bake sale in Vermilion to raise money for the Auburndale United Church building fund. This group was in charge of the ice cream booth at the annual church bazaar last summer. Besides this the group has sponsored showers for three young couples of the district who were married this year.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

The Divisional Board of the Vermilion School Division wishes to express appreciation of the services rendered by Bus Drivers, School Principals and local boards during the recent storm period.

Close co-operation and cool judgment on the part of all resulted in most of the children reaching home without too much inconvenience.

The Board wishes to thank all the people who offered accommodation or who took in those pupils who were not able to reach home. Thanks should also go to the snow plow operators and the members of the Municipal Council for splendid assistance given during the period of stress.

How To Prevent Accidents To Children In The Home

TORONTO. — "Almost daily, the newspapers record [illegible] that should never have been," Wm. Aspinall writes in the current issue of Health Magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada.

"Infants and children are left alone near kitchen stoves where boiling water and scalding tea can be pulled over them. Youngsters are seriously burned with fire-making materials invitingly to hand. Severe injury or death has resulted because of unsafe stairs, unscreened windows, or because undisciplined families left littered floors. Or a child was accidentally poisoned."

The Service of Otolaryngology at the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto has recorded since 1921, the removal of almost 2,200 foreign bodies from the air and food passages of children. A collection of almost 1000 of these objects are at the hospital, including a two-inch bolt, an earring, nail file, and small toy airplane.

During the first two years of life, the infant needs complete protection. If during these years he gets burned, scalded, poisoned or has [illegible] mangled, protection has been deficient.

After the age of two, the child must gradually be taught to live with all the things which can possibly harm him until, by the time he starts to school, he will be indoctrinated in safety measures enough to guard against many common hazards. The significance of this period of training is pointed up by the fact that 50% of all child-accident deaths, according to Dr. H. F. Dietrich, of Beverly Hills, Calif., occur before the age of five years.

Police, teachers, traffic and highway authorities and parents have worked hard to prevent traffic accidents. Yet the overall accident toll seems to vary little. Given the same amount of thought and an equal amount of push, home accidents could decline considerably.

"Responsibility of parents in the matter cannot be foisted onto the shoulders of others. And safety is so simple if properly taught. For the parent it means foresight: it means time taken to teach safety, by example and otherwise; it means a disciplined way of life for both parents and child."

THE STAGETTES

Thanks are very much in order this week. First of all we wish to thank the good people of the town for rallying so well to our candy sale. The proceeds of these two cold but successful evenings will go to help those less fortunate than ourselves.

We would also like to thank the members of the Mixed Chorus who have so kindly donated the proceeds from the Christmas Carol concert to us to arrange for Xmas cheer hampers.

Among all these expressions of thanks, we have a request to make, and that is that you remember our Holly Frolic on Boxing day, Dec. 26th. Come along and make it the big event of the Xmas season.

That reminds me, Stagettes — how about some posters for our Christmas dance. Information may be obtained from President Lil Harreuther at the locker plant and posters should, if possible, be handed in on Friday, Dec 16th. (Ed Note: Our job work department prints 'em you know, gals.)

Don't forget too, there will be the usual Saturday dance on the 17th. The same girls who were to check last Saturday will again be next on the list.

One more thing folks, if you have not already bought a ticket on our pretty Stagette doll, make this Saturday a date. The girls will be selling tickets in Craig's store from 1:00 o'clock on (kind permission for this has been granted by the management).

Attention high school girls! You can get in to the Holly Frolic free of charge if you are willing to help to check coats for part of the time. Those who are interested please contact Nan Marshall just after four in the Junior high school or at 807 by telephone.

'Bye for now. Be seeing you!

Princess Anne W. I.

The annual meeting of Princess Anne W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. G. Mead on Dec. 5. There were twelve members and three visitors present, Mrs. M. Simonet, Mrs. A. Simonet and Mrs. C. Brown.

The president gave her annual address. This was followed by the reports of conveners, secretary and treasurer.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Officers for the coming year were then elected: Mrs. Fred West, President; Mrs. Geo. Mead, Vice-President; Mrs. R. Reeves, Secretary; Mrs. A. Scarfe, treasurer. The latter two being returned to office.

Reports were made on the two card parties held recently and Mrs. R. Mead reported on the results of the raffle. The first prize, a case of one dozen home canned products was won by Miss Lil Harreuther and second prize, the appliqued crib quilt was won by Miss Barbara Mead of Dewberry. Before the meeting was over, our three visitors had become members, thus bringing our membership now to 15.

Donations were made to the A.C.W.W. travel fund.

The mystery box donated by Mrs. R. Strome, was won by Mrs. McIntyre.

The members of the branch who were fortunate enough to attend the Pot Luck supper given by the Vermilion branch take this opportunity to thank the Vermilion ladies for a very lovely evening.

The exchange of Christmas gifts brought our meeting to a close. Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Scarfe served lunch.

As this is the last meeting of 1955, we wish to express our thanks to the Standard for printing our W.I. news so faithfully all through the year, and to wish the Editor and his staff a Very Merry Christmas and a Bright and Prosperous New Year!

A MODERN FARM WORKSHOP

Most farmers are relatively good mechanics. Given the proper tools they are capable of keeping their machinery and other farm equipment ready for work at all times. Today, the only way of sustaining net farm income is by reducing production costs. And this is where the well-equipped farm workshop can play an important part.

Probably the first requirement of any workshop is a good selection of wrenches. Open-end and box-end wrenches are handy for certain work, but a good set of socket wrenches is an important necessity. The present market offers a wide variety of wrenches, drills, and other important hand tools to suit every purse.

Coming now to the power tools and welders. The introduction of electrical power has made it possible to equip a farm workshop with tools that make machinery repair easier and cheaper—electric welders (that will also cut steel), electric grinders, drill presses, etc. An electric welder opens a whole new approach to farm machinery repair. It enables a farmer to use his ingenuity not only in repairing or altering existing machines, but in making new machines and attachments. With an electric welder and other power-driven tools available, it is possible to do many otherwise expensive repair jobs right on the farm. Such repair work can often postpone the expense of a new machine, or at least save the expense of a costly overhaul job in town. Another very important piece of equipment in a farm workshop is an air compressor. It has many uses: cleaning machinery, operating grease guns, inflating tires and painting.

Farmers generally need to become more conscious of the value and uses of electricity, and what it can do to reduce production costs. In no place is electricity more useful than in the workshop. The well-equipped farm workshop can save time, labor and money.

MEDITATION

I number only one millionaire among my close friends. Naturally, I have studied him a lot to see how he does it. He is about my own age, has a bright mind but is no genius. He works hard but so do I. He is meticulously honest, somewhat over generous, but otherwise a pretty normal man as far as I can see. I looked in vain for any secret of success. But last week I was given a clue.

We hunted together down around Souris, Manitoba. Guess we tramped all the cover both sides of the river for ten miles. That night we were beat. We surrounded a delicious steak at a fine little bowling alley and restaurant in Souris, then checked in at the hotel. I was under blankets within five minutes. But not my friend.

He got into his pyjamas, spent a good ten minutes on his knees. Then he drew a chair to the window and sat down, his feet up on the window sill. It was another half hour before he hit the hay.

In the morning I asked him what the long vigil was all about.

"When I first started in business" he said, "I had some upsetting experiences. Fussed so much and worked so hard I never had time to think. Then, one day at my service club the speaker quoted an old Greek philosopher. The idea was that you shouldn't let yourself be spun around. You should find time somewhere for some quiet meditation on the eternal verities. I started that night and I've kept it up. I suppose you'd call it a spiritual exercise. Anyhow — I wouldn't miss it. Seems to keep me on the beam."

So maybe that is his secret. Anyway I pass it along to you at no charge. Just share your first million with me if you wish.

SQUARE NOTES From Circle 8

It is with a lot of thought and a lot of regret that the Christmas square dance was cancelled. With the weather and roads in such terrible condition, it seemed the best decision to make. There just did not seem to be any available date to postpone to, so it just had to be cancelled.

After due consideration, the executive have decided to have a combined Christmas and New Year's Square Dance party on Jan. 5th — our regular dance night. So if all the good square dancers who offered help and food for the cancelled dance, would just bring the same things to the Jan. 5th dance it will be much appreciated.

So, New Year's party, Jan. 5, and until then, all Square Dancers everywhere Merry Christmas and Happy square dancing in '56.

Vermilionites Storm-Bound At Islay

It's interesting to note how many Vermilion people are in Islay at any given time On Monday morning Dr. E. G. Evans was there in his professional capacity, the Hardie Fords, Senior and Junior were there as was Mrs. H. Bobroske. All of these and Bill Rosbuck started out for Vermilion (in four separate cars at four different times) during Monday morning. And each of them met their limit in piled up drifts on the road between Islay and Highway 16, somewhere near the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Ulva McFadden. Because the phone lines were down it was impossible to inform anxious relatives in Vermilion of the whereabouts of these travellers.

Mr. Bobroske, in company with Rev. K. A. Minchin, in the latter's car, went in search of Mrs. Brobooske. They reached the partially buried cars of Mrs. Brobooske and Dr. Evans, also the truck belonging to the Fords. They left Rev. Mr. Minchin's car on a clear stretch of the road and went on to McFadden's. There they found the missing people, and Mrs. McFadden was busy serving the third lunch that noon.

Going back to the Minchin car they were astounded to find that it had been blown right off the road and into the ditch where it was thoroughly stuck. Now there are various theories on this matter — some feel that it was the large wind surface presented by the car that caused it to act this way, but others claim that it is such an active vehicle that it just couldn't stand still. Whatever the explanation, it was the last chance for transportation back to Vermilion at that time. So the travellers finally turned up in Vermilion on Tuesday, via the night train from the east which came in at 11 00 a.m.

Unfortunately several members of the stranded group suffered frost damage to faces, legs or hands. But it is understood that they have recovered and are feeling fine again. It could have been a lot worse!

It is a fine thing that there are people like the McFaddens who will help those in distress.

In the first nine months of this year Canada's exports totalled $3,197 million while imports totalled $3,429 millions.

14 Children Stay At Mannville Farm Home

Some hosts and hostesses find it difficult to provide for a few guests even when they are expected — but fourteen unexpected visitors, all of them children, didn't seem to bother Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamilton of the Mannville district unduly. The guests moved in in a group early Monday morning when their school bus became really marooned in a huge snow drift. The young folk remained all day, being there for Monday night and until Tuesday afternoon, when tractors and bulldozers finally cleared a way across fields for the school bus to travel into Mannville. Even then two of the little visitors couldn't leave for their home and stayed until Wednesday

The school bus became stalled in the drift a short distance from the Hamilton home some four miles southeast of Mannville. Mrs. Hamilton was possibly a little better able to cope with fourteen youngsters all at the same time — for she was on the bus bound for Mannville too, where she teaches in the school. You can bet it wasn't exactly a holiday from school for her. As for Mr. Hamilton — we'll give you his reactions after we see him.

The vogue of independence in marriage has now boomeranged. Today many an adviser who once favored the 'separate lives' theory recognizes that the essence of marriage is not to have one's own life but to lead one life together.

Hockey Chit-Chat

By GERRY MARSHALL

The Vermilion Tigers now have two games under their belt and are beginning to look like a good club.

Saturday night the Tigers lost a ragged 8-3 decision to the St. Paul Hornets. The game was somewhat closer than the score indicated but poor clearing and penalties spelled the doom of the Tigers.

The line of Ewing, Schmidt and Lowrie (all with the Tigers last season) in scoring Vermilion's 3 goals, showed enough to indicate they will be real hard to stop. Lowrie opened the scoring for the 1955-56 season and Ewing scored the second and third markers.

Goalie George Washington, who is officially signed, raised countless eyebrows as he stopped the Hornets cold before being injured late in the first period. While dropping to save a low shot George was hit on the kneecap by the puck and will be out of action until the first league game at Wainwright.

After Washington's injury, George Martin, usually a forward, moved into the nets and came up with several sparkling saves while allowing three goals. He was relieved of his duties in the third period by Lorne Scroggins of Mannville, who had a rough period, four goals getting by him under heavy pressure by the well conditioned and surprisingly seasoned St. Paul team.

Saturday night's Tigers lacked three of the regular stars, Les Williams, Bill Novak and Elmer Kreller.

LOSE 5-4 AT ST. PAUL

Sunday afternoon the Bengals travelled north to St. Paul and lost a 5-4 decision on a defensive lapse in the last minute of play.

DESERVED A VICTORY

The Tigers looked like a different team and were very unfortunate not to return home with a well-earned victory. The locals had the puck bouncing around the St. Paul net throughout the game but just couldn't score more than four times.

KRELLER BACK IN LINE-UP

Coach Kreller, out of action due to a back injury, was in harness for this game and played a great defensive game as well as scoring one goal. His presence on the ice makes a great difference and we sincerely hope his back will stand up to a gruelling 20-game schedule.

Frankie Ewing scored twice as his line assisted Kreller and Redford on their goals.

SCOGGINS GOOD IN GOAL

Playing between the pipes in the absence of Washington was Lorne Scoggins who looked much better in Sunday's game. He came up with a number of sparkling saves and looked quite capable all around.

When Les Williams, Bill Novak and George Washington return to action and the Tigers start clicking on all cylinders the E.A.H.L. should see some great hockey.

St. Paul Hornets Trim Tigers 8-3 In Exhibition Hockey Game

St. Paul Hornets, the team which [illegible] with a mighty [illegible] at the end of the 1954-55 season, are apparently picking right up where they left off and trimmed the new Tigers team 8 goals to 3 in an exhibition encounter [illegible] last Saturday evening. The game was a typical early season affair somewhat scrambly and not too much combined effort [illegible], but the [illegible] were trying and skated fast all the time.

Coates, the latter the only newcomer to the town who is working for Searle Grain, and D. Shaw as utility man.

The game was well handled by referee Russell Carroll and linesman Ralph Rudd of Mannville.

Vermilion took an early lead with Lowry scoring from Ewing at 14:04 and Ewing from Lowry and Bill Schmidt to make it 2-0. Pundick from Dehid cut the deficit in half, with the period ending 2-1 for the Tigers.

St. Paul added three in the second with no reply from the Bengals. P Dion, Zaharorchuk from Pundick and Dehid from Pundick.

Zaharorchuk from Pundick made it 5-2 and Frank Ewing from Bill Schmidt finished the counting for Vermilion The Hornets buzzed around the local hive and really made honey, running in three counters, Roberts, Dehid from Zaharorchuk, Robichaud from Dehid

Ten penalties were handed out during the game so the players weren't asking any favors, even though it was an exhibition set to

WALKING OR DRIVING, HOLIDAY CARE URGED—

Hundreds of Canadians are likely to be killed or injured during the 1955 Christmas-New Year holiday season unless motorists and pedestrians are more careful than last year.

Most of the fatalities that spoil the annual festivities could be avoided, according to the Automobile Club of America, if party-goers would observe the following pointers:

1. Don't drive if you plan to drink.
2. When either driving or walking be extremely careful—perhaps the other fellow will have been drinking.
3. Don't ride with anybody who has been drinking
4. If you take 'one for the road', make it coffee

Traffic Accidents Toll Is 205 Lives In Alberta, 1955

Motor traffic accidents have taken a toll of 205 lives in Alberta in the eleven months ended Nov. 30, according to a summary compiled by the Alberta Safety Council. This is thirty more than the number killed in the comparable period of 1954.

While there has been an increased number of fatalities and more persons have been injured this year a substantial reduction in accidents is shown.

For the 11 months there were 15,479 accidents, as against 16,280 a year ago. The number of persons injured increased from 3,663 to 3,783.

For November only there were eighteen traffic deaths, three less than the same month of last year. Last month's total was made up of seventeen reported by the RCMP at rural points and one in Edmonton.

The November report shows 243 persons injured in motor vehicle accidents during the month, an increase of 12 over a year ago.

The November report reveals that for the month only motor accidents increased from 1,309 to 1,323. Of these rural points had 712, up from 672 a year ago. Edmonton's total climbed from 404 to 603, while Calgary rose from 234 to 273.

Officials of the Safety Council point out that a factor in the accident trend is the increased volume of motor traffic. Up to Nov. 30th, Alberta had record registrations of 228,910 motor cars and 119,105 trucks or a total of 348,015 licensed vehicles operating on the highways.

Of the 3,399,350 Canadians who paid personal income tax in 1953, only 9,350 had incomes of $25,000 or more. — Quick Canadian Facts

IN APPRECIATION

On behalf of my mother and father, (Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kalynchuk) I would like to thank everybody who so generously gave us clothes, furniture, dishes, food, etc. in the event of the recent fire which destroyed our home.

We will return all clothes which do not fit us, to the Red Cross stores in Elk Point, so others who may be as unfortunate as us may make use of them. Thank you all.

BARBARA ANN KALYNCHUK, Elk Point, Alberta.

Mrs. Lloyd Williamson (nee Mae Chrisp) of Caledonia, Ont., and Mr. Tom Chrisp of Edmonton are in Vermilion this week being called by the serious illness and subsequent death of their mother. Wedding Bells

BIDDLECOMBE—LANG

First United Church, Vermilion, was the scene of a pretty wedding on November 12, when Joan Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lang of Vermilion, became the bride of Raymond Croft Biddlecombe, formerly of Creston, B.C. and now with the R.C.A.F. at Cold Lake.

Rev. C. W. MacKay officiated at the service.

The bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white net over satin, with waist length veil. Her bouquet was American Beauty roses. Attending the bride was Miss Margaret Rohwer whose dress of blue net and satin was of ballerina length. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Fred Burgman, also of the RCAF station at Cold Lake, was best man.

During the signing of the register Miss Beatrice Hillcox of Edmonton sang "Because," accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John Hillcox, on the organ.

George Doherty of Vermilion, and Donald Lang, brother of the bride, were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hillcox for about 50 relatives and friends.

To receive the guests the bride's mother chose a blue crepe dress with pink accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations.

An ecru lace table cloth on the bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake set in tulle. Mr. Thomas Thompson, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast to the bride, and the groom ably responded.

Mr. and Mrs. Biddlecombe will make their home at Cold Lake for the present.

Sept. 1st Babies Get Silver Spoons

As part of Alberta's 50th anniversary celebrations, 86 babies, who were born in this province on Sept. 1st, 1955 are being awarded sterling silver spoons. These spoons, commemorating the formation of Alberta as a province, 50 years ago, will bear the crest of the province and an engraving of the child's name.

Parents of these Jubilee year children will receive a copy of the Golden Jubilee anthology. The anthology is a collection of literary works which portray the formation and growth of Alberta.

Compilation and registration of those who are eligible to receive this memento of the province's anniversary has now been completed and spoons and anthologies are being placed in the mail this week.

In loving memory of Dad and Mother Firth, who passed away December 19th, 1949, and January 5th, 1954.

Two lights are from our household gone,
And voices we loved are stilled.
Two places are vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more;
But in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.

Suggest Credit Bureau For Vermilion

Speaker at the Wednesday noon meeting of the Board of Trade last week was Mr. Fred Lonsdale, the manager of the Lloydminster Credit Bureau.

In his talk Mr. Lonsdale stated that the bureau was considering extending activities to Vermilion and outlined the services rendered. The Credit Bureau gathers, compounds and gives reports on people and companies requiring credit. A collection agency is operated in connection usually taking over where all other attempts at collections have failed. This company has already 550 files on people in this shopping area and over 5000 files in all. In addition, the Credit Bureau is associated with 2700 bureaus on this continent and is thus able to secure credit reports and ratings within a matter of a few hours, no matter where those requiring credit might come from. The credit rating follows wherever the person might go. The Bureau also facilitates credit for newcomers moving into town.

In conclusion Mr. Lonsdale suggested that a group of the Board of Trade visit Lloydminster and inquire from business men there how they regarded the Credit Bureau and its work.

Hospital Receives Welcome Donations

There is a feeling of Christmas in the air — the true spirit of Christmas. The tangible results of some of this feeling will be enjoyed by the patients and staff of the Vermilion Municipal hospital. Anything that can be done to lighten the cares of sickness is very much appreciated.

The Wildmere W.I. have made and donated Christmas decorations suitable for dinner trays. These will be placed on the meal trays served to the patients who are unfortunate enough to have to spend Christmas time in the hospital.

A donation of $50 has been received by the Vermilion hospital to be used as seen fit by the Hospital board.

A truly fine memorial to the memory of the late Kenny Dibben, taking the form of a child's size table and chairs, has been donated to the hospital for the use of junior patients.

These donations are gratefully acknowledged by the Vermilion hospital.

United Church pulpits, weekly and daily newspapers, radio and TV, billboards and the Church's own publication 'The Observer', will be used by the Board of Evangelism and Social Service of the United Church of Canada in a national campaign to make the coming Christmas 'more Christian'.

In announcing the campaign, Dr. James R. Mutchmor, Secretary of the Board said: "We are urging our people to remember the needs of the poor at Christmas time. Even in these days of high prosperity we should remember there are depressed mining areas in Canada. Colder weather is bringing more unemployment. Hundreds of New Canadian families have not yet found homes and work, and it will be a black Christmas for many of them. We should remember our old age pensioners who have little left out of an old age pension after they pay $7 to $10 a week for room rent. We should remember the women over 60 who have to go out to work and are not old enough for the old age pension.

Christians should remember that Christmas is the anniversary of the birthday of Jesus Christ. It should be observed as a religious festival. It is a time of fellowship and family reunions, for giving and receiving, for rejoicing in the good news of Christianity. Christmas should not be ruined by over-indulgence, show and unseemly display, or falsified by high pressure commercialism."

Dr. Mutchmor urged safe driving on the highways, and sober office parties. "Christmas is a great family occasion and it would be a tragedy if the happiness of women and children is ruined by over-indulgence."

The United Church of Canada is urging that:

1. The Christian motif be used in Christmas decorations.
2. People go to church during the Christmas festival.
3. Christmas greeting cards have a more Christian message.
4. Shut-ins and old people should be remembered.

F. U. A. CONVENTION REPORT

By Ralph Wilson, Director of Sub-Dist. 3, District 7.

The seventh annual convention of the Farmers' Union of Alberta opened at 10:00 a.m., Monday, Dec. 5th, in the Alberta College auditorium, Edmonton, with greetings by the Hon. L. C. Halmrast, Minister of Agriculture for Alberta, and by Mayor Wm. Hawrelak of Edmonton.

During the course of the five days and evenings of the conference we were addressed by the Hon. C. D. Howe, federal minister of trade and commerce; Jake Schultz, head of the Interprovincial Farm Union Council; Hon. Gordon Taylor, minister of highways, Province of Alberta; J. E. Brownlee, president of the U.G.G.; Roy Marler, president of the Federation of Agriculture; George McIvor, chief commissioner of the Wheat Board. Addresses were also given by representatives of the B.C., Saskatchewan and Montana Farmers Unions. Each speaker invited a question period.

During the course of the convention a great number of resolutions were dealt with. Parliamentary procedure was adhered to at all times and no resolution was dealt with until each delegate who wished to do so, had spoken upon it.

Praise is due our past president Henry Young, who is now vice-president, on his fairness and good sense. As head chairman he did a masterful job.

Our new president Arnold Platt of Lethbridge, is a graduate of the School of Agriculture at Vermilion as well as of the Faculty of Agriculture at the University of Alberta.

To the locals of sub-district 3, district No. 7, I commend your organization. Support it. Attend your local meetings each month. Send in resolutions. Only by so doing can you help to shape your destiny and the destiny of all the farmers of Canada.

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for use of your valuable space.

Mrs. E. H. Buckingham,
Red Cross Branch,
Vermilion, Alberta

Dear Mrs. Buckingham:

Once more we would like to thank you for the very good blood donor clinic which you arranged for us on Nov. 14th. At this time we collected 137 bottles of blood. When you take into consideration the cut in the clinic hours, this was very good. However, we do hope to return to the old schedule the next time we visit Vermilion. It would be wonderful if we could return to Edmonton with at least 200 bottles of blood from your centre.

Please be good enough to extend our thanks to the Branch and the many volunteer workers who made this clinic possible.

Thanking you again, we remain
Yours sincerely
Glenn G. Smiley
Donor Panel Director

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH by Russ Arnold

A Tribute to the Late William Mayers

It was with the deepest regret that I finally learned of the passing of Mr. Mayers.

We had changed our address, and the letter, bearing the sorrowful news, arrived too late for me to pay tribute — [illegible] what I now offer.

I knew 'Bill' Mayers well. I lived three years in the Mayers' home while I taught at Allandale school.

He is gone — 'Billy' Mayers is gone — and his passing has left the community less bright!

'Bill' Mayers was the embodiment of clean fun, good will and good cheer. People liked to meet him — he 'did folks good' — he left them [illegible]. They went away prepared to take the world and themselves a little less seriously.

'Bill' didn't strive for the 'big' things — yet he had what all the world seeks; he had them in large measure — contentment and happiness! He was one of the happiest people I have ever known. To quote somewhat from the words of Abraham Lincoln: "He bore malice towards none, but charity to all".

He loved animals, and all God's harmless creatures, and to my knowledge, he never unnecessarily harmed any living thing. Prairie chickens nested near his dwelling, and reared their young in perfect safety.

Bill carefully avoided debt — he owed no man anything, except perhaps, goodwill and hospitality, which he gave unstintingly. "I'm not going to have my life cluttered up with bills", he said.

He always had time to be friendly! In a world where people are rushing thither and yon going they know not where, in quest of they know not what, he managed to maintain his way of life unruffled, and to go on in the even tenor of his way.

He had a twinkling sense of good humor which carried him safely over the trouble spots.

It was impossible to maintain a case of the blues in his presence. An anecdote will best illustrate this attribute:

I recall walking home from school one very warm afternoon in late autumn. I must have had a hard day, for I was plodding along the dusty road, head down, in deep thought.

As I passed the field where Bill was ploughing, he stopped the horses, and from a distance of about twenty yards, shouted, "Come now, school ma'm, you must never walk with your head down like that! Always look up! Keep looking for bees!"

Well, I didn't exactly look for bees after that, but I'll wager I was smiling, in spite of myself, and walked the remainder of the way with a lighter step and a lighter heart.

May God rest the soul of 'Billy' Mayers, and may He send us more like him . . . for 'he did folks good'.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Liberal Grain Policy Condemned By S. C. Caucus and FUA Convention

EDMONTON — The problem of surpus grain held the spotlight in Edmonton last week at two important meetings — the annual convention of the Farmers' Union of Alberta, and the annual fall caucus of Social Credit members of the legislature.

Recommendations and suggestions came thick and fast, along with criticism, but no one produced a solution to the problem, and about the only point of general agreement was that the problem does exist.

However, attention was focussed on a statement by Trade Minister C. D. Howe, who hinted at the FUA convention that the federal government may introduce legislation at the next session of parliament, aimed at helping farmers meet storage and carrying costs on grain they are unable to sell.

His statement came during a heated question period which lasted ninety minutes. He didn't elaborate in any way but under questioning about storage and carrying costs he said: "They are receiving consideration and something may be done at next session of parliament."

Just what may be done is anybody's guess, but amid the criticism of present federal policy there were plenty of suggestions. The Social Credit caucus issued a statement urging Ottawa to make it possible for the Canadian Wheat Board to make cash advances to farmers against grain stored on the farms.

One way of doing this, the Social Credit-ers said, would be to establish standards for 'approved storage' facilities on farms. Any farmer who builds approved storage bins would be eligible for Wheat Board advances on his grain, according to the SC plan.

At the same time, the caucus statement denounced the present federal program of guaranteeing bank loans to farmers at 5% interest on farm stored grain. It described the scheme as 'entirely inadequate'.

As a longe-range program toward eventual solution, the caucus recommended a 'vigorous sales campaign' designed to sell surplus food supplies, even by barter deals or by accepting currency from non-dollar countries if necessary. The caucus statement followed closely policy laid down by the Social Credit league at its recent convention, and by Hon. L. C. Halmrast, minister of agriculture.

The FUA also put forth its idea of a solution to the problem, with a 10-point emergency grain marketing program. Among other things it called for a minimum price of $2.50 per bushel on domestic wheat for human consumption, and for the government to assume the cost of all storage by the Wheat Board.

It also followed the Social Credit line of thought in asking that cash advances on farm-stored grain be paid after inspection as to quantities, grade and condition of storage facilities, and that trade with all countries be increased by barter, acceptance of foreign currency or even by the government giving grain away free to needy nations.

One important part of the FUA's suggested program asked that the farmers be protected from seizure and eviction during the present emergency.

INTERESTING POINTS AT SOCRED CAUCUS

A number of other interesting points emerged from the Social Credit caucus, which was called to discuss legislation the government proposes to introduce during the forthcoming session of the legislature.

It is known that the members spent some time discussing dividend payments to individual citizens, as recommended in a Social Credit League resolution in lieu of increasing grants to municipalities. However, the official word from the caucus is that the discussion was 'general' and that no decision was reached.

The only official word from the government on dividends was uttered by Hon. E. W. Hinman, the provincial treasurer, who said there won't be any dividends as long as municipalities continue to demand increased grants. Premier Manning was non-committal, saying only that: "We've been discussing dividends for 20 years, so why stop now?"

There also was discussion of starting the session of the legislature earlier than usual next year. Usually the session opens in mid-February but observers think it will start closer to the first of the month. The main reason is that with a larger opposition in the house, the Throne Speech debate will last longer.

Caucus also discussed the Election Act. Again, the official word is that no decision was reached, but the betting in political circles is that major changes are in store. If the changes are adopted, Alberta likely will abandon the complicated proportional representation system in favor of something less confusing to the voters. Most Social Credit M.L.A.'s seem to think a change is in order.

In potential water power resources Canada ranks fifth in the world; in total installed hydro-electric capacity Canada ranks second only to the U.S.

Claysmore W. I. Notes

The annual meeting of the Claysmore W.I. took place at the home of Mrs. A. Olstad on Dec. 6. There were eight members present. The meeting opened by repeating the Creed followed by the Roll Call which was 'Carol Singing'.

Reports were given by the president, treasurer, handicraft and other conveners. The auditor's report was also given. It was decided to send $5 to the UNESCO fund.

Our president, Mrs. J. Willis, and Mrs. O. Willis, handicraft chairman, attended the W. I. committee meeting in Vermilion on Nov. 28. The revised list will be considered at the January meeting. They also brought back information that can be used in preparing our program books for 1956. Five members were appointed to get the books in order for distribution at the January meeting.

The officers of our group who have so faithfully carried on the business of the W.I. the past year went back into office by acclamation.

The Claysmore Christmas concert is to be held on the evening of Dec. 16th. Anybody wishing to sing, recite, dance or otherwise perform, is advised to phone Mrs. A. Olstad, 1215, and your name will be put on the program.

The "Home & Countries" were distributed. Congratulations go to one of our number, Mrs. R. Bauer, whose original poem about the W.I. was published in the paper.

After the collection was taken the meeting adjourned and a delicious lunch was served.

Ladies will meet again on Jan. 11 at Mrs. H. Williamson's.

Dewberry Lady Reports On Banff Home and School Workshop

By Mrs. Wm. Holmes

I recently had the privilege of attending the Workshop in Group Methods, sponsored by the Home and School Association, which was held in the Banff School of Fine Arts.

When making up my report I found it a bit difficult because at a conference or convention, you get a lot of facts and figures, whereas a Workshop is a place to learn methods and skills.

We arrived in Banff about 4 p.m. I enjoyed the trip especially the part between Calgary and Banff. I managed to get a reservation on the Canadian and by the time we reached Calgary, I had met several other delegates on their way to the Workshop. Part of the way we were able to sit in the observation car and the weather and the mountains were beautiful.

A special bus met us at the station and took us up to the Banff School of Fine Arts. Once there, we felt we were completely isolated from the rest of the world. There were 75 delegates. We came from as far north as Beaverlodge, as far south as New Dayton and as far east as Chauvin and Dewberry. As we registered we were given name cards of different colors, yellow, pink, white, etc.

After the evening meal, we all gathered in the main auditorium, where we were welcomed by the convener of the Workshop, Dorothy Cameron, and by Wilma Hansen, President of the Alberta Federation of Home and School. Jim Ward, of Vancouver, who is executive director of the B.C. Division of the Canadian Mental Health Association, then took over. He is very efficient and an able speaker. After a short talk, we were divided into groups for a buzz session on: "Why Are We Here?" Did we come because we were sent as a delegate? Did we come to gain some specific information? Or, did we come to view the beautiful scenery?

The results of the discussion fell into four broad categories. We were there: First, to gain specific information; Second, to gain greater understanding of people, and greater skill in working with people; Third, to learn new methods and skills in conducting meetings, and four, to learn more about the philosophy of H. & S.

Next morning we were ready for work. We were divided into groups of about 12 according to the color of our name cards, and each group had a leader. We were fortunate in having Blanche McKenzie, who is convener of conferences and extension visits. Those who attended the Mannville H. & S. conference recently probably met her there.

The first thing we learned is that a Workshop is a place to solve problems with the help of others in a sort of round table discussion. Everything was on such a friendly, easy basis that we all noticed such a oneness between groups and their leaders. At the coffee break during both morning and afternoon sessions, we enjoyed the opportunity of mingling with all the delegates, and soon established a fine group spirit, and a feeling of belonging.

I particularly liked the big, friendly dining room. Mr. Hillerud from the Department of Extension in Edmonton, led us in the singing of Grace before each meal. I think most of us enjoyed the pleasure every mother knows when she sits down to a fine meal, which she hasn't had to prepare.

We took up a bit on leadership, on how to use a film, and also spent some time on program planning, role playing and communication. One night they conducted a "Rumor Clinic". It showed how rumors can distort facts and we were reminded of an old Japanese saying: "The tongue is only three inches long, but it can kill a man six feet tall."

Our only recreation was a swim in the upper hot springs one evening. Some thought time should be allotted for a guided tour, and they may do something of that sort next year. We all felt that time was too short to accomplish and discuss everything we would have liked.

We were reminded of the fact that when we join our Home & School we automatically become a member of the Alberta Federation of the H. & S., and that makes us members of the Canadian Federation of Home & School.

The closing remarks of the President's address were, "As I participate in H. & S. I help my child and I help my country."

I enjoyed every minute of the Workshop. I think more Home & School Associations should send delegates and avail themselves of this wonderful opportunity.

Vegreville Division School Trustees Convene At Innisfree

INNISFREE — A full executive slate, 21 delegates, five divisional trustees and 15 visitors attended the annual one-day convention here of the Innisfree - Vegreville School District Trustees Association.

President J. H. Austin called the convention to order and was elected chairman. A. T. Atkins, Mayor of Innisfree, welcomed the delegates. Minutes of the last convention were read by Secretary Ronald Peden. The financial report was submitted. The president gave a short address on the rate of credit buying.

Mr. Hinton gave a report on the school trustees convention. After some discussion members of the divisional trustee association were called to give a report on what had been done in sub districts this past year.

The convention adjourned at noon to enjoy a turkey dinner in the curling rink waiting room, sponsored by the W. A. of the United Church.

Mr. Facey, school supervisor of the Vegreville division, gave an address on privately-owned and publicly-owned school vans, which was followed by a discussion from the floor.

A. W. Reeves, assistant director of school administration, spoke on the difficulties of setting up co-terminous boundaries.

Mrs. Butterworth, director of the Alberta School Trustees Association gave an interesting talk on the school teacher shortage, and the number of teachers that will be required in the near future.

There was a slight intermission for the serving of coffee and doughnuts, sponsored by Group Three of the W. I. of Innisfree.

Mr. Wagner moved a vote of thanks to the guest speakers, Mrs. Butterworth and Mr. Reeves.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

by W. G. MALAHER, Director, Research Department, SEARLE GRAIN COMPANY, LIMITED

WHEAT ACREAGE — A MATTER OF NATIONAL POLICY

Whether or not a new wheat agreement will be born at the next meeting of the International Wheat Council scheduled for February, 1956, remains to be seen. That apparently will depend to a large extent on whether the whole basis of the agreement can be broadened by the inclusion of more exporting and importing nations and, in particular, whether the United Kingdom can be persuaded to rejoin.

But whatever the outcome, it is interesting to note that one of the decisions reached at the recent Geneva Wheat Conference was that no attempt should be made under any future agreement to bind signatory countries to a stipulated wheat acreage and that each participating government must decide its own agricultural policy.

Closer to home, because of the present wheat surplus, there has been some talk about the necessity for acreage restrictions in Western Canada, but it is difficult to believe that such a step would either find ready acceptance or that it would be very practical. There are fairly large areas in the prairie provinces where there are few, if any, alternatives to wheat and it is in these same areas that Canada's high quality wheat is normally produced. Farmers in northern sections where alternative crops are possible will, no doubt weigh the wheat situation very carefully next spring when they make their seeding plans but they will want to be left free to make their own decisions, and rightly so.

There was more steel made in Canada in the first ten months of 1955 than in the whole of 1953; the figures were 3,620,481 tons as compared to 3,113,888 tons.

THE TRUE CONCEPT OF FITNESS

(Extracts from a lecture by Alex G. Mearns, M.D., Lecturer in Glasgow University)

What is meant by fitness? For the youth it may conjure up a vision of muscle-building, the running track or gymnasium — in a word, physical culture. The teen-age girl may tend rather to think in terms of good looks, of lustrous hair, of bright eyes and a clear skin. Both are in a measure correct, but there is more to fitness than its physical aspects, important as they are.

In its broadest sense the concept of fitness should be tripartite, taking into account the spiritual, mental and physical needs of life, and this fact should be kept in mind by all who essay medical or medico-social work. Many who are low in spirit due, let us say, to a tragic bereavement, or a serious and permanent reverse to prospects, see neither purpose nor goal in life, become embittered and cynical, and health suffers. The healer in their case is often not the doctor but the clergyman who, by pointing to the higher purpose in man's affairs, can restore something of the balance and set them on the way to recovery. So it sometimes is with people living alone and spiritually troubled. Others again are undergoing a mental tribulation beyond their capacity, and the mind has not been able to cope. It may be a marital difficulty, or a job of too great a responsibility, but at all events there is in many cases a reflected deterioration of physical fitness, the 'psycho-somatic affect' of the moderns, which will not be overcome until the mental strain has been removed. Still others are in the grip of a bodily malady, tuberculosis for example, which depresses the mind and spirit alike. In such cases physical ailments and mental despondency must be tackled together, since the conviction in the patient's mind that he will recover is a powerful factor in accelerating the healing of the lung lesion. Difficulties of the emotional complex that half-way house between spirit and mind may also occasion a decline in physical health. In summary, the true meaning of fitness is well expressed by the famous triangle of the YMCA which says, in effect, "we care for the spirits, minds and bodies of our members."

Health comes from the pursuance of a seven point regimen, to be varied in its application in accordance with age and development, and that this regimen is nothing more than applied commonsense. Here it is: cleanliness, adequate sleep and rest, fresh air, exercise, balanced diet, sensible clothing, and the right use of leisure.

Cleanliness implies not only the hygiene of the body's surface but also of its interior. Water is the best cleansing agent for the intestine and, contrary to what is apparently a widely held view, will not 'rust the machinery'; it is therefore unnecessary to add alcohol as an anti-corrosive! Cleanliness of food, of clothing and of the environment is also an essential for health.

Sleep is far and away the best restorative of the tired organism. Different people need different amounts, and each must find his own requirements, but an airy room, the minimum of bed clothing for comfort, warm feet, a light meal shortly before retiring and, not least, a calm mind, are the fundamentals for a good night's rest. People should relax more often. This does not mean sitting down with a book, or by the radio. It is the conscious, directive effort of making the body quite limp and the mind a blank for, say, fifteen to thirty minutes each day. The steady cultivation of this habit will bring a sense of well-being not only at the end of the day, but in the evening of life itself.

Fresh air is essential for fitness. Have lots of it in the house by day and by night, and get into the open whenever you can. Breathe well and this means a good carriage to inflate the lungs, and light, loose clothing, so that the skin can breathe too.

Exercise first of all implies an erect posture in standing, walking and sitting. Have you ever really thought about the importance to health of a good posture? It is hygienic, keeping the chest well expanded, abdominal muscles properly tensed, the head high and the feet well placed. It is economic because it is less tiring. It is psychologically sound, because it enables one to look the world in the face. It is aesthetic, and a graceful carriage acquired in youth will make for an upright gait in later years. Walking is fine exercise for all ages. As for games, which are the pleasantest form of exercise, play what you like within your age and physical capacity, and play for fun.

Dietetics for health should mean more than just protein, vitamin and calorific values. It should suggest balanced feeding, fresh clean food, good cookery, attractive service and a pleasant atmosphere in which to eat. Bad cooking and bickering at meals retard digestion; well-cooked dishes and pleasant conversation help it along.

As to clothing, there are three fundamentals. Wear the minimum for warmth, avoid constriction at any point and distribute the garments evenly over the body. Have a basic under set, which need not vary in weight, and add to, or take from, the top layer as the seasons change. Darker shades in winter absorb heat; lighter hued fabrics in summer reflect heat, and help to keep us cool. Buy well-fitting shoes of the proper size, and your feet will not defeat you!

Last, there is the question of leisure activities. Have hobbies, and let them be of two kinds. First a communal hobby by membership of a guild, a youth organization, of a club — doing things together. Second, an individual hobby, such as a handicraft or a collecting interest. Get away from mundane affairs for a spell and sink yourself in the pleasure of creating something of use or beauty. Interests of this kind are a true refreshment of mind and body.

Such then are the commonsense pointers to fitness, and they apply to every man, woman and child.

Among the delusions offered us by fuzzy-minded people is that imaginary creature, the Common Man. It is dinned into us that this is the "Century of the Common Man." The greatest strides of human progress have come from uncommon men and women . . . when we go to war we yearn for an uncommon general or admiral. When we choose the president of a university, we want an uncommon educator. The imperative need at all times is the leadership of the Uncommon Men or Women.

DEWBERRY LADIES' AID HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The December meeting of the Dewberry Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. J. S. McKay. There were thirteen members present and three visitors.

We opened with a Xmas hymn, "Silent Night". Following this Mrs. J. Porter read the one hundredth psalm. Mrs. D. Munroe read from the Upper Room leaving us with this message: "In Christ we have life abundant and peace."

Minutes were read and adopted. The treasurer gave her monthly report. We would like to thank all those who helped make our supper a success, whether it was a donation, your talent or by just patronizing us. We feel it was an evening of really good fellowship — thanks!

Sunshine Lady gave her report, mainly cards to Mrs. Parker, Mr. Hornigold and Mr. Young.

An article about the work Mrs. Hitschmanova has been doing was read by Mrs. A. Smith. Motion was made that we send a box of good, clean used clothing to the Unitarian Service.

Congratulations to our minister Mr. McGuffin on his recent marriage.

Our President then led us in the Benediction. Following this our hostess, Mrs. McKay, assisted by Mrs F. Braithwaite, served a very delicious lunch. Next meeting will be held at Mrs. Munroe's.

The Christmas service will be held in the hall on Dec. 18. Everyone welcome.

May we take this opportunity to wish the staff of the Vermilion Standard a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

May we all remember that "Christmas is for Christ".

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Dec. 19th, 1923

LONDON, Dec. 17. — The Liberal party will hold a meeting to-morrow when the party will decide on policy and elect a leader. As a government with any sort of stability can only be secured through some agreement or understanding between two parties, the question arises whether that inevitable understanding is to be between the Conservatives and Liberals, or between the Liberals and Laborites.

We are pleased to note that another Vermilion farmer is among the prize winners at the recent Chicago show in the person of Jas. R. Tattersall, who won 13th place with an exhibit of oats. It will be remembered that at the same show last year Mr. Tattersall stood 20th.

The editor wishes to express his appreciation of a gift of a nice Xmas turkey from Mr. Gordon Dunsmore of Claysmore.

Vermilion Curling club opened the season Monday night. Three sheets of ice are being utilized at present and it is expected that owing to the heavy membership the fourth sheet will be required for future draws. There are some 18 rinks signed.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Dec. 21st, 1939

Possibly the biggest news to break here for a long time and certainly the most welcome, is word that the Town of Vermilion will definitely have a natural gas supply early in the summer of 1940. This fact was assured during the week when negotiations were consummated by a contract being signed by the Franco Oils Ltd. and the Waintown Gas and Oil Co., as represented by J. L. Wilson, whereby the Franco Company was assigned the gas franchise held by Waintown Oil Co. The town council, which granted the original franchise, has already agreed to the transfer.

A very interesting little ceremony was observed at the Board of Trade luncheon on Monday at noon when President Albert M West presented Elmer Landmark, student at the V.S.A. with a scholarship for $25. This is an annual award made by the Board of Trade to the first year agricultural school student who attains the highest standing in the practical subjects of the first year course.

The December meeting of the W.I. was held on Wednesday evening Dec 13th at the home of Mrs. L. Kehoe. This was the annual meeting and the election of officers for 1940 resulted as follows: President, Mrs J. J. Culford; 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs W. Waldenberger, 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. C. C. Smith; Secretary, Mrs. H. Marfleet; Treasurer, Mrs. Linsdell; Directors: Mrs. J. W. G. Morrison, Mrs. Jory, Mrs. A. Cameron. Press Secy., Mrs. Cairns; Sick Committee, Mrs. E. H. Bailey, Mrs. C. C. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Colbert of Edmonton are spending the week in Vermilion, guests at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Part.

Mrs. R. A. Bowman and young son Robert Gerald arrived on Monday from their home in Placentia, Calif., and will spend the next month here visiting Mrs. Bowman's mother Mrs. H. N. Stephens and family.

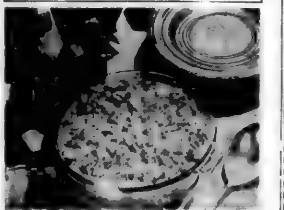
PUT "PLANNED-OVERS" IN MENUS



Plan a chicken or turkey dinner with an eye to the next day's meal. "Planned-overs" sometimes bring the most [illegible]

Lock the secret in your heart. Let family or friends think the luscious casserole was a spur of the moment idea to use up last bits of the bird. Only you need know that the condensed cream of chicken soup, canned or frozen peas and bag of potato chips so handy on the shelf were part of the strategy.

Of course, it's wise to stock up on staples, regardless. For if appetites exceed their usual bounds or extra guests arrive, the chicken may disappear at meal one. In that case, you can still treat the family to a "planned-over" casserole the next day by using canned chicken or turkey. Or perhaps you'll want to pull out the recipe some busy day when company stays past mealtime. It can save the meal in so many directions.

"PLANNED-OVER" CHICKEN CASSEROLE

1 can (1¼ cups) condensed cream of chicken soup or cream of mushroom soup
⅓ cup milk
1 cup cubed cooked chicken or turkey
1¼ cups crushed potato chips
1 cup cooked green peas, drained

[illegible] Add chicken, 1 cup potato chips and peas to soup; stir well. [illegible] top with remaining ⅓ cup potato chips. Bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) for 20 minutes. 4 servings.

Ways to vary a "planned-over" casserole:

Instead of cream of chicken soup, use cream of celery or cream of mushroom soup.

Instead of chicken, use tuna or salmon (with these, use celery soup).

Instead of potato chips, use butter crackers, cereal flakes, or corn chips.

Instead of green peas use green beans, lima beans, or corn.

Instead of a casserole, bake mixture in individual baking dishes.

BIG BUILDING YEAR

1956 will be another $5 billion-plus year for the Canadian construction industry, predicts The Financial Post. Average job-site labor force will be 300,000 not including those employed in manufacture transportation and selling of construction materials and equipment. As in 1955, nearly one out of every five dollars spent on end goods and services in Canada will go for construction.

"GREEN ACRES"

TOPS FOR A. R.

The highest scoring pig at the Advanced Registry Station this fall was a gilt 23K-T44 belonging to Mr Roderick MacMillan. This pig scored 95%. It was almost perfect for balance, that is 25% shoulder, 30% middle and 25% ham. This litter on test was farrowed by Foxview 28H. They were all slaughtered at 161 days of age. It is not too often that such time is achieved by all members of a test litter. The sire of this remarkable gilt, Foxview H017 is a qualified A.R. boar and stood eighth placing at the Toronto Royal Fair this year. It is certainly good to know that pigs of this caliber are being raised right here in the Vermilion area. Congratulations Mr MacMillan, keep up the good work.

ALKALI SPOTS

Drainage and manure is considered as one of the best solutions for local alkali spots. However, often drainage is not possible. The only other solution is to try and grow plants tolerant to the salts, this can be done providing the salts are not too concentrated. Among such grasses, tall wheat grass is one of the most alkali tolerant and also fairly good in wet conditions. Slender wheat grass is also good and in dry areas crested wheat grass is suitable. Reed canary grass is useful on wet land which is only slightly alkaline. Sweet clover does well on moderately alkaline soils and also alfalfa will stand considerable alkali once established.

BLOCK SALT

The loose iodized salt fed free choice in a box is far better than block salt for winter feeding. It is difficult for cattle to get all they require from a block in cold weather. If you are feeding no other mineral supplement mix 50% bonemeal with the salt.

COOL — DON'T FREEZE

Freezing of milk or cream changes the flavor and leaves a rough or mealy texture. Also, it is hard for the plant to get a fair sample to test for butterfat from frozen samples. Ship a first grade product, cool properly and avoid freezing: it will mean more money in your pocket.

WOLFE BARLEY

From all reports it appears that Wolfe Barley will be suited very well for this district. Wolfe is a six rowed, smooth awned barley developed from a cross of Sanalta, Titan 2, Montcalm and Olli and licensed in 1954. Wolfe is only four days later than Olli and has more resistance to lodging. It compares in yield with Newal, Vantage and Montcalm and matures from 3 to 8 days earlier than these varieties. Wolfe is a feed barley and is not suitable for malting. There should be a fair supply of seed available this year.

Big Auto Boom

Canada's auto industry will spend $250 millions on production facility expansion during the next ten years reports The Financial Post. By 1965 the car makers expect to be turning out 600,000 units a year. Canadians will be driving six million vehicles and the one-car family will be in the minority. Automobile manufacturers have spent $260 millions on plant growth since 1945. The next expansion will take hold within the next two years.

Wedding Bells

SJOQUIST—HENRY

The Paradise Valley United church was the setting for a lovely wedding November 29th, when Miss Doreen Vivian Henry, second daughter of Mr and Mrs. Glen R. Henry, became the bride of Mr. Carl O. Sjoquist, son of Mr. O. Sjoquist of Dina.

The church was decorated with flowers and white and mauve streamers for the occasion. Mauve flowers marked the guest pews.

Rev. D. D. Davidson performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white nylon net over satin and carried a white bible and orchids, cascade style. Her headdress was a crown of seed pearls and finger-tip veil.

For her sister's wedding the matron of honor, Mrs. Rex Hatchard, wore a floor length gown of mauve nylon and net, and matching mittens.

Miss Atena Rayon, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid, wore a floor length gown of pale green taffeta with nylon net overskirt and matching mittens.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black and white chromespun taffeta.

Mr. Harold Sjoquist, brother of the groom, was best man, and Mr. Rex Hatchard and Mr. Roy Hauge were ushers.

Music for the wedding was played by Mrs. M. Hoskins, and Miss Marilyn Adams was soloist.

After the ceremony the guests gathered at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. R. Smith, to toast the happy young couple.

At a reception for over ninety guests, held at the United church hall, Mr. E. Walter proposed a toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded. Mr. Harold Sjoquist proposed a toast to the bridesmaid.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Colin Fraser of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sjoquist of Edgerton, Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnson and Darleen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilmot, Joan and Mervin and Mr Chas. Rohla of Lloydminster, Mr. Frank Venner of Calgary, Mr. Dale Conaroe and Mr. Arthur Swayne, all of Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sjoquist gave a wedding dance for their friends in the McLaughlin hall.

For a wedding trip to Edmonton the bride wore a suit of beige gabardine with red accessories.

Mr and Mrs Sjoquist will make their home at Paradise Valley. The best wishes of the community go to this popular young couple for their future happiness.

There is a great deal more to selling cattle than meets the eye. During the months and years in which the cattleman builds up his ranch and improves his stock, he frequently works in close partnership with the Provincial Treasury Branches.

This partnership is of great importance to the whole of Alberta. For an active ranch and farm economy means higher living standards for the entire Province. Savings, loans, drafts, fire insurance and many other conveniences are handled swiftly and competently by the Provincial Treasury Branches.

Women's Institute District Convener's Monthly Letter

December 2, 1955.

Hi Everyone:

Let's face it. It's winter! In spite of all we can do — it's winter. I know it the morning a voice called very early up the stairs — "Mom, where'd you put my wool mitts? I left them right there the last time I used them, and they're gone." The last time he used them, (last May), and they're gone. Well! Well! A hurried search reveals that the right hand of each of two pairs has gone the way of all good mitts, so isn't "mix 'em or match 'em" the modern way? We "mixed 'em" to meet the emergency, and out come the knitting needles. But footwear, not so easy. What happens to winter footwear over those summer months, that makes a pair of flight boots that looked pretty fair last spring, a total loss in the face of a late October snowstorm? That crack in the side of that left one — now who did that?

And horror of horrors! Those poor roosters out there, standing first on one leg and then on the other, looking with doleful eyes at their frozen water pail and snow-covered feed trough. But we'll be kind to them — we'll cut their heads off right away and put them in the deep freeze. They'll be a lot better off there.

So in a flurry of storm windows, footwear and feathers, the days fly by and with them go all our hopes of a [illegible] warm Indian summer, for here it is December!

But to be serious, there are a few things I'd like to bring to your attention before the new year. The first of these — Standing Committees.

I wonder if all the branches are really giving the Standing Committees the place they deserve? They are considered the backbone of our organization and can contribute so much to our meetings in educational value that one should be represented at every meeting if at all possible. You know of course that we have eight committees, representing Health, United Nations, Canadian Industry and Agriculture, Home Economics, Education, Citizenship, Handicraft and Social Services. Your program every month should include a topic from one of these. It may be a paper read, a guest speaker, a film, a demonstration — but something! It is a definite responsibility of the convener of that particular committee to arrange it. I think every branch should be able to get around to all the committees during the year, even if the topic is only five or ten minutes long, and still get in your delegates' reports, constituency convener's visit and so on. Don't let our meeting become mere statements of how we made money and how we spent it. That's important too, but the social and educational side of our meetings are also important, and will hold the interets of our members much better than mere figures. For example: Your convener on Canadian Industry and Agriculture could read an article on the 'Bank Loan to Farmers', or 'Compulsory Marketing Boards' and perhaps start a discussion on it. If your members know by their program booklets that a buzz session on Agriculture is coming up, they'll keep their eyes on the papers and their ears on the radio for information. Actually we will become much more interesting people, because we are more interested people. As one husband put it, "I like the W. I.! Since joining it my wife has been so interested in reading things and doing things tha' she hasn't nearly so much time to grouch at me!" You'll have no more trouble with roll calls either because you can relate them to the topic of the day.

So, in making out your monthly program booklets plan your meeting around your topic, also your roll calls -- plan a time for business— state who brings lunch, the meeting place date etc. Don't forget your annual meeting when you will have to allow time for election of officers, also the meeting following conventions and conferences when you will want to allow time for your delegate to speak. When the year has ended you'll find that everyone in your W.I. has done her bit and even your most retiring member will be contributing, according to her talents. And above all, she'll be interested!

MRS. FRED MADDEX OF VERMILION, HONORED

An interesting presentation was made at the W.I. constituency meeting Saturday, Nov 26th. Mrs Fred Maddex of Vermilion, a member of the first Women's Institute formed in Alberta, at Lea Park in 1909, was presented by Mrs. R. Mead, on behalf of the Vermilion Alexandra W.I. constituency, with a gift of a china cup and saucer and a guest book in which to record the names of all who drink from her cup.

Mrs. Maddex then very suitably thanked the delegates who were present from the different branches, and cordially invited all to drop in for a cup of tea from her W. I. cup, and to record their names in her guest book.

She gave a brief account of her membership in the group, naming some of her fellow members. Because of transportation problems there were always some husbands at the meetings, and some of these were named honorary members.

HANDICRAFT LISTS

To the branches who were not represented at the Nov. 26th meeting, the slightly revised lists will be mailed very shortly.

Now, let me see — Christmas cake, Christmas cards, Christmas presents, more feathers — it'll be here before we know it. Merry Christmas everyone — and I do mean 'Merry'!

Sincerely,
Your Const. Convener.

Time for a QUICK PICK-UP

You don't argue with a locomotive. So a manufacturer of rail equipment has developed a lightweight rail inspection car that carries four people yet can be taken off the track by one man.

Since men who design rail cars, aircraft and other transportation equipment regularly use aluminum to cut down dead weight and increase pay load, it is no surprise that aluminum was used to replace heavier materials in many parts of this inspection car. The person who will be surprised is the locomotive engineer who first sees a rail inspector nonchalantly— and single-handedly — hoisting his [illegible] from the track.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

An expert driver I know makes a living by breaking traffic rules and regulations in several different cities. With the full co-operation of police and traffic officials, he gets into his car and races through the city ignoring red lights, stop signs, speed laws and go-slow warnings.

Then, when his hair-raising-course has been run, he goes back over the same route and obeys every traffic rule to the letter. The difference in time usually amounts to about three minutes.

You and I have both seen this type of driver — only he's not an expert and not paid to demonstrate safety lessons. He's the fellow (or woman) who screams by you on highway hills, dodges in and out of city traffic like a broken field runner, and makes you uneasy about your children going to school a few blocks away.

These 'devil take the hind most' drivers are problems for [illegible] local traffic officers and the courts — but there are two immediate steps you can take now: (a), drive sanely yourself and (b), teach your youngsters, by example and explanation, safe driving habits.

No need for your son or daughter to face manslaughter charges later if you start your own family driving education now.

Christmas shopping — Christmas cooking — and Christmas entertaining! As usual, there's more than enough excitement in the holiday season to last the year round. But after all's said and done, the real fun of Christmas comes not from what we spend on gifts but from the time we spend with our family and friends at home. From the Lovett's to all our friends (actually more than 250,000 readers) — the Happiest Christmas ever!

It may not sound very glamorous but the fact is that most of the last minute Christmas shopping is done in jewellery and hardware stores. Honestly, I find them about the likeliest places in town for gifts to fill a Xmas stocking.

How about making sure now that you do take those Christmas party and Christmas Eve photographs. Here are some tips on indoor photography: Leave the room lights on, as they help intensify the flash. In fact, if the walls are a dark color the more light the better.

PHOTOGRAPHY TIPS

Your subject should be at least six feet from the camera. Discourage the subject, especially if its children, from posing. Ask them to talk and don't let them stare at the camera. Be sure you take several shots of each subject.

Incidentally, photoflash batteries are far better than ordinary flashlight batteries. They cost only a few pennies more but give much better results and, also, you get many more pictures per battery. So they are actually cheaper in the long run.

During the holiday season there will be many a dish washing chore of roasts and broiler pans. It takes just a moment to sprinkle a layer of detergent over the pan right after you remove the food. Then put a wet paper towel over the detergent. You'll find it makes washing so much easier later on.

Every winter Bill stores two or three gunny sacks in the trunk of the car. They serve him well whenever the car gets mired in mud or slush. By the way, an Eveready flashlight is a useful gift for any motorist.

Here's a quick, no fuss, no muss, 'shortcake' family and friends will enjoy - fill fresh plain doughnuts with crushed fruit in the centre and top with whipped cream.

So that you can catch an hour or so more sleep on Xmas morning why not have Santa Claus fill the children's Christmas stockings and leave them at their bedside? When they wake up, as they do, early Christmas morning, they spend a happy hour of exploration.

Bill says: The easiest way to teach children the value of money is to borrow some from them.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

(Held over from last week)

The weather has been 'just' winter! On Nov. 28th in some places here in Allandale the thermometer registered from 35 to 40 below.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidt (nee Helen Nelson) of town on the birth of a son, David Nelson, on Nov. 25th. Daughter Susan is with her Nelson grandparents on the farm.

Mrs. Dorothy Johnson has returned from visiting her daughter June, and Allen at Stettler. On her departure June and Allen left for a holiday in the States. She is now visiting her daughter Joyce and Eddie Lyons in town. Before coming to Vermilion she visited a week in Edmonton where son Ronnie is working in a garage. Her plans are to go to Creston, B.C., after the holidays to be with her mother.

Square dancing was enjoyed in Clandonald with a very efficient manager and caller from Mannville. The second lesson was on Nov. 29th in the Columbus hall. It was good to see a large attendance and an enthusiastic crowd having such a wonderful time. Lunch was served after.

There was a good attendance at a Stanley party held at the Idelore Nelson home on the evening of Nov. 29. It was nice to see the ladies and men out from town. The men enjoyed game of euchre while Mrs. Vera McLean from Islay demonstrated her ware to the ladies. Her husband Bill accompanied her over the not-too-good roads.

ALLANDALE W. A. MEETS

The annual meeting was held at the Idelore Nelson home on the afternoon of Dec. 1. The slate of officers is much the same as the previous year. Bazaar material will be ordered by the secretary for the work in the new year. January meeting will be at the McPhee home on the second Thursday. In charge of lunch will be Mrs. Baldock and Mrs. Nelson. Roll call, a miscellaneous article.

We enjoyed the presentation and evening's entertainment in Clandonald on Dec. 1st. A very thrilling experience for Marilyn Bruise, her parents and family. To all those who made the evening so interesting and enjoyable we are truly grateful.

Sorry to hear Mr. Edwards was taken to the Vermilion hospital the first of last week. A speedy recovery is wished him.

Dad McBride is getting on very well and from reports he is a really grand patient.

Mrs. Hilda Cross spent the last week end in the city and visiting daughter Betty and Ray at Fort Saskatchewan.

Allandale was well represented at the card party at Island Hill hall on the evening of Dec. 2, put on by the Princess Anne W. I.

Conclusion: "Ready for Xmas?" You've worked, it is true, but just doing the things you wanted to do. Ready for Xmas? Your circle's too small, why, you are not ready for Christmas at all! She awoke with a start, and a cry of despair, there's so little time and I've still to prepare. O Father, forgive me, I see what you mean, to be ready means more than a house swept clean. Yes, more than the giving of gifts and a tree, 'tis the heart swept clean that He wants to see, a heart that is free from bitterness and sin — ready for Christmas, and ready for Him!

A Merry Christmas To One and All!

Buffalo Coulee Gym Officially Opened

More than 250 people gathered at the Buffalo Coulee school on Friday evening, Dec. 9 to celebrate the official opening of the new gymnasium and classroom which have been added to the school facilities there.

William Bushko, Principal of the Buffalo Coulee school, acted as Master of Ceremonies for the evening's entertainment. The program started with a variety of selections offered by the various rooms of the school. These numbers were very thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

R. Hinton, chairman of the Vegreville School Division board spoke to the gathering, recounting the history of schools in Alberta with particular reference to that of the Vegreville division. Buffalo Coulee school started with only two rooms in 1947. In 1953 the power line was brought to the school and the teacherage; this was followed the next year by the installation of a water pressure system. Now with these advantages, the Buffalo Coulee school has grown to four classrooms and the lovely new gymnasium which can also be used as an auditorium.

Tom Smith, chairman of the local school board, expressed his congratulations to the Divisional Board on the planning and execution of the improvements in the Buffalo Coulee school.

The president of the Home and School Association added his congratulations and best wishes on the occasion of the opening of the gym. He also said that the parents of the students were very pleased to have the improved facilities for the education of their children.

The advantages of the more centralized schools, and of the modern educational methods, reflected the many improvements and the higher standards of the homes, was the feeling of Russell Whitson, M.L.A. for the constituency.

B. F. Facey, superintendent of schools for the Vegreville Division, told the assembly that he thought the addition to the school should be used for community activities as well as its regular use as a gymnasium for school purposes. It could serve as a community centre and thus utilized to the fullest possible extent.

The guest speaker for the evening was the Hon. A. A. Aalborg, Minister of Education for the province of Alberta. He congratulated the people of Buffalo Coulee on their achievement in adding so materially to the facilities of their school and community. He commented also on the very excellent program of entertainment provided by the school children with the help of their teachers.

In officially opening the additions to the school Mr. Aalborg presented the school with a beautifully framed picture of Rocky Mountain scenery, and also with a copy of Alberta's Golden Jubilee Anthology for use in the school library.

The evening was concluded, after lunch was served by the ladies of the committee, by inspection of the new school premises.

Stores Open Friday Evening

Stores in Vermilion will remain open to 9:00 p.m. this Friday, December 23rd to give Christmas shoppers three extra hours to select their gifts.

Commencing Dec. 24, stores will close at 6:00 p.m. on Saturdays. So remember — No Saturday night shopping this week.

Elks Plan New Year's Night Frolic

Vermilion Elks will hold Vermilion and district's big New Year's celebration on New Year's night instead of the usual New Year's eve this year. The reason is of course, that New Year's eve is Saturday night and people do not believe in frolicing on Sunday. To avoid this the Elks will open the doors of their hall at 11:30 Sunday evening, and dancing will commence at 12:05 with all the fun and favors, noise makers and confetti of former years.

The Elks New Year's dance is the big public event of the holiday season, a good time is provided and a grand opportunity to see old friends home for the Yuletide.

Turkeys To Value Of $1400.00 Sold At 4-H Club Show and Sale

Despite severe weather, the Vermilion 4-H Turkey show and sale went over very well. There were 140 turkeys sold by auction at an average price of 47c per pound. Average weight of the dressed birds was 20½ lbs. Mr. Chester Gamble, the auctioneer, kept the sale going at a high pitch. The buyers responded with quick and accurate bidding.

Mr. Fred Higginson, former poultry commissioner from Edmonton, did an excellent job in judging the live classes. Top honors in the live hen class went to Josie McDonald, and second to Bob Ross of Vermilion. In the live tom class Shirley McDonald won first and Joyce Armstrong second.

In the dressed class, Doreen Dicke won grand champion with her 17½ lb hen, which sold to Vermilion Food Lockers for [illegible] per pound. Donald Dixon had Reserve Champion, a hen weighing 15¾ lbs. and brought 85c a pound from Shoprite. First prize dressed tom was shown by Ralph Dicke and second by Dorothy Gow.

A commendable job of judging the dressed birds was done by Mr. Crawford, supervisor of grading in the Marketing division. Mr. Crawford was assisted by Mr. Robert McMillan, poultry commissioner for the province.

Gordon Johnson from the Department of Agriculture assisted E. H. Buckingham and Bruce Jeffery in organizing the show and sale.

Thanks are extended to all buyers who helped make the show and sale a success.

Congratulations are in order for the members of Vermilion 4-H Turkey club. All the boys and girls had a fine group of turkeys on display this year and showed an excellent job had been done of feeding and fitting. Special prizes will be announced in the next issue of the Standard.

Stagettes Holly Frolic Holiday Feature

Boxing Day night is the Stagettes Holly Frolic. This will be held in the Elks hall the evening of Dec. 26th. The Holly Frolic is always a much anticipated holiday gathering and gives a grand opportunity to renew many old acquaintances with friends home for the festive season. It's a dandy jolly holiday dance with a swell bunch of hostesses — the Vermilion Stagettes.

C.G.I.T. Choir Sings Carols At Hospital

The members of the choir of the Canadian Girls in Training, along with the leaders of the group visited the Vermilion Municipal hospital on Monday evening singing carols to the patients and staff. The girls enjoyed the experience while the patients were very pleased to have the choir render them such an enjoyable program.

Cummings Old Timer Passes Away

Mrs. Helen Reid Wilson, widow of the late Fred Wilson, a long time resident of the Cummings district, died in the Vermilion Municipal hospital on December 21st. Mrs. Wilson was very well known and had many friends, both in the country south of town and in Vermilion itself. She was 73 years of age.

She is survived by one son Robert of Chauvin; two daughters Mrs. F. Arthur and Mrs. W. Brook, both of Vermilion.

Funeral services will be held at Auburndale church on Friday, Dec. 23 at 2 p.m. Rev. C. W. Mackay will officiate. Interment will take place in Mount Auburn cemetery. Meyers are in charge of funeral arrangements.

Air Cadet Party Much Enjoyed

Members of 97 Squadron, Vermilion Air Cadets, their officers and members of the Civilian committee, entertained the Cadets' parents and friends at a jolly dance and turkey supper in the armories recently. The whole evening was very successful, and as one of the boys stated, the turkey supper was "scrumptious".

During the supper intermission Neil MacLean, secretary of the committee, expressed the appreciation of the association for the excellent services and training given by the officers and instructors of the Vermilion Air Cadet squadron. Long known as one of the best squadrons in Alberta its success can be traced to the group of leaders who take such a keen interest in the boys and in Air Cadet work.

Elks Enjoy Annual Christmas Party

Following a short business session the Vermilion Elks Lodge was host to its members and their ladies at a most enjoyable Christmas party in their commodious hall on Tuesday evening this week.

With excellent music being provided by the Williams orchestra, dancing held sway until 12:30 a.m. The dances were interspersed with vocal numbers by the Elks quartet, Messrs. Jim Ball, Bert Hornig, Jim Ferguson and Frank Schmidt.

After midnight tables were set up and the company were treated to a most complete turkey supper. The whole evening was thoroughly enjoyable and was replete with the good fellowship in keeping with the spirit of the season.

Too much praise cannot be given to Elks Marshall Jackson and Alan Le Rossignol and their committees for the capable manner in which the evening's entertainment was carried out and an excellent supper served.

Viking Gas Kings Here Wednesday, Dec. 28

Viking Gas Kings will be the Christmas week hockey attraction at Vermilion, playing here on Wednesday Dec. 28 commencing at 8:30 p.m. The Tigers are still hunting for their first victory and will be points hungry that night, so fans can expect an all out effort.

The Tigers have lost their first two starts, to Wainwright and St. Paul. Their first game scheduled at Wainwright for Saturday, Dec. 17 was postponed due to road and weather conditions.

Following the Dec. 28th games no more action is billed for the E.A.H.L. until Saturday Jan. 9th when all six teams see action.

The Standard hasn't been able to gather up hockey results of other teams to date but hopes to have the league standing after the holidays.

Large Congregation Attends Carol Service At St. Saviour's

The service of the Nine Lessons and Nine Carols, which has become a Christmas season tradition at St. Saviour's Anglican church, was held on Sunday night last.

The singing was led by the senior and junior choirs of 34 voices. The carols sung were all old favorites, so that the congregation joined in the singing with a will.

The junior choir sang the carol "Whence Come You, O Shepherd", and their leader, Mrs. Minchin, is to be congratulated on the prowess of her twenty-one young charges.

In the carol "We Three Kings" the solo parts were sung by Wm. Fooks, Keith King and Thos. Watts. Solo parts in "Good King Wenceslas" were taken by Mr. Dick Cook, and the part of the page boy by Kenny Mercer of the junior choir.

The senior choir rendered several carols to round out the very pleasing musical portion of the service.

The nine lessons were read by male members of the congregation, for the most part chosen from the vestry.

Sing At Hospital

St. Saviour's Anglican church choir were welcome visitors at the hospital Monday night where they sang a number of Christmas carols for the patients and staff.

Three Holidays At Christmas

Stores and business places in the Town of Vermilion will be closed for three consecutive days, Xmas, Sunday, Dec. 25; Monday, Dec. 26, and Tuesday, Dec. 27. This makes a three-day vacation and all and sundry are warned to lay in a good supply of foodstuffs to tide them over the much anticipated and pleasant holiday.

Issue of Standard Cancelled Next Week

Following the custom of recent years which is now quite commonly observed by weekly newspapers, the issue of the Standard between Christmas and New Year's, Dec. 29, will be suspended. As pointed out in previous years, the week itself is well punctured by holidays, the business men are never in their best ad writing mood, and the Standard staff needs one week when they are not desperately trying to beat a deadline to avoid a nervous breakdown!

The next issue of the Standard will therefore be on Thursday, Jan. 5th, 1956.

The staff will not be on holidays however and the office will be open for business as usual, with job work customers getting the preference for what is left of the week.

Schools Open Tuesday, Jan. 3

Schools in Vermilion school division will close on Friday afternoon, Dec. 23rd for the Christmas holidays. They will reopen on Tuesday morning, January 3rd, 1956.

Christmas exams are over! The students now take a short break before entering into another term in the new year.

There is nothing in the way of A team basketball to report this week as neither the boys or girls have played any games. House league basketball ended on Dec. 7. Cutman came out on top with 21 points, Laurier second with 15 and Service third with just four points. However, Service intends to lead in curling which commences in the new year.

Along the hockey line we find that once again Kinsmen have organized the Midgets and this year the Air Cadets have formed a team.

Speaking about hockey, who was that on the Tiger forward line Monday night? Why none other than Bryan Ford! It's nice to see you there Bryan.

Instead of the usual Xmas concert the Students Union are taking the students of the high school to the armories where the film 'Oliver Twist' will be shown.

To the staff of the Vermilion Standard we give our thanks for the front page position and for accepting our notes even though they have often been late.

VERMILION, ALBERTA, THURSDAY DECEMBER 22nd, 1955

CHRISTMAS — A HOME DAY — Christmas is essentially a home day. Children troop home from school wildly excited about the day of all days. Young people from college or business have been looking forward to this for weeks. Those from a distance strive to make home at all costs. If they fail they phone and if they cannot get through on the phone they wire. The one thought [illegible] than any other gripped the boys and girls in the forces was home — home at Christmas, giving and receiving gifts, enjoying a Christmas dinner, just sitting around relaxed, chatting about this and that, playing with the children, trying to make their mechanical toys work.

It is a wonderful day, for most people spent in the home. It may be a little cottage perhaps a larger house or even a more pretentious building, but it is not the building that makes the home. It is the spirit of those who live inside its walls. The parents, brothers, sisters who are bound together in a common concern for each other.

It is hard for us who live in the twentieth century to think of a time when the home did not hold the affections and the interest of the family that it does today. But the family as we know it is a Christian institution. Before the Christian era children were all but ignored. They had to be fed and clothed, of course, but that was [illegible]. Women too were but the slaves of men. They had a very inferior place in the family.

Christianity changed all that. Jesus set a child in the midst of a crowd and gave him the position of prominence. Women too were given new status in the society that He established. The home is a Christian institution. Whatever good there is in it stemmed from the teaching of the founder of our faith.

It is a good thing once in a while to remind ourselves of that, especially at Christmas when all the family will be together. We quite often forget the debt we owe to our religion. Christmas is a Christian festival. More people are thinking about this aspect of it than for many years. "Make Christmas Christian" is a good motto for this year and every year. A world in turmoil needs a Christmas when in quiet innocent joys, the intimate association of the home happiness may be found.

OUR BEST WISHES

Peace on Earth. Goodwill to all men. Merry Christmas: Happy and Prosperous New Year.

These are the traditional ways of expressing sentiments connected with this season of the year.

There is nothing better than the good old fashioned Christmas greeting and the Vermilion Standard takes this opportunity to extend to its readers and advertisers, job work patrons and friends wherever they may be, best wishes for a Merry Christmas and Prosperous New Year.

The Standard takes this opportunity too, to acknowledge the excellent co-operation given throughout the year indeed through many many years, by the correspondents in surrounding towns, villages and country districts. While words cannot fully express our deepest appreciation for a job well done, co-operation of these correspondents has greatly helped to make the Standard more interesting to the hundreds of households it serves throughout the area.

Thanks also to the many other friends who take the time and effort to write up and send in, or tell us, of news items which come to their attention. These good people live in both town and country and their help and thoughtfulness is deeply appreciated.

To one and all the Standard extends hearty good wishes.

There will be some who will try and stimulate a sort of false enjoyment for Christmas by other than the simple associations of the family. There are always some of that kind. For them we have a bit of advice — keep sober, keep alive. A home, a Christmas can easily be wrecked if even one member gets into trouble with liquor. If you drink, do not drive, and if you drive, do not drink. Be sure and stay alive and make this a Christian Christmas.

WINTER FIRES NEED CARE

Winter is a time to handle fire cautiously according to A. E. Bridges, Provincial Fire Commissioner. Experience shows that every year some unalerted members of Alberta communities have become the victims of uncontrolled fire.

A quick glance at the recurring causes of loss of life should in itself be a fair warning:

(1) If you use kerosene to quicken fires;

(2) If you overload your stoves and furnaces with fuel and neglect to check the drafts;

(3) If you leave small children alone in the home;

(4) If you are careless with cigarettes or have the habit of smoking in bed;

(5) If you handle gasoline in buildings in open containers or glass containers;

you or your family are in danger of death from fire. Avoid these conditions as you would a plague. Look upon them as killers for such they are.

"My duty is to remind you of the causes which repeatedly cause loss of life," stresses Mr. Bridges. "It is everybody's duty to see to it that fire will not get out of control through neglect or because of ignorance of the conditions under which fire can kill."

Home and School Meets At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — The Mannville District Home and School Association met one week earlier this month because of the school concert which was to have been held on Dec. 15th (their regular night).

Film strips were shown during the first part of the evening and after the regular business part of the meeting. The Course of Studies in Arithmetic (2nd in the series) was reported on by Mrs. Lugg for Gr. 4, Mrs. Gamble for Gr. 5 and Mr. Bohaichuk for Gr. 6. Each teacher welcomed questions and a discussion period after giving the main points of arithmetic taught in each of the three grades. It was decided by the parents present that more advanced arithmetic should be taught in the first three grades.

Christmas Carols led by Mr. Robin Stuart, accompanied by Mrs. Younge were sung. Coffee and sandwiches were then served.

The V.S.A. [illegible] wrote their Christmas exams during Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and then left immediately for home. The Christmas banquet was held Sunday, Dec. 18th. Classes resume Wednesday, Jan. 4th.

Pleasant Valley News

It's nothing but a snow drifted valley these days.

Reading the local news of all the blizzard conditions throughout the country it really makes one afraid to go too far away from home. But our news is missed, so we read.

Last Sunday night the Giles family and the Gould family enjoyed a lovely turkey pot luck dinner at the home of Lloyd and Betty Gould. Pot luck! Who said that? The luck was a lovely turkey which Doris had cooked nice 'n brown. This district is noted for good eats folks — just like a Xmas dinner. Our next one is going to be a Chinese chop suey feast, yum, yum. Betty and Doris are famed for that dish also.

Congratulations to Jean and Keith Inman on the birth of a son on Sunday morning. Congrats also to Grandad Inman.

We hope, Mrs. Jones, that you are improving in health everyday and trust you are able to keep warm this wintry weather.

Laurence Gould was stranded in the big blizzard too. He left early in the morning, taking his tractor to Vermilion. On Tuesday he started back trying both highways but had to turn back in each case. He stayed with Jean and Keith and returned home Wednesday. The plow came through on highway 16, the tractor was left in town, and Laurence marched home to the tune of "I'm in the Army now". Christie fed the stock and milked the cow. What a dutiful wife.

Len Giles and Louise are spending a few days on the farm with Mrs. Giles. Doris and Ed from town were Sunday visitors also.

To all the scribes, readers, the Editor and staff a very "Happy Christmas and New Year".

A Christmas Greeting to Our Wonderful Community

Christmas time is one of those rare occasions when our thoughts turn from the more material things of life to the nobler, more beautiful ones . . . .

. . . . to our loved ones and our personal friends,

. . . . to our business friends and associates,

We realize that were it not for the goodwill and friendly feeling of folks like you, we would not have been privileged to enjoy much of the happiness which has been ours this year.

As an expression, therefore, of our genuine appreciation of your goodwill, we extend to you our most sincere good wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

The United Church Xmas concert was held Monday evening with a good attendance despite the cold. It was held in the church and included drills, recitations and Xmas carols.

The Anglican Xmas concert was held in the Orange hall on Wednesday evening. The Catholic children met in the parish hall Thursday afternoon for their Xmas party. Of course the big attraction at all the concerts was the appearance of Santa Claus and here's hoping he didn't get lost in one of the numerous snow banks on his way home.

The school concert was held in the auditorium Wednesday afternoon and the children in the west school took part. The teachers have been at quite a disadvantage with some of the children still unable to get in but the parents appreciate the time and effort taken to put on this concert. It is always a pleasure to watch the small ones in drills, solos, recitations etc.

On Friday last Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whitson met Georgie in Edmonton coming home from Brantford, Ont. for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith and family moved this past week end to Edmonton where they have purchased a home in one of the new areas.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCauley left this week for a visit in Minneapolis. They will spend Xmas with Mr. McCauley's uncle who is over 90 years of age.

Christ Church W.A. wish to sincerely thank all those who donated or helped in any way to make the bazaar on Saturday Dec. 3 the success it was.

On Saturday afternoon the children of the town and district were treated to a free show at the Alta theatre by the local Board of Trade. Santa made his appearance between shows and each child was given a bag of candy and nuts.

The Board of Trade held a luncheon meeting on Wednesday and had quite a successful [illegible]. They plan to continue these gatherings every two weeks and the next one will be on Dec. 28 at the hotel coffee shop.

The university students and the young folk attending business colleges and schools in Edmonton are arriving home this week for the Christmas holiday.

There will be no stock bought here during Xmas week according to the local stockbuyers.

New Years and Superstition Go Hand in Hand

Mankind has always been superstitious about New Years.

In olden times families sought a glimpse into the future by the "dipping" custom. The head of the family, with his eyes closed, opened the family Bible and indicated a passage with his finger. The text, solemnly read and interpreted was indicative of the luck—good or bad—that was in store for them.

Probably one of the most widespread superstitions concerned the first person to cross the threshold on New Year's morning. Women and light-haired men were considered unlucky, as where people who walked pigeon-toed.

In some villages, the superstition was taken so seriously that a dark-haired man was hired to be the first-footer. Going from house to house, he would be the first person to cross the threshold, thus preserving the good fortune of the community.

Anglo-Saxons, believing that something might happen when the New Year occurred often climbed upon the roof on New Year's eve so as to have a good view of any such events.

We moderns make as much noise as possible, presumably because our primitive ancestors believed that noise would keep evil influences at a distance.

Let's ALL enjoy THIS Christmas!

If you DRIVE — don't DRINK

If you DRINK — don't DRIVE

It's smart to say — "NO THANKS, I'm driving!"

Landonville News

LOUISE LAKE SCHOOL CLOSED TILL NEW YEAR

Last Monday the Landonville district faced the worst storm in its history. Even hardened old timers say that they have never seen anything like it. The storm blocked the roads with drifts which are from four to eight feet and all roads are impassable. The snow plow spent a good part of a night and a whole day breaking through a quarter mile of road to release the stranded vehicles and a school bus. No further attempt was made to clear the rest of the road.

People are now using the stranded vehicles as a means of transportation to Clandonald to obtain their supplies. Many have not been out for two weeks and are running out of food and fuel. Some of the elderly members of the community have been evacuated to other homes.

The school children arrived home safely, though a few spent the night with neighbors. The Louise Lake school has been closed until the New Year. The school bus was stranded on the main road and the men who accompanied the bus walked over two miles to their homes. Many of them froze their hands and faces.

Mr. Dick Durey tells me that one of his pigs went out to feed and was found frozen near the trough before it could get back to the pig shack.

The teacherage at Louise Lake school has disappeared as has the woodpile beside it. We figure it might be under the snowdrift east of the school. We do wish the School Division would send us a truck or something to haul the snow out because the teacherage might still be there.

Mr. Bill Morrison was evacuated after he ran out of food and fuel. We had tried to evacuate him earlier but he figured it was just another little blow.

Ironically [illegible] when the snow plow reached the stranded vehicles they were found standing on [illegible] pillars of snow. The rest of the snow had been blown away.

A pre-nuptial shower was [illegible] in the Greenlawn hall on Nov. [illegible] for Miss Charlotte Ryan. Despite the very cold weather a large number of friends and neighbors attended.

A large pumpkin held some of the gifts while more were placed on the table.

Mrs. Eleanor Grey and Miss Kitty Ryan, sisters of the bride-elect, helped open the gifts as did Miss Annette Butz, sister of the groom.

Charlotte expressed her deep appreciation for the many very beautiful and useful presents.

After a program of games and competitions a bountiful lunch was served with the ladies of the Greenlawn Goodwill club as serviteurs.

Miss Elaine Mathieson was in charge of the guest book.

Derwent District Children Snowbound

During the big storm of last week there were 35 Derwent school children who were unable to get to their farm homes from Monday until Friday.

Arrangements were made for 23 of the youngsters to live in the hotel, and 12 were billeted in private homes. Many thanks are due to those who harbored these children when it was impossible for the buses to take them home.

And credit goes to Fred Hicks and Joseph Zurba, too. These two bus drivers became stalled in the snow when they had four children as passengers. They got out and walked with the school children until they had them all delivered to their homes.

TIGERS LOSE HOME LEAGUE OPENER

Wainwright Commandos spoiled the E.A.H.L. opener for Vermilion fans on Monday night when they outscored the Tigers 6 goals to 3. The fans on hand were kept down to a mere handful, 167 paid cash customers due to the frigid atmosphere and uncertain road conditions. They were treated to an exciting game, the players being very much in earnest, so much so that 14 penalties were handed out, 8 to the Commandos and six to the Tigers.

The first period ended 1 to 0 for the visitors with Johnny Touchette scoring on Bradley's pass for the lone counter putting the visitors one up.

Goals were a little more plentiful in the second. Bellerive scoring the Commandos' second goal on a breakaway while his team-mate and coach, Wally Murray, rested in the cooler. Wally Footz put the Tigers back into contention on a lone rush firing a screened shot past two defencemen which former Tiger goalie Johnny Laporte had no chance on. The crowds' enthusiasm was short-lived as Bradley scored on assists from Touchette and Sheffield thus ending the sandwich session 3 to 1 for the Commandos.

Early in the third the Tigers warmed up the crowd by running in two goals in 25 seconds. Bill Schmidt from Kreller, and Kreller from Wally Footz and Marv Little. This gave the Commandos ideas and they ran in three just about as quickly. Renell from Rasmussen, Touchette from Hardin and then Hardin from Touchette. Schmidt finished off the scoring for the game netting one on a pass from Kreller to make the score 6-4.

Harrison of Edmonton refereed.

LINE-UPS

Wainwright — Laporte, Bradley, Hallett, Rasmussen, Duke, Maskovitch, Touchette, Murray, Carp, Bellerive, Sheffield, Danyk, Hardin, Renell.

Vermilion — Scuggins, Bill Williams, Les Williams, Kreller, Ewing, Schmidt, Lowrie, Footz, Grant, Ford, Barr, Little.

Referee Harrison officiated at his first and last game in Vermilion for this season as after the first of the year he is moving to Winnipeg. He handled a good game Monday night and did it all by himself.

Tigers Lose 9-3 At St. Paul

Playing their first league game away from home the Vermilion Tigers did so rather inauspiciously, losing to St. Paul Hornets 9 to 3. The Tigers started off on the right foot, running in the first two goals, Frankie Ewing scoring from Stew Cooper and Bill Schmidt and then Bill Schmidt converting Ewing's pass. However, the Hornets took over from there on in and scored eight in a row. In the last period Stew Cooper scored on Frankie Ewing's pass, to end the locals' effort.

The Tigers were short Bill Novak, Les Williams and goalie George Washington, but picked up Stewart Cooper, last year's first string centre who is home from varsity but who has been on the ice but a very few times this season so far.

Hockey Chit-Chat

By GERRY MARSHALL

Monday night saw the wrapping torn off the '55-56 season, and the package looked good. Being at full strength and in good shape, the Wainwright Commandos scored 3 fast goals in the third period to down the short-staffed Tigers 6 to 4. The game was a wide open, free wheeling affair which saw plenty of brawn as well as brains, and the small crowd (and we mean small) witnessed quite a contest.

The Commandos look to be much like last semester, although they have several new players. Bellerive, a new-comer to the club, looks to be a real comer and is going to be very bothersome around the circuit. Wally Murray, who has taken over the coaching reigns, has moved up to the front line and looks right at home. From first appearances the [illegible]

Frankie Has Tough Luck

Has anyone got an extra horseshoe? You have? Well, lend it to Frankie Ewing who just can't seem to do anything but hit the posts. Ewing has had several great chances each game only to be muffed by the posts or a bad bounce.

Ernie Clendenning Offers New Hats

Bill Schmidt almost picked up his new hat early as he came very close to winning one of Clendenning's new "Stetsons." Ernie Clendenning is once again offering Stetsons for a three-goal performance or a shut-out.

Kreller Scores Pretty One

The prettiest goal of the evening came off the stick of Coach Elmer Kreller. He picked up a loose puck in front of the net and nimbly (if possible at 200 lbs.) hopped around Johnny Laporte to score. The "Shadow" also picked up assists on two other Vermilion goals for a three-point evening.

Wally Footz notched the other marker on a solo rush when his ankle-high drive scored. Wally looked pretty good during the game, added an assist, and could be headed for a good season.

Once again three of the Tiger stalwarts were out of action as George Washington (out with business commitments), Bill Novak and Andy Redford missed the game. The gaping hole left in the defense was capably filled by Les Williams who turned in a good defensive performance as well as trying his hand up front.

Bill Williams played a good steady game on defense for the Tigers as he really laid out the body checks as well as using his "swook" check to advantage. Perhaps if he could lower his shot he might even turn into a scorer.

From early appearances the Tigers should be in the thick of the battle, as do all the teams, and nobody is writing anybody off as yet. It should be very interesting . . . very interesting!

Stagettes Will Hold Annual Holly Frolic

This week's notes sound like work, work and more work, but don't be fooled girls, things aren't as bad as all that!

As yet we do not know if there will be a dance in the Elks hall on Christmas Eve, but if there is, I have the doubtful pleasure of informing Lil and Jean that they are the checkroom girls.

It has been officially confirmed that the New Year's dance will begin at 12:05 a.m. Monday morning. Sounds like an early start, what? The doors will be open at 11:30 p.m. Sunday and we would like the first on the checking list to be at the Elks hall as soon as possible after that. The checkers for this dance are as follows, subject of course to internal juggling, etc: 1, Lena and Lil; 2, Sophie and Kay; 3, Jean and Dorrie; 4, Marie F. and Marie M.

Don't forget, folks, our pretty little Stagette is being raffled in the Columbia theatre Christmas Eve. Stubs and money are to be handed in to Marie Ferbey on Friday 23rd. Lena has kindly volunteered to take care of the draw. No cheatin' now! By the way, in connection with last Saturday's sale of doll tickets, we should like to thank Mr West for his assistance and personal interest in the sale and also the members of Craig's staff who have aided us in the selling of tickets.

This next remark is for the benefit of the Standard office . . thanks for the posters girls?

I think that just about covers everything for the time being except to wish one and all a very Merry Christmas and a successful New Year.

Any point of the compass that has temperatures above zero, here I come a'runnin', or at least as fast as I can under the weight of all this sub-zero clothing. 'Bye, see you on Jan 3 girls.

Season's Greetings

To our merchants and professional men, to all the citizenry, young and old, of our Town, and to each of strangers and visitors within our gates, we extend

THE HEARTIEST OF SEASON'S GREETINGS!

E. M. Stewart Is Re-Elected President

Vermilion Agricultural Society Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Vermilion Agricultural Society was held on Monday evening, December 19th, and despite the extremely cold weather a fine representation of residents of the entire district was present.

President E. M. Stewart briefly reviewed the work of the past year, dealing particularly with the special emphasis which had been given to the celebration of fifty years of community service by the Society. It was pointed out that some seven hundred and fifty pioneer citizens registered at the splendid new Pioneers Building erected during the year as a memorial to those who had been instrumental in the establishment of agriculture in the district. He paid tribute to Mr G. Eldon Hayward, President of the Hayward Lumber Company and an early resident of the area who donated log siding for the construction of the cabin. Mr Stewart paid tribute, also, to the Town of Vermilion, the adjoining municipalities of Minburn and Vermilion River, the Jubilee Committee, Board of Trade and various other organizations and individuals who had combined to make the 1955 Fair such an outstanding success.

After dealing with the accomplishments of the various activities of the Society Mr Stewart marked the fact that livestock had been selected from a number of Vermilion district breeders for exhibit at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, naming Bryden Bros. of Mannville, W. L. Robinson, J. C. Tucker, the MacMillan Bros. of Clandonald, all of whom placed up well in their respective classes.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The financial statement, covering the work of the year, was given by S. C. Heckbert, Secretary Manager, and while it indicated that substantial amounts had been expended on the Jubilee Year Fair and that almost $5,000 had been spent on permanent buildings and improvements the statement showed solid growth of assets and intimated that the Society has no liabilities whatever.

IMPROVEMENTS

Plant improvements during the year included the construction of additional barn space, additions and alterations to sheep and swine barn, the erection of effective lighting system and a new entrance to the grandstand block. Typical of the progressive action of the Directors was the erection of a fine Old Timers building and provision of a new entrance which greatly improves the grounds which have an excellent reputation in Western Canada Fair circles.

1956 FAIR PLANS

Plans were initiated for the holding of a fair in 1956 and for the conduct of the Farm and Home Improvement Competition, the holding of short courses for farmers and their wives, for the enlargement of the already popular Boys and Girls Camp, the extension of the School Fair which has proven so popular in recent years and for promotion work in connection with the 4H Club plan and the repetition of the annual sale of purebred livestock.

E. M. STEWART RE-ELECTED

W. L. Robinson, Past President, presided at the election of officers for the coming year, resulting in the following being named to conduct the operations of the Society for 1956.

DIRECTORS' MEETING

At a meeting of the newly elected directors held immediately following the adjournment of the general meeting, it was decided to affiliate with the Western Canada Fairs Association for the coming year and to send delegates to the Winnipeg meeting of that body. A special committee was named in the persons of Manson Barr, W. L. Robinson, J. S. Cross, Jas. Bennett and Peter Noster to work with District Agriculturist E. H. Buckingham on the development of the 4-H Club program with special emphasis on the annual Calf Club Show and Sale.

S. C. Heckbert was again named as Secretary Manager and is thus starting his twenty-fourth year in this capacity.

TELLS OF TORONTO ROYAL

E. H. Buckingham gave a resume of the recently organized trip to the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto and the evening was brought to a close by lunch and a social hour.

Local organizations and district residents are invited to join with the Agricultural Society in promoting the many desirable objectives it has in mind and ample opportunity will be given to assist in making Vermilion's already popular Fair the outstanding such event in Northern Alberta.

The thanks of all members of the organization is freely given to all who were good enough to co-operate during the Jubilee Year.

Regrets Losing 2 Days In Changing Jobs from Ontario To Alberta

Raymond Wright is the type of young man who doesn't believe in wasting any working time. He worked for Jack Tucker last harvest season and then returned to his former job at Renfrew, Ont. Just recently Jack wrote Raymond and wanted him to come back here to work. Wright received the letter Monday night, worked there until Tuesday night, boarded a train at Renfrew Wednesday morning. He reached Wainwright in the early hours of Friday morning, engaged a taxi to drive him over to Vermilion arriving at the Tucker farm 5:00 a.m. Friday. He thus lost only Wednesday and Thursday from his work, and travelled 2000 miles in between times.

Mannville Old-Timer Passes Away

MANNVILLE: Mr William Henry Robinson passed away suddenly on Dec 17th at the age of 72. Mr. Robinson was born in April, 1883, in Ballymena, County Antrim, North Ireland. He came to Edmonton from that country in 1904 and while there worked on the construction of the Alberta Parliament Buildings. In 1905 he came to Mannville and farmed in the Hamilton district until 1949 when the family moved into Mannville.

He leaves to mourn his loss his loving wife, two sons, Samuel of Edmonton and Leading Aircraftsman John of RCAF Station, Cold Lake. Also one sister, Agnes, in Ireland.

The funeral was held from McQueen's United church, Mannville, Thursday afternoon with Rev. J. Minter taking the service. Mayers of Vermilion were in charge of arrangements.

Mannville Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

MANNVILLE: On Dec. 10, 1905 in the little village church in Tannas, Sweden, Miss Johanna Person became the bride of Mr John Modin.

After the couple had lived in Tannas for a year, Mr. Modin left Sweden to come to Canada, taking up a homestead north of Mannville. Mrs. Modin and the couple's infant daughter, Anna, followed a year later.

During the 35 years that the couple farmed north of Mannville, Mr. Modin served for nine years on the council of the old Municipal District of Melberta, spending three years as municipality reeve. He also served on the Fidelity school board and as a director of the United Grain Growers. After Mr. and Mrs. Modin moved into the village in 1943, Mr. Modin spent three years on the Mannville village council.

SIX CHILDREN

Mr. and Mrs. Modin have two sons, Harry of Mannville and Lawrence of Lindbergh. Their four daughters are Mrs. L. E. Summers, Mrs. Edward Calder and Mrs. Nelson Ruttan, all of Mannville, and Mrs. Andrew Metrunec of Edmonton. They have 19 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

On the occasion of their anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Modin entertained at an afternoon and evening 'open house,' when 100 guests called. Mr. William McCaulay proposed a toast to the couple.

The tea table, laid with an ecru lace cloth, was centred with a four-tiered anniversary cake flanked with lighted gold tapers. Bouquets of gold and bronze chrysanthemums and white and gold carnations were arranged throughout rooms of their home for the occasion.

GUESTS AT DINNER

The following day, Mr. and Mrs. Calder entertained members of Mr. and Mrs. Modin's family at dinner.

Out-of-town guests at the anniversary party included Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Modin, Alan, Roddy, and Valerie, Lindbergh; Mr. Berton Brown and Mrs. Alma Farquharson of Viking; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Henderson and Gary, Vermilion; and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Metrunec, Suzanne and Vincent, and Miss Merna Summers, Edmonton.

C. G. I. T. Conduct Pleasing Service

The pleasing Vesper or Candle Lighting Service was carried out at the United church on Sunday by the Canadian Girls in Training. It is a reverent and satisfying service in that it is entirely conducted by the girls, and gives the congregation the feeling that the young people of today are very efficient and well able to handle events and programs. It too, exemplifies the splendid training given in the C.G.I.T.

Ruth Beatty, president of the C.G.I.T., was the leader and conducted the service. The C.G.I.T. choir led the congregational singing, while vocal numbers given by the girls were a duet by Doreen Hicks and Ann Beatty; duet, Margaret and Carol Goodwin; solo, Margaret Goodwin. Scripture reading was by Marjorie Waldenberger, with Margaret Wilson and Florence Rooks leading in prayers. Donna Cooper read the story of "The Three Kings". The candle lighters were Joyce Armstrong, Marie Tovell, Margaret Rooks, Dorothy Jean Stewart, Carol Brown, Evelyn Marfleet and Betty Robinson.

The service attracted a full congregation. Ushering was done by Jeanette Wilson, Shirley Porter, Elizabeth Stewart, Merle Marshall.

Despite the fact that there are a considerable number of items to the program, the girls conducted it without a break of any kind, resulting in a reverend and meaningful service.

Vermilion Old Timer, 86, Returns From Big Game Hunt

Some folks just never grow old and among them is Alf Jones, former Vermilion railroad man, big game hunter, painter, big time curler and veteran of the First World War.

Alf now lives at Sudbury, Ont., with his son Clinton. He is 86 years of age but has just returned from twelve days spent in the bush, big game hunting. Alf says the Americans are spoiling the hunting in that area now. Despite this, Alf says they bagged one deer, son Clinton being the marksman. Alf notes with regret that many old friends of his are passing on, and mentions Percy Long, Harry Marfleet and Bill Moses.

This old timer says that his legs are not as good as they were once, and when he misses a shot with his trusty rifle he sometimes thinks his eyes are failing a bit! Mr. Jones keeps in touch with Vermilion through the Standard and sends his lifelong friends Mr. and Mrs. S. R. P. Cooper a cheery Xmas card with the above information. He also wants to be remembered to all his former old friends here.

Vermilion Residents First Bingo Winners

In the newspaper bingo currently being run by the Vermilion Elks, two winners of the 'four corner' bingo have been declared. These are both Vermilion residents, Mrs. Nick Kowalchuk and Roger Rowe. The policy is to pay each winner the prize money of $10. The bingo will be held open on that particular game until the Standard is published containing the numbers, that is, this issue.

Numbers drawn for this week are: under I — 29; under N — 35; under G — 56.

A True Christmas Story Of This District

By H. C. F.

Back in 1921 times were pretty tough and on top of that hail went through these parts, leaving some practically destitute, and this story was told to me on Christmas morning:

"You know, Tom, we lost our crop and had no money, but we dearly wanted the kids to have a Christmas. With only one apple in the house, salvaged from the school concert to be divided between three kiddies, Mother and I were truly at our wits' end. Come night time, on Christmas eve, we put the wee bairns to bed with "Now go to sleep or Santa won't come," but with excitement in the air there was no sleep for us or the kids. And with a howling blizzard outside at 35 below zero, we were busy stoking the fire to keep out Jack Frost, at any rate.

"We even put on an act to fool the kids. I would slip out quietly, stomp in, rustle around a bit and stomp out again, then sneak in quietly and say, "There, that was Santa!"

"'No, that was Daddy, you can't fool us!' And everything we did was treated the same — 'that was Daddy.'

"Suddenly the door opened, in walked a heavily furred stranger, placed a box of good things to eat in the middle of the floor with a gruff 'Merry Christmas,' and as quickly disappeared. All was silence when little Tommy piped up, 'Da-ddy! Mommy! That was Santa Claus!' At that I sprang to the door, hoping to bring our good friend in, only to see a team and sleigh disappearing over the hill."

CHRISTMAS MESSAGES FROM THE CHURCHES

A Christmas Message FROM Rev. J. T. McNair ALLIANCE CHAPEL

GALATIONS 4:4. "But when the fullness of time was come God sent for His Son." God is the God of order, system and precision. Within the precincts of His eternal councils have been planned all that He has purposed for the human race. The Psalmist said, "My times are in Thy hand," and again we read, "There is a time to every purpose under Heaven." It is not to be wondered at, therefore, that our text should remind us that God sent forth His son — when the fullness of time was come.

Surely that was a wonderful day when Jesus came. We would do well to meditate upon that thing which came to pass. There was God's beloved, the Infinite an Infant; the Christ of God a helpless Babe; He who inhabiteth eternity and whose robe is one of dazzling glory wrapped in swaddling clothes cradled in a lowly manger. What condescension! What love! What humiliation! What a Gift . . . Emmanuel, God with us! Was e'er a gift like the Saviour given? No, not one. Yes, Jesus came, when the fullness of the time was come.

Having thought of the Gift, what of the Giver? The text says, "God sent forth His Son." What preparations there must have been in yonder world. Before this earth was ever framed by the Word of God (Heb. 11:3), or even man was created to live upon it (Gen. 1:27) God in His omniscience foresaw the need of the world's Redeemer. Thus was the Cross conceived with all its glory, horror and ignominy, and Him chosen who would bear it to Calvary. Slowly earth's drama unfolded. Death and Hell yawned for their helpless victims. Sin with its condemnation abounded, but where sin abounded grace did much more abound, so, to save men from their sins, Jesus came when the fullness of the time was come.

Almost two thousand years have since rolled by. Every day of every year has been a day of grace and opportunity for sinners to be reconciled to God. How few comparatively speaking, have availed themselves of God's provision through faith in His Son. Christ is not to be despised and rejected today but rather received. J. 1:12 says, "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the Sons of God." Shall it always be thus, that God will suffer to live those who crucify afresh His Son and trample under foot His blood? Ah no! "Because He hath appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness by that Man whom He hath ordained; whereof He hath given assurance unto all men in that He hath raised Him from the dead." (Act 17:31). How many are the promises in God's Word that He who came on the first Christmas Day will come again. How many times are we exhorted to "repent," "be ready," "awaken to righteousness," "flee from the wrath to come," "prepare to meet thy God." It is in such preparedness that the possibility of a really happy Christmas exists. The new year may hold for us some grim realities but it may also afford us a meeting face to face with Him, whom having not seen we love. To be sure no man knows the day or hour when the Son of God cometh, but return He will when the fullness of the time is come.

A Christmas Message FROM The Rev. C. W. MacKay
FIRST UNITED CHURCH

THE greatest blessing of this life surely is Peace of Mind. Jesus Christ came to bring this peace to the nation and to the individual. As we celebrate His birth each year we are conscious that He is the One who helps us find Peace of Mind. The angel song of the coming of the Prince of Peace in this way "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men."

He came to bring peace to the nations. There has been a great deal of distrust, misunderstanding and ill-will among the nations but it is the Prince of Peace who can break down the barriers that separate men and make them realize their oneness in Him. As Paul states "He (Christ) is our peace, who hath made both one and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us."

An interesting incident took place in North Africa on Easter Day during World War II. The account tells of a chaplain who while celebrating Holy Communion on Easter Day noticed a group of German prisoners looking on. He asked if any would like to take Holy Communion and found that many desired to do so. The Germans made themselves a rough altar and 120 joined in the service. The service was in English but the German N.C.O. explained the meaning of the prayers to his fellow prisoners. Prayers were said for the brotherhood of man under Christ and the Germans as they filed out shook hands with the padre and thanked him for this opportunity of making their communion. There the [illegible] [illegible] lived again. Christ our Lord threw down the middle wall of partition proving that in Him there is "No East nor West," but that "all are one in Christ Jesus."

He came also to bring peace to the individual. There is in our country a tremendous desire on the part of people everywhere for this greatest blessing — Peace of Mind. The very fact that such books as "Peace of Mind" by Joshua Liebman, Peace of Soul by Bishop Fulton Sheen, and Peace with God by Billy Graham are the best sellers indicate how much people desire this great blessing.

Yet this greatest blessing comes surely with finding God and not completely through our own efforts. We must, in our churches guard against the teaching that salvation from troubles and distresses can be attained through our own devices. Well meaning congregations, in what was meant to be a united movement of religion in a certain region put up placards, "Come to church and find yourself." But the true message must strike a deeper note than that. "Come to church and find God and be found by God."

The Angel's message spoke about peace but this was in the latter part of the song, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace—." It is as one gives glory, praise and thanksgiving to God for what He has done one obtains this greatest blessing.

"Peace does not mean the end of all striving.
Joy does not mean the drying of our tears;
Peace is the power that comes to souls arriving
Up to the place where God Himself appears."

On behalf of myself, Mrs. MacKay and family we wish for you and yours this GREATEST BLESSING at Christmas time and throughout the New Year.

WOODVALE NOTES

Let's see what news we have gathered these past weeks. Some of the notes may be old, but still of interest to some people.

We heard awhile ago that the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goutier, Mrs. Suzanne [illegible] was married in October to Mr. Yvan Benoit of Vegreville and we extend to her our belated but very warm wishes for a happy married life. They are living on a farm south-east of Vegreville and Suzanne's two youngsters Diane and Roger have gained two young sisters of 6 and 10 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Foster of Edmonton were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Wolters in November and paid a call on Sunday to Naomi's former neighbors Mr and Mrs. John Road of Triangle.

The rink from Tolland playing in the Farmers' bonspiel in Vermilion did not bring home a prize this time, losing three out of five. Better luck next time Kaare, Bill, Art and Clarence.

MANY VISIT IN CITY

Quite a few people went to Edmonton earlier this month, among them being Mrs. A. McQuid, Elmer Wolters and Mrs. Dorothy Seite, the latter accompanied her husband, Duff and Freddy McGrath as far as the city, while they went on to do some hunting around Edson. At time of writing we have not heard how the hunters made out. Bob Lamport brought home an elk a few weeks ago.

Chris Thomsen left last Friday for a visit to his native Denmark. He is travelling by air and it will be his first trip back in over forty years.

Odivar Seite went back to see his folks in Norway a week earlier and Trigve Seite is going on the 18th to stay over there, but he has said this on previous occasions and has always returned to Canada so his friends hope to have him back again in the spring.

There was a skating party for the young folks on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Watt and it seems that it is never too cold on such occasions to have a really good time.

Charlott Woltery celebrated her sixth birthday on Dec. 3 with a grand supper party with all her young school friends as guests.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Christmas concert and party will be held at the Woodvale school on Friday afternoon Dec. 23 at 1:30 and Mr. Hohol invites everyone in the district to attend and make it a real community gathering.

RED CROSS MEETING

The Red Cross auxiliary held its annual meeting at the home of Mrs Flo McQuid with nine members and one visitor present. It took all afternoon to work a large quilt and while thus busily engaged the ladies listened to the annual report giving the details of what [illegible] successful year.

Eleven meetings were held and ten quilts were made, seven large ones and three small ones. Miss D. Salisbury gave an afternoon lecture on the work of the Health Unit at one meeting. $112.24 was raised by collections, donations and a picnic booth and fish pond in the summer. $111.30 of this was spent on gifts to CARE, TB seals, Polio, Crippled Children and Cancer funds some as memorial donations, gifts to sick friends at home or in the hospital and to the Vermilion Red Cross branch. The remainder was used for quilt material and expenses for the booth. The balance was $97.87, almost two dollars more than last year.

The same officers were returned as in 1955 for the coming year and we hope it will be as successful. Lunch after the busy afternoon was very much enjoyed and was nicely served by Allan and Larry, helping their mother out in that way. The next meeting is scheduled for Jan. 11th at the home of Mrs. Gladys Wolters.

Teddy Menger is home again and to correct an impression made by an earlier Woodvale report, he stayed in Edmonton with Mrs. Potter and son Hughie. Bert Portsmith is in the Islay hospital recuperating after an operation in Edmonton.

Still in the Royal Alexandra hospital in Edmonton is Mrs. Eva Dickson and an improvement is reported in her condition. In the University hospital is Mrs. T. Preston and we hope both these patients will be home and very much better soon.

We just heard that Roger Watt took Teddy Menger to the Islay hospital. Being 80 years of age it is better for him to have some care and not live alone when he is not feeling quite well.

This, being our last news letter before Christmas, we wish all our readers, the Editor and staff of the Standard a 'Very Joyous Xmas'.

Due to the storm we were unable to get the above notes to Vermilion. By Thursday most everyone had dug themselves a way out through the drifts. The main road, though heavy, was passable most of the way, needing a detour only by Kokner store. Two school buses were running again, but it will be some time before side roads will be passable and it will not take much wind to block the existing narrow passes.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

December 26th, 1923

The gents furnishing store of McWilliams & Dawson was entered Christmas night by burglars and as near as can be estimated some $50 worth of goods were stolen.

The annual bonspiel of the Vermilion Curling Club is being held during the week of January 14th.

From The Morning Bulletin, Edmonton—

Directly as a result of the successful manner in which the Edmonton branch of the Soldier Settlement Board arranged both the vexed questions of the Hebridean settlers and the British harvesters, an enlarged system of immigration from the Old Country is to take place next spring, when farm hands from the United Kingdom will be brought here under the aegis of the S.S.B. and placed on farms throughout the Dominion.

The Vermilion Curling Club this season started off with the largest number of rinks in its history, — namely 17.

Mrs. Murray, Miss Lillian Oakley and Miss Vera Winters, all former members of the Vermilion teaching staff, are spending the holidays at their homes in town.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

December 28th, 1939

The money by-law to borrow the sum of $18,000 from the Federal government at 2% interest in order to provide repairs and needed equipment at the E. L. & P. plant was again defeated, this time by a slightly wider margin than in the plebiscite of last October. The count on Wednesday was 119 in favor of the plan, while the 73 voting against borrowing the money were sufficient to defeat it. In October exactly the same by-law was voted upon and only narrowly missed carrying, 101 voting for it and 53 against, thus lacking only five votes as against 17 in Wednesday's voting.

For those who want to keep voting statistics straight a money by-law to purchase repairs for the plant has now been defeated three times, while the plant sale project has been defeated twice.

Miss Marion Morrison, daughter of Mr and Mrs. A. S. Morrison who now reside in the Bowtell district (having recently moved from the Paradise Valley school district, Cummings) was awarded the Governor-General's medal for the highest standing obtained in the Grade IX departmental examinations for the Vegreville S. D.

Adding to the general enjoyment of Christmas was the mild weather prevailing and the roads were practically free from snow and open everywhere in the country.

The arena rink opened for skating the first of the week, and on Wednesday the Arena band which has been organized to play each Wednesday evening and Sunday afternoon, at the arena, made its first appearance.

Don and Bob Clarke came home from Varsity last Thursday evening for the Christmas holidays with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Gandier left Friday last for Claresholm where they were guests at the home of the latter's sister for Christmas.

Bowtell Bulletin

Well, folks, December 12th, and the worst blizzard raging ye writer has ever seen. Mr Millar's bus got to school but didn't return. Jimmy McFadden drove to Islay with a team and brought Jim home, but the children were boarded at different homes. Thanks, Islay, for your kindness. Quite a few mothers put in a worried day and to top it off the high winds put the phones out of order.

Some eleven attended church on Sunday at Pleasant Valley, and the stove surely warms the church. Don't forget the Christmas service, folks.

The writer received a nice letter from Mrs. Dibben, who is now staying in Edmonton. She reports Robert was picked for a test of extra therapy and he is feeling the benefit of the extra treatment. Also he is shortly to go in a wheel chair. He also wishes to thank the Busy Bees for their gift and sends his best wishes to all for Christmas and the New Year. He gets the Standard each week. We all sincerely hope you are home for next Christmas, Robert.

Mrs. Nora Playne, and Mrs. Warawa and Mike were visitors to Edmonton over the week end. Hope your report is good, Nora.

We are sorry to report Mrs. T. Payne had the misfortune to break her hip and is now a patient in the Vermilion hospital.

Dorothy Gow spent the week-end in Edmonton visiting her mother.

December 16th—Snow plows are busy [illegible] out the [illegible] roads. Some parts are impassable and the plows are going out on farmers' fields. Thanks is extended to those drivers whom we hear go night and day just taking time off to fill up with fuel and grease.

Mrs Warawa, Mike and Fred Playne got caught in the storm and the former spent three days at the Semeniuk home while Fred and Mike walked the three miles home. Fred Scott also had to desert his stalled truck and spent the night at the Cartwright home walking home to Borradaile the next day.

We are sorry to report at time of writing Mr Gow was called to Edmonton as Mrs. Gow wasn't so well.

Mr Knutson and Harold were recent visitors to points in Saskatchewan.

Mrs. Harrison is expecting her mother from B. C. to visit for Christmas.

Storm warnings are being given over the radio again today. Maybe our news won't get in, but if it does we wish each and every one a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

CHRISTMAS MESSAGES FROM THE CHURCHES

A Christmas Message FROM The Rev. K. A. Minchin B.A., L.Th.

ST. SAVIOUR'S ANGLICAN CHURCH

AT this blessed Christmas season our thoughts travel back over the centuries to that first and most wonderful Christmas. In the quiet fields of Judea, shepherds were guarding their sheep. They had built a little fire within the sheepfold, for it was cold, and were sitting about it wrapped in their cloaks, and they were nodding with sleep. The author of the Book of Wisdom wrote, "While all things were in quiet silence, and that night was in the midst of her swift course, thine Almighty Word leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne." And so perhaps it was around midnight that the shepherds suddenly woke up.

They were awakened by a great light, the light neither of their fire, nor of the moon or stars, but a light so glorious that it filled them with a great terror. "Fear not!" The terror passed as the assurance of God's love gripped them and held them steady, and they were able to receive the message of the great angel who stood there in the light.

"I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people."

It must have seemed to the poor shepherds, kneeling there before the angel, as though the joy and light were reaching out through them to all men all over the world, a great multitude of men whose Saviour had come among them.

"For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

So He had come at last, their Christ and Lord, not born a rich young prince laid in a golden cradle, but a little poor babe lying in a manger. But no rich young prince ever had such music at his birth as this poor babe had. It seemed to the happy shepherds that the very stars were singing, each star an angel of the heavenly host. As the glory of heaven streamed out to the four corners of the earth, it seemed that the light was music and the music was light.

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men."

Peace had come down to dwell with men for ever. No matter what the suffering, the fighting, the storms, the distress, nothing now could ever take from the lovers of God the gift of His peace. Men could never again doubt the good will of God towards them, for God had given His own Son to be born, to live, to die, for their salvation. God's good will was incarnate now as a little child lying in a manger.

Light looked down and beheld
[illegible]
"Thither will I go," said Light.
Peace looked down and beheld
War
"Thither will I go," said Peace.
Love looked down and beheld
Hatred
"Thither will I go," said Love.
So came Light and shone
So came Peace and gave rest
So came Love and brought Life
And the Word was made Flesh and dwelt among us.

THE SALVATION ARMY

THE greatest fact of History — "CHRIST JESUS CAME."

He came not a world to conquer: "Not to be ministered to but to minister."

He came not a world leader: "He made Himself of no reputation."

He came not to gain glory: "He emptied Himself" of His glory.

Christ Jesus came because He loved.

He came love incarnate. His love, as boundless as space and as infinite as His person, is extended to all, "God so loved the world," the rebellious, degraded, hateful world. His love is steady and constant. No slander, no unfavorable circumstances, no ugliness or sin can change His love. "Behold I have loved thee with an everlasting love." His love is unselfish and ever outward. The mission and message of the Christ were never sullied by a desire to use men for any purpose other than that of their redemption and eternal well-being.

Christ came for a purpose.

His was a soul-delivering purpose. "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners;" "For this purpose the Son of God was manifest, that He might destroy the works of the devil;" "There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob."

His was a soul-satisfying purpose. "He satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness; they shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house: and thou shalt make them drink of the rivers of thy pleasure."

His was a soul-cleansing purpose. "According as He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love. Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it that He might sanctify and cleanse it, that He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle."

Christ Jesus came into the world on a soul-delivering, soul satisfying soul cleansing mission. Has His coming brought these personal benefits to you? If so, you have discovered the true meaning of Christmas. And though you may be unable to send out a single Christmas card and though you must eat your morsel alone, your soul will sing for joy. Joy to the world, the Lord is come!

Joseph Proved His Love for Mary, Mother of Jesus

Joseph, the bible relates, had to prove his faith in and love for Mary before they were married. It is one of the great love stories of all time.

When Joseph thought of Mary he forgot the difference in their ages: she was the girl he had waited for, his beloved. They were espoused—or, as we would say, engaged, which was almost as official as being married. His heart soared on wings of the approaching wedding day [illegible]

What Mary insisted had come to pass surely could not be! Joseph wanted desperately to believe Mary, but such things just didn't happen, and if they did, they happened to somebody else.

Much as he loved Mary, Joseph was a righteous and God-fearing man and while he couldn't even think of making her a public example, he had just about made up his mind to put her away privily. That is, he thought he had made up his mind. In his heart he knew he [illegible] become of her [illegible] of her child.

Then [illegible] he had [illegible] himself [illegible] with torture [illegible] he fell asleep and the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying:

"Joseph, thou son of David, fear not ..."

And when Joseph awoke he did as the angel had bidden him, and took Mary as his lawful and cherished wife.

"Fear not," the angel spoke unto Joseph.

"Fear not," the angel had declared unto Mary.

"Fear not," the angel spoke unto the shepherds of Bethlehem.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather? Just giving us a taste of what winter can be like. Many were caught in the storm Roads were all blocked but are gradually being opened, in places detours are made through fields.

There was a good attendance at our last church service at Allandale on the afternoon of Dec. 4. Xmas hymns were sung and a very interesting service by Rev. MacKay explained the meaning of our United Church crest. I think we all agree with an elderly gentleman who remarked after the service "his services always make me feel glad I came"

Woody Wilson accompanied his brother Ralph to the city on Dec. 6th where they spent a few days.

The Carol concert at the Columbia theatre was a grand treat. It was wonderful to hear so many carols. We are grateful to those who made this grand evening's entertainment possible.

Aunt Stella Mayers has been south to Wainwright visiting the Jimmy Ronaghan family, and to Irma visiting the Allen Ronaghan family, her nieces and nephews. She returned home on the 9th.

We had a short visit with Aunt Gertie Swanson and Auburn and Nellie Kepke from Elk Point in town on the 9th. They returned on Sunday the 11th. Aunt Stella accompanied them to Lashburn to visit Gertie's daughter Florence and Raymond Hammond.

The Nelson brothers, Delore and Johnny left at 4:30 in the morning the day of the storm for the city with a truck load of cattle. They reached the city, got a truckload of coal and were back to Vermilion around 9 that evening. They were a good part of the next day getting home — and then had to leave the truck a few miles from the farm.

Dave Chase was stranded with the truck Monday afternoon by Mr. Pierman's and walked home to the Wm Cross farm the next day.

Mrs W Cross is in Fort Saskatchewan visiting daughter Betty [illegible].

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs. Ralph Strome on the birth of a son, Keith Ralph, at home on Dec. 13th. Mother and babe are getting on well. Grandma Throndson is with them.

To our Editor and staff, correspondents, subscribers, friends and relatives. "May Christmas bring to you full measure of warmth and cheer and the satisfaction that comes from giving and sharing in a festive season dedicated to 'Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men'."

As 1956 stretches out in front of us our very best wishes and prayers for simplicity, joy, assurance in God, and growth in usefulness.

WEDDING BELLS

BUTZ—RYAN

On November 17th, St. Columba's Roman Catholic church, Clandonald, was the setting for a very pretty double ring wedding ceremony when Charlotte Patricia Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ryan of Dewberry, became the bride of Adolph Charles, son of Mrs. Ada Butz and the late Sam Butz, also of Dewberry.

The Rev. Father Steward officiated at the nuptial mass. Organist was Miss Snider. The choir sang several hymns during the mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a suit which matched that of the groom. With her charcoal grey suit the bride wore pink accessories and carried a white prayer book surmounted by a pink rose and lily of the valley with white streamers. Her only jewelry was pink and black earrings, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Eleanora Grey, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Annette Butz, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid.

The matron of honor wore a suit of light navy with light brown accessories and a red rose corsage. The bridesmaid was dressed in a light blue suit with lighter blue accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Attending the groom were Jimmy Ryan, brother of the bride, and Lenard Romanchuk. Steve Trach ushered the guests to their places.

A wedding breakfast for relations and a few close friends was held in the home of the bride's parents. Th table was covered with a brocaded Irish linen tablecloth belonging to the bride's grandmother, and was centred by a three tiered wedding cake set in a nest of white silk net decorated with white roses, flanked by vases of pink and white roses.

Rev. Father Stewart proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom suitably replied.

For receiving the guests the bride's mother wore an aqua blue dress trimmed with crystal beads, and a corsage of Talisman roses.

The groom's mother chose a biege dress with yellow roses en corsage.

An open reception was held in the Greenlawn hall from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Over two hundred guests attended.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Harry Tucker of Edmonton said the Grace, and Angus Smith, principal of the Dewberry schools, proposed a toast to the bride. The groom responded in a few well chosen words. The bride was a former pupil of Mr Smith and a graduate of his 1955 class.

During the reception a telegram of congratulation was received from Miss Donna Fleming of Vancouver who was unable to be present.

The ladies of the Greenlawn Goodwill club did a wonderful job of catering for the reception. Miss Elaine Mathison was in charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests were Miss Kitty Ryan; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Butz and daughter, Mr and Mrs Jim Butz; Mr and Mrs Charlie Butz; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. McPherson Sr., all of Edmonton, and Mr. and Mrs. Foley, of Vegreville.

For their honeymoon trip to Edmonton, Calgary and Banff, the bride wore a turquoise blue coat, trimmed with white fur, a white fur hat and a pink rose corsage.

The happy couple will make their home in Drayton Valley for the immediate future.

NEWS from ISLAY

FAMILY GATHERING AT ISLAY HOME

December 13th was the 32nd wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs Wellington Barnett. They celebrated the occasion on Dec 11th when all members of the family but one son, Ray, were home. Mr and Mrs. Jack Christie and family (Mary); Mr and Mrs Bill Hart and family (Barbara); Mr and Mrs. Jimmie Barnett and family; also Wellington's brother Jim; Mr and Mrs. Charlie Redmond, Linda and Sharon, Mr and Mrs. Howard Walton and family; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Purves and Syd Montford. That was a real gathering with much reminiscing. On Feb. 1st Mr and Mrs Purves will celebrate their 33rd anniversary.

BRIEFS ON THE BLIZZARD

Blizzard' (with a capital B) is still being discussed — new tales coming to light each day. The men who had cattle outside and were hauling feed had some exciting stories to relate. Hamar Buchanan had the empty rack blown off his sleigh, he was fortunate in grabbing the hind bob, no lines in his hands, and rode back to the barn horses having their own way. Norman Carey and John Teskey got lost in the field and wandered around considerably before getting their directions straight and back to the barn. Mr Alex Linton's sleigh and rack were hit by a car as he crossed the highway on his way to the cattle, the rack was smashed and the hind bob broke away from the sleigh, the car was damaged also but no one was hurt.

A number of the school children did not get home until Wednesday or Thursday. The Jack Careys, the Charlie Robertsons, McCaughans, Ken Reids, Bill Axleys, to mention a few, kept some children. Mrs. Jack Carey had eight and also Miss Ann Grech and Bruce McLennan. Bruce had taken the students to the dorm in Kitscoty and got as far as Carey's toward home, had to leave the car, and then towards evening he and Ann walked home. Jim Carey was returning from Vegreville and found a man stranded in his car in the ditch near Borradaile, another man on the road thought to be helping Mrs. Fenton to get home hailed Jim. They managed to get the man, who was numb with cold and not quite conscious, into Jim's car. Jim finally got him to Harry Waterfield's where he was cared for, for a couple of days. The man did not know just what had happened to him. Mr. I. D. Inman got his bus load home safely, and then got stuck near Emerson Ternoster's (Harry Gordon) farm. He managed to find his way to the house and he was brought to town by team and sleigh. The snow plow with Bill Axley and Alex McFadyen had a heavy day, also the men who followed in a truck, Dalt Torrance, B. Teskey, Ken Reid, Ev Inman and Walt McCaughan. Torrance and Reid saw to it that all who were at school from town homes were transported home and many of the [illegible] children were taken to [illegible] in the village. Dalt and his truck with his helpers brought in Bill Roebuck Dr Evans, Rev Minchin and Mr and Mrs. Bobrooke from Ulva McFadyens — Dr. Evans and Bill Roebuck stayed at the Torrance home, the others at Reid's. We think that after the frost bites that some will put on the long red flannels in future, or at least carry some warmer clothing in the car for just such an emergency. We believe that Keith Burt would like to live in town or at least close by, some little lads quite enjoyed their stay in town.

HUNTERS BAG BIG GAME

A group of hunters who left Kenilworth the Tuesday before, arrived home Sunday evening, luckily, before the storm. They were fortunate in the hunt too, each of the five brought home a trophy — a moose and four deer. They were a jolly bunch and a sharing lot too, one by name Merle even shared a cigar, saying here Lyle, and cut his cigar in two giving away half and they are still sharing meat and hides — they report a good holiday.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT

The Sunday school held their Xmas concert Dec. 18. The program was a very nice one and well done though practise was hindered by the weather, and each child did well. A present from Santa Claus was recived by each one. Mrs. Sweet set up their fir tree, all decorated with lights and ornaments and it looked lovely. Some little ones coming in remarked, "Oh the tree pretty!" Credit is due to the teachers Mrs. I. Martin, Miss Anderson, Mrs. Jean Robertson, Mrs. Sweet, Betty Martin and Mr. Anderson.

We expect the school concert will be held Friday night.

Times Square Crowd At New Year's

TIMES SQUARE CROWDS . . . This picture was made from atop the marquee of the Hotel Astor building [illegible] along the "Great White Way." Scenes like this are [illegible] every New Year's Eve in Times Square, called the crossroads of the world.

HOPE THAT SUSTAINS THE WORLD . . . If there is anything more touching and inspiring than the sight of a little boy or girl waiting patiently for the arrival of his beloved Santa Claus, the world has yet to produce it. With boundless hope, after hanging up his stocking, he finally goes to bed, knowing as surely as he knows his own mother and father, that the Giftbringer will have been there when he awakens.

MR. AND MRS. STANLEY JAMES WEATHERALL

Lovely Candlelight Wedding Ceremony At The United Church

WEATHERALL–HUTCHINSON

First United Church, Vermilion, was the scene of a lovely candlelight marriage service on November 19th, when Leona, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hutchinson of Vermilion, was united in marriage to Stanley James, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weatherall of Creemore, Ontario. The Rev. C. W. MacKay officiated.

Baskets of mauve, yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar. The pews were marked with pink and white flowers tied with white satin ribbons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white waltz length gown of nylon mesh over taffeta, the strapless bodice modified with a lace jacket and trimmed with mother-of-pearl sequins. Her matching headdress held her finger tip veil in place. She carried a white Bible surmounted by a garland of red roses.

The bride's sister, Mrs. T. Maybrook of Edmonton, was her only attendant. As matron of honor she wore a waltz-length gown of coral net over nylon. Her headdress was a matching picture hat and she carried a cascade of coral carnations.

Orla Hutchinson, brother of the bride was best man and the ushers were Chester Waldenberger and Percy Sloan.

Mrs. John Hillcox was the organist and during the signing of the register Mrs. Elaine Steenson, cousin of the bride sang "The Wedding Prayer."

A reception for eighty guests followed in the church hall. The bride's table was covered with a crocheted lace cloth centred by a three tiered wedding cake.

To receive the guests the bride's mother chose a royal blue dress with dusty pink accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev C W MacKay and was very suitably responded to by the groom. Ray Hutchinson, uncle of the bride, acted as master of ceremonies during the reception.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson and Eleanor of Kirriemuir Alberta; Mr and Mrs. Gordon Good, Islay; Mrs. M. J. Sloan and Edward Sloan, Mannville; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammer, Vulcan; Mr and Mrs. Ray Hutchinson, Gilbert Hutchinson, Mrs. Elaine Steenson, Mrs Margaret Hayden, Mrs. Herb McNab and Mrs. Valeria Hillcox, all of Edmonton.

For travelling the bride wore a rose and black two piece ensemble topped by a blue coat with winter white accessories. The young couple are making their home at Creemore, Ontario, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Wedding Bells

DUTHIE — KOWCH

At a candlelit ceremony held on Friday, Dec. 2nd at the Vancouver home of the groom's parents, Nellie Kowch, daughter of Mr and Mrs. M Kowch of Swan Plain, Sask., became the bride of John Herbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Duthie, now of Vancouver but formerly of Vermilion.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin Mr Sam Nazaruk. For her wedding she chose an attractive floor length model which was fashioned of satin and lace her head adorned by a beaded crown to which was attached a fingertip veil.

Her bouquet was comprised of pink roses and white chrysanthemums.

The bride's sister Elaine Kowch was matron of honor gowned in a model of pink taffeta adorned by lace complemented by a matching bandeau white gloves and corsage of pink carnations. A second cousin of the groom young Brian Davis served as ring bearer.

The groom was supported by his brother Fred Duthie.

Mrs W. Deans played the wedding march on the piano and other wedding selections.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. For the occasion Mrs Duthie chose an afternoon gown of soft pale blue crepe corsaged with fantasy roses.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR 1956

Flowers were sent to Robert Dibben in the University hospital for his birthday Election of officers came next. Mrs. Gibson was re-elected president and Mrs. Holte is to be secretary for another year. Mrs D Hughes is vice-president. Mrs R. Dibben, treasurer, to replace Mrs. Whitlock who has moved to town. Directors are Mrs. Cruthers Mrs. N Garnett and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney Mrs. J. Wilson is the auditor Mrs. J. Wallington is press reporter This year we have two Sick conveners. Mrs. R. Martin and Mrs W J Garnett who are to visit sick members in hospital.

Our January project is a blanket for the school to be used by children when sick. The sum of $26 was taken in at our last bake sale in town.

The Xmas program committee consists of the following: Mrs. R. Smith. lunch; Mrs. J. Wallington. coffee: Mrs. W. J. Garnett. candy bags. Mrs. R. Smith and Mrs D. Dibben to assist her.

Mrs. Hughes. on behalf of Mrs. Bathe who was absent. thanked the W.I. for the donation to her. A letter of thanks for donation in memory of Mr. Osterberg was received from Mrs. A. Osterberg.

A letter from C.A.C. re amount 'cups of tea' from a half pound package of tea. Mrs. J. Wilson is to make the test.

Twenty dollars was given Mrs. Garnett for Xmas tree treats. Wildmere Beavers Girls club are to help out with a donation too.

Mrs. R. Martin and Mrs. Whitlock came out from town to the meeting before lunch time. Our two visitors Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Rendell became members making twenty members for this year again. We are pleased Mrs. Steele has joined again as she is one of our charter members. We are to continue to give baby spoons to new babies of members but fruit baskets are to be discontinued.

Mrs. Whitlock won Johnny Jump Up. We have been asked to explain what J.J. Up is — it's a gift, not over 50 cents in value, supplied by the hostess. It got its name at a meeting one time at Mrs. Bathe's when Mr. Bathe had the lucky ticket. The writer said "Johnny, jump up", and the name has remained ever since. Our 'Secret Pal' is to continue another year. Slips of paper are passed around and on it you write your name birthday and wedding anniversaries, then they are collected and each member draws one name That person is to be your 'Secret Pal' and you send unsigned cards on the birthdays and wedding anniversary and at the annual meeting you give a gift of not more than 50 cents to your secret pal. It is great fun guessing who has had your name during the year. Mrs. Bauman had a Xmas tree all lighted up and the gifts were put under it. She handed out the parcels.

The January meeting will be held at Mrs. F. Gibson's on Jan. 4th. Roll Call, 'New Year's Resolution'; topic. Mrs. Wallington; Social Mrs. D. Dibben; lunch, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Steele. Mrs. Bauman.

The meeting closed with 'The Queen' and the hostess and helpers served the pot luck lunch which was indeed bountiful.

"GREEN ACRES"

FEED SHORTAGE

There is no doubt of the shortage of hay and straw over a large part of Western Canada The early snow and the cold weather have made unusual demands on winter feed supplies Grain should be added liberally to cattle feed and every bit of hay and straw possible should be saved in case of continued cold weather and a late spring Remember there is no place to buy long feed. There just isn't enough to go around. Don't let the cattle get thin when there is lots of barley, oats and low grade wheat in the country.

WILD OAT CONTROL

Gordon Sterling, Alberta's Supervisor of Soils and Weeds reports that weed experts at the North Central Weed Control conference held in Minneapolis have not as yet found an easy way to get rid of wild oats. Weed killers so far kill the grain crops as well as the wild oats. This means that this weed must still be handled by shallow cultivation and early maturing crops seeded with fertilizer. No other way is recommended

SAFETY IN THE HOME

Don't forget folks that nearly all accidents and fires can be traced to carelessness and further than that, to laziness on somebody's part. Most car accidents are the result of someone breaking traffic rules. At this holiday season let us all try harder to avoid accidents.

IODINE FOR SOWS

As soon as the sows are bred is the time to start feeding potassium iodide to them in their daily feed. A lot of the pigs born dead or so weak that they soon die could be saved by careful feeding of iodine Get a circular from this office.

TOO MANY CATTLE

This area is greatly overstocked for the amount of land in hay and pasture It takes ten acres of prairie or three acres of brome and alfalfa to feed an animal. One acre of grain crop pasture is usually enough But the biggest neglect is to put up enough hay to carry over the stock. Every livestock raiser should have from 10 to 20 acres of sweet clover every year to cut for hay.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Your D.A., Assistant D.A., and stenographer all wish you a very Happy Christmas Season and a very Prosperous New Year.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

A NEW YEAR

When the bells ring and the whistles blow, I intend to quietly take my wrist watch off my left wrist and slide it onto my right. All through January of 1956 I shall wear my watch on the right wrist.

I have a good reason. I want something to remind me many times a day of the resolutions I hope to keep. They are good resolutions and they sound easy, but I know from past experience that they are more difficult than they seem at first glance.

In 1956 I propose to be kinder, slower to criticize, more generous with praise. I hope to remember the other fellow's birthday once in awhile

I propose to talk less in 1956 and do more. This, I fully realize, will be a tough discipline for a gabby fellow

I propose to examine with a critical eye many of my most firmly-held convictions, for I know myself to be extremely opinionated

In 1956 I hope and firmly resolve to cultivate the spiritual side of my nature, for I know myself to be over-fond of the material things of life

There is also among my resolutions a word or two about health. Because I am dead set against national health plans is no reason why I should neglect personal health. Exercise and a sensible diet, plenty of sleep and a clear conscience will be the health rules I set for myself

I have made such resolutions before and broken them promptly. But this time I shall have a reminder Every time I look at my watch these resolutions will flash before my mind.

Ancient Rome and Egypt celebrated New Year in the spring.

Egypt used the overflowing of the Nile as a calendar and celebrated the New Year accordingly, in June

Birth of the Savior Was Greatest Event In World's History

Pleasant as it is to dream of a "White Christmas" with its carols and gifts, feasting and merrymaking, the sparkling eyes of children delighting in Santa Claus and the wonderful Christmas trees, these things never can symbolize the tremendous significance of the day.

The birth of the Saviour was the greatest event in the history of the world. In spite of all the backslidings, Christian peoples have pressed forward steadily.

NERVOUS HABITS

The expression "a nervous child" has different meanings for different people. Some think of the bed wetter or thumb sucker; others will picture the overactive, easily excited child or the thin, whining youngster who tires easily. To many it means the nail biter, or the child with twitching habits.

The bed wetter and the thumb sucker will be discussed at a later date. The child who is easily excited, or who tires quickly, does so in most cases for some reason other than disease or defect in his nervous system. Sometimes a physical condition such as malnutrition or chronic fatigue is to blame. Frequently the trouble lies in the child's fears and worries building up a tension within him.

Such fears and worries—of which he may not even be aware—may seem foolish to a grownup but they can be terribly real to him. The fear of not being loved by his parents is probably the most common one. If you expect him to behave with grown-up manners, or you are bringing him up under too strict a discipline (too much "don't") he will feel insecure in your love.

Arrange a medical examination. Your doctor may suggest taking the youngster to a child guidance clinic or a mental health clinic where specialists are available on children's behaviour. Your provincial health department or health unit can inform you where such clinics exist. In any case, easing up on your discipline on the child and not expecting too much will often help greatly.

NAIL BITING

A child bites his nails to get relief from some pressure or anxiety too strong for him. Twisting a strand of hair or biting the lips are similar actions. Your child won't stop biting his nails because you dislike his habit and tell him he "mustn't." And he won't stop just because you tie his hands, or put bad tasting stuff on his fingers, or try mechanical gadgets such as metal mittens. He can't. He doesn't even realize he's biting them sometimes! He just has to do something about the tenseness inside him and nail biting gives him some relief

The tendency in a child past the age of infancy to bite and chew things is a common signal of inner tensions Nails are tough, insensitive and painless to bite. But once the habit has begun, the rough edges of the nail and the exposed nail bed cause irritation and this provokes more biting Direct restraint such as bandages or splints only intensifies and worsens the anxiety and strain that are the real basis of the trouble. What causes the uneasiness is often hard to discover since it may have been started weeks or months before It will take patience and understanding on your part to help your child overcome his habit.

To help the nail biter make his nails smooth and lessen the irritation by soaking them in olive oil. Next look for the possible causes in his physical and emotional health.

Check on his general physical condition, reviewing his eating and sleeping habits. Make sure they're in line with what are considered to be likely needs for a child of his age He should be gaining weight steadily and his color should be good. Does he tire readily? If so, something's amiss. Again, ask yourself if he is getting enough activity, running, jumping, climbing, lively out-door play.

Now, how about his emotional well-being? Here is likely where the real trouble lies. Build up your child's self-confidence by making him feel that he can do things and that when he really needs help you are ready to give it. Show him you are proud of the things he is learning to do for himself. If you keep [illegible] dependent on you, however, he may reveal his need for more freedom by nail biting. He may [illegible] his anxieties and fears in the same way if you expect too much of him and give him reason to fear that he won't be able to measure up. Or it may be something in his school situation—facing work that is continually too difficult or a teacher who is very severe — that is troubling him.

Too much excitement is bad. While he needs new experiences, over-stimulation will cause strain. Avoid too much playing and competition with older children. too much noise and rushing about, too many movies and radio programs. Set an example of happy behaviour in the home Bossing, nagging, scolding will take their toll.

If your child over three persists in nail biting, gain his co-operation by developing his pride in manicured and well-kept nails. Keep assuring him that he is bound to be successful eventually. When he slips back into the habit, overlook it and give him further encouragement.

Pre-Red Russia Observed New Years

Before the revolution, New Year's was a gay and happy time in Russia.

In snow cities the streets were decorated with flags and lanterns and thronged with merry-makers. The year was ushered in with a hundred shots fired from cannon.

One New Year's Day the Winter Palace was opened to society. Festivity reigned throughout the city, hospitality and charity were the watchwords from palace to cottage.

The mythical Ovsen was supposed to be around about this time. He was usually depicted astride a bear, symbolically associated with the park served for New Year dinner and the symbolism of Aryan descent.

ers and everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Remember to be careful over the holiday season if you don't you may not be here to enjoy it next year

BEST WISHES

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

There is a story told of a pretty young lady, driving a car, and being caught with a stalled motor at an intersection. She was spoken to by the policeman on duty, who said, "Use your noodle, lady, use your noodle!" To which she replied, "I've punched and pulled everything in this darned car, and they forgot to put in a noodle."

This story has no real bearing on the Christmas Season, but it does give a lesson that can be followed through, under the pressure of present day business and the rushing around. Let us "use our noodles" and slow down, taking time out to look around and see our neighbors for once, and give a wave of the hand, with "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" greeting!

So we use our noodles, and give you the best we can think of, and extend our wishes for a Happy Christmas, and the best of luck for 1956.

Wildmere Winks

The big storm last week prevented us from sending in our news items. It really was an old fashioned blizzard something we haven't experienced for many years. All roads were blocked but the bus drivers were able to get the children home before dinner on Monday. It was tough driving in that storm and thanks are due to the drivers in their effort to get the children home. During the height of the storm a baby was born at the Whitlock home in Triangle district and everyone is well. Several ran short of fuel when the roads were blocked but we are pleased to say no serious mishaps occurred. Mrs. J. M. Wilson of Wildmere who teaches in Thorncliffe had to stay at Johnny King's during the storm leaving hubby John to keep the home fires burning while she was away.

A number were snowbound in town during the storm namely J Wallington L. Fadden, H. Coburn and Cliff Cruthers who had gone in for fuel for Mr Hoile. Jimmie went on to Kitscoty to a council meeting which lasted until Friday night.

Our school remained closed until Thursday owing to the roads being blocked and the busses unable to run.

On Friday night last week the annual Xmas concert sponsored by the W.W.I was held at Basswood Community centre. A nice crowd attended and a very interesting program was enjoyed. Santa came and found a well ladened tree that is. Mrs. Santa did, as Santa could not come this year.

Little Adam Smith of Basswood fell and cut his knee making it necessary to have six stitches to close the wound. He is able to walk on it once more and is at school again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Fuhr of Vermilion are spending a few days with their daughter Mrs. F. Gibson and family. Their son Dan and family of Edmonton are to come on & will spend Xmas day at the Gibson's.

Peggy Graham is expected home this Thursday from the Royal Alex hospital. She has to return on the 27th.

In closing we wish the Editor and staff, all the serfons, our read-

Vermilion Social Credit Assoc. Forwards Request

Emergent Aid Asked For Snow Plowing School Bus Routes

At a meeting held at George's Lower Deck, Vermilion, on Wednesday afternoon Jan. 4th, the executive of the Vermilion Constituency Social Credit Association passed a resolution calling on the provincial government to extend emergency aid to the municipalities to help with the cost of snow plowing school bus routes. The resolution was moved by Alex G. Stone of R.R. 3, Vermilion, and seconded by Steve Uniat of Beauvallon. Copies will be forwarded immediately to Premier Manning and the Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of municipal affairs.

DERWENT TELEPHONE SERVICE DISCUSSED

Another matter discussed, of interest particularly to Derwent and district residents, was that of additional hours of telephone service there. Information will be gathered from those directly interested before a definite recommendation is made.

JAMES A. SMITH M.P. PRESENT

James A. Smith, M.P. for Battle River-Camrose Federal constituency, passed along the suggestion made at the recent Provincial Social Credit convention that a constituency official be appointed to effect contact and greater co-operation between the Government and the executives of constituencies not represented by Social Credit members.

The motion was made by Ralph Wagner of Mannville, seconded by Clarence Ewing of Mannville, that Ashley H. Cooper of Vermilion be appointed the contact man for the Vermilion constituency.

PLAN MEETINGS

The executive has plans to hold regular meetings and these will be held at all centres in the constituency. Citizens in every part will thus be able to effect easy contact with executive members who are in turn in constant touch with Provincial Government and Social Credit Association officials.

Injured In Car Accident Near Vegreville

On their return from a Christmas visit to Mac's brother Mel, and sister Velma, in Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Fisk had come to a point about two miles east of Vegreville with considerable difficulty. It was Tuesday, December 27, when road conditions were dangerous owing to the raging blizzard. At about 1:30 p.m., with visibility limited by the driving snow, they passed an oncoming car safely but in the ensuing swirl of snow were unable to avoid a second car whose driver was also unable to see the road.

The two cars met in head-on collision. Both the Fisks were taken to the Vegreville hospital, as were the three occupants of the other car. They were a father, son and daughter, the Links of Camrose.

Mac was discharged from hospital last week end, but is still limping. Mrs. Fisk is now considerably improved, but she has suffered shock to the extent of being unable to eat until Tuesday, a week after the accident. She received cuts and bruises also, but fortunately none of the accident victims suffered any fractures.

Mr. Link Sr. was not hurt much, but his son and daughter are still in the Vegreville hospital. However they are expecting to be discharged this week end.

Both cars are a total wreck, and it is most fortunate that the injuries to the passengers were not more severe.

Farewell Party At Basswood Hall

(From Wildmere Winks)

On Wednesday evening Dec. 28 a social evening was spent at the Basswood community hall where many neighbors and friends gathered for a farewell party for Marlene Smith and Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin. Games were played by some while others sat and visited.

A nice lunch was served by the ladies after which Mrs. Hughes presented Marlene with a lovely overnight suit case. She will be going to Calgary soon to train as a nurses aide.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin were presented with a hostess chair from their many friends and neighbors by Mrs. Wallington. Doris and Bob have lived amongst us for many years but are now living in town. When thanking the people for their gift the recipients said that they will always call out here their home.

We wish these folks the very best throughout the years that lie ahead.

Wins Scholarship At University of Toronto

MANNVILLE. — In a letter received by Mrs. H. Thomas from Mrs. J. Lawrence, she reports that her son Billy worked for a year in a hospital in Hamilton, as a psychologist. He made such a favorable impression on them there that they awarded him a scholarship of $1200 plus fees of $230, $1430 altogether, to help him obtain his M.A. degree at the University of Toronto. He likes the work and hopes to obtain his degree in May. They also gave him an assistantship at the university. He takes three classes a week and earns some money that way. His final ambition is to teach at the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence are well known to Minburn and Mannville old timers. Friends will be interested to know that Lawrence's have sold their farm and bought a small place as Mr. Lawrence had a heart attack after coming back from Wales and the doctor ordered him to take things easy.

Dedication Service

Christmas Sunday morning a service of special interest was held at the Alliance chapel, when seven children were offered to the Lord in public dedication. This impressive ceremony featured the taking of vows by the respective parents, relative to their responsibilities and a prayer of dedication by the pastor for each child.

Those who were thus presented were: Lorna Claire Jensen, Daniel Harold Wilson, Owen Douglas McIntosh, Lucille Marie Mix, Evelyn Katherine Mix, Candace Louise Clendenning and Sue Ellen Jane Clendenning. The Christmas sermon which followed was entitled "O Come Let Us Adore Him".

Annual Meeting Of Board of Trade Set For January 25th

Board of Trade weekly sessions commenced on Wednesday for 1956. The date was selected for the annual meeting and election of officers. This is usually held the last Wednesday in January, so the date was set for Jan. 25th. Time is 12:30 noon and place the Rio Cafe.

President Dr. King was in the chair on Wednesday with twenty members present.

The president gave a few excerpts from the New Year message of the president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. These brought forth some discussion.

Possible developments in telephone services and the field of micro-wave and plans of the Provincial Dept. of Telephones in this connection were discussed at some length.

The regular weekly meeting of the Board will be held on Wednesday next with all business men, farmers and visitors invited to attend.

Entries Slow For Sportsmen's 'Spiel

Only four entries have been received to date for the Sportsmen's bonspiel scheduled for the Vermilion curling rink starting next Wednesday. Cold weather, poor and very uncertain travelling conditions are making curlers from surrounding districts think twice before entering the $1600 spiel. There will, no doubt, be a rush of local entries at the last minute but 32 rinks are required before the event is a certainty.

Canadian Club To Hear Dr. Convey

This Friday, Jan. 6 at 8:15 p.m. the Vermilion Canadian club will be privileged to hear an address from Dr. John Convey.

It is of special interest to the Vermilion Canadian club that Dr. Convey has been chosen as a Canadian Club speaker because he is known to many residents of Vermilion and district. Although he was born in England he lived for some time in Clandonald where the family settled in 1929. There are still several members of the Convey family living in Clandonald and district.

Doctor Convey received his M. Sc. from the University of Alberta, and the degree of Ph. D. in atomic physics at the University of Toronto.

After joining the R.C.N. during the last war, he was sent on loan to the Royal Navy where he worked on radar and naval operational research.

Following the war he became an associate professor of physics at the University of Toronto.

In 1951 he was appointed director of the mines branch of the federal department of mines and technical surveys. Dr. Convey has played an active part on research committees on two continents. He is author of various technical articles and papers, including notably "The Past, Present and Future of Canadian Steel" and "The Story of Metals". He is Member and Fellow of various Canadian, American and British Institutes of Physics and Metallurgy.

The meeting this Friday will take place at the Junior high school and a good attendance is expected.

Membership in the Canadian club is open to the public and anyone interested in hearing the excellent program of speakers planned for the current season is invited to attend Friday's meeting and join the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Wally Footz are planning to move to Camrose about mid January. Wally is being transferred to a new position with the C. N. R.

She leaves to mourn her loss one son, Maurice, and one daughter, Mrs. Bob Harle, both of Vermilion; two sisters, Mrs. Clifford Leveque of Edmonton and Miss Agnes McWilliams, Vermilion; two brothers, Tom McWilliams, Winnipeg, and Andrew McWilliams of Vermilion.

Young Eskimo Engineer Talks To Rotary Club

Outstanding events at Rotary Club meetings of recent date include a very interesting talk by Mr. Alex Ilisiak, a young Eskimo who is an engineer at the Dept. of Transport Radio Beam and Weather Station in Vermilion. Born in the far north, Alex received his early education at a school conducted by the Anglican church at Aklavik. He went from there to Toronto for high school courses, then trained for his present job at the Calgary technical school. Practical experience was gleaned in Edmonton before coming to work at the Vermilion station.

Following his talk the speaker answered numerous questions, usually about his native land. He was introduced by Gerald Stephens and thanks of the Club were extended by Simon Simonson.

At the Christmas meeting of the Club President Reg Mitchell, who has piloted Rotary along its inaugural course in Vermilion, was presented with a pen knife as a token of appreciation from his club members. The presentation was made by Ross Boake.

NEW YEAR'S BABY

The above picture is not Vermilion's New Year's baby ... on account of "we don't have one". We're just looking wistful too waiting for the word of the lucky little one and the parents who will receive the congratulations of all of us and gifts from Clendenning's.

As we go to press there is no word of a baby born in the Vermilion district since 1956 started. Perhaps next week's paper?

Proclamation Fixes Two 1956 Holidays

Proclamations fixing Oct. 8 as Thanksgiving Day and May 21 as Victoria Day next year were published last Friday in the Canada Gazette. Both are Mondays.

This year Thanksgiving Day was Monday Oct. 10th and Victoria Day Monday May 23rd.

Plenty of Hockey Fare On Agenda

Home hockey games come in ½-dozens for Vermilion fans next week as the Tigers play host to the Vegreville Rangers on Monday, Jan. 9. On Wednesday, Jan. 11th St. Paul Hornets make their first appearance in a league game on Vermilion ice, although local fans saw them in an exhibition fixture early in the season. To round out the week, Vegreville Rangers return for their second and last regular league game on Saturday Jan. 14th.

This makes heavy hockey fare for one week and the local club gets three of their ten home games in a very short space of time. Better if they had been scattered a little.

On Saturday the Tigers will play at Viking, then for a whole week they will entertain at home.

Trophies Donated For Ladies' Curling

To add interest and competition to the regular draws of the Ladies' Curling club for the next few weeks, there will be trophies available for the winning rink.

E. W. G. Clendenning, of Clendenning's Family Wear store, has again offered for competition, four individual trophies. The regular schedule of play for the Ladies' club will be arranged in the form of a 'square draw'. The winning rink in this draw will qualify for the trophies.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Curling club on Sunday, Jan 8 at 1:00 p.m. for the purpose of arranging the rules and draws for the awards.

Any Vermilion lady wishing to curl for the remainder of the season is urged to join the club now, in order to take advantage of this special competition, as well as to enjoy further curling after the 'square draw' is completed. Anyone wishing to join the club is asked to contact Mrs. F. A. Locke, phone 248 by Sunday noon. The Clendenning competition will start Jan 16, after the completion of the Sportsmen's spiel.

Wildmere Winks Column Starts 24th Year

Mrs. J. C. Wallington, R.R. 3, Vermilion, is starting her 24th year as a rural correspondent for the Standard. She has given 23 years of faithful service in the interests of her community as a reporter for the Wildmere area.

The Standard is happy to acknowledge a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Wallington for her regular and interesting accounts of the happenings in that district. No small town weekly newspaper is complete without a record of the news of the surrounding districts which it serves. These write-ups would be impossible without the co-operation of the rural reporters.

Mrs. Wallington is an outstanding example of long-time continuous and faithful service. We wish her every success and many years of good fortune in the future.

The Board expressed appreciation for the response shown by persons providing or offering accommodation for the children.

Hockey Chit-Chat

By GERRY MARSHALL

As we look back on 1955 we find the Tigers alone in last place with no wins and three losses. They have dropped games to Wainwright, St. Paul and Viking.

The latter game, although the score was 7-3, was one of the best of the young season. Playing fast, smooth hockey, both clubs battled on pretty even terms for two periods as the Tigers led 3-2 at the end of the sandwich session. Then in the third the locals, playing with only two lines, tired, and Viking rapped home five goals to win. Despite this fact the play was still very close but some shaky goal-tending in the Vermilion nets was the difference.

Once again Bill Schmidt was the Tigers big gun as he notched two goals to come close to winning a Clendenning Stetson for the second home game in succession.

A stand-out on defence was Bill Williams. Skating like he can when he wants to, Bill broke up many a threatening rush and was Johnny-on-the-spot in slowing up a couple of labelled plays.

Lorne Scroggins played between the pipes again and was doing well until the third, when the pressure was on. Lorne with some seasoning, could develop into a good goalie but at the present it could cost the locals a play-off berth.

To make the play-offs the Tigers will need an experienced netminder of at least intermediate "B" calibre and another line of players. Every club in the league has a proven goalie — except Vermilion. Every team in the league has three lines — except Vermilion. Last year we got away with two lines, but this year the schedule is a 20-game affair and the league is decidedly improved. All the clubs have acquired imports along the line and some are very good. In Vermilion the picture is different. The players of previous years have retired or left and the name of Vermilion Tigers is not what it was five years ago. Furthermore the lack of juvenile hockey in Vermilion has cut off a supply of young players to the Tigers. Something has to be done or Vermilion will find herself struggling to keep in the Eastern Alberta Hockey League of which she was once a greatly respected member.

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT WILL EXPAND POLIO VACCINATION

Provincial health officials of Alberta's Social Credit government announced last week from Edmonton that the drive against poliomyelitis in the province will be expanded next spring. Nearly 200,000 children will receive doses of Salk vaccine. The cost, estimated at $200,000.00, will be shared 50-50 by the Province and the Dominion.

The extent of the program will depend on how much vaccine Alberta is allotted, but on the basis of present estimates it is expected that all children from two years prior to school age through to Gr. IV will receive anti-polio shots.

First priority will go to some 66,000 children who received doses when they were in grades 1 and 2 last year. Each will receive a single "booster" shot. Others, in order of priority, will be children who received experimental shots in 1954, children who started grade 1 in September this year, those in grades 2 and 3 who have not yet had doses, children who will start grade 1 in September 1956 and expectant mothers whose confinement is due between June 1 and Oct. 1, 1956. Next in line will be staff members of polio hospitals and then children who will start school in September 1957. Final priority will go to children in grade 4.

VERMILION, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 5th, 1956.

WHAT OF 1956 FOR VERMILION?—

With the dawning of a new year one is apt to look backwards in order to plot a course over oncoming paths. This makes the question of what Vermilion can expect in the way of improvements and developments during 1956. The town has done very well in the matter of road building, and taken on a town-wide basis probably ranks on the [illegible] of [illegible] size and even larger. There is some sidewalk construction necessary but no doubt the progressive yearly program will be continued this summer. Most of the walks needed are in new residential areas but there are some older sections which cannot be overlooked much longer, such as the south side where walks are urgently required and the south side of Main street west.

Continued improvement may be looked for at the Provincial park and [illegible] now reached such a state of popularity that the province may well consider taking over its development, general management and care, along the lines done at National parks such as Elk Island.

General appearance of the town has gradually improved over the years with the building in of vacant lots and cleaning up of others, until first impressions of a visitor are [illegible].

There is no need to rest on our laurels however, as there is still much that can be accomplished. Clean up and paint up efforts are a continuous effort and much to be desired.

No doubt the Vermilion School of Agriculture will continue to attract many to its va[illegible] summer sessions, and to [illegible] courses, we will probably have another crowd-attracting and pleasing an[illegible] fair, the baseball team will [illegible] continue its winning ways and go on to capture a third consecutive league championship.

The year will see a start made on an extensive school building program on the primary and elementary level if present plans mature. While not much is on the cards for commercial building as yet, extensive home building can be looked for as in the past several years.

The Dominion government would fill a long-felt need if they would break down and build a sensible post office, the most pressing requirement in the way of public buildings and one which serves not only the town but a wide area of well-populated country.

If the Federal government would come up with a solution to the wheat marketing problem, not only Vermilion but the whole of Western Canada could confidently expect a boom year.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Political Pot Begins To Boil Feb. 9

EDMONTON—The Alberta political pot will begin boiling again on Thursday, with the opening of the [illegible] of the 13th Alberta Legislature. [illegible]

... cultural province. So good, in fact, that the wheat crop for 1955 has been estimated at 120,000,000 bushels—compared with 165,000,000 bushels last year. The yield per acre also was up, and similar increases were chalked up for most other grain crops.

Farm Income

However, figures for the first 10 months of 1955 showed the total farm income from grain at $119,-[illegible], compared with [illegible] for the same period last year. During the same 10 months of [illegible], income from livestock totalled $[illegible], against $117,[illegible] in 1954.

This situation will continue to cause concern in 1956, particularly since grain and livestock are the mainstays of Alberta's economy.

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

Vermilion, Alberta.
December 20th, 1955.

To Vermilion District Residents:

This letter is possible only through the co-operation of the Vermilion Standard and is published as a public service to district residents.

Quite often, following an automobile accident it is found that Public Liability and Property Damage Insurance is not being maintained and where damage exceeds $100 or where any person is injured automatic cancellation of the driver's license is involved, creating very serious hardship for farmers or others who simply must have driving privileges to carry on their regular routine and provide for their families.

This is especially true in cases where a vehicle has been purchased under [illegible] and insured through the f[illegible] of the finance company, with coverage on the vehicle only and without due regard to the [illegible] of the purchaser to the [illegible]. Finance companies in the [illegible] are not licensed to write [illegible] covering public liability or property damage insurance and where a vehicle is financed are naturally interested primarily in protection of their equity in the vehicle.

For less than a dollar per month it is possible to maintain public liability and property damage insurance sufficient to meet the requirements of the Act governing license cancellation and in view of the unfortunate consequences of a lack of this protection we urge every person operating a car or truck to see their insurance representative and obtain the required coverage which is now virtually compulsory.

I wish to extend my thanks to The Standard for their generous co-operation in this notification to the public.

Yours very truly,
S. C. Heckbert.

NOTE: The Standard is glad to join the writer in calling attention to a situation which has re[illegible] disturbance of the operation of motor vehicles required in the conduct of necessary farming operations.

Vermilion School Division No. 25

PUBLIC NOTICE to Proprietary Electors as required by Board of Public Utility Commissioners re authority to borrow by debentures.

Whereas the expiration date for receiving Demand for Poll was Friday, December 16 and whereas weather conditions may have prevented any necessary action in the demand for poll, the Divisional Board has extended the date on or before which, Demand for a Poll will be accepted until Tuesday, January 10, 1956.

R. C. Mead, Chairman.

THE ABOVE NOTICE of extension of date for receiving DEMAND FOR POLL extends the period during which demands may be made from December 16, 1955 until TUESDAY, JANUARY 10th, 1956.

The by-law passed by the Divisional Board proposes a building program of approximately Seven Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars and the Board estimates that of this amount, approximately one third or Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars will be received as grant from the Provincial Government. The balance will be obtained as a loan from the Province and debentures bearing 3½% interest and repayment in 15 annual payments will be issued.

The prescribed form required by the Board of Public Utilities previously published states "at a rate of not more than six per centum per annum."

The twenty-four classrooms planned for the various centres throughout the Division are a necessity and while these buildings are under construction it is considered wise to incorporate facilities for the teaching of physical education. Government grants for classrooms range from $[illegible] to $[illegible] per school and government grants for gymnasiums are estimated to vary from $20,000.00 to $[illegible] per gymnasium depending upon the size of gymnasium and the number of classrooms in the school system.

SCOUTING and GUIDING

The Scout and Guide Association wish to take this opportunity of wishing everyone a very happy and prosperous New Year. Their sincere thanks are extended to all those who have contributed so willingly to the building fund and hope that 1956 is the year that will see the water installed in the hall.

BROWNIES

The Brownies were sorry to have had to cancel their Christmas party due to the storm which would have prevented so many from attending. They now plan to hold the party on Monday, January 9th at 4:30 in the music room (Mr. Kindrachuk's room) of the Elementary school. The mothers are invited to attend and are assured of an interesting program. Three more Brownies have been enrolled, Ida Jean Ferguson, Myrna Lee Fleming and Elna Waldenberger. Any girl who will be eight years old by the end of June and wishes to join Brownies, is asked to join now, and in this way avoid confusion of the girls joining at odd times during the next six months.

GUIDES

The Guide leader, Miss Nan Marshall, flew to Scotland to spend the festive season with her relatives. She will not be returning for another week so Guides will be late in starting in 1956.

CUBS

The Cubs had a very successful Christmas party to wind up 1955. Many thanks are extended to the leaders who spent a lot of time arranging the party, buying gifts and making the fudge, etc., without any help from the mothers. The first meeting in 1956 will be on Tuesday the 10th and Thursday the 12th of January.

SCOUTS

The Scouts wound up 1955 receiving theatre tickets as their Christmas gifts. They will start with their first meeting on Monday evening, January 9th which will take the form of a hike through the woods and a weiner roast.

THORNCLIFFE F.U.A. MEETS

The last F.U.A. meeting of the Thorncliffe local was held on Dec. 1st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart. Due to the cold weather and the date not being too well advertised, the attendance was not large. Officers for the new year were elected and date set for the next meeting was Jan. 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hollen.

At the meeting on Jan. 10 Ralph Wilson, subdivision director for Division No. 7, will give reports from the Edmonton convention.

THE STAGETTES

Well, folks, our roving reporter really has taken wings this time for she's off to good auld Sco'land for the holiday season. We're expecting her to drop in any time now but until then, yours truly will try to keep you in touch with the latest in Stagette news.

It seems the festive season has been a bit too much for some of our members but judging from the fresh appearance (?) of those present, the girls are eager to be back on the job. How about it girls? Will you be ready with the brushes when Lil gets the paint cans out?

Pass the aspirins over to Marie there, will you? She'll be needing them before this week is through. Bills, bills, and more bills - looks like a real bank-girl's holiday coming up. Don't fret Marie, there are better days ahead.

On behalf of the club may I express our sincere thanks to those who in any way helped to make our Christmas activities such a huge success. We were pleased to see so many familiar faces at the Holly Frolic. Hope you all had an enjoyable evening folks!

To Daisy and Kay come good tidings for Saturday night. See you in the checking booth, girls. For the next dance-night, the beauties behind the counter will be Reta and Berna.

A pleasant change is in order for next meeting on the 17th. Bring your needles, hooks, etc. to Marie Miller's for a date with Lena. Don't miss it girls, we'll see you then.

To all you good folk reading this humble column the Stagettes wish a very happy and prosperous 1956. May good fortune shine upon you!

WILDMERE NEWS

We hope everyone had a Happy New Year's day, and that 1956 will be a successful, prosperous year for everyone.

Peggy Graham, nurse-in-training at the Royal Alexandra [illegible] spent Xmas at her home [illegible], returning to the [illegible] day evening after Christmas. Peggy and her classmates have only this month to put in, then they will be through their three-year training period as a nurse.

T. B. Wilson of Edmonton spent Christmas with his brother John and wife in Wildmere. Mr. and Mrs. Holt and Baillie also were [illegible] guests at the Wilson home. [illegible] their road snowplowed Christmas morning but their car was in a snowdrift half a mile west of their house from the Dec 12th blizzard.

Miss Margaret [illegible] has now completed her training for a nurses' aide and went to work Monday at the Lloydminster hospital. She spent awhile at her home in Wildmere after finishing training. Good luck to you Margaret. Miss [illegible] Webb of Mannville also completed her training at the same time. She visited a few days at the Wilbur Steele home in Basswood at Xmas time.

Mr and Mrs. Albert Smith and family of Basswood, Mr. and Mrs. George Cruthers, Warren and Raymond Marfleet of [illegible] spent Xmas day at the Cliff Cruthers home in Wildmere.

Mr and Mrs. W. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Madill and family, all of Vermilion, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ford of Edmonton, spent Christmas at the [illegible] Gibson home in Basswood.

The parents and friends of the pupils of Preston Central school enjoyed a nice program on Dec. 23, put on by the teachers and students. Mr Bauman and Mrs Watt are to be heartily congratulated on their splendid work with so many children. Santa called and found a well laden tree with candy treats for all pre-school children as well as the pupils attending.

Mr and Mrs. C Cruthers and family spent New Year's at the Albert Smith home in Basswood.

Mr and Mrs. F Gibson and family of Basswood had New Year's dinner at the Eric Madill home in Vermilion.

On Monday evening Mr George Riley, Ian Clark and Laurence Graham were supper guests and spent the evening with Mr and Mrs. Robert Martin of town.

A wonderful crowd attended the Gay 90's dance Saturday evening at the Legion hall. A few minutes before midnight fancy hats and noisemakers were handed out and the old year went out with a bang, and the new one welcomed in. All joined hands in a huge circle and sang "Auld Lange Syne" after which everyone wished friends a Happy New Year. The Hanna orchestra furnished the music and Tommy Thompson was M.C. A lovely lunch brought the pleasant evening to a close.

It was nice to see so many from the south country at the Gay 90's dance. Hope you had a nice New Year's 'Lady' Regan. We had lots of fun didn't we?

We received 165 Xmas cards this year and we wish all those who sent us greetings the very best of health and happiness during 1956. Thank you all.

RODNEY AND GARY OATS

These two oat varieties are ahead of all others in recent tests. Both are resistant to stem and leaf rust. They yield much higher than Exeter, Vanguard and Ajax. They have strong straw. Both are early varieties but Gary is rated as about four days earlier than Rodney.

ORDER TREES NOW

About 70 farmers have ordered free trees for 1956 planting. The supply is running out so everyone else wanting trees should get orders in right away. If you have not as yet planted trees around your home and buildings why not get circulars from this office on the kinds of trees given out and make plans now to get the land ready this spring for planting in 1957.

AUREOMYCIN

So much has been claimed for Aureomycin lately that it is well to give a word of warning. At the University of Alberta tests showed very little benefit from feeding Aureomycin to beef cattle. Until further tests can be made it is advised to go slowly in the use of this drug.

LICE ON CATTLE

There is no doubt of the great losses suffered when cattle are allowed to become lousy. The feed bill is much larger and animals get run down and unthrifty when infested with lice. In years like this when there is a feed shortage it is more necessary than ever to check the lice. Cattle should be sprayed in September or October at the latest with lindane, chlordane or rotenone. If not done last fall then lice killing dusts can be bought now at any drugstore.

RAISING BABY PIGS

It is nearly impossible to save young pigs born in zero weather unless artificial heat is supplied. Farmers on the power line can use infra-red heat lamps. Others will need to build brooder pens. Get circulars from this office on heating farrowing pens.

SOIL AND FEED TESTS

A new soil and feed testing laboratory has been built at the University of Alberta. This service is made available to any farmer wishing to have his feed or soil analyzed. For further information drop into this office, where methods of sampling are outlined and shipping cartons are available.

NEWS from ISLAY

Many Christmas plans were changed by the blizzard and the cold weather following, yet quite a number managed to make it to their old homes. On Christmas day Charlie Redmond drove out and brought back to his home Joe Unk, the new settler on the Gordon farm, for dinner. We congratulate the staff on the quality and management of the whole affair. Santa was held up somewhere, evidently had some difficulty getting to Islay but the children all sang while waiting for the jolly gentleman. It was whispered that Santa was to come by helicopter to Charlie Robertson's field and was being brought to town by toboggan drawn by Ross Lamb's billy goat 'Bingo'; that Bingo got rough and delayed Santa . . but he finally got to the hall.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year to Everyone!

On the evening of Dec. 22 the families of the district met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mead for a Christmas party. After a wonderful pot luck supper at which fifty hungry and happy folks sat down, Santa Claus appeared to distribute gifts off the Christmas tree to all the excited children. The evening passed in a good old-fashioned get-together, while the children had fun with their presents.

Even the driving snow that was falling as the party broke up, threatening to block the roads again, failed to dampen the spirit of the gathering and one and all voted the evening a huge success.

A hearty vote of thanks is tendered to the Mead families, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mead who promoted the evening and took care of all the various details, and to Mr. and Mrs. Rock Mead who so kindly opened their large home to make such a gathering possible. And last but not least, to all the ladies for the splendid supper.

Hall. Miss Audrey McIntyre, Miss Betty West and Miss Viola Maggs, all of the Archer Memorial hospital, Lamont. Mary Ellen McIntyre, student at Kitscoty and Miss Jean West of the Edmonton teaching staff.

Cheque For 'One Million Dollars' Sent To Local Resident

Most of us "did very well" in this matter of receiving welcome Christmas gifts, but there are few, if any, here or elsewhere, who received a million dollar cheque for Christmas.

Mrs. E. H. Buckingham of Vermilion is the notable exception.

Her cheque reads something like this:

December 23, 1955.
The Peoples' Bank of Good Will PAY — Mrs. E. H. Buckingham or Order — $1,000,000.00
The sum of One Million Dollars in Hearty Yuletide Greetings, Blessings and Gratitude.
Exchangeable in kind at par, anywhere, anytime, with people of good will.
Donor Panels Division
Blood Transfusion Service
Canadian Red Cross,
Edmonton. (Sgd) Glenn G. Smiley, Director.

The above cheque is only a reasonable facsimile, and will not be honored by the banks as an original cheque form. But Mrs. Buckingham is to be congratulated on earning such an unusual kind of Christmas present.

Kitscoty High School Notes

Greetings, folks! Hope you didn't think we could bear being buried under the snowdrifts forever, because here we are, hoping you had a very Merry Christmas in spite of 'Old Man Weather's' unpredictable havoc.

K. H. S. was fortunate indeed to have held their "Snowflake Frolic" several days before that record-breaking blizzard. Decorated in blue and silver, the hall provided an effective background for a pretty array of swishing formals. Many thanks are extended to all who helped make our annual [illegible] formal a success.

Ten rinks have been drawn up for this year's curling season, and according to several speculations, some curlers are evidently being ranked as favorable promises for the future. To many, the sound of swishing brooms is a welcome relief from school routine, while to others it means stiff muscles and aching backs. Whatever the case, the staff and students encourage participation in this [illegible]

Those inevitable [illegible] the spotlight with Xmas [illegible] during the last week of school. With memories of a week of intensive cramming deep in the back of their minds, the students of K.H.S., and particularly of the dormitories, welcomed the Xmas dinner and party with eager anticipation. Ken Kay, President of the Students' Union, presented the teachers with their gifts and wished them the merriest of Yuletide seasons. Mr. Richardson, Principal, thanked the matrons, Mrs. [illegible] and Mrs. Mathesen for preparing a delicious lunch and expressed his regret that Mrs. Beane is resigning from her duties at the boys' dormitory. She will be missed by everyone of the members in the residence.

That evening also, the School Division track and field meet medals were presented to Joan Currie, Beatrice Mason and Howard Barnsley. Congratulations kids!

Once again we have arrived at the end of the old year and must turn a new leaf. With that goes the familiar theme, "Happy New Year!" everybody.

Results of F. U. A. Membership Drive

Results from the Jubilee membership drive continued to come in to central office last week but returns were slowed down considerably due to the stormy weather which had prevailed in the early part of the week.

According to W. G. Logan, co-ordinator of organization, tabulations in the office in Edmonton, up to Dec. 15th disclosed a membership figure of 25,579 with 608 locals reporting. This number represents 16,852 farm units signed up for '56.

The 1955 membership does not expire until the end of the year, therefore it is anticipated returns will be forthcoming up to that time and final membership results can be released early in the new year.

BIG MINING YEAR

1956 will be Canadian mining's most active year, forecasts The Financial Post. Sixty new shafts are already assured, most of them for uranium, copper and nickel, but including two new gold mines. The high level of activity will yield mining and oil company shareholders at least $135 millions in dividends — a record. Production will be worth $1.7 billions. The stock market will heavily feature mining promotions next year, with copper taking the lead, but uranium regaining some of its faded glamour.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

FUNDS FOR MUNICIPAL LOANS RUNNING LOW, SAYS MINISTER

EDMONTON — Alberta towns and cities learned this week that they likely will have to look elsewhere in the coming year for the low-interest loans they have been receiving from the provincial government to finance capital works.

It seems that the government's accumulated surpluses are running low, and Hon. E. W. Hinman, the provincial treasurer, made it plain that lending under the Municipal Capital Expenditure Loans Act will have to be curtailed for the time being.

As a result, the year 1956 will see many municipalities going back to selling their debentures on the open market to finance what in many will be all-time record capital works programs. Some already have started making arrangements.

The reason for curtailing the low-interest loans is that funds set up under the act in 1953 have almost run out of money. At the end of November the fund contained $11,078,560 out of its original $100,000,000. That means during the past three years municipalities have borrowed $88,921,440 from the fund.

An easy remedy would be for the legislature to vote more money into the fund but unfortunately that isn't likely to happen. While the government's financial position is generally good, any money for the fund would have to come from readily accessible reserves and they are at a low point.

At the end of November the government's liquid assets consisted of $3,422,000 cash on hand and $43,012,000 in Dominion of Canada bonds. This is the only money available at a moment's notice.

The province also has $57,513,078 in its special investment fund, and $157,141,927 outstanding in loans over various periods of time to municipalities, rural electrification associations and Alberta Government Telephones. This money, however, can't be collected immediately.

The government in all probability will need its ready available surpluses or a major portion of them, to meet next year's budget. In the last fiscal year the province had to dip into its surpluses for $12,964,785 to make ends meet, and it is expected expenditures will exceed revenues again this year.

However, the picture isn't entirely dark. The municipal loan fund has been set up as a revolving fund — designed to keep money circulating within the province. And as such, it will continue to build up and loans will continue to be made.

The trouble at present appears to be that the fund hasn't been revolving long enough. According to provincial officials, the amount paid back into the fund by municipalities so far is well under ten million.

WILL BUILD UP

Although there has been no definite statement of government policy, it would appear that the fund has only reached a low point, and it will be just a matter of time before it is replenished to the extent that municipalities can again receive their money from it. The theory of revolving funds is that money should be going out and coming back in continuously.

LOANS AT LOW INTEREST

Most municipal officials favor the revolving fund idea. They receive their loans at 2½ to 3½%, which is lower than the interest rate on the open market, and the money is kept in Alberta instead of going outside.

It is almost certain that the municipal revolving fund will be maintained, but the importance of its role in municipal financing may depend on the result of the government's proposed review of provincial-municipal financial relations. The government announced two weeks ago that the review would be undertaken within the next year or so, but as yet even government officials don't know what the 'new look' in provincial-municipal affairs may be.

NEWS from LANDONVILLE

Mrs. Edward Dorey is spending her Christmas season in the hospital. We all wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr Wynnychuk has left for his home in Vegreville. Mrs. Osinchuk, Richard and Bobby went down with him. They are going to spend a few days at the home of Mr John Urasiuk, Mrs. Osinchuk's father.

School is started again even though roads are heavy for busses making their rounds. Don't forget the meeting on Jan. 13th.

Madoline Bensmiller's Silver Willow Ramblers orchestra have been forced to cancel their dances of late due to road conditions.

Plows have opened roads through the fields in the district and here is hoping we do not have another blow like the last two.

A school meeting was held at the Louise Lake school on Friday, the 9th. Over a hundred people attended the meeting and whist drive. The three districts have decided to form a centralized school board. It is hoped that all will be in order by the time the annual meeting rolls around.

Mr. Ted Dorey has been elected president, Mr. George ... secretary and Mr Heinemann treasurer of the Louise Lake School Social Club. The rest of the officers and committees will be elected at the next meeting which will be held on Friday, January 13th. The program will be announced later.

Many of the district's old timers came out to support the whist drive. The older school children looked after the kiddies during the meeting but everyone played whist. Mr. Andy Malnyk, Mr Harry Glovinski and Eddy Trach were the lucky men winners. Mrs. Ernie Heinemann, Rosemarie Nettleton and Audrey Bensmiller were the lady winners.

Mr J Quick, who hadn't been feeling too well all winter, passed away in his home on Saturday. Interment will be in the Vermilion cemetery. Since the roads are impassable the citizens of Landonville wish to express their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Quick and family.

Mrs. Matlock of Elk Point won the woolen comforter which was raffled by the ladies of the Anglican church.

A whist party was held in the home of Mr. Ernie Heinemann on Saturday night. Your scribe lost the results of the party in the snow storm on Monday.

CNR Forces Praised For Battling Blizzard

MONTREAL.—Recognition of the manner in which railway forces met and conquered recent blizzard conditions in Western Canada went out Friday in the form of a congratulatory telegram from Donald Gordon, president, Canadian National Railways.

In a message to J.R. McMillan, vice-president of the railways western region, Mr Gordon said, "Please convey my congratulations to our western region for the manner in which they have kept lines open and traffic moving since storm conditions invaded the prairies on Dec. 12th. That delays have been kept to a minimum in spite of tremendous weather odds has been invaluable to those who must travel and ship during the Christmas season."

Even as the message went out track forces were cleaning up the aftermath of two days of slides in British Columbia's Fraser Canyon. Into this fight the railway threw rotary plows, a fleet of bulldozers, giant steel-nosed wedge plows, and large gangs of men who moved the snow by hand in places where equipment could not reach.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS

WOODVALE NOTES

Once again we are writing our first news notes in a brand new year with pretty well all the items about the last part of 1955.

We'll start with the school concert which was, as usual, well planned and excellently executed. Mr. Alf Logan was there to make records of the songs and piano accordion duet by Jo-Ann Hohol and Irene Wolters. If they turn out as well as last year's they will deserve wider than local distribution. The program number that really brought the house down was a rendition of the well known song "I'm a Little Petunia in an Onion Patch" by Mrs. Roberts' primary classes. Despite the heavy roads a big crowd turned out to see the children perform and of course Santa called and left a lot of presents. A delicious lunch was served afterwards and the afternoon made a good start for the festive weekend.

CHRISTMAS VISITORS

We cannot mention all the very pleasant gatherings but here are a few: Mrs. Sadie Oldenburg of Vermilion and Mr and Mrs. Ramsay and baby of Edmonton spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Kaare Selte. Mr and Mrs. Wilson had most of her daughters and families at home on Sunday and Mabel and Bill Bossinet with the baby from Edmonton for a few days. Lysons families travelled to the Thorncliffe district for their Christmas dinner with the Harry Sweeney's and the Wes Isley's to Dorothy and Bill Wells north of Vermilion. Mr. and Mrs. A. McMcQuid spent the day with the McGrath's.

The writer had daughter Kay and hubby from Calgary home for Xmas, Willem van Tyen and his wife from Red Deer for New Year's and Mr. and Mrs. T. Smit and baby Henry from Banff for the holiday season.

Needless to say it took quite a bit of shovelling to get all the out-of-the-district visitors back to the highway. Specially after the Tuesday's wind and snow.

We were glad to hear that Mrs. Preston is much better and is staying for awhile with her daughter Mary in Edmonton.

DEATH OF MRS. MACHELL

On Tuesday, Dec. 27th Mrs. Wm. Machell passed away in the Islay hospital. Mrs. Machell came to the Tolland district in 1920 as a bride from England and lived there until last May when the family moved to Islay. She has been completely paralyzed for well over a decade, and was in great pain most of the time. Life was only made bearable by the companionship of her husband and the loving care of her son George who nursed her through the long years of suffering. Everyone is thankful she found peace and release from pain for which she, herself, so often hoped. But the brave way she carried her burden, her keen interest in the life of others, George's devotion to his mother, are things that will never be forgotten by anyone of us.

Mr. Machell is a patient in the Islay hospital at present and son Charlie and family live in the east, so their friends were glad they could be with George at the funeral service held in the Anglican church on Dec. 31.

The roar of an aircraft engine during ground test can rattle windows and nerves for blocks around. So we're glad to report that aluminum has turned up as a noise-absorbing "honeycomb" in an aircraft company's test-cell. Hundreds of aluminum tubes of differing diameters and lengths, filled with absorbent, sound-baffling material, make up the end walls. And we are told that by the time the giant roar has bounced around in these aluminum tubes it comes out the other end thoroughly "baffled" and weakened to a hum. We expect there are lots of aluminum boosters around that factory!

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Jan. 4, 1940

Carl Heckbert, of Vermilion, 1st vice-president of the Alberta command, was appointed honorary campaign manager for Canadian Legion War Services Inc., a $1-a-year appointment for the Alberta area in raising funds for war services. He is to attend a Dominion-wide meeting in Toronto next Monday when the campaign will be discussed.

W. B. Elford of Vermilion, a veteran of the First World war and widely known as a musician, was appointed by the provincial executive as "director of concert parties" for Alberta and will have the responsibility of organizing concert entertainments for the soldiers of the Canadian Active Service Force in the encampments at Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge and other places where troops may be quartered during the war for training.

The lady curlers re-organized their club at a meeting held recently and made plans for the forthcoming season as the ice will be ready early next week. Officers elected were: President, Mrs. Jas. J. Part; Vice-Pres., Mrs. L. Amos; Secretary, Miss Mary Zarparynuk; Treasurer, Mrs. Ken Rowe; Draw committee, Miss Peggy Loree, Mrs. Ed Corley.

Miss Jean Kaiser entertained a large number of the young people at a New Year's party on Sunday night at her home.

E. M. Stewart was a recent visitor on business to North Battleford and Prince Albert.

The arrival of the second half of the First Canadian contingent in England last Saturday means that most of the boys who enlisted from Vermilion and district are now overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomson of Saskatoon returned home on Wednesday night after visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Stan Waldenberger for the New Year's week end.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Jan. 2, 1924

That there is a pronounced and rapidly growing sentiment in Western Canada in favor of the Dominion Government conferring with the Government of the United States with a view to early commencement of the work of deepening the canals of the St. Lawrence between Lake Ontario and Montreal, was the statement made by W. W. Cooper, president of the St. Lawrence Deep Waterways Association of Western Canada, which was recently organized at Swift Current.

At a representative and largely attended general meeting of the Vermilion Curling club held in the town hall final arrangements in connection with the holding of the annual bonspiel were completed and the various committees appointed. Four cups will be competed for, namely, the Grand Challenge, the Brunswick, Alberta and Blue Ribbon, all costly and handsome silver trophies. Two events will be open and two secondary and four sets of individual prizes are to accompany each event. The official referees for the spiel are H. R. Parker and L. Cameron.

The Search for Health

The search for antibiotics, the infection-fighting chemicals produced by tiny organisms, has progressed at an amazing pace during the past decade. If the quest continues with the same intensity prevailing during this period, it is estimated that some 400 antibiotics will be discovered in the course of 1956 alone.

Of these 400—derived from bits of soil, plants and other organic matter gathered in all parts of the world—only one or two are likely to be found useful in the fight against human infection. The others will be disqualified or scheduled for further study.

The one or two that remain, however, may be drugs destined to save millions of lives. Polycycline (also known by such names as Panmycin and Steclin), newest and safest of the clinically proven broad-range antibiotics, is an example. Developed by scientists at Bristol Laboratories, this drug—which is of the chemical family called the tetracyclines—is being used in hospitals throughout the world to fight scores of infections ranging from pneumonia to venereal disease.

But before a drug reaches such eminence—in fact, before it is tested on a single human patient—it must be subjected to a series of careful tests. And here is where the weeding-out process continues. The tests reveal if the drug is too toxic, how likely it is to produce allergic reactions and other pertinent information.

The care exerted by research laboratories in the development of antibiotics is illustrated in the case of Etamycin, one of the most recent antibiotic discoveries. Although this drug, also developed by Bristol, has shown considerable effectiveness when pitted in the laboratory against germs involved in such diseases as pneumonia, anthrax and tuberculosis, it still faces an "obstacle course" of experiments and studies.

This intensive search for drugs that restore health, conducted in laboratories throughout the country, inevitably has led to considerable duplication of effort. Frequently, the same antibiotic has been discovered independently by several research teams. This has happened in the case of Etamycin.

But the search continues, unabated. For in every new sample of humble looking earth may lurk a microorganism that holds the remedy for diseases that at present have no cure.

These "Three Bears" Wanted to Stay Home

WINNIPEG.—Three young polar bears en route from Churchill, Man. to Granby, Quebec, by Canadian National Express, apparently were not in favour of leaving their natural habitat. They registered their protest by damaging the individual shipping crates provided for the 2400-mile train trip.

At The Pas and Winnipeg it was necessary for C. N. expressmen to repair the battered crates to make the "shipment" more secure — thus "over-ruling" the bears' objections.

The one-year-old bears — captured last march at Coral Harbour, some 300 miles north of Churchill, to star in a movie — were donated to the zoo by the company after their last assignment.

From Winnipeg, the animals proceeded to Montreal on the CNR Continental, from where they were sent to Granby.

Health Unit Notes

IT WAS GOOD BUT WAS IT SAFE?

Every year an unaccounted number of social groups find themselves burdened with the guilt that follows a mass food poisoning or spread of contagion, either directly or indirectly traceable to some function which they have run.

Don't dismiss this problem with the off-hand statement, "Of course we wouldn't serve anything but fresh food and we keep our dishes and utensils clean." Even professionals, restaurants, hotel operators and caterers have their troubles. The Army and Navy, despite military efficiency and rigorous standards of cleanliness, have not escaped either.

Most common cause of food poisoning is due to Staphylococcus Aureaus, a [illegible] generally referred to by health officers as "staph". No one is entirely free of this vicious creature, but its favorite haunt is the throats and nasal passages of those who have recently had colds, and infected cuts or burns.

"Staph" thrives on lukewarm temperatures and has a special liking for foods that are commonly served at social meals — chicken salad, turkey salad, potato salad, various ham dishes and creamed foods and custard desserts.

In the greatest number of cases, staph poisoning is traced by the Health Department to food which has been improperly refrigerated. Room temperature is the ideal setting for the tiny staph to raise a family; the bigger the family the faster and more deadly the effects on the unwary eater.

Even more insidious and difficult to guard against than the staph are the various disease producing germs, from the common cold through cerebrospinal fever which can be brought in by one guest or worker and spread to others. The results of these are not so immediate or so dramatic as food poisoning but once started on the way, they are not restricted to your guests, but may rage through the whole community. No one knows for sure, but health experts are reasonably certain that many germs are spread by improperly washed dishes, glasses and cups.

Health officers are equally certain that most social organizations lack the equipment for safe and sanitary dishwashing.

HOW YOU CAN BE SAFE ... INSTEAD OF SORRY

Here are six easy to remember rules for sanitation:

1. Keep hands clean.
2. Keep cold foods cold — hot foods hot.
3. Don't let foods stand at room temperature.
4. Use paper service or be sure that dishes and utensils are scalded or disinfected.
5. Protect all food from contamination.
6. Don't let any one with a skin infection or a cold handle food.

These rules, approved by sanitation experts, deserve careful study and thought by anyone responsible for food handling or service.

For maximum health and sanitation safety, ask the advice and assistance of your local health officer or health department. You will find them eager to co-operate.

NITRATE POISONING IN BABIES

ATTENTION PARENTS!

No baby should get untested well water in a formula or between feedings. Do you know that well water containing too much nitrate can make your infant ill? The nitrate is changed in the body to nitrite which is a poison and can cause a chemical change in the blood of a new-born baby giving the baby a blue color. This condition is called Methaemoglobinaemia of the new-born or well water Cyanosis. Immediate attention is necessary because this condition quickly becomes serious.

Boiling the water will kill bacteria and all well water given to babies should be boiled BUT this WILL NOT destroy the nitrates.

NOTE THESE FACTS TOO, FOR YOUR BABY'S SAFETY:

1. [illegible] fed babies do not get well [illegible] Cyanosis if they get no well water at all.
2. Never use well water with an unknown or high content of nitrate for a young baby.
3. Have your well water tested as a part of your preparation for the arrival of the infant.
4. Ask your local Health Officer or Public Health nurse for information.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Does it take extra coffee, extra heat and extra effort to get you started on a cold wintry morning? Then you should be able to understand the cold weather starting problems of your car.

Tricky and difficult starts are not only a strain on your temper, but a drain on your battery. Following a few simple rules will assure faster winter starts for cars equipped either with manual gear shifts or automatic transmissions, according to Shell Oil's automotive experts. First, depress the clutch or put your automatic transmission at neutral. Secondly, push the accelerator to the floor once and release to prime the engine and then hold the accelerator part way down. Thirdly, press the starter. Finally, as the engine catches, hold the accelerator for a moderate idle. Never race a cold engine.

If your car has a hand choke, pull the choke out all the way, start the engine and then push the choke back far enough so that the engine idles smoothly.

As further [illegible] against slow starts, keep your battery as near full-charge as possible since the major burden of turning over a cold engine falls on the battery. Also use the correct winter-grade oil and grease to minimize your starting difficulties. If your car is parked out of doors during winter's very changeable weather you can avoid wet wires by coating all exposed ignition connections with a reliable waterproofing solution.

Anticipate your car's winter ailments and you can stop singing those "Can't Get Started Blues".

Auction Crowd Buys "Blind Bargains"

WINNIPEG — The forgetfulness of many passengers provided a field day for bargain hunters here one Saturday, as unclaimed parcels, suitcases and other items from the Canadian National Railways baggage room were put on the auction block.

The goods, which had been held for more than a year while the C.N.R. tried to locate the owners, from any identification "clues" shown on the baggage, were sold in an effort to recover part of the storage and other charges. Neither sellers nor buyers knew what the 276 various pieces of luggage contained, which gave the auction sale something of the air of a treasure hunt.

The total cost to the Canadian public of dairy supports to March 31, 1955, amounted to 2.9 cents per person a year, according to the Dairy Farmers of Canada. The actual loss on butter support operations since 1949 to March last was $5 million. —Budget

DEFEAT GAS KINGS, RANGERS AND HORNETS

Tigers Win 3 In Row

Elmer Kreller and his Vermilion Tigers racked up their third straight victory within five days on Wednesday night when playing on their own pond with the league-leading St. Paul Hornets as their opposition. The final score was 6 to 5. The game was lightning fast and very clean. After the first period only one penalty was handed out. Dutchy Van Deelan, who up to Monday night was a player with the Vegreville Rangers, made his first appearance as a regular referee for the league. He handed out six penalties in the opening period and the boys realized that here was an official who knew his business with the result — an exciting crowd-pleasing game.

THREE IN A ROW

This made the third win for the Tigers in as many games. At Viking last Saturday they took a hotly-contested 4-3 overtime decision from the Gas Kings, much to the sorrow of the rabid Viking fans. The Tigers switched their Monday night's game to Vegreville ice and scored a convincing win over the fast-skating Rangers 6 goals to 2. Then on their home ice Wednesday, although the score was close the Tigers were out in front for the last two periods.

Playing coach Elmer Kreller turned in an outstanding game and notched three goals, thereby scoring the hat trick and winning one of Ernie Clendenning's new Stetson hats. It was a great performance by the veteran player. Nick Hryciw was outstanding for the Hornets and scored four of his team's five goals.

George Washington has returned to his old team and is playing steady goal for the Tigers while their new man, Ron Phillips is fitting in nicely with his former playmate Andy Redford.

By reason of their run of victories the Tigers have jumped right out of the cellar and are now well up in the league standing. Consistent performances like last night will see the Tigers right in there come play-off time.

TIGERS OPEN SCORING

It only took one minute and two seconds for the Tigers to begin scoring, Frankie Ewing from Bill Schmidt. At 2:25 Richard evened the count assisted by Dion and Roberts and then the Hornets went ahead less than two minutes later with Hryciw opening his four-goal performance. This boy incidentally who hails from Two Hills, is a real hockey player. Elmer Kreller brought joy to the home town fans when he evened the count at 7.20 but just four minutes later Hryciw scored again, another unassisted effort. Kreller tied it up at three-all at 16.20 when he blasted a bullet shot into the Hornets' hive. The period ended 3 to 3 after plenty of fast action, six goals and six penalties.

Two goals scored within three seconds of each other at 6.03 and 6.06, Kreller unassisted, Schmidt from Brian Ford, made things rosy for the Bengals but Nick Hryciw came through again to put the Hornets within stinging distance when he converted Pundick's pass. The period ended 5-4 with only one lone penalty handed out.

Worthy of note in this period was that two Vermilion goals and one Hornet counter were all scored within 27 seconds.

The last period was waged on even terms as far as goals were concerned but the visitors put on continuous pressure in an attempt to tie it up. At 7.35 home town faithfuls breathed easier when Bill Schmidt scored his second goal of the night and made it 6-4. Bill gathered in two goals and an assist on the evening's play. It wasn't until 17 minutes had been played that St. Paul came up with a goal and then it was of the lucky variety, the only real break of the game. Hryciw fired one along the ice which was missing the goal until it hit Bill Williams' skate and deflected passed Washington in the Tiger net. This ended the scoring at 6 to 5.

Mannville Couple Leave To Make Their Home In Red Deer

MANNVILLE — In appreciation of her work as church organist during her stay in Mannville, the choir and W. A. of McQueen United church honored Mrs. Elliott at a tea on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Holter. A gift was presented to Mrs. Elliott as a token of appreciation from the W. A.

Mr and Mrs. Elliott left on Saturday to make their home at Red Deer. They will both be missed in the community, as they were both active in church and community affairs and were members of the Masons and Eastern Star. The very best wishes go with them from the town and district.

Mrs. Elliott was presented with an Eastern Star pin at the regular meeting on Thursday last.

Clandonald Girl Is Carnival Queen

MISS MARY MAYOWSKY

Miss Mary Mayowsky of Clandonald was crowned Queen at the close of a two-day carnival held recently at Lavoy. The U.C.W.L. and the Lavoy Greek Catholic church sponsored the carnival which was a great success. Mayor Alec Dowhey of Lavoy officiated at the Crowning of the Queen.

Canadian Club Meeting Cancelled

The Canadian Club meeting which was scheduled for last Friday, Jan. 6th, had to be cancelled with very little advance notice.

Due to the snowbound condition of the roads, the speaker for the occasion, Dr John Convey, was unable to get to Vermilion. He was in North Battleford on Friday and had planned to come to Vermilion by the bus arriving at 6 Friday evening.

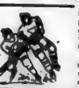
He spent about an hour sitting in the bus at North Battleford expecting to leave at any moment only to be told finally that the bus would not be able to get through that [illegible]

He phoned Vermilion to let the Canadian Club here know that he would be unable to be present that evening and that other commitments necessitated him taking the train through to Edmonton.

A further disappointment for Dr Convey was the cancellation of his planned visit with relations in the Clandonald area.

The Vermilion Canadian club executive are making plans to invite a speaker to come here in the near future and when such arrangements have been completed the members will be informed.

Hockey Chit-Chat



By GERRY MARSHALL

With the addition of three players the Vermilion Tigers have pulled into a three-way tie for fourth spot in the E. A. H. L.

The return of Les Williams, and George Washington and the addition of Ron Phillips have made a world of difference in the Tiger camp.

Washington and Williams provide the defensive strength and Phillips could be the sparkplug the Tigers needed up front. Maybe a few of you will remember Phillips who played with Lloydminster before going to Scotland to play with the Edinborough Royals. Ron is a rugged competitor and has already made his presence felt as he scored the second Tiger goal in the Viking victory.

Over the week end Tigers played steady, fast hockey to upset Viking 4 to 3 in overtime and trounce Vegreville 6-2 in regulation time.

In edging Viking, the Tigers avenged an earlier loss and racked up their first win of the season. A goal by Bill Williams at 19.32 of the third period tied the score at 3-3 and forced the overtime session. Midway through the extra period Andy Redford took a drop pass from Les Williams and went in close before scoring on a low hard shot to wrap up the game.

Being very rough and rugged the game was a typical Vermil-Viking affair. A steady parade of players travelled between the ice and the penalty box in the hectic third period which almost developed into a regular Donnybrook. Players and fans both were fighting and it took the R. C. M. P. as well as the referee to restore order.

Monday night in Veg the resurgent Tigers exploded for four goals in the second period to trounce the League Champions 6-2. Backed by the stellar goaltending of George Washington and a terrific game by the entire club the locals handled the Rangers easily in their own backyard.

Frankie Ewing returned to the goal-scoring limelight by notching two goals and assisting on two others. Maybe Frankie has shaken the hex which has had him in the slump all season.

Andy Redford scored a pretty goal at Veg. as he flashed the speed which carried him into some of the better leagues in western Canada. While killing off a penalty he took a pass from Ewing and flew in on the left wing to blaze a hot one into the far corner of the net. The goal was Andy's third of the season as he has blinked the light once in each of the last three games.

Bill Williams and Bill Schmidt continue to play their terrific hockey and the two rookies on the team, Bryan Ford and Jerry Grant are starting to find themselves. Jerry scored his first goal in senior company Monday night while Bryan was knocking on the door several times.

At their present clip the Tigers could conceivably be breathing down the leaders necks before too long and should be around come playoff time.

Zone Play-Offs Are Planned By Nor. Alta. Curling Assoc.

The play-offs for Zone 8 of the Northern Alberta Curling Association will be held in the Vermilion curling rink on Friday and Saturday, Jan. 20 and 21. The first draws will commence at 8 a.m. daily.

The entry fee is $8.00 per rink and all entries should be submitted to L. E. Croft at Kitscoty by Jan. 18.

The double knock-out as suggested by the Alberta Curling Association will be used for the elimination of rinks. The winning rink will go on to curl in the play-offs for the Northern Alberta championship.

A charge of 50c is being made for spectators and everyone is a spectator who is not actually a member of a rink taking part in the eliminations.

Death of Mrs. William Dwyer

Mrs. Aileen Bessie Dwyer, beloved wife of Mr. William Dwyer, passed away at the Vermilion hospital on Wednesday, January 11th following a lengthy illness. She was 43 years of age.

Funeral services will be held at the First United church, Vermilion on Saturday afternoon, January 14 at 2 o'clock. Interment will take place in the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. C. W. MacKay will officiate.

Mrs Dwyer is survived by her husband, two sons Ronnie and Eddie of Vermilion, and one daughter, Edith, of Edmonton; one step-daughter Mrs. R. D. McKenzie of Vegreville, and two stepsons, William Dwyer of Nipigon, Ont. and Jack of Edmonton. Surviving also are her father, Mr. J. McN Donnelly, Edmonton, and five brothers, Claude and George Donnelly, Lloydminster; Clifford, Toronto; Lloyd, Edmonton; Laverne in California; and two sisters, Mrs. J. Borton and Mrs. J. Wilse, both of Edmonton.

Moyers are in charge of funeral arrangements.

Inspect New School At Dawson Creek

D. C. McGrath, vice-chairman of the Vermilion school division, and S. D. Simonson, school superintendent, were in Dawson Creek, B.C. on Tuesday of this week looking over new features in a school recently erected there. They made the trip from Edmonton by plane and were accompanied from Grand Prairie by the school division architect, Pat Campbell Hope who was already in the north. The inspection was made with a view to gathering all the latest ideas before the $750,000.00 school building program is commenced in this division.

High School Notes

The High school is just beginning its curling season and that seems to be the main interest at present. Houseleaders have organized the rinks. Service and Laurier have four rinks each and Carman has 3. Curling draws will be from four to six o'clock on Mondays and Thursdays.

In the first games played Monday Service came up with three wins and Carman and Laurier with one win each.

Vermilion High is entering a rink in the Taylor-Pearson High school curling championship playdowns and all boys aspiring to make this quartet are now practising under the watchful eye of Mr. Dowling. The playoffs in this zone will be held on Jan 21st at Kitscoty.

Four generations of the Sharek family recently gathered at the home of the great grandmother, Mrs. John Sharek at Lindbergh, Alberta. The happy group is shown in the above picture. Little Iris [illegible] is shown sitting on the lap of her great grandmother Mrs. John Sharek. Standing at the back on the left is Mrs Harry Glovitski of Clandonald who is the grandmother, and on the right is Mrs. [illegible] the mother of Iris.

ANNUAL WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICES JANUARY 16 to 19

January 16th to 19th will feature the annual Week of Prayer services conducted by the members of the Vermilion Ministerial Association. Combined congregations and all interested friends will meet in one of the churches each evening Monday through Thursday at 8 p.m.

The theme of the Week of Prayer observance will be that chosen by the Canadian Council of Churches, namely, "The Evangel is Christ". It is hoped that this timely series of services shall not only be well attended, but that it shall make a spiritual impact upon our town and community. Places and speakers are advertised elsewhere in this issue.

Salvation Army Has Busy December

The month of December was a very busy one for the officers and soldiers of the Vermilion Salvation Army corps. The band kept very busy playing Xmas carols throughout the town. The Christmas concert which was presented by the Sunday school Youth group and Home league proved to be a time of blessing for everyone. The hall was filled to overflowing for this event.

On Christmas eve the Home League members distributed sunshine bags to the patients in the Vermilion hospital while the band played Christmas carols.

Christmas Sunday services were a time of inspiration and blessing to all.

MacDonalds Observe Golden Wedding

A highly esteemed couple, residents of the town of Clandonald, Mr. and Mrs. R. MacDonald celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Monday, Dec. 26th.

Married on December 23rd 1905 in Berwick, Scotland, they came to Canada and the Dewberry district in 1925 where they farmed until about 1946. For the past few years Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald have lived in retirement in Clandonald.

At the reception held at the home of their son Allan and daughter-in-law, also residents of Clandonald, a dainty buffet luncheon was served. During the course of the afternoon many friends called to pay their respects to this fine couple. Another son Ronald, now living in Edmonton, was present and during the afternoon took numerous pictures.

A married daughter Mrs. Chadwick residing at Terrace, B.C., was unable to be present as well as a son Roddy, a former resident of the Ethelwyn district and now residing at Vernon, B.C. Another son John lives in the Old Country.

There are fourteen grandchildren, three of which are the children of Mr and Mrs Allan MacDonald of Clandonald.

Their host of friends wish Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald many more years of happy married life.

Federal Member At Ottawa Sessions

James A. Smith, member of Parliament representing the Battle River-Camrose federal constituency, left for Ottawa last Friday and is presently sitting in the House of Commons. This will be the first complete session attended by Mr. Smith. He was elected in a by-election last June, and reached Ottawa in time for the last fourteen days of the session, as the sitting was prolonged to a much later date than has been customary since the war.

Mrs. Smith, son David and daughter Marilyn are remaining at their Vermilion home while Mr. Smith is in Ottawa.

Wins Stetson Hat From Clendenning's

Playing Coach Elmer Kreller rapped in three sparkling counters on Wednesday night when playing against the high flying St. Paul Hornets. He led his Tigers to a 6-5 victory. By performing the "hat trick" Elmer is the first Tiger player to win a free Stetson fedora offered by Mr. Ernie Clendenning of Clendenning's Family Wear.

Clendenning's offer a free Stetson hat to every Tiger who scores three goals in one game. A dozen or more hats have been presented since the offer was made several years ago, and renewed each season.

Landonville district is still blown in. School has been kept open but only four or five pupils have been able to get there.

Active and Successful Year Report At Alliance Chapel Annual Meeting

Annual meeting of the Alliance Chapel, Vermilion, was held in the Chapel Monday night, January 9.

Reports were made by the Chapel auditors showing finances to be in good condition. Total receipts from all sources during the year were $9,147. Of this amount $2,185 went to Foreign Missions, $441 to Home Missions, $725 to special speakers and missionaries, $525 remitted to the Canadian Bible Institute Regina, towards their building fund, $150 towards a "Pew Fund" for the local Chapel and $917 has been placed in the Building Fund. The balance of about $3,240 has been used in operating the local Chapel.

The report of the Women's Missionary Prayer Band indicated a good year and much was done towards providing bandages for missionaries, hampers for shut-ins and remembrances for the ill and otherwise indisposed.

The Sunday School reported four special events during the year. The annual summer picnic, Daily Vacation Bible School, the Western Canadian District Contest and the Christmas program. A total of nearly $200 was contributed towards various mission projects.

[illegible] highlight of the Alliance Youth Fellowship report was the fact that the local group won the cup for the Youth Group attaining the highest degree of perfection in the Western Canadian district.

The Pastor reported much blessing [illegible] the year in his various activities, hospital visitation, religious [illegible] in the school, assisting the Gospel Tabernacle, Mannville, as pastor, an Evangelistic campaign with Rev. Jos. Larson as pastor was held in November and was considered eminently successful. Two Missionary Conventions were held in 1955, for Foreign Missions with Alvin Martin from Israel as speaker, pledges being received for $2,619. The Home Missions campaign was conducted by the Pastor with pledges received of $563.

With Rev. J. T. McNair continuing as Pastor, the following are the officers of the Chapel for the year to come: E. W. G. Clendenning, Recording Secretary; L. Mayhew, Financial Secretary; Evelyn Hetherington, Treasurer; Supt. of the Sunday School, Albert Mix; Women's Missionary Prayer Band President, Mrs. O. LEAN MONTH FOR PEST—

Your prefer greatest enemy, the fritter fly, always has a frugal January. It doesn't really matter so far as the fritter fly's health is concerned because he was as well fed during December when every man's pocketed spending can smack, thrash, and bootlegging went to the limit in Hamburger and the fritter fly got fat.

With January and all its bills, bootlegging and planned spending have come into their own in full force and the fritter fly has a lean month. If this lean month was extended into a lean 12 months many year for the fritter fly he would come to exist and probably would go where they should — in to your pocket.

This December-January export pest is proof enough of the necessity of the fritter fly control methods. Bookkeeping and accurate records of where money is being spent can exterminate this dread pest

"MUST" FOR PARENTS

The attention of parents is once again directed to the Health Unit Notes on page 1, section 2 of the Standard. Read and remember the information contained in the Health Unit Notes.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of
MR. CHAS. HOLSTROM
who died January 12, 1955.

We miss thee father
From thy familiar place.
We do not hear thy footsteps now,
Nor see thy cheerful face

We miss thee at the table,
We find thy absence there,
And sorrow pictures our hearts
To see thy vacant chair

We miss thy words so kind and calm,
Thy cheerful laugh and smile,
We miss the fond look in your eyes,
We miss thee all the while

Again we hope to meet thee when life's short journey is over,
Oh yes, we hope to greet thee in Heaven's eternal shore.

SQUARE NOTES
From Circle 8

It just seems that Old Man Winter has been dead set against Circle Eight having a party during the past month.

We were very reluctant to call off last week's dance, but with the wind howling and roads apparently completely blocked, it seemed the sensible thing to do. Guess we'll just have to go all out for a birthday party this spring to make up for those last two cancellations.

Attention Square Dancers all over the district. Remember Doug McCall, the little fellow who proved so popular at our Jamboree last spring and again in Lloydminster this winter? Doug is guest calling here in Vermilion next Wednesday (repeat, Wednesday) night. Please note the change in nights. Time will also be calling in St. Paul on Thursday, and at Lloydminster on Friday.

Ed Murray from Edmonton will be in Manville, Orange Hall, this Friday.

Remember the night, Wednesday, January 18th, Legion Hall, at Vermilion with Doug McCall from Alta doing the calling.

Come on, Circle Eight, let's pack the old hall to the doors. See you there

Pioneville Locals

Mrs. Roy Lane entertained the Anglican Junior choir and friends at supper and a theatre party on Tuesday, Jan. 10th at the local theatre.

Jimmy Sargent had the misfortune to break his wrist in Bible Pit work at school last week.

Mrs. Fred Robbins and son Jim visited with Messrs. W. and E. Barnes during the Christmas holidays.

The W.A. to the Canadian Legion are holding a whist drive in the Legion hall on Friday, Jan. 20 at 8:30 p.m. The charge of 50 cents each will also include lunch.

Miss Rose Godolak of the staff of the local Bank of Commerce is on holidays and is spending time at her home in Myrnam.

It must pay to advertise or else a great many folks realized what an excellent show "The Best Years of Our Lives" would be. Monday evening the theatre was filled to capacity and will probably be the same on Tuesday and Wednesday. Many saw the show for the second time and enjoyed it just as much as the first time they saw it. We appreciate the opportunity of seeing these good shows in such an excellent theatre — the picture is seen just as well from the sides as it is from the centre seats.

NEWS from ISLAY

Happy Birthday Mrs. Mary Urquhart of Vermilion.

Most talked of subjects right now are the roads and the snow.

School was kept open here last Thursday and Friday though busses did not arrive. The weather seems to have hindered the ardour for basketball in many other centres, but the youngsters begin their schedule of games this week.

On Saturday there were nine teams and singles in town. One team jingled those nice chimes like in the early days. Dobbin is found

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Jan. 11th, 1940

Over thirty delegates representing the Board of Trade, the Rotary Board of Trade at Vegreville, Lavoy Mundare and Lloydminster held a joint conference Wednesday afternoon in the Elks hall to decide upon some action could be taken with regard to the condition of the highway between, Lloydminster, Vermilion, Vegreville and Edmonton, that is highway 16; on the road maps this bears the name distinction of the "Evergreen Highway".

The bodies represented have felt for some time that the road was steadily depreciating and that some action must be taken or else in a very short time it will not be much safer to travel on that the old time hazardous prairie trail.

Miss N E L Long and Mr S C Heckbert have been appointed as the representatives for the purpose of receiving applications for loans to be issued by the Dominion Government in connection with the forthcoming First War Loan.

Dewberry hall was the scene of various activities when on the morning of Jan. 3 the Young Peoples' Glee club played host to the visiting Greenshores and Summerberry Glee club members and their friends. A social evening of games and contests followed by a tasty lunch and a Leap Year novelty dance was enjoyed by one and all.

Mrs. Tom Slater and baby daughter Donna are in Edmonton this week visiting Tom who is receiving treatment for an injured back.

Vermilion citizens got a real kick out of the announcement from CJCA on Saturday morning that it was 14 below in Edmonton . . . In Vermilion at the same time it was eight above. This occasion was the exception as usually it is just the reverse.

FROM TOLLAND NEWS: The Tolland F.U.A. held their annual meeting on Saturday afternoon, Jan 6 when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, G. H. Portsmith; Vice-President, Duff McGrath; Secretary-Treasurer, F. S. Slocum. George Haines was elected as delegate to the convention in Edmonton.

The Memorial hall was a busy place last Monday afternoon where more than a dozen ladies gathered to give their time and service to Red Cross hospital work. Five electric sewing machines were humming at top speed while several pairs of scissors in capable hands cut out more than 136 yards of bias binding.

Clandonald Gobbles Up with the News

Some of the items in this week's column can scarcely be classed as news but we'll blame it on the weather and send them along anyway.

Last year if we remember correctly radio announcers seemed to be rather concerned over the fact that there was a grave danger of us having a white Christmas. This year issue never was any danger of such an unhappy state of affairs.

SNOW PLOW-ER IN DEMAND

Busiest and most sought after man around these nowadays is Ed. Barclay, operator of the M.D. snow plow. With the addition of several school bus routes to try and keep open the job is getting far too big for the equipment available. However, a rotary type plow is being built by Clarence Ivert, using a converted gravel truck. The results from the use of this machine will be watched with great interest. Many spots on the roads are now only sufficiently wide to allow one way traffic while many roads are impossible to open with the motor grader and plow.

RAILROADS PLOUGHED

Due to heavy conditions on the track the C.P.R. has had to send a snow plow through on several occasions during the past few weeks. Drifting is reported to be particularly bad on the section of track near Dewberry. This year is one of the very rare occasions during the almost thirty years since the line was constructed that snow has caused any serious trouble.

HOLIDAY VISITORS

Quite a number of visitors were seen during the holidays and doubtless there were many more whom we did not meet. Tom Forsyth, now living in Calgary, spent Christmas with his grandmother, Mrs. S. Fligate and his brother Johnny and family. Cliff Stockwell from Edmonton was here for Christmas, returning also for New Year's. Also from Edmonton was a Norman Cusack visiting with his parents and other members of the family.

NEWS OF THE WILLIAMSON FAMILY

Tom Williamson, recently returned from the far north, was another district visitor. When leaving here he planned to spend a few days at the coast. It may be of interest to old friends that his father Frank and brother Dave are now at Dixonville in the Peace River country where they have purchased a store.

Friends who knew John Convoy back in the days when he used to lend a hand with the haying, stooking and wood sawing during summer holidays were looking forward to hearing him speak, in Vermilion last Friday. Unfortunately, weather and road conditions made this impossible and we understand that he was unable to fulfill his engagement on account of the weather. Being delayed at North Battleford he had to be in Edmonton for another appointment, making it impossible to stop at Vermilion.

SHOW WED., JAN. 18th.

Next film board show will be as usual in the Orange hall on Wednesday, Jan. 18th. Attendance has been rather poor this year, and the show will regretfully have to be discontinued if not given better support. Only charge is a collection to help defray unavoidable expenses.

Art Rowntree from Cold Lake air base was home for Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rowntree. Art is doing well with his leathercraft which he took up as a hobby lately and has been doing instruction work in that line.

Mavis and Fritz Brockman and the two children were Christmas visitors at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brake. Later they left for Esther in southern Alberta where Fritz's parents reside. Owing to the blocked condition of the roads they had to travel about twice as far as usual to reach their destination.

Sympathy of their many friends in this district is extended to the Quick and Lovell families in their recent bereavements.

Vermilion Man Married In Calgary Ceremony

Southern United Church was the scene of the recent wedding rites when Miss Jean Dorothy Meding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meding of Calgary, became the bride of Vaughn Gerald Hutchinson son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutchinson of Vermilion. Rev Dr S.J. Parsons officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a strapless floor-length gown of nylon net and lace over satin featuring a lace bolero with sequin trimmed collar. Her short veil mazed from a headpiece of net sequins, and she carried a bouquet of red Sweetheart roses

Miss Marlene Meding was her sister's maid of honor, attired in a waltz-length gown of pink lace and net. She carried a bouquet of green carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Lastie Meding sister of the bride, and Miss Madeleine Edmonton cousin of the bride, wore similar dresses in shades of pink and blue respectively. They wore headbands of net and rosebuds.

The flowergirls were Donna-Rae Barnett, niece of the bridegroom, and Jacqueline Brown. They were dressed in frocks of yellow and blue respectively. They carried bouquets of maize and green, and pink and green, respectively

Mr. Ben Gross was best man. The guests were ushered by Mr. Hank Smith and Mr. Art Schneider. Mr. Victor Hardidge sang "O Perfect Love" and "Because"

There were more than one hundred guests at the reception held at Reyal Club House, where the bridal toast was proposed by Mr. Jim Sharp.

They received many useful and beautiful gifts for which they both fittingly thanked the guests and invited them to their home. Both of the groom laughingly said "don't all come at once".

They were out-of-town guests from as far as British Columbia and Saskatchewan, as well as many from various points in Alberta. Mr and Mrs Frank Hutchinson went from Vermilion to attend the wedding of their son.

Following a honeymoon trip to Edmonton the young couple will reside in Calgary

The groom is a carpenter for the Hawks Construction Co. in Calgary while the bride has been employed by one of the banks.

Their many friends wish them a long and very happily married life

BULLS ON LOAN

There are now 55 bulls out on loan in Vermilion [illegible] under the Canada Department of Agriculture Policy. About eight more groups are organizing now to get bulls next spring. All that is required is for five farmers with 20 or more cows to form a group and apply for a bull. See your D. A. for full information. January 20th is the dead line for making applications.

PRICE OF HOGS

We all know the price is down nearly to the floor for market hogs. Many farmers would quit raising pigs if it was not the only way to get grain onto the market. But we should remember that the more farmers who quit raising pigs, the less pigs and soon again there is a shortage and the price goes up. Also we should keep in mind that grade "A" pigs sell for 5 cents per pound more than grade "C". We have listings at this office of good grade "A" boars. It is the best investment a pig raiser can make.

WARBLE FLY [illegible]

Every cattle man knows the great losses suffered each year when his cattle get infested with warbles. In another six weeks warble grubs will be popping out of the backs of hundreds of cattle in this area to start another life cycle. As soon as the bumps on the cattle's backs have an air hole and a scab is the time to dose the cattle with warble fly [illegible]

SAVE THE PIGS

Be sure the sows get a protein-mineral-vitamin supplement at this time of year if you expect to get strong healthy pigs. Also pig raisers ought to know that it pays to give the sows potassium iodide in their feed daily. Get a circular from this office on stopping the losses when the sows do not have a chance to give birth to thrifty pigs.

CARBON MONOXIDE

A car load of people near Rocky Mountain House got gassed from gases from the exhaust. One of them died. Why do people take such chances? Let's not let it happen around here. Open the window wide enough to get fresh air into the car.

GRADING EGGS AND POULTRY

There is no place where the producer takes such a licking as in low grades of eggs and dressed poultry. The spread between grade "A" large eggs and "B" eggs is 7 cents which is nearly 25% less. A lot of eggs are graded low because of dirty shells. The spread between grade "A" dressed chickens and grade "B" is ten cents per pound. This is over a 20 per cent loss. Low grading dressed chickens is mostly due to a lack of finish.

SPORTSMEN'S 'SPIEL CANCELLED

Owing to lack of entries, the Vermilion Curling Club were forced to cancel their annual Sportsmen's bonspiel scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 11th to Friday, Jan. 13th.

Ladies' 'Spiel, Mannville

MANNVILLE — Old Man Winter could rightfully be blamed for many things during the past two months - cancellations of social events and meetings, school buses unable to make the rounds, etc. Another might easily be the curling. There are just four ladies' rinks, with several newcomers among them. The opening game was held on January 7 with lunch enjoyed at Linda's Coffee Bar after the game.

The officers for this season are as follows: President, Mrs. Ross Ewing; Vice-President, Mrs. F. McLaughlin; Secretary, Mrs. J. Canford; Treasurer, Mrs. Jas. McLuckie; Executive: Mrs. A. Reich and Mrs. R. Clark.

The date for the Mannville Ladies' Bonspiel has been set and will be held commencing January 20th.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather did moderate a wee bit and the thermometer got a few degrees above. Another storm, snow and wind on Dec. 27, blocked all roads but we have wonderful service and the roads were opened in a short time.

Our fourth blizzard of the winter on the evening of Jan. 4 plugged the roads again. We hope all arrived home safely from the final square dance lessons. Roads are being opened now. Idelore Nelson did his part on the bus route to the little church. The large bulldozer is opening the heavy parts on the road allowances where traffic had been going through the fields.

Some families coming and leaving the district for Christmas were:

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Armstrong and son Albert motored to Lloydminster to spend Christmas with their daughter Myrtle and Norman Anderson and family.

Last October son Gary Anderson entered school in the city, previously he had been going to school in Saskatoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Greaves and family, Brenda and Brian from the city spent the holidays at the latter's home, the Baldock's.

Mr and Mrs. Ronnie Porayko and daughter Adele from Royal Park spent Xmas with the latter's brother Jimmy and Verna Armstrong and family.

At the McPhee home were Mr. and Mrs. John David and son Keith from town, Betty and Tom David from the city and brothers Norman and Lorne from Pelican Lake.

Mr and Mrs Idelore Nelson, sons Leslie, Vernon and Lee and daughter Anna from town motored to Ferguson Flats to spend the day with the latter's parents, the Ockermans. Brother Lloyd and Mary were home from Prince George, and sister Lily Howard and Beverly from Fort Saskatchewan. The family were all home.

Aunt Stella Mayers spent the day at Wainwright with Isobel and Jimmy Ronaghan and family along with other relatives. Spent New Year's at Johnny Nelson's home and visited relatives in the district. Got snow bound at the Omness home but made good use of the time making quilts. She went back to town on Monday the 9th to the home of her sister Mabel.

Mr McBride has been home from the hospital since before Xmas and is doing very well. He has Mrs Margaret Smith caring for him and looking after the house.

Mr Edwards has rented a suite at the Osbaldeston home for the winter and is very comfortable there. He is getting on very well and feeling much better.

Called at the Magistad's on our way home. They are all well except Ed, and he was feeling better. Georgetta is taking grade 12 in one year. Morley is very proud of the fact that he has shot three coyotes so far this winter.

It was nice to see Rev E. S. Reikie's picture in The Observer in connection with the dedication of the new Christian Education unit First United Church Dawson Creek, B.C. It was formally dedicated by Rev J. C. Gardiner of Edmonton at special services conducted by Rev Reikie. A section of the hall and congregation was also shown. Rev and Mrs. Reikie and family were well known on our mission field and in town.

Mr and Mrs Jimmy Armstrong and family have moved to Wainwright for the winter working for his cousin Jimmy Ronaghan in the oil hauling business.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs. Ray Stetson (nee Betty Cross) of Fort Saskatchewan on the birth of a son (over 10 pounds) on Jan. 2.

Congratulations also to Mr and Mrs Paul Whelan (nee Orlene Omness) on the birth of a son, Michael Orley, 8 lbs., 4 oz. on Dec. 19th, at St. Avold Moselle, France.

On Jan. 23rd, Monday evening, roads permissable, there will be a Wheat Pool show and speakers at [illegible] school.

Closing Thought: "To do something, however small, to make others happy, is the plain duty of every man."

Letters to the Editor

VERMILION, Alta., January 7th, 1956.

Dear Editor—

Just in case there are still people who blame the farmers for high prices; in case there are those deny that the "squeeze" comes on the farmers first, may I submit the following:

Today, Jan. 7, Grade "A" large eggs are offered for sale in Vermilion at 63c. Paying price to me, the farmer, is 29c. Yet I pay the same as I always have for feed, electricity and equipment.

If someone is getting rich at the consumer's expense, it is certainly not this farmer.

"DISGUSTED."

THAT POST OFFICE "STEP"

Editor, Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion.
Dear Sir,—

For years there has been talk of a new post office to serve Vermilion and district and how we need one!

Until the time arrives when the powers that be see fit to give us a public building commensurate with the services rendered, could not something be done to improve the convenience and safety of the present entrance? This is without a doubt the most awkward and positively dangerous entrance ever dreamed up for any kind of a public building but more so when at certain times there is a crush of people surging in and out. It is quite a wonder that someone, especially older folks, haven't met with serious accidents there, although several have fallen.

The problem could easily be overcome by sinking the floor in the vestibule to the level of the first outside step, and adding the necessary steps inside the vestibule where the two steps are now. This will allow for a single step, wider and less dangerous, on the outside, and bring the other needed steps inside the building and out of the weather.

Erected as a bank the present building falls far short of serving as a convenient post office, but at least the dangerous aspects of the entrance can be removed and made much more convenient, something which would be greatly appreciated by older folk.

No doubt there is a postal building inspector in Edmonton, and the local postmaster, town council and Board of Trade should invite him here and point out the shortcomings of this entrance, possibly for the hundredth time, and respectfully beg that such improvements be effected immediately before some unfortunate old person suffers a fall there and breaks a hip.

Hoping you will find room in your paper for this long standing complaint,

Yours truly,
A SEPTUAGENARIAN
